Tigers Face Nebraska in Saturday Afternoon Matinee

The University of Missouri basketball squad looks to extend its five-game winning streak over the University of Nebraska Huskers on Saturday when it faces NU in Columbia. The Tigers are 7-7 overall and 2-2 in the Big 12 following a tough 75-69 overtime loss to Texas on Tuesday night.

Seniors Rickey Paulding and Arthur Johnson teamed for 36 points in the effort (20 for Paulding, 16 for AJ) while Johnson rejected a season-best six shots. Freshman Linas Kleiza also had a big night scoring 14 points and pulling down five boards, but it wasn't quite enough as UT hit a three at the buzzer to send it to overtime and went 10-of-10 from the free throw line in the OT to seal the win. Nebraska (11-4, 1-3 Big 12) is coming off of their first Big 12 win of season on Wednesday when they took out Baylor in Lincoln, 76-47.

The Tigers are currently in a tie for fourth in the Big 12 with Colorado at 2-2. Mizzou plays two of its next three contests at home, but then takes a two-game mini-road trip to Kansas and Nebraska to open the month of February.

The contest, which is set to tip at 5 p.m. CST, will be aired on the Mizzou Sports Network with Chris Gervino and Jon Sundvold handling the broadcast duties. MU is 4-2 so far this season on MSN. Mike Kelly and Gary Link will call all of the action on the Tiger Radio Network as well.

Quick Hits

* The Tigers are looking for their sixth straight win over Nebraska and have won eight of their last nine contests against the Huskers

* The Tigers are 4-3 at home, 3-2 on the road and 0-2 in neutral court contests.

* Mizzou has been to overtime three times so far this season and has needed free basketball in each of their last two contests. It was the first time a Tiger squad has played back-to-back overtime games since 1978 when they went to double overtime against Kansas State in the Championship of the Big 8 tournament and then went to double overtime against Utah in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

* The Tigers carry a 25-15 mark during the month of January under Head Coach Quin Snyder. They are also 19-3 in the month of January at home under Snyder.

* The Tigers lead the all-time series with NU, 116-83 including three wins over the Huskers last year.

* Senior Rickey Paulding has averaged 22.7 ppg. over the Tigers' last three games. He ranks fifth in the league in scoring averaging 16.2 ppg.

* Mizzou has played in front of a sold out Hearnes Center in each of their last three home games.

* Senior Arthur Johnson ranks second in the Big 12 in double-doubles. With his 16-point, 11-rebound effort against OU, he now has recorded five double-doubles on the year and 41 for his career.

* AJ currently ranks 11th on the Mizzou all-time scoring list with 1,458 points and is in fourth on the rebounding charts with 971 rebounds. He needs just 83 boards to eclipse the Mizzou mark and also to move into second on the Big 12 career boards list.

* Rickey is right on AJ's heels on the scoring chart with 1,447 points, putting him in 13th.

* Seven different Tigers have led the team in scoring through 14 games this season and four different Tigers have led in rebounding. Paulding has led the squad in scoring in each of the last three contests.

* As of Thursday's CollegeRPI.com report, the Tigers have played the 11th toughest schedule in the country.

* Coach Snyder is looking for win number 92 at Mizzou on Saturday. He has recorded more wins in his first 147 games at Mizzou than any previous Tiger coach had recorded in as many games in their careers.

* The Tigers are 40-30 under Coach Snyder against Big 12 opponents.

* With his first bucket against Texas A&M, Arthur Johnson became only the fourth Tiger to record at least 1,400 career points and 900 rebounds. The other three are Steve Stipanovich (80-83), Doug Smith (88-91) and Derrick Chievous (85-88).

Kleiza Named Phillips 66 Big 12 Rookie of the Week

Columbia, Mo. – Freshman forward Linas Kleiza has earned Big 12 Rookie of the Week honors for second time, Big 12 Conference officials announced on Monday. Kleiza also earned the honor for the week of Dec. 8 earlier this season. He has been a key component in the Tigers' efforts.

The 6-8, 245-pound big man averaged 11.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in the Tigers loss to No. 16 Syracuse and win over No. 11 Oklahoma in Norman. In the 79-75 overtime win at Oklahoma, Kleiza had 13 points and nine rebounds.

Kleiza has recorded nine rebounds or more in 10 of the Tigers' 14 games so far this season and has reached double figures in boards four times. He has three double-doubles on the year and is fourth in the Big 12 in rebounding averaging 8.8 rpg, while also chipping in with 11.4 ppg off of the bench. If Kleiza can keep the 8.8 rebounds per game going, he will eclipse Arthur Johnson's Big 12 freshmen record of 7.8 boards per contest.

A Look at the Huskers

The Huskers enter Saturday's contest with a solid 11-4 mark, but are only 1-3 in the Big 12. They are coming off of a convincing 29-point win over Baylor on Wednesday and have quality wins over opponents such as Minnesota and Tennessee in early season play. Senior transfers Nate Johnson (12.5 points per game) and Andrew Drevo (11.1 points per game) lead an efficient Husker attack that is shooting almost 49 percent from the field (2nd in the Big 12).

The Huskers have also been lighting it up from long range, shooting a Big 12-best

Tiger Basketball Greats to Be Recognized at Halftime of Nebraska Game

Retired men's basketball numbers hanging in Hearnes Center rafters will be lowered and transferred into new arena upon its completion

Five of the premier basketball players in the history of Mizzou Basketball will be recognized on Saturday for their accomplishments during their amazing careers. Jon Sundvold (1980-83 - #20), Willie Smith (1975-76 - #30), Doug Smith (1988-91 - #34), Steve Stipanovich (1980-83 - #40) and Bill Stauffer (1950-52 - #43) all had their numbers retired following their illustrious careers at Mizzou and banners bearing those numbers now hang in the Hearnes Center rafters.

On Saturday, the banners will be lowered in a halftime ceremony honoring these five great individuals and their accomplishments while wearing the black and gold. Following the completion of Mizzou's new $75 million arena, which is scheduled for Oct. 1 of 2004, the jerseys will be raised and will once again overlook the home of the Tigers in the rafters of the new building.

The final retired number that will hang in the Hearnes Center is a tribute to former All-American and Tiger coaching great Norm Stewart (1954-56 - #22). Stewart will be recognized at halftime of the Tigers' game with Iowa State on Feb. 18, as he will be a member of the broadcast team for the contest. His banner will be lowered as well and transferred over to the new arena along with the other banners that will be lowered on Saturday.

Facts, Figures and Other Points of Interest Following the Texas Game

* OVERTIME! - This is Mizzou's third game to go into overtime this season and is now 1-2 in 03-04, this is Texas' second overtime game this season and their second on the road
* THE SERIES - The series is now tied at 8-8
* HEARNES - Mizzou is now 399-70 at the Hearnes Center, 816-270 all-time in their home court
* VS. RANKED OPPS - Missouri is now 4-5 against teams ranked #14
* FACTOID OF THE NIGHT - Missouri is now 33-33 against ranked teams at home whenever the Tigers aren't ranked
* FYI - This was the Tigers' first OT game at home since the 4 OT thriller against Iowa State in 2001, the Tigers one that one 112-109.
* STAT TRACK - Free throws in Overtime, Missouri 4-7, Texas 10-10
* FOUL OUTS - UT's Buckman fouled out with 3:47 to go in OT, MU's Jimmy McKinney fouled out with 3:27 to go in OT.

INDIVDUAL FEATS

* Arthur Johnson's six blocks is a season-high, he had a career-high of eight blocks against Stetson in the 2000-01 season.
* Paulding's 20 points was a team high and put him and Johnson at 11 and 12 all-time, Johnson now has 1458 in his career, Paulding 1447

GAME RUNS & STREAKS

* DRY FROM OUTSIDE - The Tigers started the game 0-of-5 from behind the three-point arc ... in fact Missouri's first 10 points came from the paint or a free throw.
* MIZZOU LATE FIRST HALF RUN - Missouri held Texas to no field goals over 7:02 late in the first half (8:22-1:20) and went on a 10-0 run to give the Tigers their first lead of the game ... the first lead came at the 3:29 mark after a Paulding old-fashioned three-point play was completed

* UT OUT OF THE GATE - To start the second half, Texas went on 13-4 run over the first 4:10 to recapture the lead for the second lead change of the game ... Mizzou was held without a field goal from 2:32 in the first half to 16:01 in the second

* MIZZOU SURGE - Mizzou went on a 11-4 run over 3:13 in the second (9:56 to 6:43) to secure a two-point lead, 48-46

* DRAMA - The game was tied 15 times and featured eight lead changes.

Reading Up on the Rick

Senior Preseason All-American Rickey Paulding continues to be one of the fiercest competitors in the Big 12 Conference.

Paulding leads the squad in scoring, averaging 16.2 points per contest while breaking the 20-point barrier in five of the Tigers' 14 contests and in each of the last three games. He earned All-Big 12 second-team honors last season and was named to the Big 12 All-Tournament team. He was named to both the Wooden and Naismith Awards watch lists this season and also earned a preseason All-American nod from the Associated Press. He ranks 13th on the all-time Mizzou scoring charts with 1,447 points following his 20-point effort against Texas. He will now be chasing No. 12 Ricky Frazier (1980-82, 1,448 points) on the list and is moving up the chart like the Jefferson's.

Paulding was awesome in his hometown going 6-for-12 from the field and 6-of-6 from the free throw line sharing team-high honors with Jimmy McKinney with 21 points on the night against Oakland in Detroit on Nov. 29.

Rick is now alone in sixth on the Mizzou all-time three point field goals made list with 163 career treys.

In Order to Be the Best ...

... you have to beat the best. The Tigers have definitely put that adage to the test this year with one of the toughest schedules in the country. As of Monday's Associated Press Poll, 9 (Oklahoma, Kansas, Gonzaga, Syracuse, Texas, Illinois, Texas Tech, Memphis, Oklahoma State) of the Tigers 2003-04 opponents are ranked in the top 25 or receiving votes.

You don't have to look to far down the Tigers schedule to see the toughest stretch (if the entire thing isn't tough enough) began with the new year when the Tigers faced (RV) Iowa on Jan. 3 (W, 76-56), lost a tough one at (RV) Iowa State (L, 70-65) where they are 0-5 under coach Quin Snyder, lost to defending national champion #17 Syracuse (L, 82-68), travel to #13 Oklahoma (W, 79-75 in OT) and faced #16 Texas (L, 75-69 in oT) ... all in a 20-day span.

Like the TNT Network, We Know Drama

Sorry MSN, but that one was just to good to let slip by. The Tigers have made some breathtaking comebacks and have experienced some heartbreaking losses so far this season. Eight of the Tigers' 13 games have been decided by five points or less and three of them have went to overtime. The Tigers are 4-4 in games decided by five points or less this season. The average margin of victory or loss for Mizzou has been 6.98 points per contest after its six point, overtime loss to Texas.

Prior to their 20-point blowout win against Iowa on Jan. 3, the Tigers lost three games in seven days by a total of seven points to wrap up 2003, a year the Tigers would be just as soon forget. They faced a 21-point deficit to Illinois in the first half, only to storm back and lose by one and were down by as many as 15 to Memphis, only to have their comeback come up just short, losing by two to the Tigers.

Balancing Act

The Tigers have been extremely balanced on the offensive end of the court so far this year. Five Tigers are averaging between 16.2 and 10.4 points per contest with senior Rickey Paulding taking top honors following the Tigers contest with Texas. Seven different players have led Mizzou in scoring over the course of the first 14 games and four different Tigers have led in rebounding.

King Arthur's Court

Preseason Big 12 Player of the Year Arthur Johnson is on a mission. The objective: to leave the Hearnes Center in April as one of the best big men in school history. He has certainly had a remarkable career here at MU and continues to work his way up several career charts. The explosive big man with feather-soft touch around the basket already owns Mizzou's all-time shot blocking mark with 226 career swats. With his two-block effort against Coppin State, he became only the fifth player to record 200 or more career blocks in Big 12 conference history. He needs to average around 3.0 blocks per game during the rest of the regular season to become the Big 12 all-time swats leader.

Big 12 All-Time Blocked Shots Leaders

1. 264 Chris Mihm, UT-1998-00
2. 243 Nick Collison, KU, 1999-03
3. 242 Eric Chenowith, KU, 1997-01
4. 224 Arthur Johnson, MU, 2000-present
5. 202 Venson Hamilton, NU, 1997-99

If all goes according to plan, he will also become the Tigers all-time leading rebounder right around the middle of February. Johnson is averaging 8.0 boards per contest following his seven rebound effort against Texas. He needs just 82 more boards to pass former Tiger great Doug Smith on the chart.

He also currently ranks 11th on the all-time scoring charts with 1,458 points after his 16-point effort vs. Texas. He will now be chasing No. 10 Jevon Crudup (91-94, 1,498 points).

Last season, Johnson became only the fourth Tiger since the 1949-50 season to lead the team in rebounding in three straight campaigns.

More On AJ

And if you just can't get enough info on the big fella they call "Doc," he is also creeping up on the Big 12 career double-doubles mark. With his 16-point, 11-rebound effort against Oklahoma, he recorded his 41st career double-double, putting him alone in 4th on the Big 12 All-Time Double-Double leaders list. A look at that chart follows:

Big 12 All-Time Double-Double Leaders

1. 47 Chris Mihm, UT, 1998-00
2. 46 Venson Hamilton, NU, 1997-99
3. 44 Drew Gooden, KU, 1999-02

5. 40 Raef LaFrentz, KU, 1994-98

I Did Not Know That. Did You Know That Ed?

Pardon the tribute to Johnny Carson, but did you know that there have been 16 schools that have participated in each of the last five NCAA Tournaments? Five of the 16 are Big 12 schools – Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Texas. The other schools are Duke, Maryland, Indiana, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Arizona, Stanford, Kentucky, Cincinnati and Gonzaga.

In a related note, this year's senior class of Arthur Johnson, Rickey Paulding, Josh Kroenke and Travon Bryant has played in the most NCAA Tournament games of any Tigers in school history with eight post-season tilts under their belts. Also of note, in each of Coach Quin Snyder's first four years, the Tigers have been knocked out of the NCAA Tournament by an eventual Final Four Team (2000-North Carolina, 2001-Duke, 2002-Oklahoma and 2003-Marquette).

The Lithuanian Domination Tour Rolls On

Coming to a Big 12 town near you in the not-so distant future will be the Lithuanian Domination tour starring National Freshman of the Year candidate Linas Kleiza. Kleiza has certainly been impressive in his young 14-game career for Mizzou. He is averaging 11.4 points (third on the squad) and an amazing 8.8 rebounds, which is second in the Big 12. The power forward from Kaunas, Lithuania has recorded double-doubles in three games as a Tiger and just missed his fourth, fifth and sixth double-doubles in the Tigers' contests with Belmont, Iowa and Syracuse when he went for a career best 18 points while pulling down nine boards in both the IU and BU games and dumped in nine points and pulled down a game-high 12 rebounds against Syracuse. He was also close against OU, scoring 13 points and pulling down nine boards in the Tigers 79-75 win over the Sooners.

While all of the those numbers and statistics are certainly impressive, the thing that has resonated the most with Linas has been the fact that he is putting up these numbers coming off the bench in only 23.7 minutes per game. Kleiza has also provided a huge emotional lift for the Tigers as he plays with a huge amount of fire and intensity.

Thanks for the Memories ... Here's to Many More

The Tigers are playing their final year in the Hearnes Center and will be moving into a state-of-the art arena starting in October of 2004. Mizzou has called Hearnes home for 31 years now and has registered a mark of 399-70 there as of its 75-69 loss to Texas. The 15,000 seat, $75 million new building will feature unbelievable player development facilities (weight room, practice gym, players lounge, film room) and will be the finest on-campus basketball facility in the country.

Head Coach Quin Snyder

With a 2003-2004 team poised to be among the nation's elite, Quin Snyder has proven that success can come quickly with hard work and determination. On the brink of his fifth season as head coach of the Missouri Tigers, Snyder is leading a team that has been ranked as high as number three in the national polls. Missouri's 15th head coach, Snyder has enjoyed impressive runs in the NCAA Tournament for four straight years. In fact, the 2002-2003 season was witness to a 22-win campaign that ended with an overtime loss in the NCAA Tournament to eventual Final Four contender, Marquette.

Given the excitement Snyder has generated in such a short span of time at the helm, it is not surprising that many people are waiting with anticipation for this season to begin and predicting great things for the Tigers. It is easy to see why expectations are high when you consider all of the following ...

- Mizzou continues to be a fixture on national and regional television broadcasts. With every game but one on television, Snyder's Tigers continue to create unprecedented exposure for the program.
- The program will be the direct benefactor of a new, state-of-the-art $75 million arena which athletic officials plan to have open in time for the 2004-05 season.
- Snyder signed a contract extension, which will keep him a fixture on the Tiger sidelines through at least the 2005-06 season.
- And while Mizzou's on-court achievements constantly grab the headlines, what takes place in the classroom remains at the top of Snyder's priority list. An academic All-American himself during his playing days at Duke, Snyder is quite proud of the fact that in his four years at MU, seven scholarship players have exhausted their eligibility and all seven have graduated. In addition, this past season saw the men's basketball team achieve the highest GPA in 15 years.

Tigers Triumph in Season Opener

Missouri 90, Oakland 85

Nov. 29, 2003

ROCHESTER, Mich. - Rickey Paulding scored 21 points and Arthur Johnson added 19 to lead No. 5 Missouri to a tough season-opening 90-85 victory over Oakland.

Paulding, a preseason All-American, and Johnson are both products of the Detroit Public School League. Oakland is located 30 miles north of downtown Detroit, and the pair had a large cheering section among the sellout crowd of 4,055.

Missouri led Oakland (2-4), in just its sixth year of Division I-A play, by only one with less than three minutes to play. The Golden Grizzlies had lost their last two games, to Michigan and Cincinnati, by an average of 27.5 points.

Jimmy McKinney added 21 points for Missouri, which had five players score in double figures. The Tigers hurt themselves by committing 20 turnovers to just seven for Oakland.

Oakland's Rawle Marshall led all scorers with 27 points, while Mike Helms had 21 before fouling out with 8:12 left and Missouri leading 70-67.

The Golden Grizzlies missed 10 of 31 free throws, including five in the final 10 minutes, while Missouri was nearly perfect from the line.

Oakland started the second half with a 12-2 run, including eight points from Helms, and took a 46-44 lead with 17:11 to go.

Helms picked up his fourth foul with 13:08 to play, but Paulding got his fourth just four seconds later.

Oakland led 64-63 with 11 minutes left, but McKinney's 3-pointer started a 7-1 run that forced Oakland to put Helms back into the game.

Mizzou Outlasts Coppin State

Missouri 70, Coppin State 61

Dec. 2, 2003

COLUMBIA, MO. -Missouri survived its second straight scare, getting 16 points, six rebounds and three blocks from Travon Bryant in a 70-61 come-from-behind victory Tuesday night over Coppin State.

The fourth-ranked Tigers (2-0) have won 29 straight home openers since losing to Southern Methodist on Dec. 1, 1973. They were 14-1 in the Hearnes Center last season and won this one despite allowing a 14-0 run in the first half.

Arthur Johnson added 14 points and nine rebounds for Missouri, which was frustrated throughout by a zone defense, committed 19 turnovers and got an off-game from preseason All-American Rickey Paulding. He had seven points and seven turnovers.

The Tigers trailed Coppin State (2-5) by eight points in the first half and seven after the break. Missouri won its opener by five points at Oakland (Mich.) on Saturday.

Nicholas King scored 25 points and hit five 3-pointers for Coppin State after entering with an 8.5-point average. The losers, who also got 12 points from Jimmy Boykin, were 11-for-22 from 3-point range.

A pair of free throws by Bryant put Missouri ahead to stay at 50-49 with 10:53 remaining. But the game wasn't secured until the Tigers scored nine points in a row for a 67-57 lead with 3:40 to go. The last five points came from freshman Thomas Gardner.

Defense Sends No. 4 Mizzou To 3-0

Missouri 63, Indiana 58

Dec. 6, 2003

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Missouri needed someone to take control Saturday. Freshman Linas Kleiza didn't give it a second thought.

The fourth-ranked Tigers rallied from a 14-point deficit over the final seven minutes, getting four straight points from Kleiza to keep them close and then his go-ahead three-point play as they held Indiana scoreless for the final 4:29 in a 63-58 victory.

Indiana dominated the tempo and consistently took away the Tigers' usual scoring threats. Rickey Paulding finished with eight points, and Arthur Johnson had 15 points and nine rebounds before fouling out with 4:29 left.

But Kleiza filled in admirably. He was 6-of-12 from the field, scored a season-high 15 points, grabbed 13 rebounds, hit a 3-pointer to get the Tigers close and finished the remarkable rally by completing the three-point play with 1:20 left to give Missouri its first lead since the game's opening basket.

Missouri held a 46-28 rebound advantage and grabbed three times as many offensive rebounds (21) as the Hoosiers.

Indiana appeared headed to its first victory over a ranked team in six games when it jumped to a 39-26 halftime lead, one it maintained throughout most of the second half.

When Wright connected on a long 3-pointer with 7:15 to go, the Hoosiers were up 56-42. But the Tigers clamped down on defense, not allowing Indiana another basket, and when Missouri needed an inside presence late, Kleiza stepped forward.

Travon Bryant and Jimmy McKinney scored six straight points to get the Tigers within eight. Bryant finished with 16 points.

After Sean Kline drew Johnson's fifth foul and made two free throws to push the lead to 10, the Tigers charged right back.

Kleiza made one free throw, then hit his second 3-pointer of the season. Paulding followed that with a layup and Bryant hit an open 3 from the left corner to make it 58-57 with 2:05 left.

Forty-five seconds later, Bryant missed a 15-footer and Kleiza grabbed the rebound, put it in and was fouled. His free throw made it 60-58 and Indiana never recovered - twice turning the ball over in the final minute as it tried futilely to come back.

Mizzou Falls in OT to Gonzaga

Gonzaga 87, Missouri 80

Dec. 13, 2003

SEATTLE, Wash. - In recent years, the Gonzaga Bulldogs have shown they can compete with the top programs in the NCAA tournament.

Now they're doing it in the regular season.

Ronny Turiaf scored 21 of his 23 points after halftime and Blake Stepp added 14 points and 10 assists in No. 17 Gonzaga's dramatic 87-80 overtime victory over No. 3 Missouri on Saturday.

Rickey Paulding scored 23 points for Missouri, including a 3-pointer with 10 seconds remaining in regulation that tied it at 73. Turiaf lost control of the ball on the ensuing possession, and the teams went to overtime.

Linas Kleiza had 16 points and 13 rebounds while Travon Byrant scored 13 for the Tigers, who kept it close despite shooting 34 percent.

"It was a high-level game for a December game," Missouri coach Quin Snyder said. "I thought we both played at a very high level."

After two free throws by Morrison gave the Bulldogs an 83-80 lead with 30 seconds left in overtime, Paulding was called for another offensive foul, this time drawn by Gonzaga's Erroll Knight.

"Those are always some of the tougher calls to make," Snyder said. "Those were momentum plays."

The game, at supposedly neutral KeyArena, had the tempo and feel of an NCAA tournament showdown, with exciting runs for both teams, key players working through foul trouble and big shots down the stretch by both sides.

The loss spoiled a homecoming for Snyder, who grew up in the Seattle suburb of Mercer Island. He got a polite cheer during introductions but the pro-Gonzaga crowd saved the noise for the Bulldogs.

Paulding had a great second half, hitting two big 3-pointers. One came from the right corner and another from the left wing as the Tigers went ahead 62-61 with 4:49 to play.

On Gonzaga's next possession, officials didn't make an apparent goaltending call against Bryant when Stepp drove. Few went berserk on the sideline and was hit with a technical foul.

McKinney hit both free throws to make it 64-61 and, after Turiaf made one foul shot, Missouri's Josh Kroenke made another 3-pointer to put the Tigers ahead 67-62 with 3:36 to go, capping a 15-3 run.

Tigers Outrun UNC Greensboro, 106-98

Missouri 106, UNC Greensboro 98

Dec. 21, 2003

COLUMBIA, Mo. - COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - All No. 10 Missouri needed to end its streak of close calls was a hot streak from Rickey Paulding and scoring help from Jason Conley.

Paulding, a preseason All-America, was held scoreless until the midway point of the second half, but scored nine points in a late run as Missouri beat North Carolina-Greensboro 106-98 Sunday.

Conley, a transfer, had 19 points in his Tigers' debut, while Arthur Johnson scored 19 points and Linas Kleiza and Travon Bryant each had 17 for Missouri (4-1).

Paulding hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key to ignite an 11-0 run that gave Missouri a 92-76 lead with under seven minutes to play. After a layup by Jimmy McKinney, Paulding added six consecutive points and the Spartans (4-5) got no closer than eight the rest of the way.

Missouri's three previous victories were by a total of 19 points, and its only loss came in overtime to Gonzaga. The Tigers even needed a 21-2 run to close its latest win over Indiana.

Jay Joseph and Ronnie Burrell each had 22 points for the Spartans, while Dwon Clifton and Ronnie Taylor each added 13 and Ricky Hickman 10.

Conley and Randy Pulley made an instant impact in their first games with the Tigers.

Conley, a junior who led the nation in scoring as a freshman at VMI, had to sit out until Missouri's semester break after transferring at the end of the first semester last year.

Missouri had been anticipating the arrival of Conley as another scoring threat in an already potent lineup. Conley averaged 29.3 points and 8.0 rebounds at VMI his freshman year, then averaged 22.2 points and 7.3 rebounds in 10 games last season.

He and Pulley, who sat out the team's first four games while school officials reviewed his academic records, helped Missouri rebuild its lead after Greensboro pulled within 61-57 just after halftime. Conley had 10 points, including two dunks, and Pulley added a driving layup as the Tigers took a 78-67 lead.

During the run, Conley put back a missed dunk by Paulding and completed the three-point play, then slammed down an alley-oop pass from Paulding on the Tigers' next possession. He later added a 3-pointer and a two-handed pump jam after Josh Kroenke made a steal and a baseball pass to a waiting Conley.

Tigers Lose Heartbreaker to Illinois, 71-70

Illinois 71, Missouri 70

Dec. 23, 2003

COLUMBIA, Mo. - It was one that almost got away for No. 21 Illinois (7-2), which held a 21-point lead late in the first half only to have Missouri (4-2) tie it with 1:30 to play on a 3-pointer by Travon Bryant.

Sophomore forward James Augustine scored on a layup with 58.5 seconds to play to put Illinois back on top for good. Augustine had 14 points and 10 rebounds.

Bryant had a career-high 19 points, as did Rickey Paulding, for Missouri, which lost for the second time in three games. Bryant also matched a career-high with 12 rebounds and blocked two shots.

Illinois hadn't played for 10 days, but if there was any rust, it didn't show. The Illini dominated the early going, outrunning and outhustling Missouri.

Illinois took to a 9-2 lead and added runs of 16-2 and 13-2 later in the first half. Missouri missed 13 of its first 16 shots.

Despite a size advantage for the Tigers, Illinois worked the ball inside for layups, hooks and short jumpers and built a 40-19 with 4:20 to go in the first half. Missouri committed 11 of its 18 turnovers in the opening half.

But Missouri went on a 15-2 run of its own to cut the margin to eight with 17:33 to go, then chipped away, eventually tying the game at 67-67 on Bryant's 3-pointer.

After Augustine's basket, Missouri's Arthur Johnson had a chance to tie the game again, but missed a short jumper with 23 seconds left. After Brown made two free throws with 19.7 seconds left, Missouri's Jimmy McKinney hit a 3-pointer with 0.4 seconds left. After a timeout, the Illini iced the game by simply inbounding the ball.

Illinois has won the last four "Braggin' Rights" games and 15 of the series' 23. The sellout crowd at the Savvis Center was about a 60-40 split of fans, with the mostly yellow clad Missouri fans slightly outnumbering the mostly orange Illini faithful. But the folks in orange had the most to cheer about. Among those in attendance were U.S. Sens. Kit Bond and Jim Talent of Missouri, and Attorney General John Ashcroft, a former Missouri governor.

Paulding, a preseason All-American who was shooting 33 percent from the field entering the game, was 6 for 10.

Comeback Comes Up Short Against Memphis

Memphis 61, Missouri 59

Dec. 27, 2003

MEMPHIS, Tenn.- Antonio Burks scored 17 points and Sean Banks added 13 points and eight rebounds in Memphis' 61-59 victory over No. 11 Missouri, the Tigers' third loss in four games.

Missouri (4-3), which also lost to No. 21 Illinois this week, got within 60-59 on Rickey Paulding's 3-pointer with 4.5 seconds remaining. Jimmy McKinney's running shot from just beyond the 3-point line as time ran out bounced off the rim, giving Memphis (7-2) its third straight win.

Arthur Johnson, who fouled out with 2:40 remaining, led Missouri with 14 points and 12 rebounds. Paulding and Travon Bryant each scored 13 points. Bryant grabbed 10 rebounds as Missouri controlled the boards 49-35.

Poor shooting in the first half hampered Missouri. Memphis led 35-26 at halftime after Missouri shot 24 percent from the field (9-of-37). Missouri made just one of its first 10 attempts.

Memphis led by 15 points twice, the first time capping a 12-2 run midway through the half.

Memphis made its run with fast breaks to offset the Missouri rebounding advantage, which included 17 offensive boards in the half. Burks had the hot hand, hitting his first four shots and he had 11 points in the first half, including three 3s in four attempts.

Johnson had eight points for Missouri, but was 3-of-11 from the field.

Missouri trailed 54-45 with just under 5 minutes to play, but went on an 8-0 run and made it 54-53 when McKinney hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key with 3:06 to play.

Missouri committed 16 turnovers to seven for Memphis.

Mizzou Falls To Belmont, 71-69

Belmont 71, Mizzou 69

Dec. 30, 2003

COLUMBIA, Mo. For the third straight game, No. 23 Missouri fell behind and then rallied only to fall short, losing 71-67 Tuesday night to Belmont of the Atlantic Sun Conference.

Missouri (4-4), ranked as high as No. 3 this season, has lost three in a row and four of five. Coach Quin Snyder is 88-53 overall in four seasons at Missouri, but just 13-12 in December.

Steve Drabyn had 16 points for Belmont (6-3), while Nick Otis added 15, Adam Mark 14 and Jese Snyder 12. The Bruins shot more 3s than 2s, 35-20, and made 13 shots from beyond the arc.

Freshman Linas Kleiza scored 10 straight first-half points and 18 overall for Missouri, while Rickey Paulding had 21, Jimmy McKinney 15 and Arthur Johnson 10.

The Tigers appeared headed for an easy win after taking a 31-21 lead late in the first half. But a 36-14 run put Belmont up 57-47 with 8:50 to play.

Missouri went on a 12-2 run to tie it at 59 on Jason Conley's free throw with 3:29 to play, before Belmont went back ahead for good. The Tigers had a chance with 12 seconds left when Drabyn missed the front end of a 1-and-1, but Belmont got the rebound and Drabyn, fouled again, made both free throws.

Missouri outrebounded Belmont 41-30, but had trouble working the ball inside against the Bruins' 2-3 zone.

Kleiza, a 6-foot-8 native of Lithuania, scored on a layup with 14:40 to play in the half, then connected on two layups, a dunk and two free throws to help Missouri go on top in the first half, when the Tigers were seemingly in control of the game.

Then Belmont's 3s began to fall, leading to a 17-3 spurt that put the Bruins ahead 38-34 with 18 minutes to play.

Missouri has made a habit of falling behind and then rallying. Early this season, the rallies led to wins, such as when the Tigers overcame a 14-point deficit in the final seven minutes to beat Indiana. Not lately.

Missouri was down by 21 points to Illinois before tying the game with just over a minute to play, only to lose 71-70. The Tigers trailed Memphis by 15 before rallying, only to lose by two when McKinney's last-second 3-pointer clanged off the rim.

Tigers Take Out Hawkeyes, 76-56

Mizzou 76, Iowa 56

Jan. 4. 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - A couple of changes in the starting lineup got the attention of No. 23 Missouri.

Coach Quin Snyder shook up the status quo, leaving Arthur Johnson and Josh Kroenke on the bench for the opening tipoff, and it shook up the rest of the roster in a 76-56 victory over Iowa on Saturday. Linas Kleiza matched his career best with 18 points, including seven in a 2½-minute stretch of the second half, to help Missouri pull away.

The Tigers (5-4) led almost all the way and Iowa's largest margin was two points early in the game. That was a big change from the losing streak, when Missouri fell behind by 21 points to Illinois, 15 to Memphis and 10 to Belmont.

After the Belmont upset loss on Tuesday, Travon Bryant turned his cell phone off for two days.

Missouri had dropped four of five overall after rising to as high as No. 3 in mid-December. But Snyder, in his fifth season, has never lost four in a row. And Missouri, despite the four-point loss at home to Belmont on Tuesday, is 17-2 in the Hearnes Center the last two seasons.

Missouri won without much contribution from its two senior stars, Johnson and Rickey Paulding, the pair combining for 11 points. Bryant added 14 points, nine rebounds, four blocked shots and two steals, and Jimmy McKinney had 10 points.

Johnson didn't start for the first time since Feb. 27, 2002, at Texas Tech as Snyder replaced him and Kroenke with Kevin Young and freshman Thomas Gardner. Johnson drew three quick fouls in just under two minutes in the first half and finished with four points, but had three blocks.

Kleiza had two free throws, a baseline fadeaway jumper and a 3-pointer in a 15-2 run that put the game away, giving Missouri a 55-35 lead with 11:22 to go. The freshman ended up two points of his season best.

Kleiza also had nine rebounds, helping Missouri to a 45-37 advantage. The Tigers have outrebounded all nine opponents.

The game was the final pre-conference tuneup for both teams. Missouri opens Big 12 play Wednesday at Iowa State and Iowa is at home against Purdue on Wednesday.

Tigers Drop Big 12 Opener in Ames

Iowa State 70, Missouri 58

Jan. 7. 2004

AMES, Iowa. - Freshman Curtis Stinson hit a spinning shot in the lane to put Iowa State ahead with 38.5 seconds left and the Cyclones went on to beat Missouri 70-65 on Wednesday night.

Stinson, who scored 16 of his 22 points in the second half, helped Iowa State (8-2) build a 12-point lead in the Big 12 opener, then led the Cyclones back after Missouri (5-5) went up by seven.

Missouri pulled ahead 65-64 on Rickey Paulding's two free throws with 2:06 remaining and the Tigers had a chance to expand their lead after a traveling call negated a basket by Iowa State's Jared Homan at the 1:36 mark.

But Paulding missed a 3-point shot and Iowa State capitalized. Stinson, a 6-foot-2 guard, drove into the lane, spun and put up a soft shot that dropped through the basket.

Will Blalock, Iowa State's other freshman guard, then picked off a Paulding pass and Missouri had to foul Jake Sullivan, who hasn't missed a free throw all season. Sullivan made two with 17.1 seconds left for a 68-65 lead and Homan sank two more to finish it off after Paulding missed another 3-point attempt.

Blalock, Sullivan and Homan all finished with 11 points, with Blalock adding five assists and four steals.

Thomas Gardner led Missouri with 17 points and had the Tigers' last field goal, a 3-pointer with 5:47 remaining. Paulding scored 15 and Arthur Johnson had 10.

The game reflected Missouri's up-and-down season. The Tigers seemed to have righted themselves in a 20-point victory over Iowa last Saturday and seized the momentum Wednesday night with a 23-5 run that erased a 12-point Iowa State lead. Gardner's final 3 gave the Tigers a 63-56 lead, but Iowa State came right back. Stinson scored six straight points and Homan followed with a jumper in an 8-0 burst that put Iowa State up 64-63 with 3:14 remaining. Paulding then hit his two free throws to give Missouri its final lead.

Johnson Scores 19 To Lead Tigers Over Aggies

Mizzou 82, Texas A&M 77

Jan. 10, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Arthur Johnson had 19 points, 12 rebounds and a key blocked shot to lead Missouri to an 82-77 win over Texas A&M on Saturday.

Rickey Paulding added 16 points for Missouri (6-5, 1-1 Big 12), which won for just the second time in its last six games after being ranked as high as No. 3.

Texas A&M trailed 71-58 with 4:46 to go, when Travon Bryant hit two free throws for Missouri, but the Aggies made it close with a late run

Acie Law's 3-pointer got the Aggies within 76-71 with 1:04 left, and his basket with 14.6 seconds remaining cut the margin to 81-77.

After Missouri called time, Antoine Wright fouled the Tigers' Jimmy McKinney on the inbounds play.

McKinney, who finished with 12 points, hit the first of his two free throws with 14.1 seconds left and Johnson blocked Wright's layup attempt with 3.8 seconds to go.

Texas A&M led 42-41 on Turner's 3-point shot with 16:12 left in the game, but Missouri responded with a 20-6 run for a 61-48 lead with 8½ minutes remaining.

Freshman Thomas Gardner started the Tigers' surge with a 3-point play and later added a 3-pointer that made it 54-44 with 12:24 to go. Another freshman, Linas Kleiza, capped the run with four straight points.

Texas A&M missed six of its first seven shots in the game and trailed by as many as 10 points in the first half but stayed close with five 3-pointers and a 19-17 rebounding edge before the break.

Missouri led 27-17 on Paulding's 3-point play with just over five minutes left in the first half, but then didn't manage a field goal for the next 3½ minutes.
The Aggies hit three 3-pointers in a 13-1 run that put them up 30-28 with 1:45 left, but Johnson scored two inside baskets down the stretch to put the Tigers up 34-31 at the half.

Tigers Fall To 'Cuse at Hearnes

Syracuse 82, Missouri 68

Jan. 12, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Hakim Warrick had 21 points and 12 rebounds, and No. 17 Syracuse pulled away in the second half to beat Missouri 82-68 Monday night for its 12th straight victory.

Coach Jim Boeheim won his 665th career game, pulling ahead of John Wooden for 19th on the career Division I victory list. He's 665-227 in 28 seasons at Syracuse.

The Orangemen (12-1) are unbeaten since losing the opener to Charlotte. This was their first true road game, and first time outside New York, and they were impressive against a team ranked as high as third earlier in the season.

Five players contributed to a 16-2 run that put the game away in the second half, turning a three-point lead into a 59-42 edge with 11:13 to go. Warrick capped the run with his third dunk of the game, and 37th of the season, off a feed from Josh Pace.

Missouri (6-6) was frustrated throughout by Syracuse's 2-3 zone and went almost five minutes between points during its drought. The Tigers, who got a season-best 25 points from Rickey Paulding, have lost five of seven after starting the season 3-1, and are 4-2 at home including an upset loss to Belmont last month.

The Tigers twice cut the deficit to eight points in the final four minutes. But Syracuse was clicking in all areas, including making 17 consecutive free throws at one point after entering the game shooting only 63 percent from the line.

Warrick has four double-doubles this season and paced an attack that had four players in double figures. Seven-footer Craig Forth added a career-best 18 points, hitting six of his first seven shots on layups off slick feeds.

Gerry McNamara had 17 points, including three 3-pointers, for Missouri, and Josh Pace added 15, and McKinney 12.

Syracuse finished the first half on a 14-4 run, getting six points from Warrick and the last four from Pace and connecting on its last five shots. That erased a four-point deficit, giving the Orangemen a 38-32 lead at the break.

Tigers Drop OU in OT

Mizzou 79, Oklahoma 75

Jan. 17, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Even with Missouri trailing by 12 points and Oklahoma's fans in a frenzy, Rickey Paulding's confidence never wavered.

A scuffle late in the second half sparked the Tigers' rally and Paulding took over, scoring nine of his 23 points in overtime to lead Missouri to a 79-75 win over No. 11 Oklahoma and extend the Sooners' losing streak to three games.

The Tigers (7-6, 2-1 Big 12) scored seven straight points to open overtime, punctuated by a 3-pointer by Paulding to take a 65-58 lead.

Oklahoma made a frenzied rally over the final two minutes and pulled within 72-69 on a 3 by freshman guard Drew Lavender with 41.2 seconds left.

But Missouri shot 7-for-8 from the line down the stretch to clinch perhaps its most important victory of a tremendously disappointing season.

Emotions between these desperate teams bubbled over late in the second half when Brown and Missouri forward Arthur Johnson got tangled up while going after a tipped ball. Brown threw a punch at Johnson that missed and had to be restrained by a teammate.

A technical foul was called on Brown, and Paulding made one of two free throws as Missouri closed within 47-45 with 7:49 left in the game.

Two minutes later, the Tigers took their first lead since the first half on a 3-pointer by Travon Bryant.

The game was tied four times, at 52, 54, 56 and 58, as both teams traded shots inside the paint in the final five minutes.

The Sooners looked as if they might finally pull away after opening the second half with a 14-4 run, keyed by a couple of 3s from McKenzie.

But Linas Kleiza scored six straight points to get the Tigers' rally started, and after the tussle between Johnson and Brown, Missouri never trailed by fewer than two points. Missouri got clutch contributions from all of its senior stars: Paulding made all four of his 3-point attempts, Johnson had 16 points and 11 rebounds and Bryant added 12 points.

Texas Tops Tigers in OT

Paulding has 20 points in tough loss.

Jan. 20, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - For the second straight game, Royal Ivey was Texas' go-to guy at the finish.

Ivey scored 10 of his career-high 24 points in overtime to lead the No. 16 Longhorns to a 75-69 victory Tuesday night over Missouri, their second straight narrow escape. Ivey also was the hero in a two-point victory over Nebraska Saturday, getting the winning basket with 2.4 seconds left.

Rickey Paulding had 20 points for Missouri (7-7, 2-2 Big 12), but missed five free throws in the final four minutes of regulation and overtime. Paulding, a 78-percent free throw shooter, was 6-for-12 overall.

Missouri played its second straight overtime. The Tigers won 79-75 at Oklahoma on Saturday. The Tigers were 1-2 in a three-game, eight-day stretch against ranked opponents and fell to .500 for the second time of the season.

Texas forced the extra period on a 3-pointer by Brian Boddicker with 6.7 seconds left, after Arthur Johnson had blocked Ivey on a drive. Paulding, who drove the baseline for a dunk that put Missouri ahead 61-58 with 31 seconds left, was too long on a 3-pointer for the win at the buzzer.

In retrospect, Snyder wished Johnson hadn't picked up his fifth blocked shot of the game because Ivey's basket would have left Missouri ahead by one.

Johnson added 16 points and seven rebounds for Missouri, and Linas Kleiza had 14 points.

Texas has beaten Missouri six straight times, three times on the road. The Longhorns are 29-12 on the road in Big 12 play in six years under Barnes.

Mouton had seven points and Kenton Paulino four during a 13-4 run to start the second half that put Texas ahead 35-29 with 15:50 to go.

But the game was tied eight times in the final eight minutes of regulation and neither team led by more than three points.

Missouri has lost six of its last nine games.
