TIGER TIDBITS

• Missouri has had a better three-point shooting percentage than all but two of its conference opponents (Tennessee, Vanderbilt) going into their respective contests.
• Mizzou's win over Florida marks the 14th win of the season, a feat that has not been accomplished by a Tiger team since the 2006-07 season when the team went 17-14 and advanced to the second round of the WNIT. That season also marks the last time the Tigers have had a winning season.
• The Tigers' win over No. 9 Tennessee marks the first time since Jan. 23, 2010 that a Mizzou team has defeated a top 10 opponent. In 2010 the Tigers knocked down No. 10 Baylor, 70-62.
• The Tigers have now made a school-record 216 three-pointers this season. The previous record was set at 214 by last year's squad.
• The Tigers have also run past the previous school record for most threes attempted in a season. The Tigers have attempted 656 treys this season to surpass the school record of 628 set last season.
• Mizzou has made at least 13 3-pointers in six games this season, an SEC high this season as Mizzou owns the top six team 3-point shooting performances in the SEC this season. Morgan Eye owns two of the top individual three-point shooting performances in the league so far this season as well.
• The Missouri Tigers are 13-3 inside Mizzou Arena this season. In fact Mizzou went on an 11-game home winning streak to open the season. The 11-0 start at home was the best since 2005-06 when the Tigers also 11 in a row at home to open the season. Their only home losses this season are to No. 6 Kentucky, Arkansas, and Mississippi State.

Mizzou Notables at Home This Season

-Mizzou's average margin of victory at home is 15.1 ppg
-The Tigers are shooting a blistering 45.0-percent in home games this season and averaging 75.6 total ppg
-Mizzou has scored at least 80 points in eight of 14 home games this season and at least 90 in three of those
-The Tigers own a 1.2 assist-to-turnover ratio at home this season
-Mizzou is averaging 9.9 3-pointers per game at home this season.
-The Tigers have made 158 of their 216 three-pointers on their home court.

• The SEC record for 3-pointers in a season is 248, meaning the Tigers would need to average 6.4 3-pointers per game to break that mark, which was set in 1994 by South Carolina.
• The Tigers continue to play great team basketball under third-year head coach Robin Pingeton and the numbers prove it. Mizzou has assisted on 399 of their 606 field goals (66-percent). The Tigers assisted on 23 of 29 field goals against Tennessee on Feb. 3.
• Mizzou is third in the SEC, averaging 16.0 assists per game, trailing only Texas A&M (17.5) and Auburn (16.0). Mizzou is also fifth in the league in assist-to-turnover margin at 1.0, just 0.1 shy of first place (Texas A&M, 1.1).
• Mizzou has recorded more assists than 18 opponents in games this season.

• Mizzou's bench has been a huge key to the success of the program this season. In fact, the Tiger bench is outscoring the opponents' bench by an average of 7.7 points per game while shooting 38.5 percent from the floor to its opponents' 36.3 percent. A big reason for the Tiger production off the bench has been its ability to knock down the trey as Mizzou's bench has hit 144 3-pointers to its opponents' 49.
•Morgan Eye has knocked down 95 of Missouri's 144 treys off the bench, while Maddie Stock has also contributed to the number with 30 so far this season.
• Mizzou is second in the league in defensive rebounds, tied with Tennessee, averaging 28.9 per game, thanks to a big effort from Bri Kulas who grabs an average of five defensive rebounds per game.
• Mizzou hit a school-record 18 three-pointers against Auburn. The 18 three-pointers made by the Tigers in the contest are the most ever by an SEC school, shattering the previous best mark of 17 by Ole Miss.
• Senior center Liz Smith has been a big part of the Tiger offense this season, and a big part of that is due to her increased efficiency. In fact, coming into the year Smith was just a 31.4-percent shooter and averaged a miniscule 1.5 ppg. This season, Smith has flipped the script and is shooting 54.6-percent from the floor while averaging 6.7 ppg. Her rebounding numbers are way up as well as she is grabbing 5.2 boards per game, up from just 1.4 a season ago.
• The Tigers' defense held the Mississippi State Bulldogs to a 33.3 shooting percentage - the lowest mark for a Missouri conference opponent this season.
• Mizzou held Arkansas-Pine Bluff to only six assists (20.3 per game), the lowest for an opponent this season.
•Shooting .846 (11-13) from the field, Sydney Crafton recorded the SEC's second-best single-game goal percentage against SEMO.
• Missouri has shot over 40 percent from the field in 16 of 25 games this season and grabbed over 30 rebounds in every contest except one. The Tigers grabbed 29 rebounds at Vanderbilt, missing the mark by just one. Mizzou's best outing came against SIU as the Tigers shot 57.7 percent including a whopping 50-percent from the perimeter.

RECORD WATCH

• The Tigers' win over No. 9 Tennessee marks the first time Mizzou has defeated a top 10 team since Jan. 23, 2010 when the Tiger beat No. 10 Baylor, 70-62.
• Missouri has made 216 three-pointers as a team so far this season, meaning the team now holds the school record for three-pointers made in a campaign. The previosu record was set at 214 last season. The SEC record for 3-pointers in a season is 248, meaning the Tigers would need to average 6.4 3-pointers per game through the regular season to break that mark, which was set in 1994 by South Carolina.
• The Tigers have also run past the previous school record for most threes attempted in a season. The Tigers have attempted 656 treys this season to surpass the school record of 628 set last season.
• Morgan Eye has made 95 treys on the season so far, which makes her the new record holder at Mizzou for three-pointers made in a season. The previous record stood at 90, set by Alyssa Hollins in the 2007-08 season.
• Missouri's victory over the Florida Gators marks head coach Robin Pingeton and her staff's 40th victory at Mizzou.
• Missouri's win over Florida marks the 14th win this season, a feat that the Tigers have not accomplished since the 2006-07 season when the team went 17-14 and advanced to the second round of the WNIT. The Tigers are well on their way to recording Missouri's first winning season since '06-'07 as well.
• Lianna Doty has accumulated 51 steals so far this season, that surpasses last season's team steals leader, Christine Flores. Flores tallied 35 steals through 31 games in 2011-12. Missouri's all-time record for most steals in a season stands at 98, set by Amanda Lassiter in the 2000-01 season. Doty would need to average 9.4 steals per game through the regular season to match that number.
• Doty has also surpassed Kyley Simmons' 2011-12 team-leading 111 assists as she has 124 so far this season.
• Morgan Eye set a new single-game record at Mizzou with her eight threes against UT Martin. The previous record was seven, reached by Julie Helm, Alyssa Hollins and Amanda Hanneman. Her .571 three-point shooting percentage also marks an SEC game high record this season. She shattered that record, making 11 three-pointers against Auburn. The number marks the most ever in an SEC league game and also sits just one shy of the best-ever NCAA mark.
• Mizzou hit a school-record 18 three-pointers against Auburn. The 18 three-pointers made by the Tigers on Sunday are the most ever by an SEC school, shattering the previous best mark of 17 by Ole Miss.
• Missouri's win over UT Martin marked head coach Robin Pingeton's 370th career victory, and women's basketball's 80th victory in Mizzou Arena.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

• Missouri is ranked No. 6 in the country with an average of 8.6 three-pointers made per game.
• Morgan Eye leads the SEC and the nation for her 3.8 three-pointers per game and is also ranked No. 16 in the nation for her .411 3-point shooting percentage. That clip leads the SEC as well. Eye is one of only two players in the nation to have recorded over 90 treys this season. She is joined by Michigan's Kate Thompson who has made 91 threes so far and averages 3.79 per game.
• Freshman Lianna Doty leads all SEC freshmen in assists per game with 5.0. She is fifth overall in the league and 49th in the nation.

Doty's help. She earned her first career double-double against Florida with 11 points and a career-high 10 rebounds in the game. She was just three assists away from a triple-double as she dished out seven dimes against Florida as well. Doty also had a strong performance in Missouri's 80-63 upset of No. 9 Tennessee, tallying seven assists in that contest as well. Doty's 119 assists this season lead all freshmen in the league, and the number is also more than last season's Tiger assists leader, Kyley Simmons, who recorded 111 assists in 31 games.

BENCHMARKS

- Mizzou's bench outscored Arkansas-Pine Bluff's bench 60-8, the largest differential for Mizzou this season.
- The Mizzou bench also outscored Tennessee 34-3, with 26 of those points coming from Sophomore Morgan Eye.
- The Tiger bench is proving to be a great asset as the bench has only been outscored seven times this season.
- In fact, the Tiger bench is outscoring its opponents' bench by an average of about seven points while shooting 38.5-percent from the floor to its opponents' 36.3-percent. A big reason for the Tiger production off the bench has been its ability to knock down the trey as Mizzou's bench has hit 144 3-pointers to its opponents' 49. Morgan Eye has made 95 of those 144 threes off the bench while Maddie Stock has made 30.
- Missouri has used at least 11 players in 16 of 25 games this season, and the Tiger bench has put up at least 30 points in nine games this year.

SHOOTING THE THREE

- The Tigers have earned a better three-point field goal percentage than opponents in 14 of 25 games this season, and the same 3FG percentage against Ole Miss.
- Missouri is ranked sixth in the country and first in the SEC with an average of 8.6 three-pointers made per game. The Tigers have the fifth-best three-point shooting percentage in the league at 32.9 percent.
- Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been the only league opponents that Missouri has faced this season with a better three-point shooting percentage. The Lady Vols were shooting 34.6 percent from behind the arc, good for second in the league at the time of the contest while Vanderbilt was shooting 35 percent to Missouri's 33.7 percent.
- The Tigers 18 three-pointers made against Auburn stands as a league game-high so far this season, as does the Tigers' 37 three-point attempts against SEMO.
- Missouri's 18 three-pointers against Auburn also marks the most made for any SEC team in conference history.
- Morgan Eye's 11 three-pointers made against Auburn also stands as a record, marking the most three pointers made by a Tiger in a single game, as well as the most made in an SEC league contest.
- In fact, the Tigers monopolize the game highs for the league when it comes to three-pointers made as Mizzou has made 13 threes in two games and 14 threes in three games this season, as well as 18 threes in one game. Mizzou has made over 10 treys in nine games.
- Missouri's four three-pointers against Vanderbilt were enough to break the single season record for three pointers at Mizzou (214), which was set last season. Mizzou has made 216 threes so far this year.

BULL'S EYE

Sophomore sharpshooter Morgan Eye has set several records this season, first setting the Mizzou single-game record with her eight three pointers made in one game. She didn't stop there, however, and made 11 threes in Missouri's first-ever SEC game against Auburn. Her 11 threes stand as the most made in a single game in Mizzou history and also the most made in any SEC league contest. Eye was just one short of the NCAA record. Eye leads the SEC and is currently ranked No. 1 in the nation for her 3.8 three-pointers per game and is also ranked No. 16 in the nation (and first in the league) for her .411 3-point shooting percentage. Eye has attempted 10 or more treys in 13 games this season, and she is shooting 43.1 percent from the field. Eye is one of only two players in the country with more than 90 treys on the season so far, and her 95 threes this season sets the all-time Mizzou record for most three-pointers in a season. The previous record was 90, made by Alyssa Hollins in the 2007-08 season.

MORE NOTABLES THIS SEASON

- She is second in scoring among all SEC sophomores this season at 13.5 ppg, behind Auburn's Hasina Muhammad who averages 15.8 points per game. She is 10th overall in scoring, just ahead of teammate Bri Kulas, who is 11th with 13.2 points per game.
- She leads the league in 3-point shooting at 41.1-percent. Her 3.8 3-pointers per game also lead the league.
- Her 33 points against Auburn are tied for the most by an SEC player this season and are the most in an SEC game this season.
- Eye has made 95 of Missouri's 144 three-pointers off the bench this season.

GIRL ON FIRE

Freshman Lianna Doty has made a serious impact on the court so far this season. Doty has accumulated 51 steals this season, which passes last season's team steals leader, Christine Flores. Flores tallied 35 steals through 31 games in 2011-12. Doty also served up 123 assists through 25 games, flying by Kyley Simmons' team-leading 111 assists last season. Simmons averaged 3.5 assists per game in 2011-12, while Doty is currently averaging 4.9 dimes per game this year which ranks 49th in the nation and fifth in the SEC.

MORE NOTABLES THIS SEASON

- Over her last five games, Lianna Doty is averaging 5.8 assists per game, including a career-best eight against Texas A&M. Doty leads all SEC freshmen in assists per game this season as well. The next best freshman is Florida's Sydney Moss who averages 3.6 assists per game.
- Doty recorded her first double-double against Florida, putting up 11 points and 10 rebounds in the contest. She was just three assists away from a triple double.
- Doty also dished up seven assists in Missouri's historic win over no. 9 Tennessee. Her performance that week earned her SEC Freshman of the Week honors.

LEADING LADY

Senior Sydney Crafton is an important weapon for the Tigers this season. Not only does she have the most collegiate playing experience on the team, but she has proved to be a great asset on the court. In Mizzou's contest against Memphis, Crafton put up her third-career double-double while leading the team in four catergories. She racked up 12 rebounds, six assists, two blocks and two steals in the contest. She has led the Tigers in scoring in five games this season as well, including a 20 point performance against Vanderbilt. She has shown great improvement in her game under the direction of Pingeton and her staff. In fact, Crafton is shooting a team-best 56.1 percent from the floor this season despite entering her senior campaign as just a 40-percent career shooter. Her 171 field goal attempts this season aren't enough to rank her among the league leaders, but if she did have enough shots to qualify, she would be second in the league.

DOUBLE DIGIT DIVA

Junior Bri Kulas has been on a hot streak as of late, recording three double-doubles so far this season. As a matter of fact, Kulas has scored in the double digits in 10 consecutive contests this season. Kulas has put up double digit scoring numbers in 16 games this season, averaging 13.2 points per game.

MORE NOTABLES THIS SEASON

- After scoring a career-high 23 points at Ole Miss, Kulas sits at No. 11 in the league for her 13.2 points per game and is No. 13 in the league averaging 6.4 rebounds per game. Her 5.0 defensive rebounds per game ranks seventh in the conference as well, contributing to Missouri's 28.9 defensive rebounds per game.
- A big part of her game as of late has been her ability to get to the free throw line. She is shooting a league-leading 86.1-percent from the line in SEC play. In fact, she is 31-of-36 in league games this season. That is a vast improvement for Kulas, who entered SEC play as just a 59-percent free throw shooter. Her 25 free throw attempts in league games leads the team.
- Kulas has put up 20 or more points in a team-leading four games this season. Eye has also hit the 20 point mark four times.

HOMESTAND COMES TO A CLOSE

Missouri's seven game homestand came to a close with the Tigers' contest against Murray State.

Not only were the Tigers undefeated over those seven contests for a season-best win streak, but the Tigers have averaged a 27.7-point margin of victory and 86.3 points per game. Including games in Mizzou Arena before the Cancun Challenge, Mizzou remains undefeated at home with a 46.3 shooting percentage, holding opponents to just 34.3 percent from the field.

CUNNINGHAM WILL TAKE REDSHIRT YEAR

Columbia native, Lindsey Cunningham, will use a redshirt for the 2012-13 season. She will have four years of eligibility remaining, beginning in 2013

STOCK NAMED CO-FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Freshman Maddie Stock was named the Southeastern Conference Co- Freshman of the Week on Monday after scoring 22 points in just 16 minutes of playing time on Sunday in Missouri's 110-47 win over Southern Illinois. Stock shares the honor with Mississippi State's Sherise Williams who scored a personal best 21 points against Florida A&M on Sunday. Stock proved to be an important weapon for the Tigers on Sunday as she put up 16 straight points in the second half of the game. Stock has reached double-digits in two consecutive games and four times this season. She has also reset her career-best in each of the last two games. Stock shot 88.9 percent against Southern Illinois and made 6-of-7 three-point attempts in the contest. The Tigers finished the game with 110 points, the ninth-most in school history. It also marks the first time since 2005 that Missouri has scored 100 or more points in a contest.

TURN OF THE CENTURY

Missouri's 110 point victory over Southern Illinois marks the first time since playing Murray State on Dec. 3, 2005. that the Tigers have scored 100 or more points in a game. The number also marks the ninth-best in program history and just 11 off of the school record (121 vs. SLU in 1978) while the 110 points are the most by a Tiger team since they scored 111 against Centenary on Dec. 3, 1999. The win also marks the first time since Jan. 2, 2004 (vs. Miami of Ohio) that the team has made 40 or more field goals.

The Tigers' win over Southern Illinois marks the Tigers' highest margin of victory this season (63). The previous high came against UAPB (38). The Tigers' 110 points is also the most since the team put up 105 against Murray State on Dec. 3, 2005.

BRINGING THE NINETIES BACK

Missouri's 110-47 win over SIU sets a milestone, marking the first time since 1999-2000 that the Tigers have scored at least 90 points in three straight games. (Missouri earned a 90-57 victory over Eastern Illinois On Dec. 18, 1999 and followed that up with a 91-44 win over Illinois State on Dec. 22. The Tigers also topped UW-Milwaukee 90-47 on Dec. 30.) It is also the first time since 2003-04 that the Tigers have had three games with at least 90 points in the same season. In fact, from 2006 through last season, Mizzou had just three 90 points games.

TIGERS UNDEFEATED IN EXHIBITION PLAY

Mizzou Women's Basketball finished the exhibition season 2-0 with victories over Lindenwood and Lincoln. Newcomers Bri Kulas, Maddie Stock and Lianna Doty displayed their talents in the contests, proving that they will be valuable assets on the court this season.

TIGERS EARN EXHIBITION WIN OVER LINCOLN

Mizzou opened the exhibition season with a 75-50 win over Lincoln University on Oct. 30, giving head coach Robin Pingeton a 3-0 record in season opening exhibition games at Mizzou. Senior Sydney Crafton led the Tigers with what would be a career-high, 28 points. She started the game by making her first 10 field goals, and finished 11-for-12 on the night. Also making a good impression on her first outing was freshman Maddie Stock, who put up double figures for the Tigers. Freshman Lianna Doty saw 22 minutes of playing time and racked up six assists in her first appearance at Mizzou Arena as well.

RETURNERS FILL BIG SHOES

The Tigers return seven players from last season's squad, which recorded one of the best starts in program history after beginning the season 10-1. Senior Sydney Crafton brings the most experience to the squad as she has three years of collegiate basketball experience under her belt. Of the 13 players on Mizzou's team, 12 have one year or less of collegiate basketball experience. Despite their youth, the Tigers showed strength and skill on the court at the Mizzou Madness exhibition event. The 2012-13 Tigers should prove to be a challenge this season.

OFF TO A STRONG START

Last season's Tiger team saw one of the best starts in program history. Mizzou started out with a 10-1 record, the program's best start since the 2006-07 season when Mizzou began the year 12-1. Under Pingeton's direction, the Tigers went undefeated through the first five games for the first time since 1997. Not only that, but with Pingeton's coaching, senior Christine Flores became the first Tiger to record a triple-double since 1995. Flores set several new records at Mizzou for the most blocks in her career and in a single season before being drafted to the WNBA.

This season, Missouri is undefeated at home with a perfect 11-0 record inside Mizzou Arena. The 11-0 start at home is the best since 2005-06 when they won 11 in a row at home to open the season as well. The home court win streak is the 11th best in the country, tied with Duke, Georgia, Maryland and North Carolina.

FRAZIER ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

The Mizzou Women's Basketball program has announced that senior Kendra Frazier will retire from the basketball program at Missouri. Frazier, who suffered an ACL tear in the spring of 2010, has had several surgeries to repair the injury, however she has not been able to fully recover. Frazier has spent the last two seasons playing a vital role on the Tiger bench and will continue to do so until she completes her degree in December. "The last four years have been a great experience for me," Frazier said. "Even through the most trying times, my teammates and the coaching staff have provided me with an amazing support system. I value the relationships that I have built at Mizzou and the experiences that I have had. This was a difficult decision for me, but I think it is one that will benefit me in the long run. I appreciate Coach Pingeton and my team's support through the decision-making process." Frazier joined the Mizzou Basketball family in 2008 and immediately made an impact on the team. She played in 17 games her freshman season and scored her first career basket against Illinois. She played in 19 games her sophomore season averaging 6.3 points per game.

Missouri 82, Auburn 77

Columbia, Mo. - The Mizzou women's basketball team improved to 12-4 on the season and won its 11th straight home game to open the season as it defeated Auburn in its SEC home opener, 82-76, on Sunday afternoon (Jan. 6) at Mizzou Arena. A pair of school and SEC records fell on Sunday as Mizzou hit a school-record 18 three-pointers, led by a school-record 11 from sophomore Morgan Eye (Montrose, Mo.). The 18 three-pointers made by the Tigers on Sunday are the most ever by an SEC school, shattering the previous best mark of 17 by Ole Miss. Additionally, Eye's 11 three-point buckets are also the most ever in an SEC league game and just one shy of the best-ever NCAA mark.

Sunday's win was all about Eye as she scored a career-high 33 points with her school-record 11 three-pointers. She also added four assists and two boards in the win. She led a Tiger offense that connected on 18-of-36 shots from deep. Freshman Maddie Stock (Town & Country, Mo.) added 11 points with three three-pointers while freshman point guard Lianna Doty (St. Louis, Mo.) hit two from deep to cap a well-rounded day for the frosh. In fact, Doty finished with 10 points, eight assist and two boards while connecting on 4-of-5 field goals. Liz Smith (Overland Park, Kan.) tallied 10 points as well and Bri Kulas (Shawnee Mission, Kan.) scored all nine of her points in the second half.

Kentucky 69, Missouri 43

Columbia, Mo.- The Mizzou women's basketball team fell to 12-5 on the season and 1-3 in SEC play after losing to No. 6 Kentucky, 69-43, on Sunday afternoon (Jan. 13) at Mizzou Arena. The loss snapped an 11-game home winning streak for the Tigers, which was their best home start since 2005-06. Sydney Crafton (Jefferson City, Mo.) led Mizzou with 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting on the day.

Aside from Crafton, junior Bri Kulas (Shawnee Mission, Kan.) gave Mizzou a lift, scoring nine points in the loss, while center Liz Smith (Overland Park, Kan.) added eight more points. In fact, Kulas, Smith and Crafton were a big reason why, that despite a glaring height differential, Mizzou tied UK in the paint points, 24-24, on Sunday. The Tigers played good team basketball again on Sunday, assisting on 12 of 18 field goals, led by seven dimes from freshman point guard Lianna Doty (St. Louis, Mo.), just one off of her career-high.

February 3, 2013
Missouri 80, Tennessee 63

Columbia, Mo.- Behind a strong second half push, the Missouri Tigers (15-8, 4-5) ran past No. 9/10 Tennessee (17-5), 80-63, on Sunday (Feb. 3) afternoon at Mizzou Arena. The game was tightly contested through the first 30 minutes, featuring 11 lead changes before the Tigers ran away for the 17-point victory.

- She ranks 10th in the league for her 13.5 points per game. That number puts her second among all sophomores in the league as well, behind Auburn's Hasina Muhammad who averages 15.8 points per game.
- Leads the team with her .411 three-point shooting percentage, with her 231 three-point attempts and with her 95 three-pointers made. She is one of only two players in the country to have recorded over 90 threes this season.
- Currently ranked No. 1 in the nation for her 3.8 three-pointers per game and is also ranked No. 16 in the nation for her .411 three-point shooting percentage. Those numbers lead the Southeastern Conference as well.
- Hit a school record eight three-pointers against UT Martin, and also shot 57.1 percent from behind the arc in the contest and shattered that record when she made 11 threes against Auburn on Jan. 6. The number was just one shy of the NCAA record, but stands as the most threes made in an SEC league contest.
- Is the first Tiger to score over 30 points in a game since RaeShara Brown hit the 30 mark at Kansas State in 2011. Before Brown, the last Tiger to put up 30 or more points was EeTisha Riddle in the 2006-07 season.
- Currently holds the school record for three-pointers made in one season (95), as she broke the record originally set by Alyssa Hollins in the 2007-08 season (90) against Mississippi State.
