NORTHWESTERN TEAM NOTES

Northwestern had completions of 43, 32 and 28 yards ... NU has had eight receptions for 28 or more yards this season. The Wildcats only had five catches go for 28-plus yards in 2020.

- Hilinski's 43 yard completion to Malik Washington in the second quarter was his longest in a Northwestern uniform

Northwestern converted on a fourth down midway through the second quarter, improving its fourth-down conversion rate to 70% (7-for-10).

11 different Wildcats caught passes from Ryan Hilinski.

NORTHWESTERN PLAYER NOTES

QB Ryan Hilinski threw for 100 yards and a touchdown in the first quarter.

- Hilinski finished the first half 16-of-21 with 189 yards. It is the second time this season a Wildcat quarterback had 16 completions in a half, with Hunter Johnson reaching the mark in the second half against Michigan State.

WR Stephon Robinson Jr. caught a 28-yard pass from Ryan Hillinski to give Northwestern their first points of the game

- Robinson Jr. had three receptions for 69 receiving yards on the first touchdown drive.
- Has had at least five receptions in a game for the eighth time in his career
- Robinson Jr. finished with 116 receiving yards on a career high eight receptions. His 116 receiving yards are the most by a Wildcat since Oct. 13, 2018 against Nebraska when Flynn Nagel had 220 receiving yards.

WR Malik Washington brought in a 43-yard pass early in the second quarter, the longest reception of his career.

WR Genson Hooper-Price hauled in his first career reception in the third quarter for eight yards.

LB Bryce Gallagher recorded a career-high 10 tackles.

DB Brandon Joseph tied his career-high with 10 tackles.

P Derek Adams had two punts that netted over 50 yards.

P Jake Genyk had his first two career punts.
