Three Northwestern Wildcats -- freshman Megan Kinna, junior Selena Lasota and senior Danita Stroup -- were named to the Canadian senior national team for the 2017 FIL Women's Lacrosse World Cup in Guildford, England this summer.

Senior co-captain Christina Esposito and junior Selena Lasota were named to watch list for the 2017 Tewaaraton Award, presented by Under Armour.

BY THE NUMBERS

Freshman Megan Kinna padded the stat sheet at No. 4 USC on Feb. 18. Kinna finished the game with a career-high six draw controls and six ground balls. Her six ground balls are the most in a game by a Wildcat this season.

Five Long Island natives will return home this weekend for a pair of games, including seniors Christina Esposito and Catie Ingrassia, juniors Lindsay Darrell and Shelby Fredericks, and sophomore Claire Quinn.

NOTES

'CATS CONCLUDE ROAD TRIP

The 12th-ranked Wildcats will wrap up a four-game road trip with a pair of games on Long Island this weekend. Chicago's Big Ten Team will play a neutral-site game against No. 5 Syracuse (5-0) at Hofstra University on Friday at 5 p.m., before traveling to Stony Brook to take on the No. 8 Seawolves (3-0) on Sunday at 11 a.m.

Northwestern has lost back-to-back overtime games against Colorado and No. 4 USC by an identical 11-10 final. It is the first time in program history the 'Cats have lost back-to-back overtime games.

KEEP IT UP, KINNA

Freshman midfielder Megan Kinna filled the stat sheet at USC two weeks ago, finishing the game with season highs in draw controls (6), ground balls (6) and caused turnovers (2). Kinna's six ground balls were the most by a Wildcat this season. The Maple Ridge, British Columbia, native also had a big game against No. 8 Notre Dame, scoring her first three career goals in a 14-13 win over the Fighting Irish.

GO, GO, ESPO!

Graduate student and co-captain Christina Esposito continues to lead the Wildcats offensively, entering the weekend with a team-high 14 goals through four games. Esposito has scored at least three goals in all four contests and has matched her career high with four goal twice. The West Babylon, New York, native enters Friday's game versus Syracuse on a career-long 21-game point streak dating back to last season.

PAIR OF WILDCATS NAMED TO WATCH LIST

Esposito and junior attack Selena Lasota were among 50 women named to the 2017 Tewaaraton Award Watch List Tuesday evening. The two Wildcats were among 10 student-athletes from the Big Ten named to the list on the women's side. The award is given annually to the top male and female lacrosse player in the country by the Tewaaraton Foundation. This is the first time that Esposito has been named to the watch list and the third time Lasota has been a candidate for the award.

INGRILLI SETS A NEW CAREER HIGH

Senior midfielder and Long Island native Catie Ingrilli has scored in each of the first four games this season, setting a new career-best streak for consecutive games with a goal. Ingrilli has five goals through the first four contests. She is already halfway to her career high of 10 goals set last season.

IN THE CIRCLE

Junior Shelby Fredericks continues to climb the NU record book as one of the program's top draw control specialists. Fredericks had a season-high nine draw controls at USC on Feb. 18, moving up to No. 3 on the all-time list with 209 total. The New York native is fourth among active players in the country with 4.64 draw controls per game.

IT DOESN'T GET ANY TOUGHER

Northwestern is once again playing one of the toughest schedules in the country this season. The 'Cats have already played two top-10 teams (No. 8 Notre Dame and No. 4 USC) and have two more top-10 opponents up this weekend. The most recent IWLCA Top 20 features 12 teams on Northwestern's 2017 schedule, including nine of the top-10 teams in the country. The only team currently ranked in the top 10 that NU will not face in the regular season is No. 3 Florida.

CAT-NADIANS

The Canadian Lacrosse Associated and senior women's national team coaching staff announced last week the selection of Northwestern freshman Kinna, Lasota and Stroup to the roster for the 2017 FIL Women's Lacrosse World Cup this summer in Guildford, England. The trio of Wildcats were a part of the U19 Canadian Team coached by Canisius' Scott Teeter that won the nation's first-ever world championship in 2015.

NO. 9 'CATS OPEN SEASON WITH WIN OVER CANISIUS, 9-7

EVANSTON, Ill. — The ninth-ranked Northwestern lacrosse program opened the 2017 campaign with a win over Canisius on a cold and snowy day at Lanny and Sharon Stadium Monday, 9-7.

As the snow began to fall, the Wildcats' (1-0) offense heated up to score four-of-five goals and take control of the game midway through the second half. The Golden Griffins took a 5-4 lead with a goal by Erica Evans with 26:55 to play, but senior co-captain Christina Esposito scored back-to-back goals on assists from junior Corinne Wessels in a span of 33 seconds to put Chicago's Big Ten Team in front, 6-5.

Senior Danita Stroup extended the lead four minutes later when she took a behind-the-back feed from junior Selena Lasota in front of the crease and buried her shot to put NU up two, 7-5.

Evans cut the Wildcats' lead to one with just under 16 minutes to play, but Esposito scored her fourth of the game at the 13:51 mark and Wessels dished out her fourth assist of the game on a goal by sophomore Leighton Yenor just 53 seconds later to push the lead back to three, 9-6.

The Wildcats dominated the stat sheet from start to finish, finishing the game with a 34-16 advantage in shots and a 17-1 edge in draw controls, but a spectacular performance by Canisius' Rebecca VanLaeken helped keep the game close. VanLaeken finished with 16 saves for the Griffs.

Northwestern took an early 1-0 lead just 20 seconds into the contest on a free-position goal by Esposito, but were held off the board for the next 13-plus minutes as Canisius scored a pair of goals to the lead. Wessels scored her first of the season on a free-position of her own, but the Griffs once again responded on a goal by Tessa Chad to take the lead, 3-2.

Senior Catie Ingrassi scored her first of the season with 9:27 to play in the first half to even the game and Lasota got in on the scoring 51 seconds later on Wessels first assist of the game to give NU the lead, 4-3. Canisius tied the game going into the break on a goal by Jourdan Roemer with 3:41 to play.

Wessels finished with five points to lead the 'Cats while also matching her career high with three ground balls. Esposito had a team-high four ground balls and matched a career high with three caused turnovers to go with her four goals and Lasota had a career-high eight draw controls, three ground balls, a goal and an assist. Sophomore Claire Quinn had a career-high five ground balls and a pair of caused turnovers.

Sophomore goalkeeper Mallory Weisse made six saves in the contest to earn her 12th career victory.

NO. 9 WILDCATS WIN THRILLER AT NO. 8 NOTRE DAME, 14-13

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — Junior Selena Lasota scored four goals, senior Christina Esposito and freshman Megan Kinna each tallied three and sophomore Mallory Weisse made 10 saves as No. 9 Northwestern went into the Loftus Sports Center and won a top-10 showdown with No. 8 Notre Dame Sunday afternoon, 14-13.

The Wildcats claimed their 18th win in 22 meetings with the Fighting Irish all time, improving to 7-1 in South Bend. The victory avenged the 'Cats' lone road loss to the Irish that ended last season in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Despite the victory, inconsistency by the 'Cats at times allowed Notre Dame to remain within reach. After allowing the opening goal of the game, Chicago's Big Ten Team responded by scoring eight of the game's next nine goals, including a 6-0 run.

The Irish tied the game at the 21:54 mark of the first half, 2-2, but the 'Cats quickly took over as Kinna and senior Catie Ingrassi scored back-to-back free-position goals within two minutes to start the 6-0 run. Senior Danita Stroup scored her second goal of the year and Lasota sandwiched a pair of goals around a tally by Esposito to extend the lead to 8-2 with 14:47 to go in the first half.

Kinna's second goal of the day extended the lead back to five, 9-4, but Notre Dame scored five unanswered in less than six minutes to tie the game, 9-9. NU was able to take a 10-9 lead into the break on Esposito's second goal of the game.

The offense and defense synced up for a stellar 20-minute stretch to start the second half, allowing the 'Cats to take back control of the game. Esposito netted her second hat trick in as many games just a minute and a half into the second frame before the Canadian connection of Kinna and Lasota pushed the lead to four, 13-9, with back-to-back goals.

All the while, Weisse made save after save to keep the Irish off the board. The sophomore had eight of her 10 saves in the second half.

Junior Nicole Beardsley scored her first goal of the season on a free-position with 11:23 to play to make it a 14-11 game, but the Wildcats weren't able to put things away without a fight by the Irish.

Notre Dame pulled within two with 1:52 to play on a goal by Savannah Buchanan and the 'Cats were assessed a yellow card. A second yellow put NU two women down at the 1:07 mark, allowing the Irish to cut the deficit to one on a goal by Grace Muller.

Lasota won the ensuing draw control following a timeout and the 'Cats ran out the clock to secure the win. The junior finished with four draw controls, three ground balls and a pair of caused turnovers to lead the way. Sophomore Claire Quinn had three draw controls and a caused turnover and junior Sheila Nesselbush netted her first goal of the year.

WILDCATS FALL IN OVERTIME AT COLORADO, 11-10

BOULDER, Colo. — Senior Christina Esposito scored a career-high four goals for the second time this season and classmate Catie Ingrassi notched a pair of goals for the third time in her career, but in the end No. 9 Northwestern came up one stop short in suffering its first loss of the season in overtime Sunday at Colorado, 11-10.

The two teams battled in a back-and-forth affair all game before Esposito scored her fourth of the game with just 1:10 left in regulation to tie the game, 10-10. The 'Cats had a chance to score the go-ahead goal after winning the ensuing draw control, but a turnover gave the ball back to the Buffaloes (1-0) and chaos ensued.

The Wildcats were called for a yellow card in the midfield with just 11 seconds left putting them a woman down. The Buffs moved into the attacking zone and drew a free-position opportunity with four seconds remaining, but the shot hit the pipe to send the game to overtime.

With the 'Cats a woman down to start the extra session, the Buffs were able to take advantage when Katie Macleay scored her second of the game just 55 seconds into overtime for the game winner.

Northwestern finished the game with 39 shots and put 29 of them on cage, but Paige Soenksen matched her career high with 19 stops for the Buffs in stymieing the NU attack.

Ingrassi matched her career high for the third time with a pair of first half goals, while Esposito chipped in with two of her own in the first 30 minutes to give the Wildcats a 6-5 lead at the break.

Unfortunately, the Buffs scored the first two goals of the second half while hold the 'Cats off the board for the first 12-plus minutes. Trailing 7-6, sophomore Corinne Wessels found sophomore Leighton Yenor on a woman-advantage for the second time of the game with 19:14 to go in the second half to even things up. Esposito gave the Wildcats their last lead of the game, 8-7, when she converted a free position with 12:58 to go.

The lead was short lived however as the Buffs scored back-to-back goals in a span of 20 seconds to to reclaim the lead, 9-8. Sophomore Selena Lasota scored her sixth of the season with 10:18 on the clock to tie the game again, 9-9, but the Buffs scored just 15 seconds later to take the lead back, 10-9, and set up the dramatic finish.

The Wildcats held a 13-10 advantage on the draw control and caused nine turnovers to Colorado's four, but ultimately their inability to capitalize on opportunities and Soenksen's big game proved too much to overcome.

Esposito had two ground balls, two draw controls and a pair of caused turnovers to go with her four goals as she paced the Wildcats. Wessels finished with two assists to increase her team lead to nine on the season and Fredericks led the squad with four draw controls.

WILDCATS DROP HEARTBREAKER IN OVERTIME AT NO. 4 USC, 11-10

TORRANCE, Calif. — A game of inches.

The ninth-ranked Northwestern lacrosse team needed the ball roll one more inch in overtime Saturday to pick up a win over No. 4 USC, but in the end the roll didn't come and the Trojans scored 2:56 into the extra frame to hand the Wildcats their second-straight loss in overtime, 11-10.

Trailing by three with 26:53 to play, 10-7, the 'Cats held the Trojans off the board for the remainder of regulation and scored three unanswered to tie the game. Junior Selena Lasota sent a nifty behind-the-back pass to senior Christina Esposito with 24:58 left in regulation to start the run before scoring a goal of her own by knifing through the USC defense at the 8:37 mark.

Esposito scored her third of the game with 7:09 left in regulation to tie the game, 10-10.

Chicago's Big Ten Team had an early opportunity in the overtime session when Esposito found herself one-on-one with USC goalkeeper Gussie Johns, but her attempt to loft it over Johns' head from the eight-meter arc was corralled by a leaping keeper. Senior Danita Stroup ensued to check the ball out of Johns' stick as the Trojans attempted to clear and it rolled toward the goal line, but the inch the 'Cats needed for the game winner was prevented as Johns dove and pinned the ball before it rolled in.

The Wildcats had another chance when senior Catie Ingrassi caused a turnover on the Trojans' ensuing possession. The turnover led to a run out for Lasota, but her jump shot was stopped by Johns, the keeper's 17th save of the game.

Sophomore Mallory Weisse made a stop on Kerrigan Miller free position on the other end, but the Wildcats were unable to pick up the ground ball. Miller got another chance, fighting her way through the NU defense to fire a back handed shot for the game-winning goal.

The first half was a back-and-forth track meet between the two teams. After NU took their first lead of the game, 1-0, on junior Shelby Fredericks' first tally of the season, the Trojans scored four straight to take a 4-1 lead.

Stroup and Esposito sandwiched goals around a tally by Gabby McMahon to cut the deficit to two, 5-3. Esposito's first goal of the game sparked a 3-0 run that included goals by senior Catie Ingrassi and freshman Lindsey McKone to tie the game with 6:11 to go in the first half, 5-5.

The Trojans reclaimed the lead on Kylie Drexel's second goal of the game, but Lasota scored her first of the afternoon on a free position and found classmate Nicole Beardsley just 31 seconds later to give the 'Cats their last lead of the game, 7-6.

A goal by Cynthia Del Core and three-straight goals by Drew Jackson spanning the end of the first half and the start of the second half gave USC a 10-7 lead before the Wildcats locked down on defense to complete the comeback and force overtime.

Weisse was key in the comeback, making eight saves and allowing just one goal in the second half after making just one stop and allowing nine goals in the first half.

Lasota finished the day with five points on a pair of goals and career-high three assists to go along with four ground balls. McKone recorded the first two points of her career on an assist and goal and fellow freshman Megan Kinna filled the stat sheet with six ground balls, six draw controls and two caused turnovers.

Fredericks extended her point streak to 23 games with a goal and finished with a season-high nine draw controls. The junior moved up to third in program history with 209 career draw controls.
