This book is dedicated to my husband Rajasekhar and my lovely daughters Shivani and Rishita who bear my unwarned Rhyme attacks with fortitude. But they support me in my every role of Jane of all trades and are the reason I venture out of the four walls of mundanity.

I also dedicate this book to Taashi and Kaaya, our Lhasa Apso dogs who with their sheer capacity to snooze endlessly in my lap, create the perfect warm environment for creative musings.

Acknowledgement

This book is the result of a gentle shove from my three best and oldest friends Ujwala, Chetna and Sunita who believed that I could write one poem every day for 21 days. Armed with this confidence, I entered a 21-day poetry contest and managed to dish out a rhyme a day. Hence the name A Rhyme in Time.

I also owe this book to my running partners Satish and Priya, who have pushed me every day to get my poems published because they believe that they are worth sharing.

I also thank my friends from my literary club LICH who enjoy every small poem or prose I write, but give me honest feedback and sometimes nudge me to step out of my comfort zone and try new genres writing wise.
