MATCH NOTES

SERIES BREAKDOWN

Mizzou soccer returns to action for the 2026 season, opening the year at Western Kentucky on Thursday, August 13, at WKU Soccer Complex at 7 p.m., marking the first meeting between the programs. The Tigers open the year with a pair of matches in the Bluegrass State, as the team heads to Murray State for its second match on Sunday.

PRE-MATCH PRESS

- Missouri opens the 2026 campaign on the road, meeting Western Kentucky for the first time in program history.
- The Tigers return the bulk of their roster from a season ago, including starting goalkeeper Kate Phillips and center backs Mia Yang and Morgan Meador.
- Mizzou closed 2025 with consecutive shutout draws, including a 0-0 result against SEC-leading Arkansas in its home finale.
- The Tigers won their SEC opener last fall, defeating Texas 3-1 on Sept. 12 — the program's 10th SEC home-opening victory since joining the conference in 2012.
- Missouri tuned up for the season with an exhibition against Lindenwood on Aug. 5, where the Tigers defeated the Lions, the pick to win the Ohio Valley Conference, 3-1, on Wednesday, Aug. 5.
- Thursday's match is the first of a two-game swing through Kentucky, with the Tigers traveling to Murray State on Sunday.
- The 2026 season marks the first time since 2020 that the Tigers opened the season on the road and first since 2018 where the program began the year with consecutive road tests.
- The match is set for 7 p.m. CT and will stream on ESPN+, with live stats and in-match updates are available at MUTigers.com and on X at @MizzouSoccer.

NOTING THE TIGERS

TAKING THE PITCH

- Missouri enters its 31st season of competition in 2026.
- The Tigers return the majority of a roster that gained significant experience a season ago, including their top returning scorer, both starting center backs and both goalkeepers from 2025.
- Mizzou opens the year with two matches in Kentucky, at Western Kentucky and Murray State, before its home opener against in-state foe Saint Louis on Thursday, Aug. 20 at 4:30 p.m. at Audrey J. Walton Stadium.

FACILITY FACELIFT

- The Tigers will return to an upgraded Audrey J. Walton Stadium for its home opener, part of a project funded by a landmark philanthropic gift from Audrey J. Walton announced in January 2025.
- The gift, one of the largest in Mizzou Athletics history and the largest ever dedicated to Olympic sports, funded a new natural grass playing surface and subsurface improvements.

UNCHARTED TERRITORY

- Thursday marks the first-ever meeting between Missouri and Western Kentucky.
- The opener is the front end of a two-match Kentucky trip, with Mizzou traveling to Murray State on Sunday. MU's match against the Racers will be the second in series history, with the Black & Gold taking the lone meeting in 2019, 1-0.
- Missouri opens away from Columbia before returning home later this month.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

- Western Kentucky enters 2026 off a 9-5-3 season in which it earned the Conference USA regular-season title as the league's top seed before a first-round exit in the CUSA Tournament.
- The Hilltoppers are led by head coach Jason Neidell, who has called this the deepest attacking group of his tenure.
- WKU was picked fourth in the 2026 Conference USA preseason poll.
- Western Kentucky went 1-0-1 in exhibition play, defeating Murray State — Mizzou's Sunday opponent — 4-1 and drawing Samford 1-1.
- Thursday's match is Western Kentucky's season opener as well.

LAST TIME OUT

- The Tigers' lone exhibition match saw them defeat Lindenwood, 3-1, on Wednesday, August 5.
- Mizzou came out hot early, with a pair of goals coming within 40 seconds of each other in the sixth minute by McKenna Moran and Emily Derucki, respectively.
- Lana Adams put the finishing touches on the match after finding the back of the net in the 73rd minute.

THE CORE IS BACK

- Missouri returns the bulk of its 2025 roster, a young group that logged heavy minutes a season ago and comes back a year older.
- The back line returns Mia Yang and Morgan Meador, who started together throughout 2025.
- The midfield brings back Olivia Chianelli, McKenna Moran, Ava Vetter, Aly Bryant and Monica Brauner, while the attack returns Brianna Buels, Emily Derucki, Mia Devroux, Landis Canada and Landry Hopkins.
- Kate Phillips and Riley Wilkerson both return in goal.
- The Tigers return at least 10 starters from a season ago, marking just the fourth time in program history Missouri has brought back double-digit starters, with all three previous teams reaching the NCAA Tournament.

TURNING THE PAGE

- Missouri opens a new season looking to build on the flashes it showed in 2025, when the Tigers pushed several ranked opponents and closed the year with back-to-back shutouts.
- Mizzou's signature result came in its SEC opener: a 3-1 win over Texas, the program's first multi-goal SEC-opening victory since 2017.
- The Tigers return that experience and a defensive foundation that kept them in matches all fall.

STINGY IN THE BACKFIELD

- Defense was Missouri's calling card in 2025: the Tigers dropped just two matches by three or more goals all season.
- Mizzou closed the year with a 0-0 draw against SEC-leading Arkansas in its home finale.
- Center backs Yang and Meador, who played all but three minutes together in 2025, return to anchor the back line.

SIDELINE STAFF

- Missouri added Callie McKinney to Stefanie Golan's staff as an assistant coach in May, arriving after a season at SMU and five at Bellarmine, where she served as head coach in 2024.
- At SMU, she helped the Mustangs to an 8-8-2 record against one of the nation's toughest schedules; at Bellarmine, she guided the Knights to Division I-era program records for wins and ASUN victories in her lone season at the helm.
- A Franklin, Tenn., native, McKinney played at Louisville (2016-19), reaching the NCAA Tournament in each of her final two seasons.

STRENGTH IN GOAL

- Missouri returns an experienced, proven tandem in goal, with senior Kate Phillips and redshirt junior Riley Wilkerson both back to compete for time between the posts after seeing starts in 2025.
- Phillips, a Fishers, Indiana, native, ranked among the top five in the SEC in total saves a season ago, starting all but the final two matches and holding opponents to one goal or fewer on numerous occasions.

- Wilkerson closed 2025 in form, making 13 saves across the Tigers' final two matches, both of which were shutout draws, coming against Arkansas and Auburn.

SHOW-ME STATE

- Missouri's 2026 roster features 10 in-state players, continuing one of the most home-grown stretches in program history.
- It marks just the second time the program has carried 10 or more Missourians in three or more consecutive seasons (2024-26); the only other run came across Mizzou's first five seasons (1996-2000).
- The Tigers set a program record with 15 Missouri natives on the 2025 roster.

DESIGNING HER FUTURE

- Monica Brauner is a Textile and Apparel Management major; she has previously studied architecture and holds a minor in the field.
- She's designed and created her own clothing as part of her coursework.
- Draws inspiration from fashion's ability to communicate identity and values through dress.
- Aspires to work in the fashion industry on sewing, pattern making, and garment development, with a long-term dream of launching her own sustainable, timeless brand.

SERVING BEYOND SOCCER

- Morgan Schaefer is an active leader in Mizzou's Med-Letes group, alongside teammates Yang and Good.
- She helped to relaunch Caleb's Pitch, a program that partners Mizzou Athletics with Children's Hospital patients to create syringe art in honor of Caleb, who passed away from cancer at a young age.
- She also finds time to volunteer weekly at The Crossing Church, serving as a preschool team leader when not competing.
- She continues to give back to the community with Caring Hearts and Hands of Columbia, supporting hospice patients alongside teammate Mia Yang.

HORSEPOWER AT HOME

- Landry Hopkins comes from a family with a passion for horse racing — her family owns Proverbs Stable.
- Family's horse, Diva Las Vegas, won her maiden race at Fairmount Park on Sept. 6, pulling away to win by 2 ½ lengths.
- Racing has become a family affair, with Hopkins and her sisters often visiting Diva at the track.
- The Hopkins family recently purchased a second thoroughbred, Serene Empress, at the Keeneland Yearling Sale in Lexington, Ky.

POISE UNDER PRESSURE

- Phillips earned Mizzou's starting goalkeeper role

this season after splitting time in 2024 and is pursuing a medical redshirt from a freshman-year ankle injury.

- She is known for her poise under pressure, serving as a vocal leader who commands the back line and consistently celebrates her teammates' big plays.
- Before every match, her mom reminds her to "be brave," a message Phillips has carried with her throughout her career.
- She comes from a family of athletes, with three brothers who played college baseball and a great-grandfather who lettered in football and baseball at Iowa during the famed 1939 "Ironmen" season.

HEAD COACH

STEFANIE GOLAN

FIFTH YEAR • DUKE '01

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Born: July 9, 1968Hometown: St. Charles, Mo.Children: Travis, MaxEducation: Duke, 2001 // Northeastern, 2012

LEADING THE WAY

Stefanie Golan, a St. Charles, Missouri native, was named the University of Missouri's second women's soccer head coach in May 2021.

The 2026 season will be Golan's 18th as a head coach and fifth at Missouri. In 17 seasons, she has totaled a 147-119-43 (.545) career record.

During the 2024 season, Golan guided Milena Fischer to an All-SEC Third Team appearance after the senior tallied six goals and an assist.

In 2023, Golan directed Kylee Simmons to First Team All-SEC honors after the forward led the SEC in points (24), points per game (1.41), goals (11) and goals per game (.65). Simmons scored 11 goals on 29 shots on goal, finishing 18th in the country in shot accuracy (.630).

In addition, Simmons, Jenna Bartels, Milena Fischer and Leah Selm were named to the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Team for their combined performance on the field and in the classroom.

During the 2022 campaign, Golan's Tigers garnered two all-conference selections as defender Grace Pettit was named to the All-SEC Second Team while Bella Hollenbach landed on the All-SEC Freshman Team.

In her first season at the helm, Golan led the Tigers to an upset of No. 13 Ole Miss while Fischer claimed All-SEC Freshman Team recognition.

BEFORE THE ROAR

Golan came to Mizzou after spending nine seasons building a championship program at the University of Minnesota.

In nine seasons as head coach at Minnesota (2012-2020), Golan fashioned a 92-64-24 (.578) record with four NCAA Tournament appearances, one Big Ten regular-season title, a pair of Big Ten Tournament championships and eight winning seasons.

Leading the Gophers to the 2018 Big Ten Tournament Title, Golan's squad ran through the tournament without allowing a single goal after entering as the seventh seed. With qualification secured for the NCAA Tournament, Minnesota upset Auburn 2-0 in the first round before falling to the UCLA Bruins in the second round of play.

Golan earned her 100th career win against Utah State on Sept. 8, 2017. The milestone came in the form of a 5-0 defeat of the Aggies in her nine seasons as a head coach.

Named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2016, Golan led Minnesota to a 16-3-4 record and the program's first sweep of the Big Ten regular-season and tournament titles. The Gophers finished the 2016 campaign ranked in the Top 15 nationally after earning the highest national ranking in program history at No. 8. That squad also boasted the Big Ten Forward of the Year in Simone Kolander and the Big Ten Defender of the Year in Rashida Beal, who earned All-America honors and later drafted by FC Kansas City.

Golan guided the 2015 Gophers to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2010 and a 12-7-3 record. The program was ranked as high as No. 11 during the season, and Kolander earned the first of two Big Ten Forward of the Year honors.

Before moving to the Twin Cities to guide the Minnesota program, Golan sept five and a half years at Army West Point, serving as the associate head coach in 2007 and 2008. In three years as the head coach, 2009-11, she led the team to a 33-18-10 record and the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2011.

After debuting as the Black Knights' head coach in 2009, Golan's 2010 squad registered the program's highest win total since 1996 with its 14-4-3 record. It allowed just six goals on the season en route to a share of the Patriot League's regular-season championship. In her final season at West Point, Army went 12-4-5 and won the 2011 Patriot League Tournament title with a thrilling 2-0 win over arch-rival Navy to earn the second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in program history.

Prior to joining the Army West Point staff, Golan served as an assistant coach at the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Evansville after launching her career as a graduate assistant at Mercer University. The St. Charles native is an active member of the NSCAA and a former Chair of the NSCAA Great Lakes Region for the organization's All-America Committee.

GOLAN PLAYING DAYS

Golan earned a soccer scholarship to Duke University (Stefanie Kraay), where she played 56 games from 1997-2001 and helped lead the team to four NCAA Tournament appearances. The former Blue Devil earned a Bachelor of Arts in political science in 2001 before adding a master's in sports leadership from Northeastern University in 2012.

PERSONAL

Golan has two sons, Travis and Max, and a pair of dogs, Sarge and Captain.
