Vetted, local nonprofit partners identify pivotal, time-sensitive needs like a $350 car repair to keep a parent employed, a $150 certification fee to secure a better job, or $400 to help someone safely leave an abusive situation. These needs are uploaded to NeighborShare's platform, where donors fulfill them in real time. By removing red tape and channeling support directly to families, NeighborShare prevents small, unmet needs from becoming crises. Every contribution reaches the individual or family directly and provides immediate, stabilizing impact. Since its inception, NeighborShare has distributed over $1.6 million to more than 15,700 neighbors nationwide, including $519,320 in FY2025 alone.

Authorized staff submit verified requests for essential household needs through the Organization's online platform in accordance with established program policies and procedures.

The Organization screens and trains participating nonprofit partners, provides ongoing oversight, and reviews each submitted request to help ensure compliance with program guidelines before needs are made available to online donors, corporate partners, and private funders.
