

the West with
 try that would le problem too
 detained them e they suffered nger, he told
 r their arrival 8

ed under the
 their families
 he supposed
 would remain
 n for removal
 r some white

ven into the r their chief
 od attacked
 some houses
 e plantation
 h and some ighborhood
 e end of the
 heir safety,
 s from the
 t. John G.

men from
 peared in Reynolds,
 l them by
 "halted at
 ried away

hey left me
 nces given
 volunteers
 ; March 7,

No 1. Old Stockade now a garden No 2. Plan of new work since by the Indians, location of hill N. west of the present work.
 No 3. Encampment, or a range of temporary tents in 1835
 by Lieut. Mason

The swamp west of the present work, part of the tract is the common land of a number of persons whose claims are usually taken to the Indian land of the Fort is a small rolling prairie

Along the St. Johns a 1/2 mile you find rocks and other in the ground, building one of which and plenty of stone for building a fort below

Sketch of the Reserve around Fort Gibson on the Cherokee Nation west of Arkansas.

Map of the Fort Gibson reservation as it appeared in 1840; many of the immigrant Indians were first located on this reservation to be mustered and receive issues of provisions and rations