

High School Baseball

One of the biggest sporting events in Japan is a high school baseball competition. Every August, teams from schools across the country play each other. Millions of people enjoy watching it on TV.

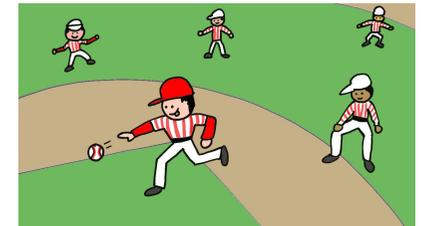

- 1 Please look at the passage.
When do the baseball teams play each other?
- 2 Please look at the picture.
How many baseball players are there?
- 3 Please look at the boy with the red cap.
What is he doing?

Now, Mr. / Ms. _____, please turn the card over.

- 4 What time do you usually go to bed?
- 5 Which do you like better, eating at home or at restaurants? Why?

High School Baseball

One of the biggest sporting events in Japan is a high school baseball competition. Every August, teams from schools across the country play each other. Millions of people enjoy watching it on TV.

Nick's answers:

1. They play each other every August.
2. There are five baseball players.
3. He is throwing the ball.
4. I usually go to bed at 10pm.
5. Eating at home... It's cheaper than eating at restaurants.