Mizzou Men's Basketball Post-Game Notes at LSU
Maravich Assembly Center - Baton Rouge, La.
Final Score: Mizzou 81, LSU 76

GAME NOTES

• Mizzou chipped into LSU's all-time series advantage, 11-4, and swept the season series for the first time.
• MU secured its first win at Maravich Assembly Center, as the Tigers entered with a 0-6 all-time mark against LSU on the road.
• Whitten Family Men's Basketball Head Coach Dennis Gates surpassed Mike White's 2015-16 season at Florida for the most wins by a debutant in the SEC since Mizzou joined the league in 2012-13.
• After defeating Mississippi State and Georgia last week, the Tigers established their first three-game winning streak against conference opponents since the Tigers won three straight between Jan. 16-23, 2021.
• MU scored 20 points off turnovers, improving to 20-2 when tallying 17 points off turnovers and also 21-2 when outscoring an opponent in the category.
• After scoring 81 points, Mizzou has won its last 24 games when scoring at least 70 points, with a perfect 20-0 mark this season.
• By winning in a five-point decision, the Tigers remained a perfect 7-0 in games decided by five points or fewer.
• The Tigers overcame a 13-point halftime deficit, their largest halftime deficit in a win this season. It is the first time this campaign MU has won a game after trailing by more than one possession at the break.
• Mizzou claimed its first win after trailing by double-digits at the half since Nov. 21, 2021, when the Tigers overcame an 11-point deficit against SMU.
• MU claimed its first lead of the game on a D'Moi Hodge triple with 1:37 remaining and held onto the edge for the remainder of the contest. That is the least time the Tigers have spent in the driver's seat in a triumph this year.
• Mizzou shot 13-of-13 (100%) from the stripe, the best free-throw shooting performance of the season. It is the first time the Tigers have been perfect from the line since Jan. 5, 2021.
• D'Moi Hodge collected five steals to put his season total at 78, breaking the program record for most swipes in a season set by Lynn Harvey in the 1986-87 season.
• Hodge also netted 23 points for his fourth 20-point performance of the 2022-23 campaign.
• DeAndre Gholston pitched in 20 points, his 18th contest of the season scoring in double figures.
• For the fourth time this season, the Tigers had two contributors with 20+ points.
