'CATS MEET EAGLES, STRIVING FOR SIXTH STRAIGHT 1-0 START

For Openers

• Northwestern's Pat Fitzgerald aims to continue his run of five straight wins in season-openers when his Wildcats begin the 2011 campaign Saturday at Boston College. NU has began the year 1-0 in 12 of the last 16 seasons, with five of those victories coming on the road.

• 2011 represents the third time in four years Northwestern has kicked off a season against a BCS conference opponent. The 'Cats won on both of the previous two occasions, handling Syracuse in 2008 and holding off SEC foe Vanderbilt on the road last season. Excluding bowl games, Northwestern is 3-2 in nonconference outings against BCS opponents under Pat Fitzgerald. NU is 8-1 overall in its last nine regular-season contests against nonconference opponents.

• In recent years, Pat Fitzgerald's squads have fared extremely well away from home. Northwestern posted its third straight winning road record (4-2) in 2010. Since 2008, the Wildcats have gone 11-5 outside of Evanston, with eight of the Wildcats' 11 wins during that span coming against Big Ten opponents.

• NU is in the midst of perhaps the most successful era in its football history having appeared in three straight bowl games. The 'Cats' total of 24 wins since 2008 ties them with Boston College and four other schools for 29th-most victories among all FBS schools in that span.

• Northwestern will field one of its deepest squads in 2011 as 55 letterwinners return from last year's 7-6 team that played in the TicketCity Bowl on New Year's Day. After graduating just 14 players from last year's squad, NU now features 21 seniors and 23 juniors. Northwestern has 18 starters back in 2011—nine on offense, seven on defense and two on special teams. Seven of the 16 returning offensive and defensive starters are linemen.

• At the start of the 2011 season, NU boasts 31 offensive and defensive players who have made a combined 378 career starts. That is a significant jump from last season, when 30 players with starting experience combined for 276 starts at the year's outset. (See page 5 for Northwestern's complete "start chart.")

• A quick glance at the percentage of Northwestern's 2010 offensive production returning this season tells the story of its game experience. The 'Cats bring back 82.6 percent of their rushing yardage (1,674 of 2,027), 100 percent of their passing yardage (3,057 of 3,057) and 83.0 percent of their receiving yardage (2,537 of 3,057) from a year ago.

Northwestern Coach Pat Fitzgerald

No matter what the setting, 2008 College Football Hall of Fame inductee Pat Fitzgerald invariably feels comfortable using his passion, unwavering set of core values and outward enthusiasm to inspire and improve those around him.

That passion was also a primary factor in Fitzgerald's Hall-of-Fame playing career at Northwestern, when he was a two-time Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik Award winner and team leader of NU's back-to-back Big Ten title-winning teams in the mid-'90's. The 'Cats posted a two-year Big Ten record of 15-1 and made appearances in the 1995 Rose Bowl and 1996 Citrus Bowl with Fitzgerald serving as the centerpiece of a defense that ranked among the nation's best.

Although Fitzgerald's passion and commitment to excellence may be difficult to quantify, his positive impact in Northwestern's on-field performance since he took the reins as head coach in 2006 is not.

The past three years (2008-present), Fitzgerald has guided the Wildcats to 24 wins, the 29th-best total among all FBS programs. NU earned bowl eligibility in 2010 for a program-best fourth straight season, bringing the total to five bowl-eligible seasons in the last six years. For his 2008 efforts when he guided the 'Cats to nine victories, Fitzgerald was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award and a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award.

On Sept. 6, 2010, the Big Ten Network announced that Fitzgerald is the No. 41 Big Ten Icon in its countdown of the top 50 student-athletes.

An assistant football coach for the Wildcats from 2001 through the summer of 2006, Fitzgerald was named Northwestern's 29th head coach on July 7, 2006, succeeding Randy Walker, who died suddenly on June 29, 2006.

Fitzgerald and his wife, Stacy, have three boys: Jack (6), Ryan (4) and Brendan (2). (For Fitzgerald's complete bio, refer to pages 88-91 in the NU yearbook.)

Northwestern Inks Pat Fitzgerald to 10-Year Contract

On May 10, 2011, Northwestern announced a new 10-year contract with head coach Pat Fitzgerald, a deal that keeps him on the Ryan Field sidelines through the 2020 season. "I'm humbled and appreciative of the commitment shown by Northwestern," said Fitzgerald. "With this support from our administration, our coaches and players expect to compete for championships."

2011 Team Captains

Northwestern Head Coach Pat Fitzgerald announced on Aug. 26 the four seniors who were voted by their teammates to serve as 2011 team captains. They are: Jordan Mabin (CB, Northfield Center, Ohio/Nordonia), Al Netter (OT, Rohnert Park, Calif./Cardinal Newman), Dan Persa (QB, Bethlehem, Pa./Liberty) and Brian Peters (S, Pickerington, Ohio/Pickerington). Netter and Persa each are in their second years as Wildcat captains.

'Cats Named to National Award Watch Lists

Dan Persa leads a number of Wildcats who have earned preseason recognition on a number of national award watch lists. Persa, one of several NU players who will be nominated for Capital One Academic All-America honors this year, landed on three watch lists: the Davey O'Brien Award, the Manning Award and the Walter Camp national player of the year Award. Three of Persa's offensive teammates also were named to their respective watch lists: Jeremy Ebert (Biletnikoff Award), Drake Dunsmore (John Mackey Award) and Al Netter (Outland Trophy). On defense, Vince Browne led the way with his name being placed on four watch lists: Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Rotary Lombardi Award, Ted Hendricks Award and Chuck Bednarik Award. Brian Peters was named to the Jim Thorpe Award and Rotary Lombardi Award watch lists.

Persa A Candidate for Lowe's Senior CLASS Award

Northwestern quarterback Dan Persa (Bethlehem, Pa./Liberty) has been selected as one of 30 candidates in the Football Bowl Subdivision

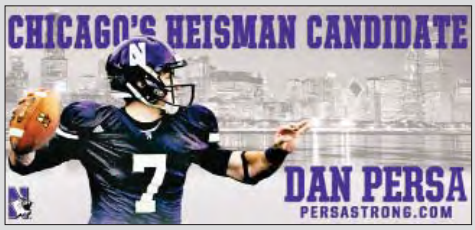
NORTHWESTERN LAUNCHES "PERSASTRONG" AWARENESS CAMPAIGN FOR QUARTERBACK DAN PERSA

On Aug. 1, Northwestern launched "PersaStrong," an awareness campaign to promote senior quarterback Dan Persa as a 2011 Heisman Trophy candidate.

"PersaStrong" highlights Persa as the complete student-athlete: strong on the field, in the weight room, in the classroom and in the community. In addition to his impressive football performance in 2010, Persa also is an active leader in visiting local schoolchildren in the community. He is a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar, a candidate for Capital One Academic All-America honors and the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, a nominee for the NFF's William V. Campbell Trophy and a member of nearly every major quarterback and offensive player award watch list.

The campaign gained traction among fans through social media and received placement in national media outlets including Wall Street Journal, New York Post, ESPN's "Around the Horn" and Yahoo! Sports' Dr. Saturday column, among others.

Persa is the returning first-team All-Big Ten quarterback coming off a breakout 2010 season in which he broke the Big Ten's all-time record for completion percentage with a 73.5 mark. Despite suffering a season-ending ruptured Achilles' tendon after throwing a game-winning touchdown against then-No. 13 Iowa on Nov. 13, 2010, Persa passed for 15 touchdowns, threw just four interceptions and ran for another nine scores.



The "PersaStrong" campaign is comprised of three prongs:

• Media Awareness—Key members of the local and national football media will receive a "PersaStrong" mailing featuring 7-pound purple dumbbells in honor of No. 7 Dan Persa's reputation as the strongest pound-for-pound athlete on Northwestern's team and strongest quarterback in the country.

• Outdoor Campaign—Billboards touting Persa's candidacy have been placed in the highest-trafficked area around Chicago as well as in a strategic location in Bristol, Conn., home to the ESPN family of networks.

• Electronic and Social Media—Northwestern has created a PersaStrong.com website featuring videos, photos and information about Persa that will be updated throughout the season. In addition, Northwestern has created the PersaStrong hashtag on Twitter to promote Persa facts, conversation and buzz among football fans and media.

(FBS) for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, presented annually to the individual who best excels in all aspects of the student-athlete experience.

Persa becomes the second Wildcat to be nominated since the inception of the football-only version of the award in 2008, following the nomination of then-senior wide receiver Eric Peterman.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award honors the attributes of senior student-athletes in four areas: community, classroom, character and competition. The 30 candidates will be narrowed to 10 finalists midway through the regular season, and those 10 names will be placed on the official ballot. A nationwide vote will be conducted by media, coaches and fans to determine one finalist, who will be announced during the 2011 football bowl season.

Wildcats' O-Line Among Nation's Most Experienced

Northwestern is returning four of its five starters on the offensive line led by seniors Al Netter and Ben Burkett. NU's four returning starters have a combined 105 starts and are joined in 2011 by redshirt freshman Brandon Vitabile, who was named the starting center during preseason camp. Doug Bartels, another senior who is coming back from a shoulder injury, has started 25 career games, giving NU five offensive linemen with 130 career starts. NU's 137 total offensive line starts is the second-highest total returning among FBS programs.

Record Number of Returners Enrolled in Graduate School

A total of 10 fifth-year seniors on Northwestern's 2011 roster have decided to pursue a master's degree during their final year at NU, the most ever for a Wildcats team. The 10 players enrolled in graduate school are: Colin Armstrong (master of arts in liberal studies), Doug Bartels (MALS), Jack DiNardo (MALS), Ben Johnson (master of arts in sports administration), Jordan Mabin (MSA), Bryce McNaul (MALS), Brian Peters (MSA), Jacob Schmidt (master of science in higher education), Kevin Watt (MALS) and Rickey Weina (master of science in integrated marketing communications).

National Football League Bloodlines

NU has three players who have fathers who played in the NFL: David Arnold (father, David, played for Pittsburgh), Hunter Bates (father, Bill, played for Dallas) and Drake Dunsmore (father, Pat, played for Chicago). Another player, redshirt freshman Mike Trumpy, is the nephew of former Cincinnati Bengal All-Pro tight end, Bob Trumpy.

Strength of Schedule

The Wildcats will face a formidable slate of foes in 2011. Eight of Northwestern's 11 FBS opponents played in bowl games in 2010: Army, Boston College, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Nebraska and Penn State. Indiana, Minnesota and Rice are the only three FBS programs on next year's schedule who are not playing in postseason. NU's FCS opponent this year is Eastern Illinois.

"The Pat Fitzgerald Show Presented by Allstate" and "Wildcat Insider"

Northwestern has elevated its presence on the Chicagoland airwaves in recent years with the creation of "The Pat Fitzgerald Show Presented by Allstate" in 2010 and "Wildcat Insider" in 2009. Hosted by WGN sports director Dave Eanet and featuring Pat Fitzgerald, the "Fitz Show" is a weekly half-hour program produced by Northwestern Athletics in conjunction with Northwestern Sports Properties. Each episode offers breakdowns of that week's opponents by Eanet and Fitzgerald along with in-depth, behind-the-scenes features pieces. The show is slated to air primarily at 11 p.m. Tuesdays on CSN Chicago and 10:30 a.m. Wednesdays on the Big Ten Network.

Northwestern's weekly radio show on WGN, "Wildcat Insider," is in its third season and airs on Friday evenings (usually between 10 and 11:30 p.m. CT). That half-hour radio show is hosted by Eanet and NU Athletics Director Jim Phillips.

Cardiac 'Cats

In recent years, when Northwestern is involved in a close game, the "Cardiac 'Cats" have had great success winning the tight battles. After several close wins in 2009, and another five this season, NU is now 28-9 in its last 37 games decided by seven points or less. That includes an 18-8 mark since Pat Fitzgerald became the head coach in 2006. In 2009, Northwestern went 6-2 in games decided by seven points or less and a year ago claimed three of its four road victories by margins of one touchdown or less.

Depth Chart Notes

Below are some highlights from the depth chart released by Northwestern at the conclusion of preseason training camp:

• Two true freshman earned their way onto the two-deep: wide receiver Christian Jones (Houston, Texas/Woodfield), who is competing for a starting role with true sophomore Rashad Lawrence, and superback Jack Konopka (Inverness, Ill./Palatine Friend) as the backup to senior Drake Dunsmore. (Northwestern played two true freshmen in 2008, two in 2009 and six in 2010.)

• Early in preseason camp, redshirt freshman offensive lineman Brandon Vitabile (Edison, N.J./Bishop Ahr) began taking reps as the first-team center and was assured of that role on this week's two-deep. Vitabile takes over for three-year starter and Rimington Award candidate Ben Burkett, who this season makes the move to the starting right guard spot.

• True sophomore quarterback Kain Colter (Denver, Colo./Cherry Creek) emerged during spring practice and fall camp as the backup to starter Dan Persa.

• Following the graduation of Stefan Demos, a competitive training camp battle for the place-kicking duties resulted in sophomore Jeff Budzien (Hartland, Wis./Arrowhead) earning the top spot on the depth chart for field goals and extra point attempts. Junior Steve Flaherty (Chicago, Ill./St. Rita) is slated to handle kickoff responsibilities. In NU's recent training camp scrimmage, the two combined to go 8-of-8 on field goal tries, with Budzien hitting on a long of 44 yards and Flaherty connecting on a 50-yard attempt in the game.

• Another fluid position group during fall camp was the linebacker corps where fifth-year seniors Bryce McNaul (Eden Prairie, Minn./Eden Prairie) and Ben Johnson (Trevor, Wis./Shoreland Lutheran)—who have combined for 20 career starts—are projected to be sandwiched around junior David Nwabuisi (Houston, Texas/Episcopal).

• After floating from wide receiver to running back to return specialist during his career, senior Jeravin Matthews (Canonsburg, Pa./Canon-McMillan) has settled into the starting cornerback role opposite Jordan Mabin, now in his fourth year as a starter. Matthews' lone career start came as a running back in the 2009 season opener versus Towson.

• NU is likely to start three seniors on the defensive line with a fourth, Kevin Watt (Glen Ellyn, Ill./Glenbard West), sharing time at the defensive end spot opposite Vince Browne (Lisbon, Ohio/David Anderson).

• All told, the offensive and defensive two-deep rosters feature a total of 21 seniors.

2010 Northwestern Season Review

Northwestern earned its second-straight New Year's Day bowl bid with a 7-5 regular season in 2010. The Wildcats began the year with a perfect 4-0 romp through its nonconference slate, going on the road to defeat Vanderbilt and Rice while dispatching FCS opponent Illinois State and Central Michigan at Ryan Field in Evanston.

Northwestern opened Big Ten play with a 29-28 road win at Minnesota, getting a late field goal from Stefan Demos to cap the victory. Back-to-back home losses against Purdue and Michigan State followed before NU got back on track with another road win, this time at Indiana on Oct. 30. In that game, Dan Persa found Jeremy Ebert for a pair of touchdown tosses and redshirt freshman Mike Trumpy turned in the Wildcats' first 100-yard rushing performance (110 yards on 21 carries) since the 2008 Alamo Bowl.

NU fell at Penn State the next week before returning home for Senior Day at Ryan Field, picking up its signature win in a 21-17 triumph over then-No. 13 Iowa. Trailing 17-7 entering the fourth quarter, NU got two touchdown passes from Persa—including the game-winner to Demetrius Fields with 1:22 left—to earn the Wildcats' fourth victory over the Hawkeyes in the last five years. On that final throw, however, Persa ruptured his Achilles tendon and was lost for the remainder of the year.

NU's next game was the Allstate Wrigleyville Classic against Illinois, the first college football game at Wrigley Field since 1938 and the first collegiate start for Northwestern redshirt freshman quarterback Evan Watkins. ESPN College Gameday was in attendance and the contest garnered attention nationwide, but the Wildcats fell to the Illini before also dropping their regular-season finale at No. 5 Wisconsin. Against the Badgers, true freshman Venric Mark tied the Big Ten record for kick returns with nine while breaking the NU school record for kick return yards with 273—a total which was 10 yards shy of the conference mark. He took one kick 94 yards to the house for NU's first kickoff return TD since 2007.

Persa completed an NU-record 73.5 percent of his passes, throwing for 2,581 yards and 15 touchdowns while running for 519 yards and nine more scores in 10 games played to be named the All-Big Ten first team quarterback by the coaches and second team by the media. Ebert, who finished the regular season with 919 receiving yards and three games with more than 100 receiving yards, was a first-team selection of the media and an honorable mention choice for the coaches. All told, eight 'Cats earned all-conference accolades in 2010.

'Cat Tails

• Northwestern has won 24 games since the start of the 2008 season: that ranks as the 29th-most among FBS programs during this span. Other programs with 24 wins since 2008: Boston College, East Carolina, Stanford, Troy and Tulsa.

• Quarterback Dan Persa had equal success at home and on the road in 2010, finishing with a completion percentage of 73.5 in both settings for the year. He was the model of efficiency on the road, with nine TD tosses and just one interception in 136 road passing attempts.

• Under offensive coordinator Mick McCall, Northwestern has found a way to efficiently move the chains on third down. NU ranked second in the Big Ten and 18th nationally in 2010 with a 47 percent success rate on third down (90-for-192) after finishing 16th in the country (46 percent, 101-of-221) in 2009.

• Northwestern owns one of the best NCAA overtime records, having gone 8-3 in OT contests. The 'Cats are 7-0 all-time in overtime games versus Big Ten teams and 4-0 all-time in extra sessions at Ryan Field. NU had stood at 8-1 in overtime before suffering back-to-back OT losses in the Valero Alamo and Outback Bowls during the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

• Since 1995, the Wildcats tout a 98-88 composite regular-season record. Including the post-season (bowl games), Northwestern is 98-96 in that same span.
