THE COACHES

In his 23rd season as head coach at Missouri Southern, Robert Corn has guided the Lions to 18 Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association Postseason Tournament berths (13 straight) and two trips to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The 1999-00 Division II Bulletin National Coach of the Year, he holds a career record of 353-275 (.559) at Southern, and is the winningest head coach in Lions basketball history. A 1978 graduate of Southern, he has led Southern to seven 20-win seasons. His 1999-2000 team went 30-3 and advanced to the NCAA-II Elite Eight semifinals. Corn is fifth on the all-time MIAA wins list and third among active MIAA coaches. He is a three-time MIAA Coach of the Year winner, including a unanimous selection this season.

Frank Haith is in his first year at Missouri after serving as head coach at the University of Miami. A verteran of 25 years of coaching, Haith spent seven years at Miami as the head coach, compiling a 129-101 career mark. He has also had stops at UNC-Wilmington, Wake Forrest, Texas A&M, Penn State and Elon. In his time at Miami, the Canes made four NIT Tournaments and one NCAA Tournament.

2011-12 STARTING FIVES

HEAD COACH ROBERT CORN

In his 23rd season as head coach at Missouri Southern, Robert Corn has guided the Lions to 18 Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association Postseason Tournament berths, including the last 13 years in a row, and two trips to the NCAA Division II Tournament.

The 2010-11 Lions proved to be one of the best teams Corn has coached at Southern. It featured the MIAA's Player and Defender of the Year in Skyler Bowlin, the league's Freshman of the Year (third in four seasons) in Marquis Addison, as well as first-team All-MIAA pick Jason Adams and third-team All-MIAA pick Keane Thomann. Those Lions went 26-5 and set a new MIAA single-season win mark with 19 en route to the school's second MIAA Title. The Lions went on to make it to the championship game of the MIAA Tournament in Kansas City, and the round of 32 in the NCAA Tournament after Southern earned the No. 2 seed in the South Central Region Tournament at Central Oklahoma. Southern finished the season ranked 9th in Division II.

Also named 1999-00 MIAA and NABC-Oldsmobile South Central Region Coach of the Year, Corn is the only head men's basketball coach Missouri Southern has known since joining the MIAA in 1989-90. He led his 1999-2000 Lions to their first MIAA regular season championship and also led Southern to its first NCAA Division II South Central Regional championship, and its inaugural trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight.

Corn was hired at Southern in March of 1989 and thus returned to his alma mater as the Lions' fifth head coach.

After his first two Southern teams went 12-15 and 11-17, respectively, Corn's next two squads posted back-to-back 20-win campaigns for only the second time in school history, finishing 21-8 in 1991-92 and 21-10 in 1992-93.

Corn returned to his alma mater following 10 years as an assistant under one of the game's most respected coaches, Gene Bartow, at the University of Alabama-Birmingham. Corn went to UAB as a graduate assistant in 1979, just one year after Bartow had been hired to start the Blazers' basketball program, and was later promoted to full-time assistant in 1981.

During his stint there, Corn helped UAB to a 217-110 record, two Sun Belt Conference titles, four league postseason tournament crowns and nine NCAA or NIT trips.

A native of Benton, Ill., where he was twice a special mention prep all-state performer, Corn played basketball for two seasons at Memphis State University (now the University of Memphis), including one year under Bartow, before transferring to Missouri Southern. As a senior, he was co-captain of the 1977-78 squad that went 27-9 to capture both Central States Intercollegiate Conference and NAIA District 16 crowns and advance to the quarterfinals of the NAIA Tournament. In 2006, Coach Corn was inducted into the Illinois Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame.

He is married to the former Cindy Little of Muscle Shoals, Ala. They have two sons, Rob and Scott Michael.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Ronnie Ressel

Ronnie Ressel is entering his tenth season as assistant coach of the Missouri Southern Lions. A 1992 graduate of Missouri Southern, he returned to his alma mater for the 2002-03 campaign after spending ten years at Rend Lake College in Ina, Ill.

Ressel was elevated to the position of Associate Head Coach in 2010-11 and his worth has been evident with his help in development of the guards and overall program at Southern. Skyler Bowlin was four times named to the MIAA's All-Defensive team and was a two-time MIAA Defender of the Year, as well as last year's MIAA Player of the Year. In nine years with the Lions, Ressel has helped the team to an 148-115 record, including eight-straight appearances in the MIAA Postseason Tournament. The Lions played in the conference tournament title game in 2005. At Rend Lake College, Ressel produced a record of 118-92 and was named Great Rivers Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1996. A year later, Ressel led Rend Lake to a GRAC co-championship.

Ressel enjoyed his share of success throughout his playing and coaching careers. A two-year letterman at Missouri Southern, he averaged 6.7 points, 2.5 rebounds and 4.3 assists per game. He led the Lions in assists in both the 1989-90 and 1990-91 seasons and was awarded the Don Gross Leadership Award following his senior campaign.

He and his wife, Pamela, have a son, Kristopher.

Jeff Boschee

On May 14, 2010, Former All-Big 12 performer at the University of Kansas and most recently the head boys basketball coach at the Barstow School in Kansas City, Jeff Boschee, was named as an assistant coach at Missouri Southern State University. He is in his second season at MSSU and works primarily with the guards.

Under Boschee's tutelage, former Lion Skyler Bowlin was the MIAA's Player and Defender of the Year in 2011. He was a first-team All-MIAA, All-Region and All-American selection, being named to three different All-America teams. He was also the Region Player of the Year and a finalist for the National Player of the Year. Bowlin signed a professional contract to play basketball in the German Pro League after completing his eligibility.

Boschee had spent the past three seasons at Barstow where this past year his team went 22-4. He has had multiple players named All-Conference and All-District and helped guide two of his players to college scholarships this past season.

He was the Big 12 Freshman of the Year in 1999-2000 and was a third team All-Big 12 pick his senior season. He helped lead the Jayhawks to a Final Four appearance in 2002 and until two seasons ago, held the conference record for three pointers made in a career with 338. He holds the Kansas record for three's made in a career and is second all-time in games started.

After graduating from KU with a Bachelors degree in Sports Management, Boschee played professionally in the USBL, ABA and Europe.

He and his wife, the former Jamie Simpson, have a daughter, Mary Rose.

A look at the teams ...

The Lions come into the season ranked fourth nationally by the Division II Bulletin and seventh by Sporting News in each publication's preseason Division Basketball Poll. Senior guard Jason Adams was named a preseason All-American by both publications and Keane Thomann picked up preseason All-American honors by the Division II Bulletin. Southern was recently just picked by both the coaches and the media of the MIAA to repeat as league champions in the preseason polls.

Southern was 26-5 a season ago and won its second MIAA regular-season title, while setting an MIAA record for most conference wins in a season with 19. The Lions advanced the the NCAA Division II round of 32, eventually falling to Elite Eight participant Midwestern State. MSSU swept the MIAA yearly awards as Skyler Bowlin earned Player and Defender of the Year, while Marquis Addison was Freshman of the Year and coach Robert Corn was the MIAA Coach of the Year. The Lions return four starters and six players from that team a year ago. Back is a first-team All-MIAA selection in Jason Adams, as well as third-team All-MIAA pick Keane Thomann and league Freshman of the Year Addison. The Lions also return Jordan Talbert who started most of the season, as well as key reserves and seniors in TJ Williams and Patrick Hester.

Southern brought in an excellent recruiting class that includes Division I transfer Christian Salecich from Saint Louis, as well as Northern Michigan transfer Matt Everson. The Lions also bring in one junior college transfer in Mike Thompson, as well as four freshmen (Levelt Francois, Greg Renfroe, Stephen Atkinson and Morgan Smith). Joplin native and Lincoln University transfer Derek Stokes will also be a part of the team this season, but will sit out the 2011-12 year due to MIAA transfer regulations.

MISSOURI TIGERS (0-0)

The University of Missouri is coming off of a 23-11 season that saw them finish 8-8 in the Big 12 and advance to the NCAA Tournament, falling in the first round to Cincinnati.

The Tigers return all five starters from a season ago in Marcus Denman, Laurence Boweres, Ricardo Ratliffe, Michael Dixon and Kim English. Boweres, however, suffered a season-ending knee injury in the preseason and will not play this season. Mizzou returns nine of its 12 players from last year's squad, Phill and Matt Pressey, as well as Steve Moore and Jarrett Sutton also return for the Tigers.

Missouri brings in one new freshman as Tony Lester (Charlotte, NC) will add depth to the backcourt. Earnest Ross, a transfer from Auburn, as well as Keion Bell, a transfer from Pepperdine will immediately step in for the Tigers, while Columbia (NY) transfer Danny Feldmann is also new to the mix. Redshirt freshman Kadeem Green is also new to the mix after sitting out last season.

The Tigers were picked fourth in the Big 12 preseason coaches poll and are ranked 25th in the preseason Division I poll. Denmon was a preseason All-Big 12 pick.

POLLIN'

Missouri Southern is ranked fourth in the Division II Bulletin preseason Division II Top 25, while the Sporting News has ranked the Lions seventh in Division II.

POLLIN' AGAIN

The Lions were picked to repeat as MIAA Champs in both the media and coaches polls that were released by the league office on Oct. 26. The Lions received seven first-place votes in the coaches poll, while they picked up 11 first place nods from the media.

ALL-AMERICA

Jason Adams has been named a preseason All-American by both the Division II Bulletin and the Sporting News, while Keane Thomann was a preseason pick by the Division II Bulletin.

RECORDS WATCH

Jason Adams is sitting in a good spot to make his name known as one of the best to ever wear a Southern uniform. He is sitting in sixth place all-time with 1,425 career points. He needs just 96 points to pass Chris Tucker and move into fifth place overall.

RECORDS WATCH 2

Jason Adams is known for his dunking ability, but he is also one of the best three-point shooters in Southern history. He has 153 career treys and needs just 26 to pass Keith Allen for second all-time and is 71 behind Skyler Bowlin for tops in the category.

DOUBLE-FIGURE MADNESS

Jason Adams had scored in double-figures in 55-consecutive games dating back to the second game of the 2009-10 season, before having that streak stopped in the game with Fort Hays in 2010-11. He has scored in double-figures in 69-84 games he's played in at Southern

350 WINS

With the win over Northwest last season, Missouri Southern head coach Robert Corn earned his 350th career win, all at Missouri Southern.

LAST TIME VS. MIZZOU

Missouri Southern last played Mizzou in the 2008-09 season and lost an exhibition in Columbia, 87-58. It was the freshman season for Jason Adams, Pat Hester and Keane Thomann as Adams had eight points and two rebounds, Hester added three points and Thomann added four points and four rebounds.

FAMILIAR FACES...

Mizzou also had five players that were in their freshman season the last time the two teams squared off. Laurence Bowers (2 pts.), Marcus Denmon (10 points, 3 reb.), Kim English (11 pts.), Jarrett Sutton (0 pts.) and Steve Moore (1 pt.) all saw action in the game.

LIONS IN THE D-2 POLL

Missouri Southern moved down to No. 9 in the final coaches poll last season. Southern has been ranked 38 times in the program's history. The highest-ever ranking was 5th at the end of the 1999-2000 season and the most consecutive weeks Southern spent in the poll was nine straight weeks.

ONE STATE, ONE SPIRIT

The University of Missouri and Missouri Southern have teamed up for the One State, One Spirit Classic presented by Leggett & Platt. The event held October 30, 2011 will help to raise money for the Missouri Southern Foundation Tornado Relief Fund.

I-44 HOOPS CLASSIC

Missouri State and Missouri Southern will also be teaming up for tornado relief in the I-44 Hoops Classic, presented by Wendy's. The two schools will have a men's and women's double-header on November 5, 2011 and like the game with Missouri, all proceeds go to the Missouri Southern Tornado Relief Fund.

Game 1 • Nov. 15, 2010
@Lions 75, Northeastern St. 53

Joplin, Mo. -- Jason Adams scored 22 points and grabbed seven rebounds to help the Missouri Southern men's basketball team to a 75-53 season opening win over visiting Northeastern (Okla.) State tonight.

The 22 point margin was the largest in the series history for the Lions (1-0). Adams went 9-16 from the field to lead Southern, as Skyler Bowlin added 13 points and seven assists. Keane Thomann had 15 points and seven rebounds while Marquis Addison had 11 points and three steals.

Southern had two separate six point leads in the first half, the last coming at the 11:36 mark when a jumper from Addison made the score 21-15. NSU tied the score at 25 and took a three point lead after a three from Dee Willis with three minutes to go. The Lions, however, went on an 8-0 run to end the half up 35-30 going into the locker room.

Southern started its lead to 11 just over a minute into the second half on a fast-break dunk from Adams. The lead grew to 18 after a three from Adams made the score 54-36 with 12:23 to go in the game. The Lions' largest lead of the night was 26 (65-39) after a layup from Rich Borries.

The Lions forced 20 NSU turnovers and scored 27 points off of the miscues and Southern dominated the RiverHawks in the paint 44-22.

Game 3 • Nov. 20, 2010
@Lions 76, College of the Ozarks 62

Joplin, Mo. -- Skyler Bowlin tied a career high with 28 points on the night as the Missouri Southern basketball team defeated visiting College of the Ozarks 76-62 in the finale of the Freeman Sports Medicine/Chris Tucker Memorial Classic.

Southern (3-0) wins for just the second time in the last six games in the series history over the Bobcats (4-3). Bowlin led all scorers, going 10-17 from the field and 5-9 from the three point line with seven assists and five steals. Keane Thomann had a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds, while Jason Adams scored 14 and pulled down five boards.

The Bobcats were led in scoring with 19 points from Mike Wiebe as Spencer Blair scored 12.

The Lions opened up an 11-4 lead early on after the third-straight layup from Thomann with 16:19 left in the first half. The Bobcats, however, stormed back to get within one (23-22) after a pair of free throws from Nathan Peterson with 6:26 left and went ahead on a three from Blair to lead 25-22. The lead grew to five after a three from Mike Wiebe, before the Lions went on a 5-0 run to tie it up on a three from Bowlin with 3:23 left. Both teams traded buckets with the Lions going into the locker room up 34-33.

With the score tied at 36 early in the second half, Southern went on an 13-1 run to go up 12 (49-37) capped off by a jumper from Thomann in the paint. The lead was as high as 19 (74-55) after a layup from Adams with 4:20 left on the clock.

The Lions forced 18 Bobcats' turnovers and scored 20 points off of the miscues, while outscoring C of O 38-12 in the paint. Southern won the rebounding war, 45-31 and assisted on 22-30 made buckets.

Game 4 • Nov. 24, 2010
Lions 75, @ UAFS 70

Joplin, Mo. -- A four-point play and a pair of free throws late in the contest by Skyler Bowlin helped the Missouri Southern basketball team come away with a crucial regional road victory tonight, winning 75-70 at Arkansas-Fort Smith.

Southern (4-0) was led in scoring by Bowlin's 15 points as five different Lions scored in double figures. Bowlin went 5-12 from the field and 2-5 from long range while hitting 3-4 from the charity stripe. Kevin Hinsey had a career-high 14 points off the bench for Southern, while Keane Thomann scored 11 and brought down 10 boards. UAFS (3-2) was led in scoring by Djordje Stojanovic with 16 points as the center hit 4-7 from long-range.

The Lions led for most of the first half and took a 39-35 lead into the locker room at the break. Southern led by ten twice in the second half, the first after a three by Adams made the score 57-47 and the second time after a pair of freebies from Hinsey gave the Lions a 59-59 advantage with 12:17 to play.

UAFS tied the score twice and went ahead once after a three from Stojanovic, but back-to-back layups from Thomann and Bowlin made the Lions' lead four (71-67) with under a minute and half to play. A three from UAFS' Jonathon Sharpless with four seconds to play made the score 71-70, Southern, but clutch free-throws from Chris Baker and Bowlin down the stretch sealed the win.

Lions 91, @ Truman 74

Kirkville, Mo. -- The Missouri Southern men's basketball team outscored Truman 18-2 to start the second half and quickly opened up a 22 point lead, cruising to a 91-74 victory to open up MIAA play tonight at Truman State University.

Southern (5-0, 1-0 MIAA) had a career-high 34 points from Skyler Bowlin as he scored the most points by a Lion in a game since Eddin Santiago scored 37 in a 101-77 win at Truman State in 2002. Bowlin added five rebounds and six assists. Jason Adams scored 19, while Kevin Hinsey and Marquis Addison added 11 and 10 points, respectively. Addison had a career-high eight steals in the game. The eight steals is the third-most ever in a game at Southern.

Southern opened up a 15-5 lead at the 13:47 mark in the first half on one of Bowlin's four three pointers in the first half. Truman tied the game at 33 after a pair of free throws from Freeman with 2:38 left in the half, but a bucket from Adams gave the Lions a 35-33 lead and five points from Bowlin to end the half made the score 40-36 going into the locker room.

The second half, however, is where the Lions poured it on. The Lions outscored the Bulldogs 22-4 to open the half.

@ Lions 78, #12 Mules 61

Joplin, Mo. -- The Missouri Southern men's basketball team out scored 12th ranked Central Missouri 47-19 in the second half and erased a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Mules 78-61 in MIAA action.

Southern (6-0, 2-0 MIAA) was led by the trio of Skyler Bowlin, Jason Adams and Keane Thomann. Bowlin scored 21 and dished out four assists with four steals, while Adams scored 19 with four three's. Thomann went 7-13 from the field and scored 18 points, 16 of which came in the second half.

Southern went down 24-19 at the 9:30 mark of the first half and trailed 30-19 at the eight minute mark.

The Mules lead was 14 (47-33) after a free throw by Barkers with 16 minutes left, before the Lions' defense kicked into overdrive. Southern quickly turned a 14-point deficit into a one-point lead four minutes later as a three from Bowlin made the score 50-49, Lions.

After allowing Central Missouri to score 42 in the first half, the Lions' defense limited the Mules to just 19 points in the second half. Southern out scored the Mules 30-16 in the paint and forced 18 turnovers, scoring 20 points off of the miscues. The Lions had 11 steals and limited Central to just two second-chance points.

Game 7 • Dec. 8, 2010
@ Lions 85, MWSU 71

Joplin, Mo. - The Missouri Southern men's basketball team withstood every comeback chance the visiting Missouri Western Griffons could muster and defeated Western 85-71 tonight at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

Southern (7-0, 3-0 MIAA) moves to 3-0 in the MIAA for the first time since the 2007-08 season. Jason Adams led the Lions in scoring with 21 points and six assists as each of Southern's five starters scored in double-figures. Adams was 5-8 from long range, while Bowlin had 15 points, nine rebounds and seven assists. Keane Thomann had 13 points and seven boards, while Kevin Hinsey and Marquis Addison had 11 and 10 points, respectively.

The Lions led by as many as 10 in the first half after a jumper from Addison made the score 36-26 at the 2:47 mark. Western cut the Lions' lead to four (42-38) heading into the locker room. The Griffons cut the lead to just two (47-45) after a layup from TJ Johnson at the 16:39 mark, but never trailed from that point on. The Lions forced 19 turnovers and scored 24 points off of the miscues. On the flip side, the Lions turned the ball over a season-high 20 times, but Western could only score seven points off of the turnovers. Southern shot 52 percent from the field and 60 percent from long range.

@ Lions 89, Lincoln 61

Joplin, Mo. - The Missouri Southern men's basketball team scored the opening bucket and never trailed, defeating visiting Lincoln University 89-61 in front of more than 1,300 fans at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center Saturday.

Southern (8-0, 4-0 MIAA) remains undefeated and for the moment is tied with Southwest Baptist for first place in the MIAA at 4-0. The two teams will hook up a week from today in Bolivar.

Skyler Bowlin led all scorers with 15 points, while Jason Adams scored 14 and Keane Thomann added a double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Thomann scored on the Lions opening possession and Hinsey added a steal and a dunk to make the score 4-0. The first-half lead reached 20 on three different occasions, the last being after a layup from Hinsey made the score 41-21 with 2:45 left to play. The Lions would take a 43-26 lead into the locker room at the break.

The Lions forced 23 Lincoln turnovers and scored 26 points off of the miscues. Southern out scored Lincoln 48-28 in the paint and the Lions bench out scored the Blue Tigers 36-30.

Lions 98, @ Southwest Baptist 81

Bolivar, Mo. - Six-straight free-throws by Skyler Bowlin after three SBU technicals helped lift the 25th ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team over the Bearcats, 98-81 tonight in Bolivar.

Southern (9-0, 5-0 MIAA) remains undefeated and atop the MIAA all by themselves after the win, the first in the series over the Bearcats since 2006. It also marks the first time the men and women have swept at SBU since that same 2006 game as the Lions' women won 69-66 earlier in the night.

Southern also broke a school record tonight in field goal percentage as the Lions shot 82 percent in the second half and 72 percent overall.

SBU's lead would reach 36-23 at the 6:21 mark after a three from Zach Kliene, but the Lions stormed back and went on a 13-0 run over the next five minutes and a layup from Thomann with 47 seconds in the half tied the game at 36. A pair of three's from the Bearcats in the final 27 seconds, however, gave SBU a 42-36 lead at the half.

A layup by Koenig at the 6:53 mark of the second half gave the Bearcats a brief 70-69 lead, but Southern went ahead on the next trip down and would never trail from that point on.

Game 10 • Jan. 2, 2011
Pittsburg State 77, @ Lions 75

Joplin, Mo. -- The 19th ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team posed a late comeback today against visiting Pittsburg State University, but couldn't complete the task and fell 77-75 in front of more than 2,400 fans at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

Southern (9-1, 5-1 MIAA) loses for the first time this year and the first time at home since January 27 of last season against Central Missouri. The Lions were led in scoring by Jason Adams as the junior had a milestone night with 19 points, including going over 1,000 for his career at Southern.

Southern trailed 43-40 at the half, but the Lions went on a 7-2 run to start the second and led 47-45 after a free throw from Keane Thomann with 17:21 to go. Southern held one-point leads twice more in the second half, the last coming after a free-throw from Bowlin gave the Lions a 64-63 lead with 8:24 to go.

After trailing by as much as seven (73-66) late in the game, Southern fought back and had a chance to tie the game when Bowlin was fouled beyond the arc with 1.8 seconds left, trailing PSU, 77-74. The senior made the first, but missed his second. He intentionally missed the third free-throw and the Lions looked to have secured the ball with less than a second left on the clock. The officials reviewed the play and awarded the ball to the Lions with 0.3 seconds to play, but the tip-in by Adams was no good.

Lions 73, @ ESU 60

Emporia, Kan. -- The Missouri Southern men's basketball team dominated the final eight minutes of the game and overcame a slow start to win 73-60 at Emporia State tonight in White Auditorium.

The Lions were led offensively by Skyler Bowlin with 25 points on 4-8 from long range and 9-11 from the free-throw line. Jason Adams and Keane Thomann both threw down double-double's with Adams scoring 17 and pulling down 11 boards, while Thomann scored 16 with 10 rebounds.

The Hornets opened up an early 7-0 lead to start the game against the Lions, but a three from Adams and a jumper from Thomann cut the ESU lead to just two at the 15:27 mark. Southern got to within one (18-17) at the nine-minute mark after a basket from Patrick Hester, but the Hornets went on a 7-0 run before a pair of free-throws from Thomann stopped the run.

After trailing by as many as eight (40-32) in the second half, Southern fought back and went on a 16-4 run to lead 48-44 with 10:40 left, forcing an ESU timeout. A free-throw from ESU's Matt Boswell gave the Hornets a 49-48 lead with 8:52 left, but the Lions took the lead for good after a layup from Thomann gave Southern a 52-50 lead with 8:14 to go. The Lions' lead reached ten (67-57) after a pair of freebies from Bowlin with 2:24 to go and a dunk from Adams with 51 seconds left gave the Lions the 13-point win.

@ Lions 90, Washburn 73

Joplin, Mo. -- After trailing by as many as ten in the first half, the Missouri Southern men's basketball team pulled away and led by six at the half en route to a 90-73 win over visiting Washburn today in front of more than 1,600 fans at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

The Lions were led offensively by Skyler Bowlin as the senior scored 30 points on 6-10 from the field and a career-high 16-17 from the free-throw line. Marquis Addison had 17 points and seven steals, while Keane Thomann scored 12 and pulled down seven boards. Jaons Adams scored 11, while Patrick Hester added 10. Jordan Talbert pulled down six boards in the game.

Despite a hot start shooting from the field for the Ichabods, Southern went into the locker room with a 46-40 lead. The Lions got behind by as much as 10 points, 27-17, at the 10:17 mark before making a 15-1 run to take a five point lead, 33-28, at the 6:51 mark. Addison capped the run with a three-pointer and added a steal for the Lions.

Bowlin and Addison scored 13 and 11 points, respectively to lead the Lions in the first half.

Southern pulled ahead by ten twice in the second half, before a dunk from Talbert gave Southern a 17 point lead (71-54) with 9:12 left.

@ Lions 82, #5 FHSU 64

Joplin, Mo. -- The Missouri Southern men's basketball team used a 40-12 run over the final 13:27 of the game tonight and took out fifth ranked Fort Hays State, 82-64 at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

Southern (12-1, 8-1 MIAA) moves into first place by themselves with the win tonight. The Lions run in the second half also included a 22-0 run over a five minute stretch in the second half.

Southern was led offensively by Jason Adams with 25 points on the night. Kevin Hinsey had 15 points on 6-8 shooting off the bench tonight, while both Skyler Bowlin and Marquis Addison had ten points each. Bowlin added five steals, while TJ Williams dished out a career-high seven assists. Keane Thomann had a game-high ten rebounds.

The Lions led by ten (30-20) with 3:54 left in the first half, but Hays used a 12-2 run to tie the game tie the game at 32 with 16 seconds left. A pair of freebies from Bowlin gave the Lions a two-point halftime advantage.

Hays led by ten (52-42) at the 12:48 mark of the second half, before the Lions started their run. The next five minutes saw Southern utilize a 22-0 run to lead 64-52 with 7:42 left. The lead reached its peak (18) on the games final bucket, a layup from Bowlin.

Southern shot 44 percent from the field and 90 percent from the free throw line as Addison made all eight shots he took from the charity stripe, moving his streak of consecutive free-throws to 26. The Lions forced 20 turnovers, scoring 32 points off of the miscues. The Lions' bench out scored Hays, 25-8 and held the Tigers without a field goal for the final 4:01 of the game.

Lions 98, @ Neb.-Omaha 95

Omaha, Neb. -- Jason Adams scored 31 points and the Missouri Southern men's basketball team held off a late run by Nebraska-Omaha tonight, defeating the Mavericks on the road, 98-95 in Sapp Fieldhouse.

Southern (13-1, 9-1 MIAA) remains a game in front of Fort Hays in the MIAA standings as the Tigers held off Pittsburg State today. The 9-1 start to MIAA play is second only to the Lions' 16-1 start in 99-00 for the best in the program's history.

The Lions were led offensively by Adams' 31 points on 11-16 shooting from the field and 5-8 from long range. The junior nailed four three's in the first half and had five dunks on the night, as well as extended his double-figure scoring streak to 41 games. Marquis Addison scored 17 points on 7-11 shooting, while Skyler Bowlin and Patrick Hester both scored 11.

Both teams traded points and leads for most of the first half, before the Lions took a four-point lead (34-30) after a three pointer from Adams with just over seven minutes left. A layup from Bowlin pushed the Lions' lead to five at 49-45 with just under a minute to go in the half, before a three from Bullock cut the lead to just two at the half.

A three pointer from Albers with 16:10 left in the second half, tied the game for the 15th time, before Southern went on a quick 9-0 run and led 68-59 with 14:05 left to go in the game. That lead would disappear, however, as a jumper from Bullock gave the Mavs an 80-79 lead with 7:18 left. Southern would then go to work and went on a 13-2 run to take a ten point lead at 92-82 with 1:43 left. The Mavericks posted a late comeback and cut the lead to three with just eight seconds left but a last-second three wouldn't go.

Lions 91, @ Northwest Missouri 79

Maryville, Mo. -- Senior guard Skyler Bowlin tied the Missouri Southern career record for three-pointers made as the 22nd ranked Lions defeated Northwest Missouri 91-79 tonight in Bearcat Arena.

Southern (14-1, 10-1 MIAA) moves to 5-0 on the road in the MIAA this season (6-0 overall) and keeps its lead in the MIAA standings.

The Lions were led offensively by Jason Adams as the junior had a team-high 23 points and 13 rebounds, while dishing out five assists and extending his double-figure scoring streak to 42-consecutive games. Both Skyler Bowlin and Keane Thomann had 20 points, as Bowlin hit his 178th career three pointer, tying him with Keith Allen (89-93) for the Missouri Southern career lead. Thomann went 9-12 from the field, while Marquis Addison added 11 points.

The Lions opened up an 8-4 early lead after a bucket from Adams just four minutes into the game. The Bearcats, however, took a lead after a tip in from Arunas Simanavicius gave Northwest a one-point lead (9-8) with 12:56 left. The Bearcats lead again by one point after a layup from Cooper with 5:48 left, but that would be the last lead of the game for Northwest. The Lions took the lead the next trip down after a jumper from Bowlin and went into the locker room ahead by ten on Bowlin's record-tying three pointer.

A layup from Thomann with 14:27 left gave the Lions a 19 point advantage in the second half, but Northwest went on a 20-9 run over the next seven minutes to cut the Lions' lead to just six (68-62). A pair of free-throws from Bowlin with just under two minutes left, however, pushed the Lions' lead to 13 (84-71).

@ Lions 83, Truman 70

Joplin, Mo. - The 14th ranked Missouri Southern Lions erased an 11-point halftime deficit and out scored Truman State by 24 in the second half, while Skyler Bowlin broke the Southern career three-point record in an 83-70 win in the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

The Lions were led in scoring by Skyler Bowlin and Jason Adams with 17 points each, with Bowlin going 2-7 from three-point land and hitting his 180th three pointer, passing Keith Allen for first place overall in Southern history. He also moved into fifth place all-time in points at Southern, passing Matt Olson (95-99) with 1,405 in his career.

Truman led by as many as 14 twice in the first half, and eventually took an 11-point lead (38-27) into the locker room.

Southern came out on fire in the second half and in just over six minutes had the 11-point deficit erased and the game tied at 42 on a jumper from Thomann. The Lions picked up their first lead (54-52) with 9:32 left in the game after a layup from Kevin Hinsey.

The teams would trade points as a three from Alex Henderson of Truman tied the game at 63 with five minutes left. A three from Adams the next time down the court gave the Lions the lead for good.

@ Mules 75, Lions 65

Warrensburg, Mo. - The 11th ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team trailed at the half and couldn't overcome the deficit falling 75-65 at Central Missouri tonight.

Keane Thomann led the Lions in scoring with 17 points and five rebounds, while Marquis Addison and Jason Adams scored 11 and 10 points, respectively. Adams extended his double-digit scoring streak to 44-straight games, but Skyler Bowlin's streak ended tonight as the senior scored just six points.

The Lions scored the first five points of the game, but the Mules scored eight of the next ten points to lead 8-7 at the 15 minute mark of the first half. Southern took a one-point lead after a pair of free throws from Adams with 5:34 left in the half made the score 21-20. But a layup from Reggie Stallings the next trip down gave the Mules a lead they would not relinquish the rest of the half as the Lions went into the locker room down 34-30 at the half.

Central led by ten (54-44) at the 12 minute mark of the second half, but a layup from Bowlin with 7:49 left in the game made the score 58-54, Central. The lead for the Mules was ten again (67-57) after a three from Stallings with four minutes to go and that would be the final deficit.

Joplin, Mo. - The 11th ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team shot 65 percent from the field in the second half and 59 percent overall as the Lions took out Southwest Baptist 82-72 in front of more than 2,700 fans at the Leggett & Platt Athletic center in Joplin.

No. 11 Southern (16-2, 12-2 MIAA) takes possession of first place in the MIAA as Fort Hays lost earlier in the day at home to Northwest Missouri.

The Lions were led in scoring by Jason Adams with 30 points and eight rebounds while both Skyler Bowlin and Keane Thomann had 14. Kevin Hinsey scored ten points off the bench, going 5-5 from the field in 13 minutes of play.

SBU (9-10, 6-7 MIAA) was led in scoring with 17 points from Jacob French, while Stephen Cotten scored 13 and Zach Kliene scored 11.

Southern pushed its lead to nine points after a pair of free-throws from Adams made the score 47-38 with 16:37 left in the second half. The lead was 15 (64-59) after a layup from Adams with eight minutes left and a pair of freebies by Bowlin with 48 seconds to go gave the Lions the ten-point win.

#12 Lions 91, @ Lincoln 64

Jefferson City, Mo. - The 12th ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team opened up a 47-28 halftime lead and cruised to a 91-64 win tonight at Lincoln University in Jefferson City.

Southern (17-2, 13-2 MIAA) was led in scoring by Jason Adams with 22 points on 8-12 shooting from the field and 4-5 from the free-throw line. Keane Thomann scored 17, while pulling down eight rebounds and Marquis Addison chipped in with 12 points.

The Lions opened up a five point lead after a three from Adams made the score 11-6, four minutes in. A three from Bowlin with 14:36 left capped a 6-0 run and put the Lions up 17-6. Lincoln got within seven (21-14) after a free throw from Derek Stokes, but that would be as close as the Blue Tigers would get. The Lions ended the half on a 26-14 run and went into the locker room up 47-28.

After the Lions opened up a 20-point lead in the second half, (56-36) two three's from Lincoln cut the lead to 14 and forced a Southern timeout. The lead for the Lions moved back to 81-56 after a pair of free throws from Jordan Talbert with just over six minutes left. The lead would eventually balloon to 29 after a dunk by Talbert made the score 85-56 with 4:23 left.

#12 Lions 83, @ Western 62

St. Joseph, Mo. - The 12th ranked Missouri Southern Lions took a 19-point lead into the locker room at the half and cruised to a 21-point win, defeating Missouri Western 83-62 tonight in St. Joseph.

Southern (18-2, 14-2 MIAA) finishes the season-sweep against the Griffons and along with the women (who won earlier in the night) sweep Missouri Western for the first-time ever in St. Joseph.

Western (9-11, 7-8 MIAA) was led in scoring by 15 points from TJ Johnson, while DaJuan Harris and Lavonte Douglas had 11 points each.

The Lions opened up an 11-point lead less than four minutes in when a three from Addison made the lead 14-3. The lead was 14 (41-27) with 2:38 left in the first half, but five-straight points from Bowlin to end the half gave the Lions a 19-point cushion going into the break.

Southern came out and put the Griffons away in the second half, as the Lions scored the first 16 points to start the half and led 62-27 after a layup from Thomann gave them a 35-point lead with 14:42 left in the game.

The Lions out rebounded Western 44-22 and held a 42-30 advantage in the paint. Southern shot 53 percent from the field and had 20 assists on 34 made baskets.

#11 Lions 90, @ Pittsburg State 78

Pittsburg, Kan. - Skyler Bowlin scored 30 and the 11th ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team won on the road at Pittsburg State tonight, 90-78.

Southern, (18-2, 14-2 MIAA) who had clinched an MIAA Tournament berth with a loss by Emporia State last night at SBU, retains a one-game lead in the MIAA standings and earns the point in the Sonic Trophy Series standings as PSU can not catch the Lions in the standings.

The Lions were led in scoring by Bowlin's 30, as the senior went 6-11 from the field and went 14-16 from the free-throw line and 4-7 from long range. Keane Thomann scored 21 on 10-16 shooting, while Jason Adams scored 16 and Marquis Addison added ten.

Both teams traded baskets to start the game, before a three from Addison gave Southern a 10-7 lead at the first media timeout. The lead moved to 20-13 at the next media timeout, as a layup from TJ Williams gave the Lions a seven-point cushion. A bucket by Addison with ten seconds left made the score 37-29 at the half.

Southern opened up a ten-point lead (48-38) just a little over four minutes into the second half, forcing a Pitt State timeout and a bucket from Adams out of the timeout made the score 50-38. The Lions lead reached as high as 14.

@ Lions 92, Emporia State 75

Joplin, Mo. -- Skyler Bowlin tied a career high with eight three's and set a new career high with 12 assists as the 11th ranked Missouri Southern basketball team defeated Emporia State, 95-72 tonight at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

Bowlin scored 30 points on 9-15 shooting, including 8-13 from the three-point line and 4-4 from the charity stripe. He tied his own school record with eight three's in a game, while going over 200 in his career at Southern (now 201). Bowlin also went over 1,500 points in his career as he now has 1,512.

Jason Adams scored 21 as he dazzled the crowd with an array of dunks on the night. He went 8-14 from the field and 4-6 from the free-throw line, while pulling down nine rebounds. Keane Thomann had 20 points and six rebounds.

Southern jumped out to a 15-8 lead after a three from Bowlin as the senior hit his first five three pointers in a row. The lead was 14 after another three from Bowlin made the score 33-19 with 8:24 left. Another three from Bowlin, his sixth of the half, made the score 49-30 with just under two minutes left.

The Lions' lead was as high as 24 in the second half after another three from Bowlin made the score 68-44 with 15:35 to go.

@ Washburn 71, Lions 66

Topeka, Kan. -- Washburn's D'Andre Washington went 7-7 from the free-throw line down the stretch and the eighth ranked Missouri Southern Lions fell on the road, 71-66 at Washburn tonight.

Southern (20-3, 16-3 MIAA) was led in scoring by Keane Thomann as the junior big man had 20 points and five rebounds. Jason Adams scored 18 and pulled down six boards, while Skyler Bowlin scored 12 and dished out three assists.

The Lions opened up a 5-1 lead early and led by five (10-5), after a bucket from Adams at the 15:04 mark of the first half. Washburn took the lead (12-10) after a three pointer from Washington capped a 7-0 run by the Ichabods. Both teams traded baskets and neither team led by more than four down the stretch as a pair of free-throws by Adams tied the game at 35 going into the locker room.

Both teams continued to trade buckets in the second half before Washburn took a seven-point lead (52-45) at the 11:42 mark of the second half on a bucket from Alex North. The Lions would re-take the lead, however, at the four minute mark as a three from Patrick Hester gave Southern a 62-61 lead.

A three from Jadarren Mumpfield gave Washburn a 65-62 lead with 2:25 left and the Ichabods would not relinquish.

Lions 64, @ Fort Hays 63

Hays, Kan. -- The 8th ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team clinched at least a share of the 2011 MIAA Regular Season Title and will be the No. 1 seed at the upcoming MIAA Tournament, as the Lions took out 15th ranked Fort Hays, 64-63 today in Hays.

The Lions (21-3, 17-3 MIAA) win their second MIAA Regular Season Crown and first since the 1999-2000 season. It is the first time since the 1981 season the Lions have swept the season-series against the Tigers (21-4, 15-5 MIAA).

The Lions trailed by one going into the locker room (29-28) and trailed by as many as seven on four different occasions in the second half. The Hays' lead was three (59-56) after a layup by Smith with 4:22 left, but a bucket by Thomann cut the lead to one and a three by Bowlin with 3:23 left gave the Lions their first lead (61-59) of the second half.

A bucket by Bowlin with 2:21 left kept the Lions lead at three (63-60) and after a Hays free-throw cut the lead to two, a freebie from Adams pushed the Southern lead to 64-61 with just under a minute to go. Jones hit a jumper the next time down the court to cut the lead to one at 64-61, giving the Lions the ball with 42 seconds to go. Southern ran a play for Bowlin and the three wouldn't go, but a late heave from Jones was no-good and the Lions preserved the win.

@ Lions 92, UNO 78

Joplin, Mo. -- The eighth ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team won its second MIAA Regular Season Title tonight, the first since 1999-2000, as the Lions defeated Nebraska-Omaha, 92-78 in front of more than 2,200 fans in the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

Southern opened up a 17-10 lead just four and a half minutes into the game, forcing a UNO timeout. The lead was eight (28-20) after a three pointer from Bowlin with 9:27 left. The Lions pushed the lead to ten (36-26) after a free throw from Marquis Addison with 5:30 left. A three pointer from the Mavericks' Jeff Martin, however, cut the lead to five (44-39) at the half.

A layup from Bullock with 16:43 left in the second half cut the deficit to two at 49-47, but that's as close as the Mavs would get. The Lions' lead was 12 (68-56) just five minutes later after a fast break layup from Adams and was up to 14 (80-66) after another fast break bucket from Adams with 5:38 to go. The Southern lead reached its peak (17) after another bucket from Adams, but a three from Martin the next trip down the court made the final deficit 14.

The Lions shot 56 percent from the field and 45 percent from long range on the night, draining nine three's in the process. Southern forced 13 UNO turnovers, scoring 16 points off of the miscues.

@ Lions 83, Bearcats 64

Joplin, Mo. -- The eighth ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team led from start to finish and defeated visiting Northwest Missouri on senior night in front of more than 2,000 fans at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center today.

Southern (23-3, 19-3) also wins its 19th MIAA conference game and is the only team in conference history to win 19 games in one season.

The Lions were led in scoring by Keane Thomann who ties his career high with 22 points. Marquis Addison scored 16 points on 6-8 shooting from the field and a perfect 4-4 from the charity stripe. Jason Adams and Skyler Bowlin had 14 and 12 points, respectively.

The Lions opened up a ten point lead (27-17) after a pair of free-throws from Addison with 6:40 left in the first half. The lead was as high as 14, twice, the last coming after a layup from Jordan Talbert made the score 35-21 with 4:25 left in the half. Northwest scratched back, however, and ended the half on a 11-5 run to cut the halftime lead to just eight at 40-32.

Southern opened up a 19-point lead in the second half after a layup from Kevin Hinsey made the score 58-39 with just over 11 minutes left in the game. The lead was as high as 23, three times in the second half.

Lions 101, SBU 94

Kansas City, Mo. -- The eighth ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball team took a lead with just under two minutes to go in the first half and never trailed from that point on, defeating Southwest Baptist, 101-94 in the first round of the 2011 MIAA Basketball Tournament in Municipal Auditorium.

Southern (24-3) wins in Kansas City for the first time since the 2005 season when the Lions won the first two games and fell in the championship to Central Missouri. It is the first time in four tries that the MIAA Tournament No. 1 seed hasn't fallen in the first round and it's the first time since 1993 the Lions have scored 100 or more points in a tournament game (100-75 vs. ESU). It is also the first time this season the Lions have eclipsed the century mark.

The Bearcats led by as many as seven in the first half but a three pointer from Bowlin with 9:20 left gave Southern its first lead at 22-20. Both teams traded leads until a layup from Kevin Hinsey with 1:53 left in the half gave the Lions a 41-39 lead and the Lions would not trail from that point on.

The Lions had a 47-41 lead at the half and led by as many as 11 with just over a minute to go in the game after a pair of free-throws from Bowlin.

Game 28 • March 5, 2011
Lions 88, UNO 85

Kansas City, Mo. - A three from Skyler Bowlin with 39 seconds to go broke an 82-82 tie and the eighth ranked Lions went on to defeat Nebraska-Omaha 88-85, moving on to the championship game of the 2011 MIAA Basketball Tournament at historic Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City.

Omaha opened up a 12-point lead (38-26) with 7:36 to go in the first half after a layup from Torrian Harris. The lead was 12 again with 2:12 left in the first half when a layup from John Karhoff made the score 51-39.

A three pointer from Welhouse made the score 54-44 just 24 seconds into the second half, but the Lions answered back with a 14-3 run capped off by a layup from Bowlin to go up 58-57 with 13:28 left in the game. A layup from Thomann made the Lions' lead three at 60-57, but UNO scored the next seven points to go back up 64-60.

UNO would hold a slim lead until a pair of free-throws from Bowlin gave Southern a 78-77 lead with just under four to go. Four-straight free throws from Addison and Adams kept the Lions' lead at one, but a freebie from Albers tied the score at 82 with 1:33 left to go in the game.

Bowlin missed a three pointer the next time down, but Adams pulled down the offensive board. Bowlin would not miss a second chance and the senior drained a three with 39 seconds left to put the Lions up 85-82.

Game 29 • March 6, 2011
FHSU 89, Lions 83

Kansas City, Mo. - The eighth ranked Missouri Southern Basketball team posed a fierce comeback, but couldn't complete the rally and fell 89-83 to 19th ranked Fort Hays State today in the Championship Game of the 2011 MIAA Tournament at Municipal Auditorium.

The Lions were led in scoring by Skyler Bowlin as the senior scored 22 and went a perfect 10-10 from the free-throw line. Keane Thomann had his fourth-straight game of 20 or more points with 20 today and he added seven rebounds. Marquis Addison had 11 points, while Jason Adams' streak of 55-straight games in double-figures came to an end with just nine points on the afternoon.

The Lions jumped out to a 7-2 lead after a three from Addison just two minutes into the game, and led again by four (14-10) after a pair of free-throws from Chris Scruggs. Hays, however, tied the game at 16 and went ahead at 22-20 on a three pointer from Ben Congiusta at the 8:47 mark of the first half. The Tigers would lead from that point on.

Southern took what was an 18-point FHSU advantage at the seven minute mark of the second half and got as close as six twice, late in the second half.

Game 30 • March 12, 2011
Lions 82, Washburn 79 OT

Edmond, Okla. - A three point basket by Jason Adams with 25 seconds left in the overtime period sent the ninth ranked Missouri Southern Basketball Program into the round of 32, defeating Washburn 82-79 in overtime in the first round of the NCAA D-II South Central Regional.

The Lions got out to a hot start leading 7-0 after a three from Adams, and buckets from Marquiss Addison and Thomann, but the Ichabods fought back and scored eight in a row capped off by a three from Washington to take an 8-7 lead.

Washburn tied it up on a layup from Stutz and went on to an 11-1 run to lead 32-24 with 2:45 left. Three's from Bowlin and Adams, however, would cut the Washburn lead to just two (32-30) at the half.

A pair of free throws pushed the Lions' lead to 55-48 with 9:52 left to go. The free-throws were part of an 8-4 run consisting of four points each from Rich Borries and Bowlin.

A free throw from Addison gave the Lions a 70-67 lead with 4.8 seconds to go in the game, but the Ichabods inbounded the ball to Washington and he turned and launched a three that went to tie the game, forcing overtime.

The Bods would make one of two from the line and a three from Adams off the glass gave the Lions an 80-79 lead with 25 seconds to go. Washburn 18-10

Game 31 • March 13, 2011
Midwestern State 75, Lions 52

Edmond, Okla. -- The ninth ranked Missouri Southern men's basketball season came to an end tonight in the semifinals of the South Central Regional as the Lions fell 75-52 to sixth seed Midwestern State.

Southern (26-5) was led offensively by Jason Adams as the junior scored 15 points on 6-11 shooting, including 3-5 from long-range. Keane Thomann went 5-10 from the floor and scored 13 points with five rebounds. Skyler Bowlin scored five and added seven assists, while Patrick Hester scored eight points off the bench.

Midwestern opened up an 18-11 lead at the 11:46 mark of the first half after a layup from Loyd, but a 5-0 run from the Lions capped by a free-throw from Hester cut the lead to three (18-15) with 10:26 left. The Mustang lead reached 18 (35-17) after a layup from Loyd, but a pair of freebies from Hester with 36 seconds to go in the half sent the Lions into the locker room, trailing 41-27.

A three pointer from Hester with 12:03 left to go in the second half cut the MSU lead to six at 48-42, but the Mustangs' Keonte Logan nailed a three the next time down the court and the Lions would get no closer. The MSU lead reached as high as 24 (75-51) after a pair of free-throws from Darrick Thomas.
