THE OPENING TIP: Northwestern squares off with Norfolk State for the first time in program history. The match up is part of the campus rounds for the 2019 Fort Myers Tip-Off event.

NANCE'S NUGGETS: Pete Nance is beginning to find his groove in his sophomore campaign. The 6-10 forward is averaging a double-double with a team-best 14.7 points and 10.0 rebounds.

- Dropped a career-high 19 points in the season-opener versus Merrimack.
- He is the only Northwestern player since at least 2010 to record more than 40 points and 30 rebounds in the team's first three games of the season.
- Ranks first in the BIG with 8.33 defensive rebounds per game and fourth in rebounds per game (10.0).
- His double-double against Merrimack was the first of his career and only the fifth time since 2010 that a Wildcat player has opened the season with a double-double. His 12 boards were the most in an opener since Alex Olah and Sanjay Lumpkin had 12 against UMass-Lowell in 2015.
- Is averaging a team-best 32.7 minutes per game this season. He only surpassed the 30-minute mark twice during his rookie season.

MORE NOTES...

CLASS PRODUCTION: The Wildcats have turned to members of the 2018 recruiting class for production through the first three games of the season. Sophomores Pete Nance and Miller Kopp and redshirt first year Ryan Young are three of the team's top four scorers:

- The trio is accounting for 56.6% of NU's offense this season through three games.
- All three are shooting above 40% from the field with Young's 64.3% mark leading the team.
- Nance (10.0), Young (6.0) and Kopp (5.0) are the Wildcats' top three rebounders.

DEFENSE, DEFENSE, DEFENSE: Northwestern has hung its hat on the defensive end of the floor during the Chris Collins era. The Wildcats have ranked in the top-40 nationally for scoring defense in five of the last six seasons and have never allowed opponents to average more than 66.5 points per game in a season. During the 2018-19 campaign, NU held major conference opponents below their season scoring average on 20 occasions, including 17 times during Big Ten play.

WELCOME BACK, B-MAC: Coach Collins brought home one of Northwestern's greats to join his staff. Bryant McIntosh was named the assistant director of operations in July 2019. McIntosh's responsibilities are entirely off-the-court, including film, advanced scout, on-campus recruiting and additional logistical duties. The Greensburg, Indiana, native ranks sixth on NU's scoring list (1,683 career points) and first with 700 assists. He spent last season playing professionally in Belgium with the Leuven Bears.

NEW FACE ON THE SIDELINE: Jon Borovich was named an assistant coach in May 2019. He replaced Billy Donlon, who left to become the head coach at UMKC. Borovich comes to the 'Cats after eight seasons as an assistant at NIU (2011-19), four of which were as the associate head coach. He has made stops at Dayton, Michigan State and Oakland. Borovich played collegiately at Central Michigan (1997-2001) and was a two-time captain for the Chippewas.

TEAM CAPTAINS: Chris Collins has announced that the team voted senior Tino Malnati and junior Anthony Gaines as team captains. This is the first time that Malnati and Gaines have earned the honor.

TRIENENS PERFORMANCE CENTER: Northwestern University and the Department of Athletics and Recreation dedicated the Trienens Performance Center on Nov. 15. The new facility is a state-of-the-art practice facility that features: a fieldhouse with three courts, best-in-class athletic training and rehabilitation amenities, ultramodern strength and conditioning facilities, team meeting rooms with advanced teaching technologies, expanded performance nutrition hub and offices for both NU basketball programs.

ABOUT THE SKIP: Sullivan-Ubben Head Men's Basketball Coach Chris Collins, now in his seventh season, picked up his 100th career victory with a 73-66 win over Indiana on 1/22/19. Collins...

- Became the third NU coach (Arthur Lonborg (1927-50; 236 wins) and Bill Carmody (2000-13; 192 wins) to reach 100 wins and the fastest to do so in program history.
- Collins has 40 league victories, which places him in sole possession of third all-time at NU for conference wins.

SUMMER ABROAD: With eight newcomers and 11 underclassmen on the roster, Northwestern's foreign trip came at the perfect time. In August, Coach Collins and the Wildcats took off for a 10-day, two-country trip where NU played four games. NU visited France (Paris, Nice) and Italy (Lake Maggiore, Lake Como, Rome). Miller Kopp led the 'Cats with 21.5 points per game, while classmate Pete Nance chipped in 15.0. Pat Spencer averaged 14.5 points, 6.25 assists and 2.25 steals in the four exhibition contests.

BERAN, BUIE & JONES JOIN THE 'CATS: Northwestern's 2019 recruiting class featured Robbie Beran, Boo Buie and Jared Jones.

- Robbie Beran is the third highest ranked recruit in Northwestern history, according to 247sports.com (data collected since 1999).
- Northwestern's 2018-19 recruiting ranked 7th in the Big Ten, which tied for its highest ranked class ever in the conference. It joins the ranks of the 2017-18 recruiting class and the 2014 class that produced Scottie Lindsey, Bryant McIntosh, and Vic Law.
- Buie and Jones took their official visit on the same weekend and discovered that they are distant cousins while on their visit.

'CATS ADD CHASE: Chase Audige was added to the Wildcats' roster as a transfer in May of 2019. Audige played his rookie campaign at William & Mary and he will sit out the 2019-20 season due to NCAA transfer rules. He will have three seasons of eligibility remaining beginning in 2020-21. The Coram, New York, native played in 31 games last season, making 21 starts, and averaged 9.6 points, 4.1 rebounds, 2.4 assists and shot 37% from behind the arc. A 6-foot-4 guard, he pulled in a number of honors in his first collegiate season, including Colonial Athletic Association's All-Rookie Team honors, VaSID State Rookie of the Year, three CAA Rookie of the Week awards and was named William & Mary's co-Defensive Most Valuable Player.

CHRIS COLLINS

SULLIVAN-UBBEN HEAD MEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

Chris Collins is in his seventh season at Northwestern. He was named the University's 24th head men's basketball coach on March 27, 2013.

Collins guided the Wildcats to heights never before reached during the 2016-17 season. The unforgettable campaign saw Northwestern accumulate a school-record 24 wins while earning the program's first NCAA tournament berth and victory in school history.

NU captured the nation's attention with its outstanding start to the season. An 18-4 start, including a six-game winning streak in Big Ten Conference play – the program's first since 1933 – saw the team crack the top 25 of the AP poll on Jan. 30, the team's first national ranking in seven years. NU went on to record 10 wins in league play, its most since the 1932-33 campaign.

NU was rewarded with an NCAA tournament berth on Selection Sunday and the Wildcats earned a 68-66 victory over Vanderbilt in an opening-round contest in Salt Lake City. Northwestern pushed second-ranked and eventual national runner-up Gonzaga to the limits in the second round before eventually suffering a narrow loss.

Collins' contributions to the program were rewarded by being named one of four national finalists for the Naismith Men's Coach of the Year award. Following the season, Collins agreed to a contract extension that runs through the 2024-25 campaign.

Collins came to Evanston after serving on the coaching staff at Duke since July 22, 2000. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2008. During Collins' 13 seasons on the Blue Devils' staff, Duke posted an overall record of 385-77 while recording eight ACC tournament championships, four ACC regular season titles, eight in-season tournament titles and national championships in 2001 and 2010.

Before returning to his alma mater, Collins served as an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two years with Tommy Amaker. Collins spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant with the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

While attending Duke, Collins was a team captain as a senior and four-year letterman from 1993-96. He ranks 11th among Duke's all-time leaders in three-point field goals (209) and 10th in three-point field goal attempts (539). Collins averaged 9.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.4 assists as a collegian. He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior.

Collins is the son of former NBA All-Star, Doug Collins, who is currently a senior advisor for the Chicago Bulls. A native of nearby Northbrook, Illinois, Collins is a 1996 graduate of Duke with a bachelor's degree in sociology.
