2014 NCAA WEST REGIONAL

• Northwestern is the No. 7 seed at the 2014 NCAA West Regional. This is the 12th NCAA Regional appearance in program history and the fifth-straight under six-year head coach Emily Fletcher.

• Northwestern will utilize the same starting five it has used for every tournament this year: junior Hana Lee (Hacienda Heights, Calif./Wilson), sophomores Kaitlin Park (Tustin, Calif./Beckman), Elizabeth Szokol (Winnetka, Ill./New Trier), Suchaya Tangkamolprasert (Bangkok, Thailand/Bromsgrove International) and freshman Kacie Komoto (Honolulu, Hawaii/Punahou).

• A program record four Wildcats received 2014 All-Big Ten honors. Hana Lee and Kaitlin Park both received First Team All-Big Ten honors for the second straight year while Elizabeth Szokol and Kacie Komoto were second team honorees. NU's four players on the All-Big Ten teams were the most for any conference squad.

• NU is coming off a third-place finish at the 2014 Big Ten Championships, its third top-three showing in the last four years. Hana Lee led the Wildcats with a third-place finish, her best at the conference tournament.

• NU enters the West regional ranked No. 14 by Golfweek and No. 19 in the Golfstat rankings.

• Last year, NU finished sixth at the NCAA East Regional to secure just its second NCAA Championship berth in program history. The Wildcats entered the third and final round in 10th place and vaulted into sixth. NU went on to place 15th at the 2013 NCAA Championships. Here's NU's results at the 2013 NCAA East Regional, played at the Auburn University Golf Club:

Northwestern – 6th/24 teams • 292-298-284=874 (+10)

T15 - Suchaya Tangkamolprasert – 71-73-71=215 (-1)
32 - Elizabeth Szokol – 75-76-68=219 (+3)
T39 - Lauren Weaver – 73-75-74=222 (+6)
T44 - Hana Lee – 73-78-72=223 (+7)
T51 - Kaitlin Park – 77-74-73=224 (+8)

• Northwestern has five top-three finishes and eight top-five finishes out of 10 tournaments this year. NU finished first at the Hurricane Invitational and during the stroke play portion of the 2014 Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic.

• This year, NU shot an 11-under 277 at the Liz Murphey Collegiate, which is a new program record and new tournament record.

• If the season ended today, Hana Lee and Kaitlin Park would sit No. 1 and No. 2 on NU's single-season scoring average, respectively. Lee set the record in 2012-13 at 74.27 but she has surpassed that average this year, currently at 73.75. Park's 73.96 average is close behind.

• If the season ended today, the scoring averages this year from all five Wildcat starters would rank in the top 10 in program history:

1. Hana Lee - 73.75
2. Kaitlin Park - 73.96
5. Kacie Komoto - 74.75
8. Elizabeth Szokol - 75.18
9. Suchaya Tangkamolprasert - 75.21

• NU has three of the top 54-hole tournament scores in program history this year. The Wildcats carded an 864 at the Hurricane Invitational, which is the new record. They also had an 867 at the Windy City Collegiate Classic and 869 at the Stanford Intercollegiate. The previous record was 870, set in 2007 at the Mountain View Collegiate.

Five-Straight NCAA Regional Appearances

Top 15 at 2013 NCAA Championships

Emily Fletcher, now in her sixth season as the women's golf head coach, has continued to guide Northwestern to success on and off the course. Under Fletcher's direction, Northwestern has qualified for five-consecutive NCAA Regionals from 2010-14, breaking program records along the way. Fletcher was duely recognized for her leadership during the 2010-11 season as she was named Big Ten's Co-Coach of the Year, the first Wildcat head coach to earn such an honor. She earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in 2013 after guiding Northwestern to a share of its first Big Ten title in program history.

The Wildcats had a banner 2012-13 season, one that saw Northwestern tie for first at the 2013 Big Ten Championships, with all six competitors placing in the top-25, including three in the top 10. NU shared the 2013 Big Ten Championship title with Purdue as freshman Kaitlin Park led the Wildcats with her sixth-place finish and spot on the All-Championship Team.

Following the conference tournament, Fletcher was tabbed 2013 Big Ten Coach of the Year and had two players receive other Big Ten accolades. Kaitlin Park became just the second Wildcat (and the first under Fletcher) to earn the title of Big Ten Freshman of the Year while also landing a spot on the All-Big Ten First Team. Sophomore Hana Lee also earned First-Team All-Big Ten status while leading the team in scoring average throughout the 2012-13 season.

The Wildcats made their fourth-consecutive NCAA appearance under Fletcher, playing at the 2013 NCAA East Regional, and reached another milestone. After entering the third and final round in 10th place in the 24-team field, Fletcher's Wildcats tied a program record in the third round, carding a 4-under 284 to vault into sixth place and qualify for the NCAA Championships for just the second time in Northwestern women's golf history. The Wildcats finished 15th at the 2013 NCAA Championships, placing ahead of four teams ranked in the top 20.

In 2011-12, Northwestern qualified for its third-consecutive NCAA Regional, playing in the East Regional at the Penn State Blue Course in State College, Pa. The 'Cats finished the regional on a positive note, posting their best round of the tournament and two players, Devon Brown and Alex Lederhausen, scored eagles in the final round. NU began the 2011-12 campaign strong, with a third and fourth place finish, respectively, in the first two tournaments of the season, 12 sub-300 rounds and had eight top-10 finishes throughout the year.

Using a lineup that consisted of one senior, one junior, one sophomore and two freshmen, each starter stepped up at various points throughout the season. Junior Lauren Weaver added a numer of highlights to her already illustrious NU career, tying for first at the Mountain View Collegiate and becoming just the fourth golfer in school history to score a hole-in-one. Weaver's ace came at the Lady Buckeye Invitational on the par-three, 146-yard eighth hole.

During the 2010-11 season, Fletcher's Wildcats posted eight sub-300 rounds, including a then-program-record 2-under 286 in the final round of the Big Ten Championships. NU finished among the top-six in eight of its 12 events, highlighted by a second-place finish at the Lady Northern Invitational and a third-place finish in the Big Ten Championships. NU's 35-over 1,187 at the Big Ten Championships set a Northwestern record by a full 19 strokes. Under Fletcher's tutelage, Lauren Weaver once again garnered All-Big Ten honors, this time earning a first team All-Big Ten selection for the 2010-11 season.

In her first year at the helm of the program, the Wildcats recorded top-10 team finishes in 10 of the 11 tournaments they competed in, highlighted by a fourth-place finish at the Big Ten Championships. Northwestern had four golfers place in the top-10 on the year, with an additional 12 top-20 individual finishes.

Fletcher, the second head coach of the Northwestern women's golf team, brings with her over 20 years of coaching and teaching. Director of golf and men's head coach Pat Goss is excited about what Fletcher will continue to bring to the women's golf team.

"I have known Emily for over 15 years and had always thought she would make a great college coach," Goss said of Fletcher's hiring. "I am especially impressed with her background and relationships in professional golf. Our goal is to attract women who want to pursue golf with the goal of playing professionally. Emily has a strong belief in what Northwestern University and our golf programs stand for. I have no doubt she will lead us toward our goal of being the top team in the Big Ten and a consistently top-20 program."

Fletcher has over 20 years of experience as a teacher and coach, including spending nine years mentoring on the LPGA Tour. She served as the primary swing instructor for the LPGA's Jenny Lidback, helping her win the 1995 DuMaurier Classic champion, one of the LPGA's four majors. Lidback also captured 20 top-10 finishes under Fletcher's tutelage.

Fletcher also served as the assistant tournament director for the Wachovia Betsy King Classic from 1996 through 2004, serving in a variety of different roles. Her work with the championship earned a selection to work with Betsy King at the 2007 Solheim Cup in Sweden.

"I think so highly of Emily that I chose her to assist me in the Solheim Cup," said King. "I recruited Emily to organize and lead the team helpers for the U.S. team. I think Emily will be an outstanding women's golf coach for Northwestern."

She spent 20 years with the Glen View Club as the director of instruction, teaching professional and assistant manager for golf operations. Fletcher also spent four seasons as an assistant golf professional at the Desert Highlands Golf Club in Scottsdale, Ariz.

A 1987 graduate of Ferris State University, Fletcher was an AIAW Division II All-American in 1981. She has been a PGA member since 1987 and was named as the reader's favorite instructor in Golf For Women magazine in 1997.

"These are exciting times in women's athletics at Northwestern," Fletcher said. "We're eager to put women's golf on the same level as softball, lacrosse, tennis and the other women's programs at Northwestern. The bar has been set by some of these other programs, and I'm excited for us to achieve at the same level."

BETH MILLER

Assistant Coach
Sixth Season

Beth Miller has been an assistant coach with Northwestern women's golf program for the last six years, helping the Wildcats reach new heights. With Miller's assistance, Northwestern has qualified for five-consecutive NCAA Regionals from 2010-14, won the program's first Big Ten title in 2013, reached the 2013 NCAA Championships while breaking program records along the way.

Miller helped guide the Wildcats to a banner 2012-13 season, one that saw Northwestern tie for first at the 2013 Big Ten Championships, with all six competitors placing in the top 25, including three in the top 10. NU shared the 2013 Big Ten Championship title with Purdue as freshman Kaitlin Park led the way with her sixth-place finish and spot on the All-Championship Team. Miller helped coach Park to Big Ten Freshman of the Year accolades and first-team All-Big Ten honors, along with sophmore Hana Lee, in 2012-13.

Following the 2013 Big Ten Championships, NU had a strong showing at the NCAA East Regional, finishing sixth and punching its ticket to the 2013 NCAA Championships. Making its second NCAA championship appearance in program history, Northwestern finished amongst the top 15 teams in the country. Northwestern set a new program record, carding a 284 in two rounds during the 2012-13 season and had 18 sub-300 rounds.

Since joining Emily Fletcher's coaching staff for the 2008-09 season, five Wildcats have achieved eight All-Big Ten honors, eight NGCA All-America Scholar awards have been distributed and the team has received 24 Academic All-Big Ten honors.

Miller joined the Wildcats in 2008 after spending a year as the lead coach at the Green to Tee Golf Academy in Glencoe, Ill. There she coached over 90 golfers and helped to coordinate a number of tournaments and projects as well as assisting in the growth of the Academy. Previously, she spent time as a professional golfer, competing in the 2005 U.S. Women's Open at Cherry Hills Country Club in Denver, Colo.

A native of Dixon, Ill., Miller is a 2004 graduate of Purdue University where she earned her degree in consumer and family science. She competed in four NCAA Championships for the Boilermakers and was named team captain as a senior. Miller spent four semesters on the coaches' honor roll and received the Durham Brothers Leadership Award given for excellent work ethic as well as a positive attitude. She earned All-American status at Newman Central Catholic High School and is the younger sister of Christie Hermes, who competed for Northwestern from 1997-2001.
