GAME NOTES

SCOUTING TEXAS TECH

The Red Raiders (3-0) earned a spot in Sunday's championship game by holding off Boston College for a 75-64 win Saturday. Keenan Evans led Texas Tech with 29 points including going 10-for-10 from the free throw line. He leads the team with an average of 17.7 points per game. Opponents of the Red Raiders are averaging nearly 20 turnovers per game this season while shooting only 32.7 percent from the field.

SUCCESS ACROSS THE BOARD

With Northwestern holding a No. 20 national ranking this week and the Wildcats' football program coming in at No. 23 in the College Football Playoff Rankings, this season marks the first time that both programs have been nationally ranked at the same time. They aren't the only NU teams experiencing success. The field hockey team advanced to the NCAA tournament quarterfinal round while the women's soccer team advanced to the second round of its NCAA tournament.

LA SALLE IN REVIEW

Northwestern led by 22 points at the half and by 26 early in the second half before holding off a charge from La Salle Saturday afternoon.

Bryant McIntosh matched a career high with five 3-pointers in scoring a team-leading 21 points. Appearing in his first game in a year, Aaron Falzon came off the bench to hit three triples and score 11 points as the Wildcats knocked down 12 treys for the second straight game. NU's .561 field goal percentage was a season high.

FALZON'S FANTASTIC RETURN

It's been a long road for Aaron Falzon over the last year. After seeing limited action in the first three games of the 2016-17 season prior to undergoing season-ending knee surgery, Falzon saw his first action of the season in the Wildcats' fourth game of the year vs. La Salle Nov. 18. He was terrific in his return, knocking down three 3-pointers and scoring 11 points off the bench in NU's win. Falzon's 63 triples in 2015-16 were the second most by a freshman in school history.

CRASHING THE GLASS

Northwestern was dominant on the glass in a Nov. 13 home win over Saint Peter's. The Wildcats finished with a 34-16 rebounding advantage. The +18 margin was the team's largest since out-rebounding Mississippi Valley State 50-32 Nov. 11, 2016. The 16 rebounds by Saint Peter's are the fewest by a Northwestern opponent in over 25 years.

BLOCK PARTY

NU was swatting shots left and right in the team's season-opening win over Loyola (Md.) Nov. 10. The 'Cats posted 12 blocked shots in the game which rank as a tie for the second-best single-game effort in program history. Dererk Pardon and Vic Law led the way with three blocks apiece. The school record for blocked shots by the team is 15 achieved at Rutgers Jan. 12, 2017. Pardon and law pace the Wildcats with six blocks apiece this season, while Gavin Skelly has five.

SCINTILLATING FROM THE STRIPE

The Wildcats were nearly perfect from the free throw line against Saint Peter's on Nov. 13. NU hit on 23 of its 24 attempts from the charity stripe. The .958 percentage is the seventh-best effort in school history (minimum 15 attempts) and the top performance with only one miss. Bryant McIntosh was 6-for-6 from the stripe in the contest and has started his 2017-18 season with 14 consecutive makes from the line.

THE MAC IS BACK

Guard Bryant McIntosh is back for his senior season, having already left his mark on Northwestern. His 577 career assists are a school record and are the most of any active player in the nation. He holds the top two single-season assist totals in school history. After posting a school-record 213 assists as a sophomore, McIntosh had 188 assists in 2016-17. The team's leading scorer with an average of 14.8 points per game a year ago, McIntosh currently ranks 12th in school history with 1,419 career points. He is the only Big Ten player over the last 25 years to post 1,340 points and 550 assists through his first three collegiate seasons and is one of only 15 players in league history to reach both of those two standards in a career.

WILDCATS EARN PRESEASON NATIONAL RANKINGS

Northwestern opened the season ranked in the preseason Associated Press and USA TODAY Coaches polls. The Wildcats are ranked No. 19 by the AP and No. 20 by the coaches. It is the first time that NU is ranked in the AP preseason poll. The team was ranked No. 25 Jan. 30 of last season, their first top-25 AP ranking in seven years. This is the first time that Northwestern has ever been ranked at any time in the Coaches Poll.

MCINTOSH, LINDSEY TABBED PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN

Northwestern senior guards Scottie Lindsey and Bryant McIntosh each have been named to the 10-member Preseason All-Big Ten Team. NU is one of three schools to have two individuals named to the squad, joining Michigan State and Minnesota. Both Lindsey and McIntosh were All-Big Ten selections in 2016-17. McIntosh was one of three unanimous selections to the team, joining Michigan State's Miles Bridges and Wisconsin's Ethan Happ.

RETURNING ALL-BIG TEN HONOREES

Three Northwestern players earned All-Big Ten recognition a year ago. Guard Bryant McIntosh was a consensus second-team all-league pick, while Scottie Lindsey was named by the league's head coaches to the third team and honorable mention by the media. In addition, Vic Law was selected by the coaches to the five-member All-Defensive Team. It's the first time NU has had two All-Big Ten picks in the same years since John Shurna and Drew Crawford in 2012. Law was the first Wildcat to be named to the All-Defensive Team since Jeremy Nash in 2010. McIntosh was a Big Ten All-Freshman Team selection in 2015 and was a consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten pick as a sophomore.

QUARTET TO SERVE AS TEAM CAPTAINS

Four individuals are serving as team captains for the 2017-18 season. Senior guards Scottie Lindsey and Bryant McIntosh, redshirt junior forward Vic Law and junior center Dererk Pardon are serving in the leadership role for the Wildcats. All four are returning starters. This is the first time that Northwestern has had four individuals be team captains.

MCINTOSH NAMED TO PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Senior guard Bryant McIntosh has been named to a trio of prestigious preseason watch lists. He is one of 50 individuals named to the Naismith Award and Wooden Award watch lists which honor the nation's top player. He also is one of 20 individuals named to the watch list for the 2018 Bob Cousy Award presented to the nation's top point guard. A year ago, McIntosh averaged 5.4 assists per game in Big Ten play making him the first Northwestern player to lead the league in the category. He is Northwestern's all-time leader and the nation's active leader with 577 career assists. McIntosh has handed out 10 or more assists in a game five times in his career, something no other Wildcat has done more than twice.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Northwestern is playing all of its home games at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Illinois, this season due to Welsh-Ryan Arena undergoing a complete $110 million renovation. More information on the project can be found on page 7 of this notes packet.

GAME NOTES

DOING IT WITH DEFENSE

The Wildcats limited their opponents to 40.3 percent shooting from the field last season, the 23rd-best mark in the nation and second best in the Big Ten. NU's foes shot 40.1 percent during the 2015-16 season, the school's best mark since the 1998-99 season. The Wildcats' average of 65.5 points allowed per game ranked second in the Big Ten last season behind only Wisconsin (62.4 ppg).

Lowest Season Field Goal Percentage by NU Opponents (since 1960)

Season	Opp. FG %
1998-99	.373
1963-64	.392
1960-61	.397
2015-16	.401
2016-17	.403

LEAGUE LEADERS

Northwestern returns two individuals who led the Big Ten Conference in statistical categories last season. Bryant McIntosh's average of 5.2 assists per game in league play made him the first NU player to ever lead the league in the category dating back to 1975. Dererk Pardon also ranked first in conference play with a .617 field goal percentage, making him the first Wildcat to pace the league since Evan Eschmeyer in 1998-99.

WINNING WAYS

Northwestern posted school records of 24 overall wins and 21 regular-season win in 2016-17 after posting what was then a record 20 regular-season wins the prior season. The previous regular-season best was 19 wins during the 2009-10 season. NU put together a pair of school-record 13-game home winning streaks in each of the last two seasons. The 'Cats won their last four home games in both 2014-15 and 2015-16 before winning each of their first nine home games the ensuing campaign.

DONLON JOINS STAFF AS ASSISTANT COACH

Billy Donlon is in his first season as an assistant coach on Northwestern's staff after spending the 2016-17 season as an assistant at Michigan. Donlon previous served as the head coach at Wright State. Like head coach Chris Collins, Donlon is a graduate of nearby Glenbrook North High School in Northbrook, Illinois, where both individuals were coached by current NU assistant Brian James. Donlon's father, Bill, was an assistant coach at Northwestern under head coach Bill Foster from 1986-93.

GUYTON COMES ABOARD AS DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Former Big Ten Player of the Year A.J. Guyton has joined NU as the program's director of player development. Guyton joins the Wildcats after spending last season as an assistant coach of the Windy City Bulls of the NBA G League. A 2000 graduate of Indiana University, Guyton earned Big Ten Player of the Year and consensus first-team All-America honors his senior year. A three-time team MVP, he earned second-team All-Big Ten recognition and was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1997 before earning first-team all-conference accolades in 1998 and 2000.

Northwestern returns to action Friday when it hosts Sacred Heart at Allstate Arena in Rosemont. Tip time is set for 7:30 p.m.

2018-19 RECRUITING CLASS

Four individuals have signed National Letters of Intent to join the Northwestern men's basketball program for the 2018-19 season Sullivan-Ubben head men's basketball coach Chris Collins announced Wednesday, Nov. 8.

Jordan Lathon (Grandview, Mo./Grandview), Miller Kopp (Houston, Texas/Houston Christian), Pete Nance (Akron, Ohio/Revere) and Ryan Young (Stewartsville, N.J./Bethlehem (Pa.) Catholic) comprise the highly regarded quartet that will matriculate to Evanston next year.

The group is rated as the No. 15 recruiting class in the nation by 247Sports and No. 17 by Rivals.com.

"We're really excited about this class of four young men who are joining the Northwestern family," Collins said. "We knew this would be a vital class for the future of our program, as we have a veteran team this year. We're adding four tremendous players, but also individuals who are going to add to the work ethic and the character that we've been able to build over the last few years."

SULLIVAN-UBBEN HEAD COACH CHRIS COLLINS

76-61 CAREER RECORD (FIFTH SEASON)

Chris Collins is in his fifth season at Northwestern. He was named the University's 24th head men's basketball coach on March 27, 2013.

In Collins' first four years at the helm, he has led Northwestern to an increased win total each season.

Collins guided the Wildcats to heights never before reached during the 2016-17 season. The unforgettable campaign saw Northwestern accumulate a school-record 24 wins while earning the program's first NCAA tournament berth and victory in school history.

NU captured the nation's attention with its outstanding start to the season. An 18-4 start, including a six-game winning streak in Big Ten Conference play — the program's first since 1933 — saw the team crack the top 25 of the AP poll on Jan. 30, the team's first national ranking in seven years. NU went on to record 10 wins in league play, its most since the 1932-33 campaign. Five of the victories came on the road, including a 66-59 triumph at No. 7/5 Wisconsin on Feb. 12.

The 'Cats picked up a pair of wins in the Big Ten tournament in Washington D.C., including defeating 25th-ranked Maryland in its own backyard, to give NU its first appearance in the conference tournament semifinal round in school history.

NU was rewarded with an NCAA tournament berth on Selection Sunday and the Wildcats earned a 68-66 victory over Vanderbilt in an opening-round contest in Salt Lake City. Northwestern pushed second-ranked and eventual national runner-up Gonzaga to the limits in the second round before eventually suffering a narrow loss.

The 'Cats placed two individuals on the All-Big Ten teams for the first time since 2012 as Bryant McIntosh was a unanimous second-team selection while Scottie Lindsey was recognized as a third-team pick of the league's coaches. In addition, Vic Law was named to the conference's five-member All-Defensive Team.

Collins' contributions to the program were rewarded by being named one of four national finalists for the Naismith Men's Coach of the Year award. Following the season, Collins agreed to a contract extension that runs through the 2024-25 campaign.

Collins came to Evanston after serving on the coaching staff at Duke since July 22, 2000. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2008. During Collins' 13 seasons on the Blue Devils' staff, Duke posted an overall record of 385-77 while recording eight ACC tournament championships, four ACC regular season titles, eight in-season tournament titles and national championships in 2001 and 2010.

Collins worked primarily with backcourt players during his time at Duke and tutored All-Americans Jason Williams, Mike Dunleavy, Chris Duhon, J.J. Redick, Gerald Henderson, DeMarcus Nelson, Jon Scheyer, Nolan Smith and Austin Rivers, in addition to NBA draft picks Daniel Ewing, Kyrie Irving and Kyle Singler.

Before returning to his alma mater, Collins served as an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two years with Tommy Amaker. Prior to Seton Hall, Collins spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant with the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Collins played professional basketball in Finland during the 1996-97 season, leading the league in scoring.

While attending Duke, Collins was a team captain as a senior and four-year letterman from 1993-96. He ranks 11th among Duke's all-time leaders in three-point field goals (209) and 10th in three-point field goal attempts (539). Collins averaged 9.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.4 assists as a collegian. He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior.

Collins is the son of former NBA All-Star, Doug Collins, who is currently a senior advisor for the Chicago Bulls. A native of nearby Northbrook, Illinois, Collins is a 1996 graduate of Duke with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Collins and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ryan and Kate.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Season and single-game credential requests for Northwestern men's basketball must be requested online at: <http://sportssystem.com/northwestern>

Phone requests will not be accepted. Reporters may not use a credential to cover the game for another newspaper, TV station, radio or internet site. Failure to comply will result in both agency's credentials being revoked for the entire season.

Credentials can be picked up at the Allstate Arena Ticket Office which is located across Lunt Avenue, north of the arena. Entrance to the arena is via the North VIP entrance off Lunt Avenue. Doors open two hours prior to game time.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEWS

Interviews with Northwestern players and coaches are available to the media upon request throughout the season. To arrange an interview, please contact the athletic communications office at (847) 491-7503. Please place your request at least 24 hours in advance. Interview availability is 30 minutes prior to the start of practice. All pre-practice interviews with players should be concluded well before the start of practice. As a Northwestern policy, players are not permitted to participate in live radio or television call-in shows. Player home telephone numbers will not be made available to media members.

PRO SCOUTING PASSES

Scouts of professional teams wishing to attend Northwestern home games should contact Sarah Holmes, Northwestern's director of ticket operations, at (847) 491-4659 or at sarah.holmes@northwestern.edu.

PRACTICE SESSIONS

Media members may attend the first 15 minutes of practice—however, this is subject to change on a daily basis. In order that the Northwestern Athletic Communications Department may be of better service, media members should call ahead to confirm practice time, player and coach interview availability, and media access.

MEDIA ROOM

The media room in Allstate Arena is located between sections 107 and 108 atop the lower seating bowl and is accessible via the concourse. The room will be open approximately two hours prior to tipoff. Game notes and flipcards will be made available. Soda, water and a light meal will be provided to working media only. The postgame press conference will be held in that same room.

PARKING

For the 2017-18 season, all media parking will be handled via a parking list. No physical passes will be issued. Media members who would like their name added to the parking list for a particular contest can do so via the online credential application or can contact Nick Brilowski. Press parking is located in the lot north of Allstate Arena and west of the Allstate Arena Ticket Office. The entrance to the parking area is on Chestnut Street.

PRESS RELEASES AND GAME NOTES

The Northwestern men's basketball game notes, along with statistics and other up-to-date information, can be found at NUsports.com in PDF format. If you wish to receive the PDF release via e-mail, please sign up via the Big Ten Conference's distribution system at office.bigten.org/media.

"POUND THE ROCK" IS WILDCATS' MANTRA

Since head coach Chris Collins arrived in April 2013, the Wildcats have adopted the mantra of "Pound The Rock." It's based on the quote "The Stonecutter's Credo" by Jacob A. Riis. The quote reads:

"When nothing seems to help, I go look at a stonecutter hammering away at his rock perhaps a hundred times without as much as a crack showing in it. Yet at the hundred and first blow it will split in two, and I know it was not that blow that did it, but all that had gone before."

The mantra is one that also has been adopted by the NBA's San Antonio Spurs.

WELSH-RYAN ARENA RENOVATION

Immediately following the completion of the 2016-17 season, Welsh-Ryan Arena began to undergo a complete renovation that will close off the facility until the fall of 2018.

The project is estimated at a cost of $110 million. A leadership gift from Patrick G. and Shirley W. Ryan, along with a $10 million gift from Stephen R. and Susan K. Wilson, donations from other loyal Northwestern benefactors and the existing athletics maintenance and equipment budget, will fund the project.

The project, part of the 2010 master athletics facilities plan recommendation, will entail a complete renovation of Welsh-Ryan Arena and McGaw Memorial Hall, including:

- New seating throughout the arena, with chair-back seats replacing existing wood bleachers
- Wider, more accessible concourses with improved lighting
- Improved accessibility for the mobility-impaired, with five new elevators replacing the existing one
- New and expanded restrooms, as well as the addition of accessible family restrooms
- New concession areas with twice as many point-of-sale stations for increased efficiency, along with new food and drink offerings
- State-of-the-art lighting, audio and video capabilities in the arena
- Premium seating areas and expansion of the N-Club, which provides space for pre- and post-game events, by more than 400 percent
- Expansion of the building lobby by nearly 50 percent
- A new ticket office
- New locker rooms for men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball

Northwestern's men's basketball program has announced plans to play its home games at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Illinois, during the 2017-18 campaign.

The renovation of Welsh-Ryan Arena also will include a state-of-the-art practice facility for basketball, volleyball and other Wildcats programs, the University announced Feb. 7. The enhancement is possible thanks in large part to a gift of up to $20 million from University trustee and alumnus Howard J. Trienens. In recognition of his continuing generosity, the facility will be named the Trienens Performance Center.

The Trienens Performance Center will feature a fieldhouse with three courts constructed inside the existing Trienens Hall, adjacent to Welsh-Ryan Arena. The facility will allow for construction of larger team locker rooms inside the Arena for men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball. It also will include:

- Best-in-class athletic training and rehabilitation amenities
- Ultramodern strength and conditioning facilities
- Team meeting rooms with advanced teaching technologies
- Expanded performance nutrition hub
- Offices for men's and women's basketball
- Staff locker rooms

#19/20 NU 82, La Salle 74

Nov. 18, 2017 • Uncasville, Conn.

Bryant McIntosh and Scottie Lindsey combined for 41 points to lead Northwestern over La Salle, 82-74, in the 2017 Hall of Fame Tip-Off Tournament at Mohegan Sun Arena. McIntosh scored a team-high 21 points with a 5-of-6 mark behind arc, while Lindsey dropped 20 points to go along with six rebounds. Aaron Falzon made his season debut after missing the majority of the 2016-17 campaign due to injury, scoring 11 points on a trio of 3-pointers and pair of free throws. The contest was knotted at 13 just over eight minutes into the contest when NU took control. An 8-1 run put the 'Cats up by seven, 21-14, with 9:38 remaining before halftime. The advantage was 23-18 with eight minutes remaining, but the Wildcats closed the opening stanza on a 23-6 run to take a convincing 46-24 advantage into halftime. The Wildcats connected on six of their 10 3-point attempts over the opening half with McIntosh (11 first-half points) leading the way by knocking down each of his three triple tries. Northwestern shot a blistering 62.1 percent (18-29) from the field while holding the Explorers to 31.3 percent shooting (10-32) in the opening half. The lead grew to 26 before a 12-point La Salle run got the Explorers within 14 with 16 minutes remaining. Falzon ended the opposing surge by knocking down his second 3-pointer of the game. The Explorers, who connected on 10 of their first 12 field goal attempts to open the second stanza, crept to within eight, 59-51, but Lindsey's third trey pushed the lead back to double digits. B.J. Johnson, who hit each of his first six field goal attempts of the half, led La Salle's charge back as it got within seven, but a 3-pointer by McIntosh and a dunk by Pardon extended the lead back to 12. NU eventually pushed the advantage to 20 with 3:15 remaining before La Salle used a 12-point run to close the game.
