MISSOURI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL WRAP-UP

Tigers End Season at 18-11

COLUMBIA, Mo., March __--The Missouri women's basketball season ended sooner than the Tigers would have liked or are accustomed to, but the young Tiger squad exceeded all preseason expectations.

The Tigers ended the season 18-11 with an 84-80 loss to Colorado in the semifinals of the Big Eight Tournament. It marked the first time since the 1978-79 season that the Tigers had not won at least 20 games. Mizzou finished 9-5 in the Big Eight season for second.

At the start of the season, no one expected coach Joann Rutherford to take the Tigers to second in the league. Mizzou's top returning scorer averaged 8.7 points and only six players remained with varsity experience.

But the Tigers relied on balance to achieve their success this season. At one point in the season, they had all five starters averaging in double figures and ended the season with four.

Senior Tracy Ellis emerged as a star, leading the team in scoring with an 18.5 average and leading the Big Eight in rebounding with her 9.2 average. Ellis was selected first-team all Big Eight. She set the school record with 22 rebounds against Kansas and finished sixth on the career rebounding list with 707. She ended the season with a career-best 30-point performance against Colorado, along with 13 rebounds. She was named to the all-tournament team for her 51 points and 19 rebounds.

Junior Sandie Prophete showed star potential at times and was chosen second-team all-Big Eight. Prophete played one of her best games of the season against Colorado, hitting 26 points with a career-best 14 rebounds. She averaged 15.3 points per game along with 6.0 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.9 steals.

The other Tiger senior Lisa Ellis also played well, leading Mizzou in assists with 4.0 per game and steals with 2.0. She averaged 11.6 points per game.

But other Tigers played key roles, with almost everyone having a chance to shine. Tonya Jorgenson emerged as a steady point guard for the Tigers after playing only 27 games her first two seasons. Monique Lucas averaged 12.1 points and 3.6 rebounds per game.

Missouri had five players score in double figures in five games this season and in 10 other games, had four players hit double digits. That balance kept Mizzou in games this year and allows Rutherford to build on a solid foundation for next year. Missouri loses only Tracy and Lisa Ellis. Prophete can play either guard spot or the wing forward position. Jorgenson returns at point guard and Lucas can score at the forward spot. Freshman Lisa Sandbothe emerged as a force in the middle, starting the last eight games, and Stacey Primus played well at times and gives the Tigers height in the middle. Sophomore Sharon Bax started 11 games, giving the Tigers solid rebounding and great hustle. Freshman guard Carla Yancey spent the season learning the system and should challenge for a starting spot next year.

"I was pleased with our conference season," Rutherford said. "We did a good job there. Our biggest disappointment was losing our last three of four games and coming up short at the Big Eight Tournament.

"We had some excellent individual performances this year. I can't say enough about Tracy Ellis. She had an exceptional year. She was consistent every game, she was coachable, she provided leadership. She did everything we asked her to do. Tonya gave us a lot of leadership and did a good job at the point position. Sandy Prophete came through and so did Monique. Our freshman got some good playing time and will get better.

"We couldn't get everybody playing together at the same time. We would have great performances from one or two people then the next game it would be somebody else. We needed one or two more to have great games at the same time.

"We have a good team with good kids. I think they played hard every game and we were in every game. That's something I'm proud of," Rutherford said.

Coach Joann Rutherford: Joann Rutherford ends her 13th season with the Tigers with a 278-125 record. The Tigers have won 20 or more games in 10 of Rutherford's seasons and have gone to the NCAA tournament five times.

T. Ellis Update: Tracy Ellis became the 13th Mizzou player to score over 1,000 in a career. She ends with 1,052 and an 8.9 average. In other career categories, she has 707 rebounds in 6th, 306 free throws made in 4th, 442 free throws attempted in 3rd, 71 blocks in 5th. Her career field goal percentage of .501 is fifth. Ellis had 22 rebounds against Kansas on Jan. 13 to set a school record. She was named to the Big Eight and Amana-Hawkeye all-tournament teams and was MVP of the Mid-America Classic. As for season totals, Ellis' 535 points was the eighth best offensive season in Tiger history. Her point average (18.5) was fifth and field goal percentage (.557) was fourth. Her 268 rebounds was the seventh best in a season and her 9.2 average was fifth. In her last nine games, which started with three consecutive 26-point games, Ellis averaged 21.4 points per game. She scored in double figures in every game this season, except two and scored 20 or more 13 times. She also led the Tigers in field goal accuracy with .557 and free throw with .788.

L. Ellis Update: Lisa has 324 career assists, second on the list. She has 146 career steals for sixth. Her 116 assists this season is sixth best on that list. Lisa was named to the Mid-America all-tournament team and ends her career with 868 points. She scored in double figures 18 times.

Prophete Update: Junior Sandie Prophete turned in a good season and should move into the top five in several career categories next year. She has 901 points, 171 assists and 128 steals. She scored in double figures 21 times this season and over 20 eight.

Lucas Update: Junior Monique Lucas has started five of the last six games. Over the final seven games, she scored 14.7 points and 3.1 rebounds, while dishing out almost two assists per game. She hit a career high of 26 against Colorado on Feb. 24. Lucas scored in double figures in 17 games and 20 or more seven times.

Sandbothe Update: Freshman Lisa Sandbothe started the last seven games. Over the last eight, she averaged 11.0 points and 6.0 rebounds. During that time, she also had eight blocks, 11 steals and 12 assists while shooting .540 from the field. Sandbothe led the Tigers with 23 blocks, averaging 6.4 points and 3.5 rebounds as a rookie.
