SETTING THE SCENE

The 19th-ranked Mizzou football team (6-2, 3-2 SEC) returns home for an SEC matchup against No. 10 Texas (6-2, 3-2 SEC) on Saturday, November 7 (11 a.m. CT / ESPN) at Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium. The Tigers enter Saturday following a 34-10 victory at Arkansas on October 31, securing their fifth-consecutive Battle Line Rivalry win. RB Jamal Roberts powered the offense with 138 rushing yards and two total touchdowns, surpassing 1,000 rushing yards for the season. LB Nicholas Rodriguez recorded 11 tackles and a forced fumble as Mizzou generated four takeaways and limited the Razorbacks to 59 rushing yards.

THE COACHES

Already No. 4 on Mizzou's all-time wins list, Eli Drinkwitz is in his seventh season as Mizzou's head coach and enters Saturday with a 52-31 mark (64-32 overall). The Alma, Arkansas, native has led the Tigers to bowl eligibility in each of his first seven seasons in Columbia, making him the only MU head coach in program history to achieve that feat. Prior to taking the Mizzou job, Drinkwitz was 12-1 in his lone season as head coach at Appalachian State (2019). Drinkwitz boasts the best home winning percentage (min. four seasons) in program history at .804 and is 37-9 on Faurot Field during his tenure. Since the start of 2023, Drinkwitz and the Tigers have gone 35-12 (.745) - tied for 12th-best nationally over that stretch among P4 schools and Notre Dame.

Texas head coach Steve Sarkisian is in his sixth season leading the Longhorns, compiling a 54-22 record at Texas and a 100-57 career mark across 13 seasons as a head coach. Sarkisian has guided Texas to a 6-2 overall record, including a 3-2 mark in SEC play in 2026, earning his 100th career victory with a 31-3 win over Mississippi State on Oct. 31. He led the Longhorns to three consecutive 10-win seasons from 2023-25, highlighted by a Big 12 championship in 2023, consecutive College Football Playoff semifinal appearances in 2023 and 2024 and an SEC Championship Game appearance in the program's inaugural conference season in 2024. Before arriving in Austin, Sarkisian made head coaching stops at Washington (2009-13) and USC (2014-15).

DJ JONES ON THE MEND

Mizzou freshman DJ Jones received a heart transplant on October 8. The Tigers' freshman remains in the hospital in Florida as he continues his long road to recovery. A heart issue (compromised left ventricle) was discovered during his medical onboarding process in Columbia early in the summer. He went to Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville, Fla., and his condition was monitored throughout late summer and early fall. He eventually went into heart failure in late September and was placed on the transplant list. DJ faces a long recover and his family a significant financial burden. Please see the QR code on page 7 for anyone able to help during this challenging time.

- Walk-on junior OL Chace Missouri earned an athletic scholarship following a practice during fall camp in mid August.
- The video was featured on NBC's "There's Good News Tonight" segment on the nightly show, highlighting walk-on college football players across the country that were surprised with academic scholarships.
- "All of the hard work I put in the past three years paid off and that's the best feeling that anyone could ever have," Missouri said.

ELITE E.D.G.E.

- Energy. Details. Grit. Emotional Consistency.
- Head Coach Eli Drinkwitz introduced the acronym Elite E.D.G.E during his first seasons at Mizzou.
- The phrase is posted all around Mizzou's facilites and is mentioned frequently by all staff and student-athletes when asked to desribe the culture of the program.
- Drinkwitz believes positive Energy is contagious, and Details drive excellence and creates seperation.
- Drinkwitz describes Grit as a stubborn refusal to quit.
- Emotional consistency, Drinkwitz regards as the highest paid trait in the world.
- By showing up with those four traits, Mizzou gains an Elite E.D.G.E. over its opponent.

1960 NATIONAL CHAMPS

- First recognized by Senator Eric Schmitt on the floor of the U.S. Senate, Mizzou Athletics formally recognized the undefeated 1960 Missouri football team as national champions during halftime of the Tigers' Sept. 19 victory over Troy.
- The recognition is based on the Poling System, an NCAA-recognized historical national championship selector that named Missouri its 1960 national champion.
- Led by legendary head coach Dan Devine, the Tigers won the Big Eight championship and finished 11-0 following Kansas' forfeiture for using an ineligible player and Mizzou's 21-14 victory over Navy in the Orange Bowl.
- The 1960 Tigers climbed to No. 1 in the AP poll during the regular season and finished No. 5 in the final poll, which was conducted before bowl games until 1968.
- The ceremony will be part of the Memorial Stadium 100th Anniversary Game, during which the Tigers will wear special throwback uniforms honoring the program's history.

HEAD COACH

ELI DRINKWITZ

SEVENTH YEAR • ARKANSAS TECH '04

Eli Drinkwitz was named the University of Missouri's 33rd head football coach on December 10, 2019. In his seventh season at the helm, he has compiled a 52–31 (.627) record, earned 2023 Southeastern Conference (SEC) Coach of the Year honors and established himself as one of the most successful starts to a head coaching tenure in program history.

With more than 20 years of coaching experience, Drinkwitz has coached in 13 bowl games, including the 2011 BCS National Championship Game, and has guided 61 student-athletes to all-conference honors. Across his career as a head coach and coordinator, he has helped develop nine All-Americans, 33 NFL Draft selections, eight 1,000-yard rushers, five 3,000-yard passers and five 1,000-yard receivers. During four seasons (2015, 2017, 2018 and 2023), his offenses produced a player in all three categories. Of those 33 NFL Draft picks, 10 of them have been selected in the top-three rounds, including a trio of first rounders (Garrett Bradbury; NC State - 2019, Darius Robinson; Mizzou - 2024, Armand Membou; Mizzou - 2025).

The 2023 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award finalist, Drinkwitz has guided the Tigers to bowl berths in each of his first six seasons in Columbia, becoming the only Coach in school history to accomplish that feat.

Under his leadership, the Tigers have finished ranked in the national top 25 in two of the last three seasons and compiled a 29–10 overall record during that span, including 15–9 in SEC play. Drinkwitz led Mizzou to back-to-back 10-plus win seasons in 2023 (11–2) and 2024 (10–3), marking just the third time in program history and making him one of only two Mizzou head coaches with multiple 10-win seasons. The Tigers also earned postseason bowl victories in consecutive seasons for just the fourth time in school history, highlighted by wins over Ohio State in the 2023 Cotton Bowl and Iowa in the 2024 Music City Bowl.

Player development has been a hallmark of Drinkwitz's tenure. He has mentored 22 players to 24 all-conference honors at Mizzou, including 13 first team All-SEC selections, and coached 23 Tigers who were drafted into the NFL. Recent drafts included first-round selections Darius Robinson (2024) and Armand Membou (2025), along with second-round picks Nick Bolton (2021), standout wide receiver Luther Burden III (2025) and a pair of second-round picks from Mizzou's stout 2025 defense in Zion Young (2026) and Josiah Trotter (2026).

The 2025 Mizzou squad featured one of the best defenses in the nation and a potent rushing attack on offense led by transfer running back Ahmad Hardy. Mizzou's defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (277.3 YPG), 11th in pass yards allowed (173.5 YPG), 13th in rush defense (103.8 YPG) and 17th in scoring defense (18.9 PPG). Hardy, ran wild for the Tigers, earning consensus first team All-America honors, SEC Newcomer of the Year, unanimous first team All-SEC and finished second nationally – first among Power 4 rushers – in rushing yards with 1,649. He also became the third running back of the Drinkwitz's era to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, which is given to the nation's best running back.

The 2024 Tigers put together a 10-3 season that saw MU finish the season at No. 22 in the Associated Press poll. The double-digit wins campaign was the second straight for the program. Mizzou went 5-3 in SEC games (11-5 in SEC games over the last two seasons). The Tigers defeated Iowa 27-24 to win the Music City Bowl to cap the season.

Mizzou's track record of player development success was on full display at the 2025 NFL Draft, with three Tigers selected. Armand Membou became MU's latest first-round selection, going No. 7 overall to the New York Jets, Membou was the 22nd Mizzou player to be drafted in the first round. Luther Burden III heard his named called the next night, going in the second round (39th overall) to the Chicago Bears. Marcus Bryant was taken in the seventh round by the New England Patriots.

The 2023 Tigers put together an 11-2 season that saw MU move into the Top 10 of all three national polls. The double-digit wins campaign was the first since 2014. Mizzou went 6-2 in SEC games, won both the Mayor's Cup over South Carolina and Battle Line Rivalry over Arkansas and qualified for its first New Year's Six bowl and defeated Ohio State in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl.

The 2022 season showcased a much-improved defense, ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference and 34th nationally by allowing just 340.8 yards per game, 93.8 less than in 2021. Freshman phenom Luther Burden III took no time making his mark at the college level. The St. Louis native became the first true freshman since 2008 to record two receiving touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns, and a punt-return touchdown in the same season. Burden III's eight scores from scrimmage were second amongst SEC true freshmen (Ole Miss' Quinshon Judkins) and led true freshmen receivers nationally.

The 2021 season saw Tyler Badie set the school's single-season record for rushing yards (1,604). His 14 touchdowns in 12 games are ninth on Mizzou's single-season and top-10 list. He was a CoSIDA Academic All-American, the SEC Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year (Mizzou's first-ever), first-team All-SEC and was named to multiple All-America teams.

In 2020, the Tigers overcame an 0-2 start to win five of their last eight games despite playing with less than 60 scholarship players for over half of those contests. Finished the year with a 5-5 record against a SEC-only schedule. The Tigers' five SEC wins were their second-most ever behind a pair of of 7-1 marks during back-to-back SEC East crowns in 2013 and 2014.

He arrived in Columbia after leading Appalachian State to a 12-1 record and a No. 20 ranking in the final AP poll and a Sun Belt Conference Championship.

Drinkwitz graduated magna cum laude and was the student body president at Arkansas Tech (bachelor's, education) before beginning his coaching career at the prep level in his hometown of Alma, Ark., in 2005. He and his wife, Lindsey (Sivils), have four daughters: Addison, Emerson, Ella and Parker Lynn.
