Bearcats 0-4 against the Big Ten
While Northwestern is a first-time opponent, BU has played four games against members of the Big Ten (Michigan 2x, Michigan State, Penn State). The closest loss was a 59-46 setback at Michigan in 2004-05. Last December BU lost at Penn State 80-65. The two other results were against third-ranked teams in the nation (No. 3 Michigan 67, BU 39 in 2012 and No. 3 Michigan State 76, BU 33 in 2015).

Dempsey receives two-year contract extension
In the final year of his contract, seventh-year head coach Tommy Dempsey received a two-year extension on Nov. 13, keeping him atop the program through the 2020-21 season.

Sessoms named America East Rookie of Week
After averaging 20 points in his first two collegiate games, freshman guard Sam Sessoms earned the America East Rookie of the Week honor for Nov. 12. He netted a game-high 27 points against Cornell and added 13 points vs. NJIT.

Record six double-figure scorers pace BU in blowout win
Led by a record six players in double figures, Binghamton took care of business in a 107-64 home win over Division III Misericordia on Nov. 12. A seventh player had nine points and the 43-point margin of victory was the third-highest in BU's 18-year Division I history.

Sessoms makes splash in collegiate debut
Heralded freshman guard Sam Sessoms wasted no time showing his talents with 27 points in his collegiate debut against Cornell on Nov. 6. That total tied the school record for most points by a freshman in a collegiate debut. Sessoms hit 12-of-20 field goals (3-of-8 threes) and also added a team-high four assists. The 27 points were the most by a BU player in 28 games dating back to November 2017.

No help at home
Visiting Cornell had double the free throw attempts (34) as BU (17) in the season opener. Four Binghamton starters accumulated three or more fouls and one fouled out (Caldwell). The Bearcats also hurt their cause by missing 11 free throws while the Big Red converted 74% (25-of-34).

Bruce sidelined with concussion
Senior center Thomas Bruce has been relegated to the sidelines after suffering a concussion in preseason. The 6-foot-9 starter is one of the top rim protectors in the conference. The timetable for his return to the floor remains unclear.

Bruce two-time All-Defensive Team honoree
Senior center Thomas Bruce has been selected to the America East All-Defensive Team in each of the last two seasons. Bruce averaged 11.1 points and 8.8 rebounds last winter. He ranked second in the conference in rebounding and led the league with 2.1 blocks per game. With 535 career rebounds, Bruce is on pace to become the program's all-time rebounds leader (Div. I era).

Best in Show
Senior guard J.C. Show is the team's two-time leading scorer. One of his signature games during his two-year career was a 34-point performance in BU's 72-70 win over visiting Central Connecticut State on Nov. 16, 2016. Show tied school records for points, three-pointers (8) and field goals (12) and hit the game-winning trey with 22 seconds remaining. He shot 12-of-16 from the floor, including 8-of-11 from beyond the arc. In the second half, Show hit 8-of-10 shots, good for 24 points. His highlight reel made ESPN's SportsCenter that night.

MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS ROW
The Events Center working press row is located courtside on the east side of the building. The official scorer, timekeeper, public address announcer and both teams are located opposite press row.

PRESS ROOM SERVICES
Halftime stats will be delivered at intermission to press row. Final box scores, complete play-by-play, coaches' quotes and post-game notes will be available in the press room as quickly as possible following the game. Post game interviews will only be conducted in the press room. The locker rooms are not open to members of the media. The Events Center press room is in the southeast corner of the building on the lower level.

INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITIES
Postgame: The media room will be the site for Coach Tommy Dempsey's press conference and any player interviews following each game.

NCAA runnerup Michigan, Notre Dame and Northwestern dot schedule
The Bearcats have three prominent games against Power 5 programs: Michigan on Dec. 30, Notre Dame on Dec. 18 and Northwestern on Nov. 16. The matchup with the defending national runnerup Wolverines (33-8) in Ann Arbor will mark the third time BU has faced Michigan — second in the last seven years. For the second time in five years, BU will travel to South Bend to face the Fighting Irish, who won 21 games last season, including eight in the rugged ACC. A first-ever matchup with Big Ten member Northwestern opens the trio of guarantee games on Nov. 16.

Northwestern game brings PTI co-hosts to forefront
Binghamton's battle with Big Ten member Northwestern on Nov. 16 will be one for PTI bragging rights. Show co-hosts Tony Kornheiser (Binghamton '70) and Michael Wilbon (Northwestern '80) have been vocal supporters of their basketball programs and alma maters over the years and special attention to this first-ever head-to-head matchup is expected both on the PTI show and the ESPN networks. PTI will be taped at the Welsh-Ryan Arena beginning at 3:15 p.m. on Nov. 16 and then the co-hosts will be calling the game with Will Flemming live on ESPNews hours later.

Schedule featurees variety of opponents
The Bearcats' 2018-19 schedule features teams from eight Division I conferences and four teams who had 18 or more wins a year ago. First-year foes Northwestern and Youngstown State dot the slate. In all, BU will play 15 non-league games (7 home, 8 away) before the 16-game America East slate begins on Jan. 5.

Bearcats picked sixth in preseason poll
Binghamton was selected to finish sixth (of nine) in the America East Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Bearcats garnered 29 points — 11 points behind fifth place Stony Brook and Albany (40) but also 10 points ahead of seventh place Maine and New Hampshire. After finishing ninth in the 2017-18 league standings and missing the playoffs, the bump up in the preseason poll means that opposing coaches believe the Bearcats will be much improved in 2018-19.

Three Stewarts ... two related
Three Stewarts are on the roster in 2018-19. Senior Caleb Stewart and sophomore Tyler Stewart (unrelated) will see minutes. In his final collegiate season, Caleb has 769 career points after last year with BU and previous one-year stops at Division II programs USC-Aiken (S.C.) and St. Leo (Fla.). Tyler (5.7 ppg.) begins his second season at Binghamton after earning eight starts in his inaugural collegiate season. Meanwhile, Caleb's youngeer brother Carter Stewart begins his collegiate career with a redshirt season. Carter led his Mekeel Christian Academy team to a state title last winter.

Show and Barnard give BU pair of grad school veterans on roster
Two Bearcats will be juggling basketball and graduate school classes in 2018-19. Senior guard J.C. Show is enrolled in BU's Master of Public Administration (MPA) program while he competes in his final collegiate season. Show played his freshman year at Bucknell and has played the last two as a Bearcat as he completed his bachelor's degree in human development. He has 824 career points entering his final season. Barnard, meanwhile, graduated from Loyola (Md.) with a degree in business administration and also is enrolled in Binghamton's MPA program. Barnard brings the most collegiate experience of any Bearcat into the 2018-19 season with 91 career games.

Roster invigorated with eight newcomers in 2018-19
Binghamton returns four starters and seven letterwinners from last year but the buzz is about the eight newcomers who have bolstered the lineup. Six of those eight will suit up in 2018-19, including several who are pencilled in as starters. So despite losing 35% of the team's points and minutes from a year ago, BU is eying an upswing in the America East.

Highly-touted freshman Sessoms starts collegiate career
Freshman point guard Sam Sessoms is one of the most anticipated BU recruits during Coach Dempsey's seven-year tenure. He scored 2,091 scholastic points at The Shipley School in suburban Philadelphia and is expected to step into a starting role immediately. Sessoms was a two-time all-state selection and averaged 28.8 points as a senior.

Pair of international recruits
Freshmen Calvin Poulina (Netherlands) and Mike Besselink (Finland) begin their collegiate careers in 2018-19. Poulina was the leading scorer for his country's FIBA U18 team. Besselink averaged 20.6 ppg. in the Finnish Division 1A league but his collegiate debut will be delayed a year after suffering a preseason injury.

10-year anniversary of program's first NCAA berth
The 2018-19 season marks the 10-year anniversary of the program's first NCAA tournament berth. That 2008-09 team went 23-9 (13-3 in America East) and captured the America East regular season and tournament titles. The Bearcats then received a No. 15 seed and faced No. 2 Duke in an opening round game in front of 20,001 at the Greensboro Coliseum on March 19, 2009. In a game shown to a national audience in primetime on CBS, Duke stretched an 11-point halftime lead and prevailed 86-62. The Bearcats shot 53 percent to Duke's 49 percent but were whistled for 21 fouls, including six in the game's first three minutes. The ACC champion Blue Devils went on to reach the Sweet 16.

TEAM TIDBITS

• Senior guard J.C. Show is a former Pennsylvania "Mr. Basketball" in 2014. His given name is Jack Curtis Show.

• Senior guard Everson Davis was born in St. Kitts, an island country in the West Indies. The west side of the island borders the Caribbean Sea, and the eastern coast faces the Atlantic Ocean. He also spent time as a youngster on the island of St. Croix before his family moved to New Jersey for his ninth grade year.

• Freshman guard Michael Besselink is from a deep-rooted basketball family. His dad Gerry was a captain for Jim Calhoun's UConn teams in the 1980s and his mom Nina starred at St. Mary's College (Calif.). Both his parents played professionally in Europe. In addition, his aunt Mary-Jane played for Hartford and his sister Maria currently plays at Bridgeport.

• Freshman forward Calvin Poulina has been kick-boxing since he was eight-years old. Both his parents have practiced Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) and his dad has competed professionally.

• Freshman Calvin Poulina speaks four languages: English, Dutch, French and Papiamento, a Portuguese-based creole language spoken in the Caribbean.

• Junior guard Richard Caldwell, Jr. is related to Eddie Jordan (cousin twice removed), a former Rutgers All-American and NBA player who has coached in the NBA for 17+ seasons. He currently is an assistant with the Charlotte Hornets.

• Senior Caleb Stewart and freshman Carter Stewart are brothers and two of five Stewart brothers whose first names all begin with the letter "C." Along with Caleb and Carter are Collin, Cameron and Cayne.

• Freshman guard Leo Gallagher is a local product and in his senior year at nearby Seton Catholic Central, he led both the basketball and baseball teams to the state championship game. He was a three-sport all-star, having also excelled in soccer.

• Freshman guard Sam Sessoms scored 2,091 career points in high school, most points in the history at The Shipley School, in suburban Philadelphia. He scored a school-record 55 points in a game vs. Perkiomen School on Jan. 26, 2018.

• Seniors J.C. Show and Timmy Rose are fellow Scrantonites and former teammates on a Northeast Pa. AAU team (JB Hoops). Show's father, Mike, a 20-year Hall of Fame coach at nearby Baptist Bible College, also coached the boys.

• Senior center Thomas Bruce played high school basketball at famed DeMatha Catholic in Maryland. The 800-enrollment, boys-only school has been recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School and its entire athletics program has been rated No. 2 in the country by Sports Illustrated in two separate years (2005, 2007).

TEAM TIDBITS TWO

• Freshman Calistus Anyichie was born in Enugu, Nigeria and came to the United States when he was 15 years old to attend high school in New Jersey.

• Sophomore Albert Odero scored 40 points, including all 17 of his team's points in the third quarter, to lead St. John's Catholic Prep to a win in the Maryland Interscholastic Athletic Association (MIAA) conference championship game in 2016. He scored the winning points in an 83-82 win on a three-pointer with four seconds left, and added 10 rebounds.

• Graduate student Chancellor Barnard played against the Bearcats while with Loyola. He played at the Events Center on Dec. 10, 2016 and scored 11 points (5-of-9 FG) in 26 minutes as the Greyhounds posted a 90-85 OT win.

• Head Coach Tommy Dempsey recruited and coached former NBA lottery pick Jason Thompson when he was head coach at Rider University. That same year (2008) Dempsey was named both the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) and Metro N.Y. Coach of the Year.

• Associate Head Coach Bryan Goodman has helped coach four NBA draft picks, including current Detroit Pistons star Blake Griffin, while the two were at Oklahoma in 2007-09.

• In 1999-00, Tommy Dempsey and Bryan Goodman both served as assistant coaches on the staff at Susquehanna University (Pa.).

• Assistant Coach Herb Courtney is one of just eight former University of Delaware players to amass 1,200 points and 600 rebounds. He played professionally in Europe, Asia and South America.

• Assistant Coach Chretien Lukusa played on the last Binghamton team to reach the NCAA tournament (2009). He played 116 career games as a Bearcat and was a two-year captain.

• Binghamton has only been a Division I program for 17 years (since 2001-02), when the school made the decision to elevate its athletics program, joining fellow State University of New York "Centers" Buffalo, Stony Brook and Albany.

• Binghamton has led the America East in home attendance in 10 of the last 15 years.

NOTED BINGHATON ALUMNI

• Among the University's noted sports-centered alumni are Tony Kornheiser '70, co-host of ESPN's PTI, and Billy Baldwin '85, former wrestler and current Hollywood actor, writer and producer. ESPN Baseball Tonight anchor Karl Ravech received his master's degree from Binghamton in 1990.

• Other notable alumni include Scott Krug '96, CFO of the New York Yankees, Marc Lawrence '81, Hollywood writer, director and producer, Paul Reiser '77, star of the popular TV sitcom "Mad About You" and Stephanie Courtney '92, actress and "Flo" from Progressive Insurance commercials

• Lawrence's 2014 "The Rewrite" movie, starring Hugh Grant, was a tribute to Binghamton University and the plot had the Grant character teaching at a small upstate college.

Head Coach Tommy Dempsey

Binghamton's men's basketball head coach Tommy Dempsey will begin his seventh season at the helm in 2018-19.

Hall of Fame Coach holds wins record at three schools

Dempsey, a 2013 inductee into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame has engineered success at every stop during his 20-year professional career. In 15 years as a college head coach Dempsey has amassed 243 wins and is a four time conference coach of the year. He has established school records for wins at three colleges (Keystone College- 29, Lackawanna College- 33, and Rider University- 23).

At Binghamton, Dempsey has recruited and developed a core of talented and well-rounded student-athletes who are now poised to lift the Bearcats into the upper echelon of the America East Conference. Last season his Bearcats roared out of the gate with a program-record nine non-conference wins before injuries drained the team down the stretch. The team celebrated a pair of 1,000-point scorers (Marlon Beck and Willie Rodriguez) before bowing out in the America East quarterfinals. One year earlier, Dempsey's 2015-16 squad secured the program's highest postseason seed (No. 5) in seven years.

Testament to the recruiting success, in the last four years, BU has seen nine different players earn conference Rookie of the Week honors - an America East record during that span.

Dempsey was announced as Binghamton's new head coach on May 24, 2012 and the program has continued to see growth both on and off the court during his tenure.

Recruited and coached NBA lottery pick

Dempsey came to BU after a successful seven-year tenure at Rider University (N.J.), that included 119 wins, a MAAC Championship, three trips to national post season tournaments, and an NBA lottery pick in 2008. At Rider, Dempsey steered two different teams to 23-win seasons. His 2007-08 squad, led by current Toronto Raptors forward Jason Thompson, captured the MAAC regular season crown in 2008. Thompson was then taken with the 12th pick in the 2008 NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings.

Dempsey was named the 2008 MAAC Coach of the Year and also was presented with the Peter A. Carlesimo Award as the Division I Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association Coach of the Year. Dempsey's Broncs won 82 games in a four-year span (2007-2011), the most in any four-year span in Rider school history. During that span the Rider program collected wins against teams from the Big 10 (Penn St.), Big East (Rutgers), SEC (Mississippi St.), Pac 12 (USC), and Atlantic 10 (St. Joseph's and Lasalle).

Prior to taking the reins at Rider, Dempsey was an assistant coach with the Broncs from 2003-05. His tenure as an assistant helped head coach Don Harnum to a regular-season MAAC title in 2005 and first ever trip for the Broncs to the MAAC Tournament Championship game.

Two-time finalist for National Coach of Year

Prior to his time at Rider, Dempsey took two different schools to the NJCAA Final Four, including a trip to the national championship game in 2003. In three years as head coach at the junior college level, he compiled an 88-12 overall record, including a perfect 46-0 mark at home. He was twice a finalist for National Coach of the Year honors.

At Lackawanna College, Dempsey took his team to the Division II national championship game in 2003 and was the Region 19 and District 9 Coach of the Year. He inherited a team that wasn't in the preseason top 40 and finished national runner up with a school-record 33 wins (33-4).

Dempsey spent two seasons at Keystone College and compiled a 55-8 record. After inheriting an 11-12 team, Dempsey led the 2000-01 squad to 26 wins and a conference title in his first season, earning Eastern Pennsylvania Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year honors. In 2001-02, Keystone won a school-record 29 games and advanced to the NJCAA Final Four and Dempsey was the Region 19 and District 6 Coach of the Year and a finalist for national coach of the year.

He began his head coaching career at age 24 at Wyoming Seminary Preparatory School (Pa.) in 1999.

Before that, Dempsey served as an assistant coach under his college coach Frank Marcinek for two years at his alma mater, Susquehanna University (1997-99).

As a player, Dempsey was a three-year letterwinner and team captain at Susquehanna before graduating with a bachelor's degree in 1997. He earned his master's degree from Bloomsburg University in 2005.

A native of Dunmore, Pa, Tommy and his wife Amy live in Binghamton with their four children: Tommy (18), Emily (16), Brian (11) and Tyler (9).
