WOLVERINE BITES

TEAM THREE: GAME EIGHTEEN

As the sixth seed in the 2016 Big Ten Tournament, Michigan (6-11) will face third-seeded and No. 15-ranked Northwestern (8-8) in the first round on Thursday (May 5) at 1:30 p.m. CDT.

Michigan and Northwestern will go head to head in the first round of the Big Ten Tournament for the second time in as many years. A year ago, then-No. 9 Northwestern defeated the Wolverines, 13-9, in the opening round of the inaugural Big Ten Women's Lacrosse Tournament in Piscataway, New Jersey. Anna Schueler led U-M with a hat trick in that game, en route to a spot on the inaugural Big Ten All-Tournament Team.

Ulehla-Amonte Hiller Connection

Michigan head coach Jennifer Ulehla (1990-91) and Northwestern head coach Kelly Amonte Hiller (1993-96) were both standout players at the University of Maryland but just missed being teammates. Ulehla was a two-time All-American with the Terrapins (1990-91) and was named to the all-tournament team at the NCAA Final Four in 1990, while Amonte earned back-to-back national player of the year awards (1995-96). Ulehla and Amonte also went on to play for the U.S. National Team but never played together.

Coughlan Leading the Attack

After having a 13-game point streak dating back to the 2015 season snapped at Northwestern (April 7) and missing the Niagara (April 12) game due to injury, junior Kim Coughlan has scored nine goals in the last three games -- four against No. 10 Penn State and two against No. 1 Maryland and added a three goal-one assist performance at Rutgers. The Port Jefferson, New York, native is leading U-M with a personal season-best 39 points (34G, 5A), which currently rank fifth all-time at Michigan for points in a season. Coughlan is also approaching the 100-career point milestone, with 98 points on 86 goals and 12 assists.

Causing Turnovers

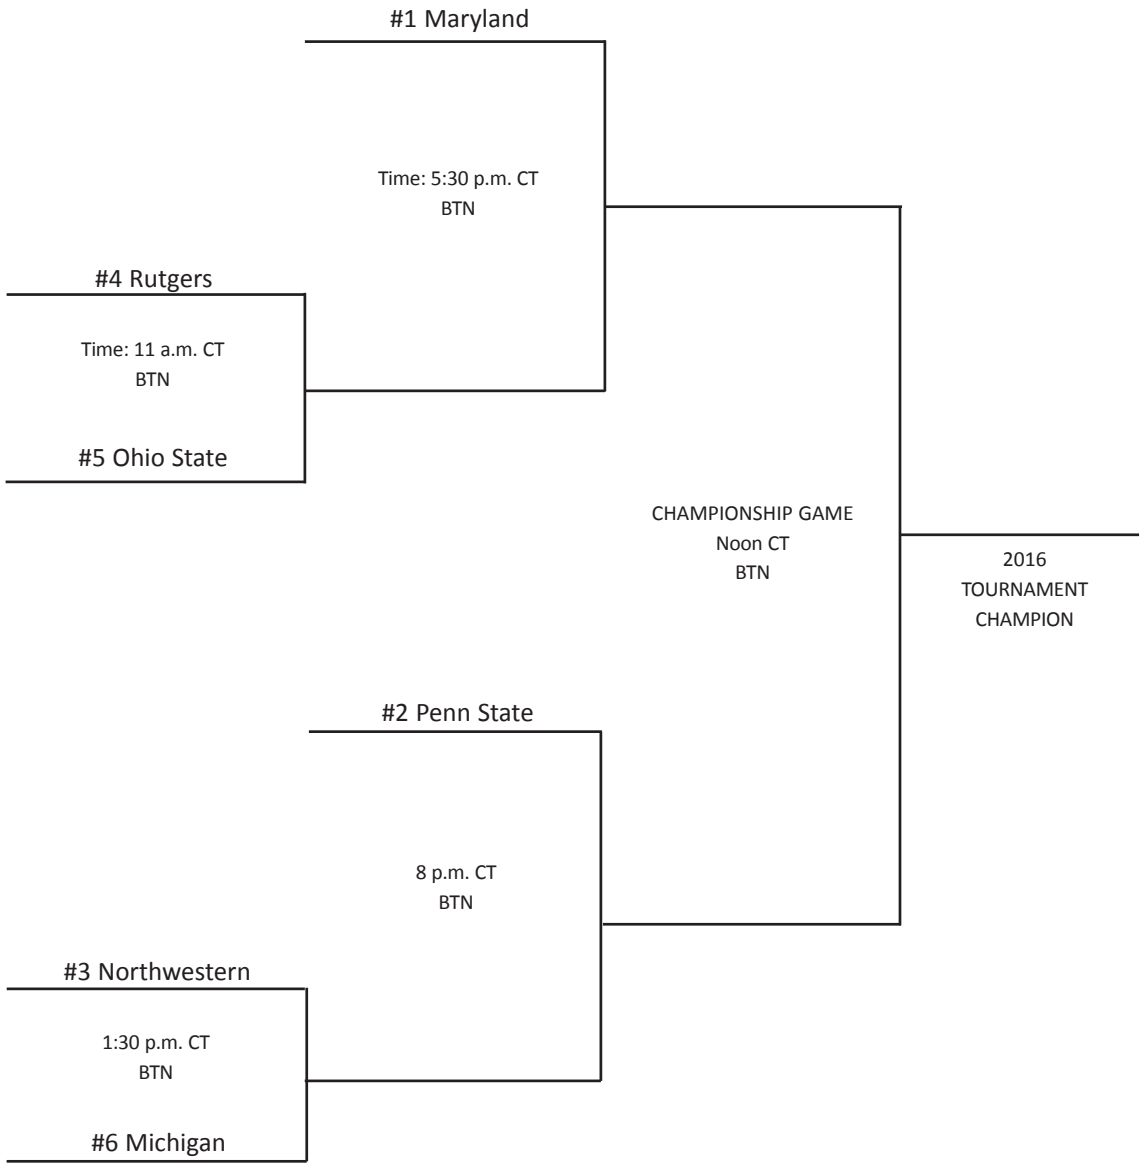

The Michigan individual single-season record for caused turnovers is 27, held by junior Madeline Dion from the 2015 season. Junior Kelly Kubach is leading the Wolverines with 25 caused turnovers this season, while Dion is right behind her with 24. Kubach (1.47) and Dion (1.41) rank third and fourth, respectively, in the Big Ten in CTs per game. As a team, Michigan has caused 174 turnovers, improving on the previous two seasons -- 2015 (153) and 2014 (112) -- and ranks second in the Big Ten, averaging 10.2 caused turnovers per game.

100-POINT CLUB

Michigan currently has two players in the 100-point club -- juniors Jess Angerman (84G+37A=121P) and Anna Schueler (86G+31A=117P). Angerman became the first to record 100 career points against Oregon (Feb. 19), and Schueler joined her at High Point (March 13). Teammates Kim Coughlan (86G+12A=98P) and Tess Korten (77G+19A=96P) are quickly approaching the milestone with at least one guaranteed game remaining in the season.

Those four players each have 75-plus career goals -- Schueler (86), Coughlan (86), Angerman (84) and Korten (77). The four juniors have been the core of U-M's attack, combining to score 69 percent (333 of 484) of Michigan's total goals in three seasons since the program originated in 2014. They have missed just nine starts combined in Michigan's 51 games in program history, with Schueler and Angerman starting every game in their Maize and Blue career.

PERFORMING ON THE B1G STAGE

Juniors Anna Schueler and Jess Angerman recorded at least one point in all five Big Ten regular-season games this season and have now done so in all 10 Big Ten games over the past two seasons. This season, Schueler recorded 11 points on seven goals and four assists during that stretch, including a hat trick against No. 1 Maryland. Angerman posted nine points on seven goals and two assists in those five games this season, including a two-goal one-assist performance against No. 10 Penn State.

SHARING THE GOAL CIRCLE

Junior goalie Allison Silber and freshman goalie Mira Shane have split time in the cage for U-M this season, as each brings a different style to the Wolverines. Silber has started each of the last 13 games, and in 12 of those 13 games, Shane has come off the bench to man the cage for a portion of the game as well. Shane started each of the first two games, while Silber was recovering from a knee injury sustained in the fall. Silber has played all 60 minutes in one game this season -- against Ohio State (April 2) -- making 10 saves. Silber's season high of 13 saves came against No. 10 Penn State, while Shane has made a career-high nine saves twice (Florida, Northwestern). In total, Shane (3-2) has started four games and earned a goals-against average of 8.48 and save percentage of .468, which rank second and third in the Big Ten, respectively. Silber (3-9) has recorded a goals-against average of 12.81 and a save percentage of .418.

SILBER'S CAREER ENDING EARLY

Junior goalie Allison Silber announced the week of April 18 that she will not return for her final season of eligibility next season. The Phoenix, Maryland, native is going to take advantage of the opportunity to graduate in December 2016 with a degree in movement science and will then begin preparations for medical school, including studying for the MCAT exam. Silber has been the backbone of U-M's defense since its inaugural season in 2014, starting 47 of 51 games in program history. Academically, she is a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and two-time Michigan Women's Lacrosse Academic Leader and Best Award winner, given to student-athlete with the highest cumulative GPA on the team.

WINNING THE DRAW

Junior midfielders Anna Schueler and Kim Coughlan have combined for 80 of Michigan's 180 draw controls this season (44 percent), recording 47 and 33, respectively. Schueler has recorded three or more draw controls in eight games this season, while Coughlan has done so in four games. Schueler has led U-M in draw controls in each of the last two seasons, with 46 in 2015 and 54 in 2014. In U-M's last outing at Rutgers, Schueler and junior Margaret Metzger paced the Wolverines with five draw controls each, marking a career high for Metzger.

B1G WEEKLY HONORS

Mira Shane (Fr. | G)
Big Ten Defensive Player & Freshman of the Week - Feb. 9
The Princeton, New Jersey, native earned her first career start in U-M's season opener against Central Michigan. Shane made seven saves and did not allow a single goal in 54 minutes of action, leading the Wolverines to a dominating 14-1 victory.

Tess Korten (Jr. | A)
Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week - March 1
The attacker from Glen Head, N.Y. matched her own program record for goals in a game, netting five goals on six shots, including a first-half hat trick, to help Michigan overcome a three-goal halftime deficit and defeat Canisius, 13-11.

TEAM THREE MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Game For Change:
On April 2, the Michigan men's and women's lacrosse doubleheader at Michigan Stadium marked the second annual Game for Change. The two programs, in collaboration with the One Love Foundation, have joined together over the past two years to "Unite against Relationship Violence." The One Love Foundation was founded in honor of Yeardley Love, a University of Virginia women's lacrosse player who lost her life in 2010 to an unhealthy relationship involving a member of the UVA men's lacrosse team. The Wolverines are encouraging the U-M student body, faculty, staff and fans to speak out if you notice signs of relationship violence around them.

WOMEN'S LAX 101

There are currently 111 NCAA Division I women's lacrosse programs across the country that compete in 13 different conferences, including four first-year programs -- Central Michigan, Virginia Commonwealth, Radford and Army. After competing in the American Lacrosse Conference (ALC) during its inaugural season in 2014, Michigan is now a member of the Big Ten Conference, which is in its second season of sponsoring women's lacrosse. Maryland, Northwestern, Penn State, Ohio State and Rutgers join U-M in the Big Ten. Maryland (No. 1), Penn State (No. 10), Northwestern (No. 15), and Ohio State (No. T-19) are each ranked in the top 20 nationally in the IWLCA Division I Poll.

HEAD COACH JENNIFER ULEHLA

Alma Mater.....Maryland, '91

Head Coach at Michigan.....Third Season
Record at Michigan.....15-36
Big Ten Record.....0-10

Collegiate Head Coach.....13th Season
Record as Head Coach.....125-107

Jennifer Ulehla is in her third year as the head coach of the Michigan women's lacrosse program. She was announced as Michigan's first head coach in program history in September 2011 and has been working to build a championship culture within her program from day one. Under Ulehla's guidance, Michigan compiled a 4-13 record in its first season as a Division I program in 2014. The Wolverines went 5-12 in 2015, which marked U-M's first season competing in the Big Ten Conference, but were competitive in nearly every game, losing five games by just one goal.

Prior to coming to Ann Arbor, Ulehla gained experience in the development of a new program as an assistant coach at Florida from January 2008-June 2010. Taking a hiatus from collegiate lacrosse, Ulehla worked as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Elite Team from 2006-09. Previous collegiate head coaching stops for Ulehla also include Temple (2004-06) and James Madison (1994-2002). She was inducted into the James Madison University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2013 for her contributions to the program.

As a player, Ulehla was a two-time All-American at Maryland (1990-91) and also competed on the U.S. National Lacrosse team from 1990-95.

SCOUTING NORTHWESTERN

Northwestern will enter Thursday's game with an 8-8 record. The Wildcats finished Big Ten Conference play in third place with a 3-2 mark to earn the third seed in the tournament. NU ranks first nationally in strength of schedule according to laxpower.com, as 12 of its 16 regular-season opponents were nationally ranked, including eight in the top 10. They are 4-8 against ranked opponents, including top-10 wins over No. 4 Duke (11-8) in their season opener, No. 10 Stony Brook (7-6) and No. 5 Notre Dame (17-12), while two of those losses have come in overtime.

Led by 14th-year head coach Kelly Amonte Hiller, Northwestern is coming off a 14-7 season in 2015, when it advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament before losing to eventual national champion Maryland, 17-5.

Eight different players have tallied double-digit points for Northwestern this season, led by senior midfielder Kaleigh Craig's 52 points (41G, 11A) and sophomore midfielder Selena Lasota's 48 points (41G, 7A). Sophomore midfielder Shelby Fredericks is second in the Big Ten and sixth in the county in draw controls per game, averaging 5.94 (95 total). Freshman goalie Mallory Weisse has played every minute in the cage for the Wildcats, recording a goals-against average of 10.99 and a save percentage of .397.

Series vs. Northwestern: Michigan is 0-4 all-time against Northwestern, with the Wildcats defeating the Wolverines, 20-4, when the two teams met this season during conference play. The two programs first faced off in 2014, when they were both members of the American Lacrosse Conference (ALC), and the Wildcats won 20-6.
