Summary

Aircraft repairs took longer than expected giving the crew a late start to the day. We departed Boulder this evening dodging storms along the way and repositioned to Amarillo TX. We will continue our trek to D03 tomorrow.

Concerns

- Our original hangar space in domain 03 Ocala has been filled by another tenant. Our crew has been exploring other options in the area. Parking outside in Ocala is still on option however Mitch will visit Gainesville's airport tomorrow to investigate parking options after receiving positive feedback from the airport.

Comments

- No power options on ramp in Amarillo, thus the payload's turbo pump will not be applied tonight.
- Mitch is scheduled to arrive in D03 tonight
