GAME NO. 17: ILLINOIS

Thursday's Match
The Wildcats finish their three-game run on the road this Thursday when they head to Illinois. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m. at Illinois Soccer Stadium. NU's match vs. the Illini is the lone midweek match of the season as most of the matches have taken place on the weekend.

Last Time Out
Last Friday, the 'Cats traveled to Madison, Wis. where they took on the Badgers. Northwestern rallied for a late goal in the second half by junior Bo Podkopacz, her second career score. The 'Cats continued to fight for the rest of the game, but were ultimately unable to make up the deficit in the 2-1 Wisconsin win. Freshman goalkeeper Rachel Bergman topped her own career-high record of five saves from last weekend with six saves against the Badgers.

Following Wisconsin, the 'Cats traveled to Minnesota to face the Golden Gophers on Sunday. Northwestern's defense was stellar and successfully held Minnesota to only 10 shots in the game – well below their season average. However, the Big Ten's leading goal-scorer, Minnesota's Taylor Uhl, was able to put one in late in the second half, giving the Gophers the lead and eventually the win, 1-0.

Junior Natalie Lagunas and the Wildcats have three matches remaining in the 2012 regular season, beginning with Thursday's game at Illinois.

Great Kate
Junior forward Kate Allen officially entered the NU record book during NU's match against Penn State. Allen tabbed her 17th career goal, which ties her with Jenny Dunn and Alicia Herczeg for ninth all-time. Allen currently has six goals on the season, which matches her career-best set during her freshman season in 2010. Her goal against Penn State also puts Allen at 15 points on the season, a new career best.

Super Sophomores
While junior Kate Allen currently leads the team in scoring, four second-year players have contributed to the scoring load. After not finding the back of the net during her freshman season, midfielder/forward Georgia Waddle has tallied three goals this season, including the game-winner in NU's season-opening 2-1 OT win vs. Kansas, a 2011 NCAA Tournament team. She started the year with back-to-back goals, also scoring in NU's 2-1 win the next game at Miami. Waddle's third goal of the year came in Northwestern's 2-2 tie with Colorado.

Midfielder Niki Sebo scored a goal during her freshman year, helping NU come back for a 1-1 tie with Wisconsin at Lakeside Field, and has three goals this season to tie with Waddle for second on the squad. Forward KK Barr and midfielder Sami Schrakamp both scored their first career goals this year. Barr's came in NU's 2-0 win over Northern Illinois and Schrakamp scored within

Comaring Numbers

The Wildcats have seen their numbers improve in a few statistical categories this year compared to last year. Here's a look at some of the number:

	2012 (Through 16 games)	2011 (19 games)
Goals/Game:	0.94	0.68
Shots/Game:	9.9	9.9
Opp Goals/Game:	1.69	2.32
Opp Shots/Game:	13.9	15.3
Total Goals:	15	13
RPI:	112	202

Youth Movement

This year's Northwestern roster includes a total of 18 underclassmen (seven freshmen and 11 sophomores) and 10 upperclassmen (seven juniors and three seniors). A number of the freshmen and sophomores on the team have seen significant minutes, most notably, sophomore defender Jackie Alyinovich who has played more than 97 percent of the team's minutes this year (1,439 of a possible 1,484 minutes). Of the eight newcomers (seven freshmen, one sophomore), defender Jennifer Korn has played the most minutes at 1,126 in 15 of the team's 16 matches (13 starts). Every NU newcomer has played at least one match this season. Here's a look at the minutes played for six of the newcomers that have seen significant time:

Name	Min.	Games	Starts
Jennifer Korn (D)	1,126	15	13
Natalie Cikos (M/D)	971	14	9
Margo McGinty (M)	937	13	9

Nandi Mehta (M)	351	15	2
Katie Gancedo (M)	248	14	0

Staying In State

A total of 19 players originally from the state of Illinois will play in Thursday's match. Seven of those play for the Wildcats and they include the following:

Name	Hometown	High School
Niki Sebo	Downers Grove	Downers Grove North
Jessica Rubin	Naperville	Naperville Central
Georgia Waddle	Lake Forest	Lake Forest
KK Barr	St. Charles	St. Charles North
Jackie Alyinovich	Burr Ridge	Hinsdale South
Briana Borsellino	Oak Brook	Montini Catholic
Jennifer Korn	Naperville	Naperville North

Nearing 200

Northwestern head coach Michael Moynihan is very close to reaching a significant milestone as he is three wins away from career victory No. 200. Assistant coach David Nikolic has been a part of Moynihan's coaching staff for all 197 of those wins and he also is three victories away from reaching the 200-win milestone. Moynihan and Nikolic spent the previous 15 seasons coaching together at UW-Milwaukee before arriving at Northwestern in January of 2012.

Scouting Illinois

Illinois is (7-6-2) on the season and (4-3-1) in Big Ten play. The Illini also played Minnesota and Wisconsin last weekend, losing both matches. The Gophers tallied the 3-0 decision on Friday with Uhl scoring two goals and Wisconsin escaped with the 2-1 victory in double overtime. Illinois has Big Ten wins over Iowa (2-1), Ohio State (1-0), Indiana (2-1) and Michigan State (3-2) and tied 1-1 with Purdue. Junior midfielder Vanessa DiBernardo has only played eight of the team's 15 matches this year but leads the team in scoring with four goals. DiBernardo missed the other five matches when she was playing in the U-20 World Cup Qualifying Tournament. Goalkeeper Steph Panozzo has played all of the team's minutes in net and has a 1.29 goals-against average.

Up Next

Northwestern returns to Lakeside Field Sunday for the final home contest of the 2012 season and will host Senior Day prior to the 2:30 kickoff vs. Iowa. Be sure to arrive early to honor NU seniors Meredith Finsand, Jessica Rubin and Bri Westlund as they make their final appearance at Lakeside Field.

Rachel Bergman Named B1G Co-Freshman of the Week

Rachel Bergman earned the first Big Ten weekly honor for the Wildcats on Sept. 10 as the conference named her the Co-Freshman of the Week. Bergman played all 180 minutes in net over the weekend as the Wildcats shut out Northern Illinois 2-0 Friday and Yale by the same 2-0 score on Sunday. The NU freshman stopped two shots in each contest, helping Northwestern stay unbeaten in its last three matches and improve to 4-2-1 on the season. Bergman played five matches, starting four, while filling in for Anna Cassell who was injured midway through the Dayton match (8/26) and returned for the Nebraska game (9/14). This is the first Big Ten honor for Bergman and she is the first NU freshman to receive the weekly accolade since current junior Kate Allen's freshman of the week award on Aug. 23, 2010.

New Under Armour Kits for 'Cats

Northwestern is sporting a new look this season as the athletic department agreed to a multi-year partnership that designates Under Armour as the official outfitter of the Wildcats. The partnership represents Under Armour's first outfitter agreement with an athletic program that competes in the Big Ten Conference.

The women's soccer uniforms prominently displays the Northwestern Stripe in a vertical fashion down the front of the jersey. The stripe is integrated in uniforms for the entire athletic department, ensuring that each of the 19 sports teams has a unique look, but is united by a common thread.

The uniforms also incorporate a unique design aesthetic, taking inspiration from the different elements of the Northwestern campus, including the gothic-style architecture and intricate stonework. These details are strategically woven into the uniform through the font style and numeral design. An up-close look at the uniforms will show that the numbers are made of bricks, which is symbolic of all the brick buildings on the Northwestern University campus.

Helping Hallie

The Northwestern women's soccer team has befriended a 6-year-old girl by the name of Hallie Munro. Hallie has a significant number of medical complications that forced her and her family to move to Chicago for medical treatment. Her number of ailments are many, but her main difficulty is that she is missing part of her large and small intestines.

While living in Utah, Hallie became close with the Utah women's soccer team, which is coached by Michael Moynihan's brother-in-law, Rich Manning. Once Hallie moved to Chicago, Manning put the Munro family in touch with Moynihan and the relationship with the NU women's soccer team has flourished since last spring. Hallie has visited a number of Northwestern practices and was at the team's home opener vs. Marquette.

The Big Ten Network Women's Report aired a feature on the Northwestern women's soccer team and Hallie on Friday, Sept. 28. The video is archived on the women's soccer page on NUsports.com for those who would like to watch the feature. For more information on Hallie, please visit www.helpinghallie.com.

MICHAEL MOYNIHAN

Head Coach
First Season

Michael Moynihan comes to Northwestern after 19 years with the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's soccer program, where he led the program to nine NCAA Tournament appearances, 13 Horizon League Championships and eight Horizon League Tournament titles. Moynihan, an eight-time Horizon League Coach of the Year, coached the Panthers to the last 12-straight conference titles, a streak that is the second-longest of its kind, trailing only Penn State's 14-straight Big Ten titles.

"We are very excited to welcome Michael, his wife, Holly, and their son, Gabriel, to the Northwestern family," Northwestern Director of Athletics and Recreation Jim Phillips said following Moynihan's hire in January, 2012. "Michael has had tremendous success building the Milwaukee women's soccer program into one of the best in the country and I am excited about the future of Northwestern women's soccer under his leadership. Michael's commitment to service also makes him a perfect fit for our program."

In 15 years as the head coach at Milwaukee, Moynihan accumulated a 193-84-38 record, including an 86-8-5 (.894) mark in Horizon League games. In 2011, Moynihan's Panthers won a school-record 19 matches, including a perfect 8-0-0 record in conference action, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round. Led by nine all-conference honorees, including the Horizon League Player of the Year, Defensive Co-Player of the Year and an NSCAA All-American, the Panthers finished the season ranked No. 23 by the National Soccer Coaches Association of American (NSCAA) with a final RPI of No. 25.

The Milwaukee, Wis., native's coaching career began with the Panthers in 1993 when he served as an assistant coach under his sister, Susan. He helped guide the Panthers in that capacity to a 40-33-4 mark in four seasons, laying the groundwork for when he would take over the program in 1997. Michael also played an instrumental role in fundraising efforts to have the Panthers' home field, the Laura Moynihan Field, named after his mother who also coached the UWM women's soccer program.

An active member of the Milwaukee community, Moynihan served on the board of directors for the Shorewood Kickers and was the director of coaching for the Wisconsin Girls Olympic Development Program. At UWM, his teams regularly hosted soccer camps and clinics throughout the area.

Moynihan played collegiately at Wisconsin, graduating in 1990 with a degree in history. While at Wisconsin, Moynihan was a four-year letterwinner, served two years as team captain and received the team's Bill Reddan Award for Sportsmanship as a senior. He also earned a teaching certificate in secondary education from UWM in 1993.

Moynihan holds a USSF `A' coaching license as well as a USSF national youth license. He has been heavily involved in the Olympic Development Program for the past 20 years, coaching at the national, regional and state levels and has served as head coach for the `93 Wisconsin state team and as an assistant with the `95 regional team.
