PIONEER NOTES CON'T

WAC Gymnast of the Week

Sophomore Melodie Pulgarin Linero was named the Western Athletic Conference Event Specialist of the Week on Jan. 17. This is the second consecutive week the Pioneers have claimed this award. Pulgarin Linero won the award for her career-high 9.900 on Vault at Nebraska last weekend. A week ago, Sakai-Hart and Moriah Martin earned the WAC Gymnast of the Week and the WAC Event Specialist of the Week, respectively.

Ahead of Their Time

DU's freshmen and sophomores have combined for 29 of the Pioneers 48 routines so far this season. Pulgarin Linero had a career night last Friday at Nebraska, setting highs on Vault (9.900), on Beam (9.850) and All-Around (39.250). Martin continued her early-season success on Vault, following up her 9.900 at Georgia with a 9.875 at Nebraska.

Eye on the Polls

The Crimson and Gold head to Missouri this Friday ranked No. 16 in the nation. Missouri, who was not ranked in the preseason, moved up to No. 22. The rankings are based off the team average score from all the meets to date. Last week's opponent, Nebraska moved from sixth to the top spot in the nation. Georgia moved from ninth to sixth in the poll.

Scouting the Tigers

The Tigers hosted Iowa State in the first meet of the season, edging the Cyclones 192.6775-192.600. Last week, the Tigers won at Southern Utah by a count of 195.525-193.300, earning this week's No. 22 ranking with an average of 194.100. In 2011, the Tigers finished sixth at the NCAA Regionals, after tallying an RQS of 194.630. Missouri returns eight letterwinners, including senior Mary Burke who won the Big 12 All-Around title last year, and was named Big 12 Gymnast of the Week four times. Head coach Rob Drass is in his 13th season at the helm for Missouri.

Last Time Out: Nebraska

DU improved on all four events in Lincoln, Neb., last Friday. For the second consecutive week, Mercer led the Pioneers on Bars with a 9.850.
