- Second in the SEC in wins (five) and ninth in saves (3)
- Sixth in the SEC with 49 total strikeouts

MIZZOU RESUMES SEC PLAY AT EAST RIVAL GEORGIA...

- Mizzou Baseball looks to snap a season-long six-game losing streak as it heads to Georgia for a three-game SEC series, beginning Thursday at 6:30 p.m. on ESPNU. Friday's game will air live on SEC Network+ at 6 p.m. while Saturday's series finale will be played at 12:30 p.m. (CT) at Suntrust Park, the brand new stadium of Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves, in the first game open to the public in the new stadium. There is no TV slated for that game, so Mizzou fans can catch the action on KTGR in the Mid-Missouri area with Tex Little and Matt Michaels on the call.
- Mizzou is coming off of a 5-3 Tuesday night loss to border rival Illinois, its sixth consecutive loss. Despite losing six in a row, Mizzou has done so by a combined seven runs with five one-run losses and Tuesday's two-run loss in that span.
- This weekend's Thursday-Saturday series is the first for Mizzou since at Kentucky from May 19-21 last season. Mizzou went 1-2 in that series with Tanner Houck pitching a gem on short rest that Thursday. In all, Mizzou went 3-6 in Thursday-Saturday series last season, being swept at Mississippi State and taking two of three from Auburn at home.
- The previously mentioned Houck has been tremendous in his career on short rest, especially last season. He started four games on short rest a year ago and had a combined 2.30 ERA in 33.1 innings in those four starts, striking out 34 against only four walks while winning two of the four starts with two complete games. All four starts came against good offensive teams as well vs. Auburn (9.0 inning complete game win), SEC Champion Mississippi State (7.1 innings, four hits, three earned runs), at Kentucky (9.0 complete game win, three earned runs) and against Vanderbilt five days later in the SEC Tournament (6.0 innings, two earned runs).

- Mizzou is making its first trip to Georgia since it opened SEC play in 2015 with a three-game series sweep of the Bulldogs at Foley Field. Mizzou won the opening game of that series in a doubleheader, 5-1, and then completed a 10-inning, 8-4 win in game two of that doubleheader. Now a junior, then a freshman, Tanner Houck pitched that second game, going 7.1 innings, allowing three earned runs with one walk and seven strikeouts. Mizzou then completed the sweep with a 6-0 shutout on Sunday that season.
- Mizzou is 5-1 all-time at Foley Field since joining the SEC, winning two of three over the Bulldogs in the Tigers' initial season in the SEC in 2013. Mizzou's only loss to the Bulldogs in Athens was a 6-5 decision in the Saturday game during the 2013 season. Mizzou also has a pair of shutouts at Foley Field and has won four straight dating back to that 2013 season.
- Mizzou Baseball will close its series with SEC East Division rival Georgia in the first ever college game at Suntrust Park, the brand new home of Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves, announced in January by the Braves. The game is scheduled for a 12:30 p.m. (CT) first pitch on Saturday, April 8.
- Suntrust Park, a $622 million stadium, has been under construction in the Cumberland area of Atlanta since November of 2014. The park had a soft open on March 31 as the Braves played the New York Yankees in a preseason game. Mizzou and Georgia's game comes one week later.
- SunTrust Park will be the perfect marriage of classic ballpark feel, modern amenities and southern hospitality, creating a fan experience unlike any other. An intimate setting of 41,149 seats (20 percent smaller than Turner Field) will be designed to maximize sightlines.

SCOUTING REPORT

- Two-Seam Fastball - 93-97 MPH
- Slider - 81-83 MPH
- Change-Up - Low 80s
- Developing a curveball
- Drafted in the 12th round by the Blue Jays coming out of high school
- Whippy, 3/4 arm slot makes his delivery tough on righties and lefties as he had plenty of deception when he comes to the plate ... Is extremely loose physically on the mound.
- Two-seamer is devastating pitch, tailing down and in under the hands on righties while tailing down and away to lefties ... Will throw his two-seam in any count ... batters will swing and miss or pound into the ground if they make contact.
- Slider can be a total wipeout pitch when he is on ... Heavy 2-to-8 break on the slider can make it a swing-and-miss pitch to both righties and lefties ... If he is locating with slider, the fastball-slider combination can be enough to dominate.
- Durable arm who has pitched 100+ innings in each season of college baseball
- Is extremely confident on the mound - not afraid of any situation and thrives in big games.

"Mizzou baseball might have the best amateur player alive in pitcher Tanner Houck"

- St. Louis Post-Dispatch Columnist Ben Hochman

- Fastball: 88-89 with sink
- Curveball: 72-75
- Change-Up
- Sits mid to upper 80s and has tremendous movement on his breaking ball.
- If he is locating, he can pick his spots with the breaking ball and keep hitters off balance.
- Breaking ball gets a lot of swing-and-misses
- Great poise and pin-point command with just nine walks in 58.0 innings as a freshman
- Strike thrower who doesn't throw very hard, but can keep hitters off balance by varying speeds, helping him miss bats.
- Mixes speeds on each of his pitches
- Lives on the corners

SCOUTING REPORT

- Four-Seam Fastball - 96-99 MPH - can touch 100
- Curveball - Developing pitch - sits high 70s to upper 80s
- Change-Up - Mid 80s
- Big, physical, imposing pitching prospect who throws the ball harder than any other Mizzou pitcher in recent memory
- Can touch 100 MPH with ease as his 6-7, 261-pound frame makes him a projectable pitcher at the next level.
- Drafted in the 14th round by the White Sox out of high school and is likely a top-five round pick this summer
- Spent last year sitting out with an elbow injury, suffered opening weekend of play but pitched all summer in the Cape Cod League and in the fall.
- Has enormous hands - can hold close to five baseballs in a single hand at once
- Still developing his off-speed pitches
- Has as high a ceiling as any pitcher on Mizzou's staff

"For now, the Tigers hope the righthander can be nestled into the weekend rotation with improved stuff, but time will tell if he's truly turned the corner. If he has, the Tigers truly have a wild card entering the spring."

- D1Baseball.com's Kendall Rogers

#36 COLE BARTLETT

Williamsburg, Ind. // Hagerstown HS

#17 T.J. SIKKEMA

DeWitt, Iowa // Central DeWitt HS
Freshman // 6-0 // 217
Pronounced: SICK-eh-muh

- Fastball is a hard and heavy 87-91 - uses it to set up offspeed stuff - can touch 90
- Incredible locater of pitches - Competes on the mound
- Coaching staff describes his stuff as 'electric'
- 3/4 arm slot delivery with a strong, built frame for a freshman -Commands the strike zone and works the corners w/ fastball.

87-91 MPH Fastball | 78-81 MPH Slider | 73-75 MPH Change-Up

- Slider has great depth and hard bite - change sits about 75 but comes at exact arm angle and release as fastball - deceptive
- Made two relief appearances for Mizzou in the opening weekend of SEC play against Alabama, throwing for a total of 5.1 innings
- Allowed just three walks and a pair of walks against 10 strikeouts across both relief outings, earning SEC CO-Freshman of the Week
- Earned his second and third saves of the season in the series opener (3/17) and the series finale (3/19)
- Threw 5.2 shutout innings in relief against Florida (4/1) in game two of the series. Allowed two hits and one walk during his relief appearance
- Has not allowed a run in 33.2 innings of work dating back to Feb. 18
- Leads the SEC in ERA (0.47), opposing batting average .143 and strike outs looking (23)
- Has arguably been the nation's top reliever and top freshman pitcher this season

95-99 MPH Fastball | 78-81 MPH Curveball | 85-88 MPH Change-Up

- Struck out his sole batter faced against Texas A&M CC (2/25)
- Earned first career win in first career start vs. EIU, going career-long 5.0 IP w/ 3 Ks, 1 run (unearned) and just 1 BB
- Went 5.0 innings while allowing just two hits with a career-high six strikeouts in a start vs. Chicago State
- Earned his second win of the season in a start against UALR, going 4.0 innings with four strikeouts and just two ERs
- Started Tuesday vs. SEMO, going 4.0 IP with a career-high six strikeouts and just two earned runs in a no-decision.
- Big, physical, imposing pitching prospect who throws the ball harder than any other Mizzou pitcher in recent memory
- Can touch 100 MPH with ease as his 6-7, 261-pound frame makes him a projectable pitcher at the next level.
- Drafted in the 14th round by the White Sox out of high school and is likely a top-five round pick this summer
- Spent last year sitting out with an elbow injury, suffered opening weekend of play but pitched all summer in the Cape Cod League and in the fall.
- Still developing his off-speed pitches

#28 LIAM CARTER

Highland Park, Ill. // Highland Park
RS Sophomore // 6-7 // 196

- Tall, long, projectable frame as he stands 6-7 - generates plenty of velo with his frame
- Has touched 95 MPH w/ his fastball but sits 90-93
- At less than 200 pounds, he has a chance to add even more velocity to his fastball as he continues to add muscle to his frame
- Curve ball is his out-pitch with a big 12-6 break - will use fastball to get ahead - will throw it in all counts
- Earning the staffs trust and has really made a push to be in the weekend rotation towards the end of spring camp
- His stuff is some of the best on the team - has a really high ceiling with dynamic fastball and curve ball
- Must prove that he is ready to pitch in big-time spots
- Will work backwards, throwing 12-6 curve early in counts - uses it to set up his fastball
- Made second start of the season against Illinois (2/26), allowing six runs, five earned, while fanning two batters in two innings of work
- Made one appearance vs. Arkansas, tossing 1.0 inning with a run allowed and a strikeout.

MIZZOU HISTORY AT MAJOR LEAGUE PARKS

- As mentioned earlier, Mizzou will play the series finale this weekend against Georgia at Suntrust Park, the brand new home of the Atlanta Braves. Georgia and the Braves have sold more than 20,000 tickets for the game as more than a half capacity crowd is expected at the 41,000-seat stadium on Saturday.
- Mizzou is no stranger to playing in Major League Baseball parks, most recently playing in Kauffman Stadium on March 29, 2016. The Tigers defeated St. Louis, 5-3, in the home of the Kansas City Royals to improve to 5-6 all-time in MLB parks in the state of Missouri. The Tigers have also played in the Metrodome, the former home of the Minnesota Twins, and Minute Made Park, the home of the Houston Astros, over the last several seasons.

GEORGIA ON MY MIND

- This weekend's series will be a homecoming for a pair of Mizzou players who are Georgia natives. Junior OF Trey Harris hails from Powder Springs, Ga., a west Atlanta suburb. He grew up 94 miles away from Foley Field and just 31 miles from Suntrust Park. Freshman 1B Armaan Painter hails from Atlanta as well, attending the Westminster High Schools, just a five-mile drive down I-75 from Suntrust Park.

SHARP HAS BEEN, WELL SHARP

- Coming into the 2017 season, Mizzou's coaching staff was extremely high on sophomore 1B Brian Sharp, who had a breakout fall season leading the Tigers in virtually every offensive category. After going 0-for-4 and seeing his average dip to just .265 on March 4 against UIC, Sharp has been on a tear over his last 19 games and has arguably been the Tigers' top run producer in that time. Below is a look:

Stat	Last 15	Team Rank	First 10 (rank)
Avg.	.373	1st	.265 (12th)
OBP	.464	1st	.381 (9th)
Slugging	.597	1st	.412 (10th)
Hits	25	1st	9 (5th)
Total Bases	40	1st	14 (7th)
Doubles	6	1st	3 (3rd)
Runs	13	1st	10 (3rd)
Homers	3	2nd	0 (5th)
RBI	11	4th	3 (10th)

- Sharp has seven multi-hit games and has reached base safely in all 19 games during his current hot streak. He has walked 14 times in those 19 games and totaled 40 total bases.
- Sharp had just 15 RBI and two extra-base hits all year last year. He has 14 RBI and 13 extra-base hits this season already.
- What makes Sharp special is his performance as a two-way player. During the last 19 games, he has also made four pitching appearances in that span, allowing just one hit over 6.0 shutout innings with five strikeouts. He is limiting batters to .053 hitting in that span.

HARRIS SHOWS AN IMPROVED, PATIENT APPROACH

- Since his freshman year at Mizzou, junior OF Trey Harris has been one of Mizzou's top run producers. This year is no different as he leads the team and ranks ninth in the SEC with 27 RBI, but he is doing so this year with a refined approach at the plate.
- Harris has already drawn a career-high 23 walks in just 91 at-bats (one walk every 4.0 at-bats). Harris had just 17 walks all year in 2016 (186 at-bats) and had just 27 walks in two full seasons at Mizzou (369 career at-bats) heading into the season. That is nearly 14 at-bats between walks as opposed to 4.0 this season.
- As expected, his on-base percentage this year is much higher than his career average. He entered the year with a .303 career mark but is reaching base at .420 clip this season.
- And while he has been more patient at the plate, he has not sacrificed the run production for the sake of walks as he leads the team with 27 RBI while ranking second on the team with 10 two-out RBI.

DYNAMIC DUO IN THE BULLPEN

- The trend in baseball at all levels seems to be pitching your best relievers when the game is on the line and Mizzou, under first year head coach Steve Bieser and first-year pitching coach Patrick Hallmark, has clearly subscribed to that theory. When Mizzou broke spring camp for the regular season, two of its best pitchers were Cole Bartlett and T.J. Sikkema. While most would have put those two arms in the starting rotation, Mizzou's coaching staff labeled them for the bullpen to pitch in the most high leverage situations, including eating multiple innings at a time. The results have been lights out thus far as Sikkema and Bartlett rank 1-2 on the team in ERA at 0.47 and 2.55, respectively.
- Bartlett, who filled a similar role last year, has appeared in 11 games this season and pitched multiple innings in 10 of those 11 appearances, earning three wins. He was lights out Sunday against a top-10 Florida team, allowing just four base runners over the final 4.0 innings, holding Florida off the board in the span as Mizzou attempted to tie the game. Despite pitching multiple innings in 10 of 11 appearances, he has five shutout appearances and has five appearances of 4.0 innings or more. He earned a 4.2 inning win over Texas A&M Corpus Christi, pitching the final 4.2 innings of that game as Mizzou had to come back after falling behind early. His third win of the year came at Alabama on March 19, allowing just one hit over 2.2 shutout innings, settling things down after the first two Mizzou pitchers allowed five runs over the first three innings of the game. He handed the ball off to Sikkema who earned a 3.1 inning save.
- That brings us to Sikkema, who has been used much like the Cleveland Indians used Andrew Miller last year on its their run to the World Series. We detail Sikkema's dominance later in the notes, but he had a win or a save (five wins, three saves) in eight consecutive appearances at one point this season. On Saturday against Florida, he took over for the final 5.2 innings and held Florida scoreless in that span as Mizzou attempted to rally from down 2-1 to tie the game. He allowed just three baserunners in that span. Sikkema has 11 appearances this season and like Bartlett, he 10 have been multiple innings with five going 4.0 or more.

STREAKING COMES TO AN END

- Even though the streak is now over, it's still worth talking about as Mizzou won 20 consecutive games before losing two of three to Arkansas at Taylor Stadium late in March. After losing on opening day, Mizzou ran off 20 straight wins for the second-longest streak in school history and the longest by any team in the nation this season. The 20 wins were just one shy of the all-time record at Mizzou, which was achieved by the 1964 team that wound up as the College World Series runner up that year.

Consecutive wins	Years Accomplished
21	1964
20	2017

MORE ON THE STREAK

- In the history of the SEC, there have been just seven winning streaks of 20 or more games by SEC teams. The 20 straight wins for Mizzou are the sixth-most ever by an SEC team and the best by any SEC team since Texas A&M won 24 in 2015. Below is a look at the streaks.

School	Year	Consecutive Wins	Postseason

MIZZOU IN THE NATIONAL RANKS

- Mizzou ranks highly nationally in several other categories offensively and pitching, including third in walks after drawing 167 this season. Below is a look at some notable stat ranks for Mizzou this season.

BIESER, MIZZOU OFF TO HISTORIC START

- We highlighted earlier that at 21-4 on the year, Mizzou is off to one of its best starts in program history. What is even more noteworthy is the start for first year head coach Steve Bieser. The former big leaguer-turned-skipper has already won the second-most games ever by a first-year Mizzou coach and needs just seven more wins to tie the program record for wins in an initial season by a coach at Mizzou. Below is the list:

BOND NAMED TO JOHNNY BENCH AWARD WATCH LIST

- Mizzou Baseball junior catcher Brett Bond was added to the Johnny Bench Award Watch List, announced March 9 by the Greater Wichita Sports Commission. Bond is one of 85 catchers to make the watch list and this is the first time he has appeared on the list during his career.
- Bond is hitting .313/.402/.455 this season with three homers while scoring a team-high 24 runs. He has also added seven doubles and turned in Mizzou's first five-hit game since 2011 vs. Eastern Illinois (March 7).
- Additional candidates will be added to the watch list on May 1. The list will then be narrowed down to the semifinalists, whom will be announced May 17, 2017. Ballots will be sent to the national voting panel at the end of May for a vote to determine the three finalists, which will be announced June 5. A final vote among the national committee will occur during the College World Series. All finalists will be brought to Wichita and the winner will be announced at the 20th Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on June 29.

SIKKEMA HAS BEEN SICK

- Mizzou Baseball may have the best reliever in the nation in freshman LHP T.J. Sikkema. His numbers are downright ridiculous and he shows no sign of slowing down. Before last Tuesday vs. SEMO, he had a win or a save in eight consecutive appearances and is second in the SEC in wins while checking in at ninth in saves. He earned a win in the Saturday game vs. Arkansas after pitching the final 4.0 innings. He did lose a 29.2 inning shutout streak in that game, but even with that streak ending, his numbers are out of control. Below is a look:

Stat	Total	SEC Rank	National	Freshmen Rank (National)
WHIP	0.64	1st	3th	2nd
Hits/9	4.10	1st	3rd	1st
ERA	0.47	1st	4th	1st
Wins	5	2nd	13th	1st
K/9	11.64	6th	42nd	4th

- In addition to ranking among the nation's elite in virtually every major pitching category, it is important to note that Sikkema has been used in more high-leverage situations out of Mizzou's bullpen than any other pitcher. Starting with his 2.2 inning save against nationally-ranked Houston on Feb. 24, he has been a true shut-down arm as Mizzou's coaching staff uses him whenever the game is on the line. That is evidenced by his eight consecutive decisions (five wins, three saves).
- LSU's Jared Poche' has stolen most of the pitching headlines this year in the SEC, but Sikkema leads the SEC in ERA, opposing batting (.143), strikeouts looking (23) and second in wins (five).

BULLPEN ON PARADE

- While all the rage has been Mizzou's offense, it's hard to argue against the machine that has been Mizzou's bullpen. Mizzou's bullpen owns a combined 1.93 ERA in 126.0 innings of work this season (27 ERs). Mizzou's bullpen has allowed just 97 hits over those 126.0 innings and has struck out 143 batters against just 47 walks (3.04 K-BB ratio). The bullpen is limiting teams to a .210 batting average this season.
- Last weekend against Florida, Mizzou's bullpen did not allow an earned run in 11.2 innings with three strikeouts and three walks.

UP NEXT

- Mizzou will return home and have Sunday off before hosting a two-game midweek series agianst Arkansas Pine Bluff on April 11-12.
- For all the latest on Mizzou Baseball, stay tuned to MUTigers.com and follow the team on Twitter (@MizzouBaseball) and like the team on Facebook and Instagram (Mizzou Baseball and missouri_baseball, respectively).

MAX SCHERZER
2013, 2016 CY YOUNG WINNER

MAX SCHERZER // SP // WASHINGTON NATIONALS

- One could make the argument that Max Scherzer is the most successful professional athlete to ever come out of Mizzou, in any sport. A three-time MLB All-Star and two-time Cy Young winner, Scherzer has led the American League in wins twice and is coming off of a season that earned him his second Cy Young Award. He is just the sixth pitcher ever to earn the Cy Young in both the AL and the NL after earning the 2013 award with Detroit.
- Scherzer was sensational at Mizzou, earning Big 12 Pitcher of the Year honors in 2005 while being inducted into the 2012 Mizzou Athletics Hall of Fame class. He was drafted 11th overall in 2005 (the first ever Tiger to be drafted in the first round) and began a long line of Mizzou hurlers taken in the first round.
- Scherzer debuted in the major leagues on April 29, 2008, He earned the American League Cy Young in 2013, opening the season with a 12-0 mark while starting the All-Star Game. He surpassed the 1,000-strikeout mark that season and finished the regular season with a 21-3 record and a 2.90 ERA with a 0.97 WHIP and a career-high 240 strikeouts. He was the league's only 20-game winner that season and received 28 of 30 first-place votes in the Cy Young balloting that year.
- Scherzer signed a seven-year deal worth $210 million with the Washington Nationals prior to the 2015 season. He tossed two no-hitters (one batter shy of a perfect game against the Pirates in June) and had two game scores of 97 or better, becoming the first to do that twice in a season since Pedro Martinez in 2000 - Nolan Ryan in 1990 is the only other pitcher to do so.

IAN KINSLER
4-TIME ALL-STAR
2016 AL GOLD GLOVE

IAN KINSLER // 2B // DETROIT TIGERS

- Despite spending just one season at Mizzou, Ian Kinsler made quite an impact and was a star that helped lay the foundation for a Mizzou team that went to NCAA Regionals from 2003-09. His 2003 team was the first regional team at Mizzou since 1996. He was inducted into the Mizzou Athletics Hall of Fame in 2013.
- Kinsler is a four-time MLB All-Star, has twice joined the 30-30 club and was the 2014 Wilson Defensive Player of the Year winner at second base in 2014.
- He first joined the 30-30 club in 2009 and hit for the cycle that season as well. While with the Rangers, he set club records for leadoff homers and times stealing third base. He again went for 30-30 in 2011, again for the Rangers. That year, he hit a leadoff homer in each of the first two games of the season, becoming the first player to ever accomplish that feat.
- Kinsler was an All-Star in 2008, 2010, 2012 and 2014, doing so most recently with the Detroit Tigers.
- Kinsler earned his first career Gold Glove last season, honoring the top second baseman in the AL.

KYLE GIBSON
2015 TWINS PITCHER OF THE YEAR

KYLE GIBSON // SP // MINNESOTA TWINS

- After a successful career at Mizzou, Kyle Gibson was a first round draft pick in 2009, going 22nd overall to the Minnesota Twins. He made his major league debut in 2013 as Tommy John surgery slowed his progress to the major leagues.
- Serving as the Twins No. 3 starter in 2014, he had a breakout season in 2015, earning the club's Pitcher of the Year Award, tallying 11 wins and a 3.84 ERA in a team-high 194.2 innings, striking out 145 batters.
- Gibson has been touted as a possible breakout star in 2017, so he is certainly a pitcher to watch as the Twins have hopes of getting back to the postseason with Gibson heading the pitching staff.

AARON CROW // RP // CHICAGO CUBS

- Aaron Crow was the heir apparent to Max Scherzer and he was outstanding in college, guiding Mizzou to host the 2007 Columbia Regional. He went 23-8 with a 3.27 ERA in his college career and the highlight of his career came in 2006 when he earned his first career victory in a complete game over Pepperdine, staving off elimination in the regional round as Mizzou became the first ever #4 seed to win a regional that season.
- In 2007, Crow went 13-0 with a 2.35 ERA and was named Big 12 Pitcher of the Year with four complete game shutouts. He had a 43.1 shutout inning streak that season.
- Crow was drafted in the first round twice, going as high as ninth before electing to not sign with the Nationals in 2008. In 2006, he was drafted 12th by the Royals and wound up becoming an All-Star in 2011 with the club. He was moved to Miami but missed the 2014 season with Tommy John surgery.

STEVE BIESER

1nd Season at Mizzou - Head Coach
Southeast Missouri, 1989
Career Record: 159-105 // 21-8 at Mizzou
@biesersr

Mizzou will usher in a new era of baseball as Steve Bieser has been tabbed as the next head coach, announced June 30. Bieser (pronounced: Bee-zer) will be Mizzou's 14th head coach and just the fourth since 1937. Bieser comes to Mizzou after an extremely successful career at Southeast Missouri, where he became the only coach ever to win three consecutive Ohio Valley Conference Championships and guided the Redhawks to their first NCAA Regional last year since 2002.

A two-time OVC Coach of the Year, Bieser won 35 or more games in each of his last three seasons at SEMO, a feat that had been accomplished just once before he took over the program in 2013. Bieser turned in a .587 winning percentage in his time at SEMO, the best among any coach in program history.

Bieser turned in a banner year in 2016, as he earned his 100th career victory and opened OVC play with a perfect 12-0 record, the best start in program history. The season culminated in a regular season OVC Championship, an OVC Tournament title and the school's first NCAA Regional since 2002, qualifying for the Starkville Regional at SEC Champion Mississippi State.

Prior to serving as SEMO's head coach beginning in 2013, Bieser was the pitching coach for his alma mater from 2011-12 and he carried his prowess for developing hurlers into his head coaching tenure. His most notable pupil was LHP Joey Lucchesi, who became the only pitcher to ever win OVC Pitcher of the Year in back-to-back season. Lucchesi shattered the Southeast Missouri and Ohio Valley single-season strikeout records while also consistently leading the nation in 2016 in the category. He became the first Southeast pitcher to win 10 games in 13 years. He was on the watch lists for the prestigious Golden Spike Award, as well as the College Baseball Hall of Fame's National Pitcher of the Year award.

Following the season, Lucchesi became the highest draft pick ever out of Southeast Missouri when he was selected in the fourth round (114th overall pick) by the San Diego Padres. He was one of two Redhawks drafted in 2016, marking the first time since 2012 that Southeast had multiple draft picks.

"I am truly honored and humbled to have the opportunity to be a part of the University of Missouri community and serve as the head baseball coach," Bieser said. "I can't express enough the gratitude I have for Interim Chancellor Foley, Athletic Director Mack Rhoades and the search committee for having the confidence in me to lead this program. When I started my coaching career, I had always dreamed of the opportunity to lead this program. There is a strong tradition and rich history of Missouri Tiger baseball. I understand the responsibility and I am fully committed and ready to continue building the tradition. As life-long Missourians, my family and I feel truly blessed to be part of the University of Missouri and the Columbia community."

Aside from success on the field, academic success was a hallmark of Bieser's program at SEMO. He mentored three Academic All-Americans, 10 Academic All-District picks, one OVC Scholar-Athlete, six OVC Medal of Honor recipients and 48 OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll selections. SEMO had at least a 3.0 cumulative grade-point-average in all four years under Bieser, grabbing one OVC Team Academic Award along the way.

After a successful playing career at SEMO, Bieser was drafted in the 32nd round of the 1989 MLB Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies. He played 13 years as a professional with nine of those years coming at AAA or higher. He made his Major League debut on April 1, 1997, with the New York Mets and played 60 career MLB games.

STEVE BIESER AT A GLANCE

- 2016 OVC Coach of the Year
- 2014 OVC Coach of the Year
- One of just 15 coaches to win multiple OVC Coach of the Year awards
- 138-97 (.587) in four years at SEMO
- First OVC coach to win three consecutive OVC regular season titles
- SEMO was 67-23 in OVC play in three championship seasons
- SEMO record w/ 39 wins in 2016, breaking the mark of 37 set by 2014 team
- Guided SEMO to its first OVC Conference tournament title and NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002 last season.
- Earned his 100th career victory on Feb 22, 2016
- SEMO opened OVC play with a 12-0 record, the best start in school history
- Mentored three OVC Pitchers of the Year, an OVC Player of the Year, 11 First Team All-OVC members, eight Second Team selections, and two All-Freshman Team members.
- Coached LHP Joey Lucchesi to back-to-back OVC Pitcher of the Year awards, the only pitcher to ever accomplish that feat.
- Emphasis on academics while at SEMO, coaching six Academic All-Americans, 10 Academic All-District picks, one OVC Scholar-Athlete, six OVC Medal of Honor recipients and 56 OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll selections.
- SEMO had at least a 3.0 cumulative grade-point-average in all four years under Bieser, grabbing one OVC Team Academic Award along the way.
- Played in 60 Major League Baseball games between the New York Mets and Pittsburgh Pirates, boasting a .250 career average and .351 OBP.
