#ZOUNOTES - STATS YOU NEED TO KNOW

- 8: Saturday marks the eighth all-time meeting between Mizzou and Florida and the seventh since Mizzou joined the SEC in 2012. Mizzou holds a slight 4-3 advantage in the all-time series, including a 2017 win in Columbia. Mizzou is 1-2 all-time in games played in Gainesville and last won in The Swamp in 2014, a 42-13 triumph.
- 10,839: The career passing yards for Mizzou senior QB Drew Lock. Lock is just the ninth SEC QB ever to throw for 10,000 yards in a career (112th QB in FBS history). He is also sixth in the SEC with 87 career TD passes.
- 37: Passing yards needed by Mizzou QB Drew Lock to move into sixth place on the SEC's all-time career passing yards list. He would pass Florida's Danny Wuerffel, who had 10,875 from 1993-96. Lock also needs just two TD passes to move past Florida's Chris Leak and Tim Tebow for the third-most TD passes in SEC history. If he throws for three TDs Saturday, he would pass Tennessee's Peyton Manning for third all-time.
- 16: Consecutive regular season games that Mizzou has forced a TO.
- 37: The total tackles by Mizzou junior LB Cale Garrett over the last three games. He is coming off of a career-best performance vs. Kentucky as he tallied a team- and career-high 14 stops, including three on fourth-down stops. He is fifth in the SEC with 69 total tackles and his 48 solo tackles rank second in the league. He has 25 solo tackles among his 37 total stops over the last three games. He has 10+ tackles in three straight games, making him the first Tiger since 2015 to do so.
- 3.28: The average yards per carry of Mizzou's opponents over the last 15 games. That mark would rank 15th nationally despite Mizzou playing in the SEC, a league that prides itself on running the football. Mizzou has limited opponents to just 3.55 yards per carry and held Kentucky, a team that was averaging 5.3 yards per carry coming into the game, to just 2.6 last time out, its second-lowest of the season.

STORY LINES

- THE MATCHUP: Mizzou Football (4-4 overall, 0-4 in SEC action) hits the road to begin the final month of the season, as it travels to Gainesville, Fla., where it will take on the 13/14th-ranked Florida Gators (6-2, 4-2) Saturday afternoon. The game is set for a kickoff of 3:01 p.m. (CT), and will be televised on the SEC Network. The Tigers will alternate home and away games each of the next four weeks to close out the 2018 regular season, as they host Vanderbilt Nov. 10, play at Tennessee on Nov. 17 and host Arkansas on Nov. 23. Tom Hart, Jordan Rodgers and Cole Cubelic will be on the call and the game will also be broadcast on the Tiger Radio Network with Mike Kelly, Howard Richards and Chris Gervino providing the commentary.
- ALL-TIME SERIES WITH FLORIDA: Mizzou and Florida have played seven times over the years with the Tigers holding a 4-3 edge in the all-time series. Mizzou won last year's meeting in Columbia, a 45-16 triumph as part of a six-game winning streak to close the regular season. That snapped a two-game skid against the Gators for Coach Barry Odom's team.
- In games played in the Swamp, Mizzou is 1-2 all-time. Mizzou dropped its first ever game played at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, 14-7, back in 2012. Mizzou then routed the Gators in 2014, 42-13, en-route to a second consecutive SEC East title. Mizzou's last meeting in Gainesville came in 2016 when the Gators earned a 40-14 win.
- As part of the SEC, Mizzou and Florida have each won three meetings. The only other game between the two SEC East foes was in the 1966 Sugar Bowl, a 20-18 Mizzou win in New Orleans. Mizzou finished that 1965 season with an 8-2 record and a final ranking of No. 6 nationally under head coach Dan Devine.
- RECAPING LAST TIME OUT: Mizzou is coming off a heartbreaking 15-14 home loss to 12th-ranked Kentucky that saw the Wildcats rally from a 14-3 deficit with less than six minutes left in the game – and score the winning touchdown with no time left on the clock after being given an extra down due to a pass interference call in the end zone on what could have been the game's final play. Given the extra down, Kentucky completed a two-yard pass which turned Mizzou's 14-9 advantage into a gut-wrenching defeat.
- FLORIDA vs. GEORGIA: Florida is also looking to rebound from a loss, as the Gators fell 36-17 to seventh-ranked Georgia last Saturday in their annual rivalry game at Jacksonville, Fla. The loss broke a five-game winning streak by the Gators, which had included a pair of wins over ranked opponents, including No. 19 Mississippi State (13-6 on Sept. 29) and vs. No. 5 LSU (27-19 on Oct. 6).
- MIZZOU ALL-TIME vs. No. 13: Florida comes into Saturday's game ranked No. 13 in the AP Top-25 Poll. While that may seem like bad news for the Tigers as they get set to face a Top-25 team, a piece of history is actually on Mizzou's side. The Tigers have played seven games in history against teams ranked No. 13 in the AP poll and hold a 5-2 record all-time against those teams.
- Three of those seven meetings have come since 2013. Mizzou won the 2014 Cotton Bowl against Oklahoma State when the Cowboys were 13th nationally. Mizzou's last road game vs. No. 13 was a 21-20 win at South Carolina in 2014, helping the Tigers to the second of back-to-back SEC East titles. Mizzou has also defeated No. 13 Michigan (40-17 in 1969), No. 13 Nebraska (16-14 in 1968) and No. 13 Duke (28-7 in 1947).
- GARRETT EMERGING AS ONE OF SEC'S BEST LINEBACKERS: Mizzou junior captain LB Cale Garrett is coming off a strong performance last Saturday vs. Kentucky as he posted a career-high 14 tackles to lead Mizzou's defense. He has posted 10+ tackles in three consecutive games, becoming the first Tiger defender to accomplish that since current Minnesota Viking Kentrell Brothers did so in 2015 when he led the nation in tackles.
- Of Garrett's 14 tackles last week, three came on huge fourth-down stops to stall Kentucky drives.
- On the year, Garrett is now fifth in the SEC with his 69 total tackles while his 48 solo tackles rank second in the league, trailing only Arkansas' De'Jon Harris, who has 50. Harris was a second-team All-SEC pick a year ago as Garrett finds himself around some elite company this season.
- Over his last three games, he has 37 tackles with 25 of those being of the solo variety.
- RUN DEFENSE CONTINUES TO BE STOUT: Against one of the nation's top rushing offenses last week, Mizzou once again proved why its run defense continues to be one of its strengths. Mizzou limited Kentucky to just 2.6 yards per carry on 35 attempts, holding the team to just 91 yards on the ground. That was UK's second-worst output of the season on the ground. The Wildcats entered last Saturday's game averaging 5.3 yards per carry as a team and 231.6 yards per game on the ground.
- The performance by Mizzou's defense defending the run came just one week removed from limiting Memphis to a 4.65 yards per carry average. The visiting Tigers came into that game averaging 7.3 as a team.
- Over the last 15 games, Mizzou is limiting opponents 3.28 yards per carry and has held seven of its opponents to fewer than 1000 yards during that 15-game stretch. For perspective's sake, Mizzou's 3.28 opponent yards per carry average would rank 15th nationally this season, 10th among Power Five teams and second in the SEC.
- OFFENSIVE LINE GETTING IT DONE AGAIN: Coming into the season, a perceived area of strength for Mizzou was its massive, physical offensive line that returned all five starters from its record breaking group. Over the last two years, the group turned in the best marks in college football history when it came to preventing negative plays. So far this year, not much has changed. Mizzou is second in the SEC (19th nationally) in sacks allowed, averaging just 1.25 per game. Mizzou has also surrendered just 35 negative plays through eight games, ranking 14th nationally. Mizzou allowed just four negative plays last weekend vs. Kentucky.

STORY LINES

- LOCK LIVES AMONG SEC'S GREATNESS: Mizzou senior QB Drew Lock's four TD passes vs. Memphis moved him one place closer to sole possession of fourth place all-time among SEC quarterbacks with 87 career passing TDs. He enters Saturday's game at Florida just one shy of tying Florida's Tim Tebow (2006-09) and Chris Leak (2003-06) who both had 88 in their careers. Below is a list:

Rank	TD Passes	Quarterback	School	Years
1.	121	Aaron Murray	Georgia	2010-13
2.	114	Danny Wuerffel	Florida	1993-96
3.	89	Peyton Manning	Tennessee	1994-97
4.	88	Chris Leak	Florida	2003-06
	88	Tim Tebow	Florida	2006-09
6.	87	Drew Lock	Mizzou	2015-18

- Additionally, Lock now has 10,839 career passing yards, making him just the 112th quarterback in college football history to do so. Only nine SEC quarterbacks have ever thrown for more than 10,000 yards in a career and before Lock, the last to do so was Georgia's Aaron Murray in 2013. Below is a list:

Rank	Yards	Quarterback	School	Years
1.	13,166	Aaron Murray	Georgia	2010-13
2.	11,528	David Greene	Georgia	2001-04
3.	11,213	Chris Leak	Florida	2003-06
4.	11,201	Peyton Manning	Tennessee	1994-97
5.	11,153	Eric Zeier	Georgia	1991-94
6.	10,875	Danny Wuerffel	Florida	1993-96
7.	10,839	Drew Lock	Mizzou	2015-18
8.	10,345	Jared Lorenzen	Kentucky	2000-03
9.	10,119	Eli Manning	Ole Miss	2000-03

- Among active FBS quarterbacks, Lock is third with his 10,674 career passing yards. Only Boise State's Brett Rypien (12,441) and Washington's Jake Browning (11,153) rank ahead of Lock.
- Lock is just the second Mizzou QB to throw for more than 10,000 yards, trailing only 2007 Heisman finalist Chase Daniel, who holds the school record of 12,515 from 2005-09. That, by the way, ranks 26th in FBS history.
- Lock now has 29 career games with 200+ passing yards, second in school history.
- Lock has thrown for 200+ yards in 24 of his last 27 games. He had a streak of 15 straight games doing so snapped two weeks ago at Alabama.
- With 350 yards vs. Memphis, Lock now has 12 career 300-yard games, second in school history behind only Daniel (20).
- Lock registered his 11th career game with four or more TDs vs. Memphis - he has nine such games among his last 13.
- Lock now has 46 career TD passes of 20+ yards, the most in school history.

- ALBERT O IS A TD MACHINE: Mizzou has produced its fair share of great tight ends - 2008 Mackey Award Winner Chase Coffman, All-Americans Martin Rucker and Michael Egniew, and NFL standouts Kellen Winslow and A.J. OfoDile. While the tradition is certainly there, it is not a stretch to think that Mizzou may currently have its best TE ever in sophomore Albert Okwuegbunam.
- Against Memphis, he exploded for a career-high 159 yards on just six catches with a career-high three touchdowns. After leading all TEs last year with 11 TDs, he now has 16 in his career. The three-touchdown outburst two weeks ago gave him his fifth career game with multiple TD catches, tied for the most ever by a Mizzou tight end with 2008 Mackey Award Winner Coffman. Coffman tallied his fifth career multi-TD game in his 51st career game. Albert O did so in just 20 career games.
- Okwuegbunam ranks third all-time among Mizzou TEs with his 16 TD grabs, trailing only Coffman (30 from 2005-08) and Rucker (18 from 2004-07).

- In only 20 career games, Okwuegbunam has already cracked the Mizzou career receiving touchdowns top-10, thanks to his stellar outing against Memphis, when he caught six passes for a career-high 159 yards and three touchdowns. The three scores gave him 16 for his career (five in 2018), which puts him eighth on the all-time Mizzou receiving chart.

Mizzou Career Receiving TD Leaders

Player	TDs	Years
1. Chase Coffman (TE)	30	2006-09
2. Danario Alexander	22	2006-09
Jeremy Maclin	22	2007-08
4. J'Mon Moore	21	2014-17
5. Martin Rucker (TE)	18	2004-07
Justin Gage	18	1999-02
7. Dorial Green-Beckham	17	2012-13
8. Albert Okwuegbunam (TE)	16	2017-18
9. L'Damian Washington	15	2010-13
10. Bud Sasser	14	2011-14
Mel Gray	14	1968-70

- THREE-HEADED MONSTER AT RB: While Mizzou QB Drew Lock and the Tiger passing attack often steal the headlines, it is the running game that gives Mizzou great balance and a chance to have its elite offense. That running attack is highlighted by a three-headed monster at the position in sophomore Larry Rountree III, junior Damarea Crockett and true freshman Tyler Badie. Through eight games, the trio has combined for and incredible 1,282 yards on just 247 carries (5.2 avg.) with 12 touchdowns. In Mizzou's offense, each back has been as important as the next as each brings a different style to the offense. Rountree, the more downhill and physical of three, leads Mizzou with 594 yards on 108 carries (5.84 avg.) with a team-high eight scores. Crockett, a 1,000-yard rush as a freshman, brings great speed, size and elusiveness to the position and he has rushed for 463 yard on 101 carries (4.6 avg.). Badie is more of an all-purpose back who has blazing speed. He's rushed for 330 yards on 68 carries (4.9 avg.).
- Mizzou is the only team in the country to feature three running back who all have 60+ carries while all averaging more than 4.58 yards per carry. All three of these running backs could be featured backs on almost any team in the nation, but have embraced their roles splitting carries and Mizzou's offense has benefited. As a team, Mizzou is averaging 4.51 yards per carry this season. Keep in mind that those rushing numbers have come despite Mizzou playing five teams that rank in the national top-50 in rushing defense (Kentucky - No. 17, Alabama - No. 21, Wyoming - No. 23, Purdue - No. 36, Georgia - No. 43.). Mizzou has yet to play an FBS rush defense ranked outside the national top-100 and is still putting up impressive numbers on the ground.
- The Tigers are averaging 4.80 yards per carry on first down and 4.78 on second down, putting the offense in good position to convert third downs.

- CROCKETT REACHES MILESTONE: Mizzou junior RB Damarea Crockett reached a milestone last Saturday vs. Kentucky, surpassing 2,000 in his career. He is just the 17th Mizzou player to ever rush for 2,000 career yards, but what is even more impressive is that he is the third-fastest ever to reach that career mark based on carries.
- Crockett has amassed his 2,006 career yards on just 334 carries, giving him a 6.0 yards per carry average. Only Henry Josey (eclipsed 2,000 on his 293rd carry) and Bob Stueber (281 carries) have reached 2,000 career yards faster. Crockett's 6.0 yards per carry average will rank him third among all Mizzou rushers who have reached 2,000 career yards. He is the first Mizzou rusher to reach 2,000 career yards since Russell Hansbrough in 2015. Crockett had 45 yards and a touchdown on 11 carries last time out vs. Kentucky.
- On the year, Crockett has 463 yards on 101 carries and is averaging 57.9 yards per game as part of Mizzou's tremendous three-headed monster at running back.

STORY LINES

- TURNOVERS TELLING THE STORY: It's an old coaching axiom that whichever team wins the turnover battle, usually wins the game. Through eight games in 2018, the Missouri Tigers are definitely party to that line of thinking, as Mizzou is 4-1 when winning (or even) in the turnover category, and they're 0-3 when losing that category.
- In Mizzou's four wins, the Tigers are plus-three in turnovers (five gained, two lost), and have outscored opponents by a 23-3 margin in points off turnovers. Conversely, in Mizzou's four losses, the Tigers are minus-four in turnovers (four gained, eight lost) and have been outscored 27-6 in points off turnovers.

- KNOX STANDING OUT AMONG SEC FRESHMEN: Freshman WR Jalen Knox has emerged as a big-play receiver for the Mizzou offense, and his performance thus far has him squarely in the mix among the best freshman pass-catchers in not only the SEC, but the nation. Through eight games, Knox – who has been forced into the role of Mizzou's number one receiver due to injuries to senior starters Emanuel Hall and Nate Brown – ranks second in the SEC among all freshmen receivers, and he's also seventh nationally among Power Five freshmen with 396 receiving yards. He's caught 23 passes in all, and has three receiving touchdowns. He has won SEC Freshman of the Week twice, most recently following a 104-yard performance with a score vs. Memphis.
- His score vs. Memphis was a 44-yarder from QB Drew Lock in the second quarter that proved to be one of the biggest momentum plays that keyed Mizzou's eventual 65-33 win. The Tigers had seen a 21-0 lead shrink to 21-17, but the offense struck for a big score one possession before Knox's touchdown, but the lead was only 27-17 before an interception by CB Adam Sparks gave MU the ball back. On the first play after the turnover, Knox took in a beautiful pass in stride from Lock and raced untouched to paydirt that quickly put Mizzou up, 34-17.
- Knox has a pair of 100-yard games in his first seven games as a Tiger, notching a career-high 110 yards and a TD (five receptions) in Mizzou's win at Purdue earlier this season.

- Additionally, Knox ranks highly on Mizzou's all-time freshman receiving list.

- YES, HE McCANN: Junior PK Tucker McCann has one of the nation's strongest legs, and he's put that on display the past couple of games. McCann, who is 15-of-22 on field goal tries this season through eight contests (68.2%), has three makes of 43 yards or further in the last four games, including a 57-yarder at South Carolina with just 1:23 left in the game that temporarily gave Mizzou a 35-34 lead and would have stood as the game-winner had Carolina not rallied for the 37-35 win.
- McCann's 57-yarder (which cleared halfway up the uprights and likely would have been good from well over 60 yards, stands as the longest made field goal of the season in 2018, through games of Oct. 27. It was the second-longest kick in Mizzou history, trailing only a 62-yarder made by former Tiger barefoot kicker Tom Whelihan (1986 vs. Colorado). Here's a look at the longest field goals of the year so far:

Yards	Kicker	Opponent
57	Tucker McCann, Jr. (Mizzou)	South Carolina (Oct. 6)
55	Alex Kessman, So. (Pittsburgh)	Syracuse (Oct. 6)
55	Wyatt Bryan, Sr. (Colorado State)	Arkansas (Sept. 8)

- McCann, a preseason All-SEC second-team pick by league media, also booted a 43-yarder at Alabama in his only attempt of the game. He stands fifth nationally coming into Florida with his 1.88 makes per game, 10th in points (9.4) and he's 2-of-3 from 50 yards or further, which makes him one of only five Mizzou kickers to have made two or more 50 yarders in his career. The list:

5	Tom Whelihan (1984-87)	62, 54, 53, 51, 50
4	Jeff Jacke (1988-92)	51, 51, 50, 50
2	Tucker McCann (2016-18)	57, 50

2	Jeff Wolfert (2006-08)	54, 51

- IT'S ALL ABOUT THE BALL: In the fourth quarter of Mizzou's last game vs. Kentucky, Mizzou junior CB DeMarkys Acy hauled in his first career interception. That play continued an impressive streak for the Mizzou defense as the Tigers have now forced a turnover in 16 consecutive regular season games, dating back to Oct. 10, 2017, at Kentucky.
- In those 16 games, Mizzou is 10-6 overall, as turnovers have been a key to the Tigers' improved play on defense.

- TBJ RETURNS: Mizzou DT Terry Beckner, Jr., a former No. 1 recruit nationally, turned down a chance to go the NFL last season and returned to Mizzou for his senior year. After suffering a pair of season-ending knee injuries during his first two seasons, Beckner completed a full 13-game slate a year ago and finally was able to look like the No. 1 player that he was tabbed as coming out of high school. Beckner posted very productive numbers for an interior lineman, including career-highs in tackles (38), tackles for loss (11.0), sacks (7.0), quarterback pressures (5), and also made a huge highlight-reel interception on the goal line at Vanderbilt that he returned 49 yards that helped seal Mizzou's bowl-clinching win in November. Through eight games this year, he has 19 tackles with a team-high 7.5 tackles for loss, including TFLs in six of the last seven games. He had three tackles, 1.5 TFLs and a sack last time over vs. Kentucky.

- FLOYD RETURNS: Mizzou junior WR and preseason All-American in the return game Richaud Floyd returned to the field two weeks ago vs. Memphis after missing the first six games with a broken leg suffered in training camp. He caught three passes for 28 yards in the game and expects to be a key contributor moving forward for Derek Dooley's offense. He enters the week atop one of the WR spots on the depth chart, helping Mizzou WR crops that has been decimated by injury this season. Last year, Floyd caught 14 passes for 170 yards and two scores while playing in the slot. He's moved to the outside this year as that is where Mizzou needs him to play with injuries to some of the other WRs.

BARRY ODOM

In just his second year as a head coach, University of Missouri's own Barry Odom put together one of the more remarkable seasons in school history, when his 2017 Tigers achieved a seven-win season and earned the program's first bowl game since 2014. Mizzou closed the regular season as one of the nation's hottest teams, thanks to a six-game win streak that culminated in a thrilling road win at Arkansas. That win moved Mizzou to 7-5 marking an amazing in-season turnaround that saw MU rebound from a 1-5 start on the year.

Odom's team earned an invitation to the 2017 Academy Sports + Outdoor Texas Bowl for its effort, and while the end result of the bowl game didn't go Mizzou's way, the appearance certainly represented an important step in the right direction for the program. Coming off a 4-8 season in 2016, Mizzou was picked to finish dead last in the seven-team Southeastern Conference Eastern Division by the pre-season pundits, but the Tigers defied the prognosticators as they ended tied for third at 4-4 in league play – becoming the first SEC team to ever start 0-4 in conference play and finish 4-4.

Odom became the first Mizzou coach to make a bowl game in his second year at MU since Warren Powers did so in each of his first two seasons in 1978 and 1979. The 2017 Texas Bowl marked the seventh post season classic of his coaching or playing career – he's 2-3 as a coach, and went 1-1 as a player for former Coach Larry Smith.

A longtime fixture at Mizzou, Odom, 41, is guiding a program he has been immersed in at every level for some 16 years – including six in an administrative capacity (2003-08), six as a coach (2009-11, 2015-17) and four as a highly-successful student-athlete (1996-99). His three-year mark stands at 15-18 overall – the last time an MU coach had a better 30-game start to his career was in 1978-80 when Warren Powers was 22-11 through the same number of games.

The 2016 season was Odom's first as Mizzou's head coach, and came after he had spent the previous four seasons as a defensive coordinator, including three at Memphis (2012-14) and one at Missouri (2015), where his units were considered among the nation's best.

Highly-respected among his coaching peers for his integrity and for his championship vision, Odom worked through a rebuilding year in 2016 that saw Mizzou win four games. The Tigers closed the season out in strong fashion, with wins in two of their final three games - with both coming against bowl teams in Arkansas and Vanderbilt.

Odom was named the 32nd head football coach in program history in December of 2015, and his undeniable passion for Mizzou, coupled with his strong track record of success at each level of his career, pointed to him being the right man to lead the Tigers into the future in the nation's toughest conference.

In 2015, Odom turned in an outstanding season as first-year defensive coordinator for Mizzou under coach Gary Pinkel (who retired after that season), as his Tigers ranked ninth nationally in total defense, allowing just 302.0 yards per game. Since the NCAA began tracking defensive statistics in 1978, that marked the first time in MU history that Mizzou had produced a top-10 defense. Odom's defense was also ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2 avg.), seventh in pass defense (169.2 avg.) and second in tackles for loss (8.8 avg.).

Prior to that, Odom became one of the more highly sought-after coordinators in the country due to three stellar years directing Memphis' defense from 2012-14. His 2014 defense was a key component of Memphis' 10-3 season, as his unit finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 avg.) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 avg.). That marked an impressive incremental improvement under Odom's watch, as Memphis ranked 117th nationally in total defense the season prior to his arrival. In his first season at Memphis, the defense improved to 50th nationally (383.6 avg.), followed by a jump to 39th in 2013 (370.7 avg.). Memphis earned a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference title, giving them a conference championship for the first time since 1971.

Odom, a Maysville, Okla., native played at Mizzou and starred as a linebacker from 1996-99. He ended his playing career with 362 tackles, which still ranks as seventh-most in school history. Odom was a captain for his senior year of 1999, and was a key figure on the Missouri teams which reached bowl games in 1997 and 1998, ending a 14-year postseason drought for Tiger fans.

Success followed Odom's career path at each future stop after his playing days. After earning his undergraduate degree in December of 1999, he served as an intern with Mizzou's Tiger Scholarship Fund while he worked on his Master's in Education from the University of Missouri (which he would earn in May of 2004). He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of that year to serve as an assistant football coach for his alma mater Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state title.

Odom was quickly back in his adopted hometown of Columbia, Mo., the next spring, as he took over as head coach at Rock Bridge High School. He quickly built the Bruins into a power, as they went 6-4 in 2001, and won a conference championship. He followed with an 8-4 campaign in 2002 that saw Rock Bridge reach the semifinals of the state championship playoffs.

Running a college program became a focal point next, and Odom began that path by joining the Mizzou football staff, first as an administrative graduate assistant for Pinkel in 2003. He spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons as Pinkel's director of recruiting as the staff assembled a core group which would help lead Mizzou to consecutive Big 12 Conference North Division titles in 2007 and 2008 which consisted of 12-win and 10-win seasons, respectively.

SHOW ME

THE $98M FUTURE OF #TheZOU

▼ The University of Missouri Board of Curators unanimously voted on Aug. 25, 2017, to approve construction of Mizzou Athletics' $98 million south end zone facility at Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium. This project will provide state-of-the-art training facilities for Mizzou Football, create additional premium seating opportunities and game-day enhancements for all Tiger fans to enjoy, and bring new jobs to Columbia.

▼ The Board of Curators' total approved project budget is $98 million; to consist of campus infrastructure funds totaling $800,000, long-term debt financing not to exceed $57 million and private gifts covering the remainder of the project costs.

▼ The Tigers' new football operations area will include team and staff locker rooms, an enhanced sports medicine facility featuring a Hydrotherapy area with recovery pools, Hydroworx and lap pools, a weight room, nutrition oasis and equipment room, as well as team and position meeting rooms, and coaches offices. A grand lobby entrance at field level showcasing Mizzou's proud football tradition will greet visitors, and a recruiting lounge will allow the Tigers' staff to host recruits

- ▼ Since the athletics department received its first pledge toward the new facility last September, the generosity of 42 individuals, coupled with A.D. Jim Sterk's visionary leadership, has generated more than $50 million in pledges over the last 11 months to help this game-changing project come to fruition. Construction of the nearly 200,000-square foot facility, which includes more than 150,000 square feet of enclosed space, began early in 2018 with the demolition of the stadium's south end zone grandstands, and be completed ahead of the 2019 campaign.
- ▼ Memorial Stadium's capacity, will be around 65,000 when the largest capital project in Mizzou Athletics history is complete, according to school officials.
- ▼ Coach Odom: "Missouri is making a bold statement with today's announcement and I am confident that it not only will pay big dividends in recruiting, but it will help improve our game-day atmosphere throughout the stadium," he added. "I can't wait to get the shovels in the ground and get going. I am thankful to lead the Mizzou Football program and represent our University and State, and am pleased we have undertaken a project of this stature.

LUXURY SEATING

- ▼ 16 Suites
- ▼ 750-person field-level club
- ▼ 1,254-seat indoor club
- ▼ General seating area for 1,324 fans
- ▼ A full kitchen will also be constructed in the facility to service the new premium areas, and new video boards will further enhance the Mizzou game-day experience.
- ▼ AD Jim Sterk: "Our goal is to build one of college football's premier facilities for our student-athletes and coaches to utilize on a daily basis, and we are confident that we can achieve that within the project's budget and scope," he added. "When this facility is completed, not only will it be an incredible asset in recruiting, but our expectations are that it will enhance the game-day environment for our fans at Memorial Stadium, too."
