most of them would prefer settling on the land so designated in A Roof Treaty West of Mo & so East of the Osage Reservation which would make the distance to be travelled about equal on each route.

Waggons and teams could be had cheaper to go the whole distance than they could by engaging them for the Mississippi river subject thero to be disengaged or continued at pleasure. Should they be continued through, it might be well to say whether the whole disbursements for transportation should not be made by the agent East where the contracts are concluded.

It is believed no considerable number would wish ^{to} emigrate during this season, in such as do will mostly take the commutation money or prefer to be removed by persons selected by themselves who would take this allowance as compensation for transporting and subsisting them on the way.

Where this is allowed responsible Contractors with good and sufficient security will be required.

Before any general removal takes place it would be proper for an Agent to pass along the road selected, and fix stands at convenient distances, from which to furnish the necessary supplies to emigrants on their way to the west.

Kept exhibiting all the transactions connected with removals &c &c To this end the services of GwCurrey have been employed-his salary or pay has not yet been fixed, but will be regulated by the duties performed.

A copy of this communication will be furnished Lmt Harris with a request that he make out an estimate and forward it to your Department early
