

New Brunswick Parking Authority Bid #26-12: Parking Garage Power Washing – Clarifications

The following responses address vendor questions for Bid #26-12: Parking Garage Power Washing

Q: Where are water hook ups located?

A: Water hook ups should be available on every level of parking deck near elevators.

Q: What are the number of parking spaces at each parking deck?

A: See table below:

| GARAGE                    | NUMBEROFPARKINGSPACES | NUMBER OFELEVATORS | NUMBEROFLEVELS |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| New Street Deck                  | 430                                         | 2                              | 6                               |
| Lower Church StreetDeck      | 429                                         | 1                              | 5                               |
| Paterson Street Deck             | 1580                                        | 2                              | 7                               |
| Civic Square Deck                | 199NBPAside only                    | 1                              | 1                               |
| Morris Street Deck               | 824                                         | 2                              | 6                               |
| NBPAC Deck                       | 344                                         | 2                              | 7                               |
| Plum Street ParkingGarage    | 854                                         | 3                              | 11                              |
| Gateway ParkingGarage        | 657                                         | 5                              | 10                              |
| Wellness Plaza ParkingGarage | 1250                                        | 4                              | 9                               |