

National Trail of Tears Association

Conference & Symposium

September 28 - 30, 2026
Embassy Suites | Kennesaw, GA

Tentative Schedule

Sunday

- 2:00 pm-5:00 pm
Pre-Conference Event | New Echota State Historic Site, Fort Means
- 8:00am-2:00pm
Conference Registration

Monday

- 6:30-8:45am | TOTA Board Breakfast
- 9am-12pm | TOTA Board Meeting
- 1:00-2:00pm
Land, Language, and Women: A Cherokee and American Educational History | Keynote Speaker: Julie Reed
- 2:15-3:15pm
NPS Report - Carol Clark
- 4:00-5:00pm
Southeastern Indians in the American Revolution | Tammy Byron, Young Harris College
- Community Night | Chief Hoskin
Cherokee Nation Youth Choir

Tuesday

- 8:00-9:00am
Conference Registration
- 6:30-8:45am | Breakfast
- 9:00-10:00am
1st Concurrent Session
- 10:15-11:15
2nd Concurrent Session
- 11:30-12:30 | Lunch
- 1:00-5:00pm
Field Trip: Bartow History Museum and Booth Western Art Museum

Wednesday

- 8:00-11:00am
Conference Registration
- 6:30-8:45aEm | Breakfast
- 9:00-10:00am
3rd Concurrent Sessions
- 10:15-11:15
Speaker Alice Taylor-Colbert
"Resilience & Revolution: Native Peoples in 18th Century South Carolina"
- 11:30-12:30 | Lunch
Will Chavez and Traci Sorrel
- 12:45-1:15pm
Closing Remarks | Jack Backer

1st Concurrent Session Speakers

- "Extremely white, tenacious, and glittering with mica:" Cherokee Unega Across Six Centuries of Ceramics"
Co Presenters: Ruthie Dibble, Peabody Essex Museum | Joseph Zordan, Harvard University
- "Cherokee Girls at Salem and Their Needlework"
Johanna Brown, Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts (MESDA)
- "Cherokee Baskets at Old Salem and their River Cane material: a Cultural Keystone Species"
Martha Hartley, Old Salem Museums & Gardens

2nd Concurrent Session Speakers

- "The Midas Curse: The Gold, the Cherokee, and the Removal"
Mike Wren
- "Locating Fort Means"
Jeff Bishop, Funk Heritage Center
- "Creek Culture and Removal"
Christopher D. Haveman, University of West Alabama

3rd Concurrent Session Speakers

- "The Holy Ghost in the Cherokee Mountains: Missionaries, Hymns, and Landscape Spirits"
James A. Owen-UGA
- TBA
Melissa Payne, Cherokee Nation Freedmen Community Liaison
Town Park Room

TRAIL OF
TEARS
Association