LUCYS RECHT AUF IHRE EIGENE MEINUNG

BIRTE GUNDERMANN

Sozialpädagogin und Mitgründerin der Kita „the Coloured World of Kids“, in der zu den Fragen der Kinder kreativ geforscht wird. Mit dabei ist Lucy in ihrer bunten Welt, die ihre ganz eigenen Gedanken mit uns teilt.

Educator and co-founder of the day-care centre „the Coloured World of Kids“, where children’s questions are creatively explored. Lucy joins us in her coloured world, sharing her very own thoughts.

LUCYS RIGHT TO HER

BIRTE GUNDERMANN

Lucy liegt abends in ihrem Bett und denkt nach. Als ihre Mama kommt, um ihr einen Gute-Nacht-Kuss zu geben, fragt sie: „Mama, ich verstehe was nicht. In der Kita haben sie erzählt, ich habe ein Recht auf eine eigene Meinung. Aber woher kriege ich die denn und was heißt das überhaupt?“
Auch Mama denkt einen Moment lang nach.

In the evening, , Lucy lies awake in her bed, thinking. When her mom comes to kiss her goodnight, she asks: “Mama, I don’t understand something. At day-care they said that I have the right to have my own opinion. But where do I get it from and what does that mean?”. Mom also thinks for a moment.

„Das ist wirklich nicht so einfach mit der eigenen Meinung. Meine Meinung - heißt, sie ist mein - meine Gedanken, meine Gefühle, meine Wünsche. Sie gehören mir und sie sind wichtig und richtig - wie bei jedem großen und kleinen Menschen. Und wir können nur wissen, was DU denkst und fühlst, wenn du deine Meinung auch laut sagst.“

“It isn’t really easy to understand what your own opinion means. My opinion - means it is mine - my thoughts, my feelings, my wishes. They belong to me and they are important and right - as with every grown up and child. And we can only know what YOU think and feel, if you speak your mind out loud.”
