

Mr Dry I take occasions to write to you to inform you that you may come as soon as you can. we can do nothing here nor we need not go for we can find no place to live before it came down here. I hoped to find some relief for us but it is not so I find we will never be any better; and the advice from your people you need not take thus they will bring you to your ruin the time are now up that no place will be left Sir - this is all that I can tell you now I have seen all the business of little William <sup>(Mr. Thomas)</sup> has forsaken you and that is the cause of all this is all that will inform you so good
