THE OPENING TIP...

• Northwestern is wrapping up a stretch of four straight games against local foes. The Wildcats defeated Chicago State, 96-31, last Monday before topping Valparaiso, 84-50, on Thursday and DePaul, 62-60, on Saturday.

• Scottie Lindsey tallied 25 points, including hitting seven 3-pointers, in leading NU to Saturday's victory over DePaul. The seven triples are the most by a Wildcat since John Shurna matched a school record with nine vs. Eastern Illinois Dec. 18, 2011.

• The Wildcats have hit at least 11 3-pointers in each of their last three games. NU ranks third in the Big Ten with an average of 8.7 3-point makes per contest.

• Northwestern is forcing an average of 17.9 turnovers over the last seven contests, including forcing 25 against Chicago State last Monday and 21 by Valparaiso last Thursday.

SCOUTING LEWIS

The Flyers take a 4-6 record into their game at Ferris State Monday evening. Lewis, which competes in NCAA Division II, is led in scoring by Delaney Blaylock who is averaging 16.3 points per game. Christen Wilson contributes 14.2 points and a team-best 7.6 rebounds per contest. Scott Trost is in his 12th season as the head coach of the Flyers.

DOING IT ON DEFENSE

Over the last seven games, the Wildcats have gotten back to being the solid defense unit that has come to be expected under head coach Chris Collins.

Opponent Numbers	Points/Gm	FG%	3-pt FG%	TOs/Gm
First 5 Games	78.4	.489	.414	12.2
Last 7 Games	55.0	.393	.294	17.9

LAW AND ORDER

While the defense has spearheaded Northwestern's resurgence as of late, redshirt junior forward Vic Law has led the way on the offensive end.

Law Last 7 Games	14.3	32-57 (.561)	18-31 (.581)	18-20 (.900)

LINDSEY LIGHTS IT UP

Senior guard Scottie Lindsey paces Northwestern with an average of 16.3 points per game. He has tallied at least 20 points in a game five times this season and has scored in double figures in 11 of the team's 12 contests. Lindsey is first in the Big Ten with an average of 2.8 3-point field goals per game and his 156 career 3-pointers are the 10th most in NU history.

ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

Northwestern's 96-31 victory over Chicago State Dec. 11 was notable on many levels:

- The 65-point margin of victory is the largest ever by NU. The previous best was 57 in a 77-20 win over University of Chicago Jan. 14, 1944.
- Chicago State's 31 points are just one more than the low by a Northwestern opponent since 1944. Oakland scored 30 points in a 68-30 loss to NU Nov. 21, 1998.
- The 'Cats led 55-8 at halftime. The eight points are the fewest by an NU foe in a half during the shot clock era.

SUCCESS ACROSS THE BOARD

With Northwestern earning a preseason national ranking as well as being ranked in the first weekly Associate Press poll and the Wildcats' football program appearing in the College Football Playoff Rankings, this season marked the first time that both programs have been nationally ranked at the same time. The football program finished its regular season with seven straight wins and a 9-3 record. They aren't the only NU teams experiencing success, though. The field hockey team advanced to the NCAA tournament quarterfinal round while the women's soccer team advanced to the second round of its NCAA tournament.

CRASHING THE GLASS

Northwestern was dominant on the glass in a Nov. 13 home win over Saint Peter's. The Wildcats finished with a 34-16 rebounding advantage. The +18 margin was the team's largest since out-rebounding Mississippi Valley State 50-32 Nov. 11, 2016. The 16 rebounds by Saint Peter's are the fewest by a Northwestern opponent in over 25 years.

BLOCK PARTY

NU was swatting shots left and right in the team's season-opening win over Loyola (Md.) Nov. 10. The 'Cats posted 12 blocked shots in the game which rank as a tie for the second-best single-game effort in program history. Dererk Pardon and Vic Law led the way with three blocks apiece. The school record for blocked shots by the team is 15 achieved at Rutgers

Jan. 12, 2017.

SCINTILLATING FROM THE STRIPE

The Wildcats were nearly perfect from the free throw line against Saint Peter's on Nov. 13. NU hit on 23 of its 24 attempts from the charity stripe. The .958 percentage is the seventh-best effort in school history (minimum 15 attempts) and the top performance with only one miss. Northwestern leads the Big Ten with a .772 team free throw percentage (23rd nationally).

SCINTILLATING FROM THE STRIPE, PART 2

Bryant McIntosh has been nearly automatic from the free throw line so far this season. He converted on each of his first 20 attempts before finally missing once against Illinois Dec. 1. He leads the Big Ten and ranks sixth nationally with a .962 free throw percentage (25-26). McIntosh's career free throw percentage of .861 is the second best in program history behind only Jeff Grose (.862).

THE MAC IS BACK

Now in his senior season, guard Bryant McIntosh already has left his mark on Northwestern. His 621 career assists are a school record and rank fourth among all active players in the nation. He holds the top two single-season assist totals in school history. After posting a school-record 213 assists as a sophomore, McIntosh had 188 assists in 2016-17. The team's leading scorer with an average of 14.8 points per game a year ago, McIntosh currently ranks 12th in school history with 1,491 career points, a total that ranks 24th among all active Division I players. He is the only Big Ten player over the last 25 years to post 1,340 points and 550 assists through his first three collegiate seasons and is one of only 15 players in league history to reach both of those two standards in a career.

WILDCATS EARN PRESEASON NATIONAL RANKINGS

Northwestern opened the season ranked in the preseason Associated Press and USA TODAY Coaches polls. The Wildcats were ranked No. 19 by the AP and No. 20 by the coaches. It is the first time that NU is ranked in the AP preseason poll. The team was ranked No. 25 Jan. 30 of last season, their first top-25 AP ranking in seven years. This is the first time that Northwestern has ever been ranked at any time in the Coaches Poll.

MCINTOSH, LINDSEY TABBED PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN

Northwestern senior guards Scottie Lindsey and Bryant McIntosh each have been named to the 10-member Preseason All-Big Ten Team. NU is one of three schools to have two individuals named to the squad, joining Michigan State and Minnesota. Both Lindsey and McIntosh were All-Big Ten selections in 2016-17. McIntosh was one of three unanimous selections to the team, joining Michigan State's Miles Bridges and Wisconsin's Ethan Happ.

RETURNING ALL-BIG TEN HONOREES

Three Northwestern players earned All-Big Ten recognition a year ago. Guard Bryant McIntosh was a consensus second-team all-league pick, while Scottie Lindsey was named by the league's head coaches to the third team and honorable mention by the media. In addition, Vic Law was selected by the coaches to the five-member All-Defensive Team. It's the first time NU has had two All-Big Ten picks in the same years since John Shurna and Drew Crawford in 2012. Law was the first Wildcat to be named to the All-Defensive Team since Jeremy Nash in 2010. McIntosh was a Big Ten All-Freshman Team selection in 2015 and was a consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten pick as a sophomore.

GAME NOTES

MCINTOSH NAMED TO PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Senior guard Bryant McIntosh has been named to a trio of prestigious preseason watch lists. He is one of 50 individuals named to the Naismith Award and Wooden Award watch lists which honor the nation's top player. He also is one of 20 individuals named to the watch list for the 2018 Bob Cousy Award presented to the nation's top point guard. A year ago, McIntosh averaged 5.4 assists per game in Big Ten play making him the first Northwestern player to lead the league in the category. McIntosh has handed out 10 or more assists in a game five times in his career, something no other Wildcat has done more than twice.

QUARTET SERVING AS TEAM CAPTAINS

Four individuals are serving as team captains for the 2017-18 season. Senior guards Scottie Lindsey and Bryant McIntosh, redshirt junior forward Vic Law and junior center Dererk Pardon are serving in the leadership role for the Wildcats. All four are returning starters. This is the first time that Northwestern has had four individuals be team captains.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Northwestern is playing all of its home games at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Illinois, this season due to Welsh-Ryan Arena undergoing a complete $110 million renovation. More information on the project can be found on page 7 of this notes packet.

IVANAUSKAS TO MISS REMAINDER OF 2017-18 SEASON

Northwestern redshirt first-year forward Rapolas Ivanauskas underwent shoulder surgery Dec. 8 and will miss the remainder of the 2017-18 season. He was limited to three appearances and 11 minutes of action this season. Ivanauskas also sat out the 2016-17 season due to shoulder surgery.

WINNING WAYS

Northwestern posted school records of 24 overall wins and 21 regular-season win in 2016-17 after posting what was then a record 20 regular-season wins the prior season. The previous regular-season best was 19 wins during the 2009-10 season. NU put together a pair of school-record 13-game home winning streaks in each of the last two seasons. The 'Cats won their last four home games in both 2014-15 and 2015-16 before winning each of their first nine home games the ensuing campaign.

DONLON JOINS STAFF AS ASSISTANT COACH

Billy Donlon is in his first season as an assistant coach on Northwestern's staff after spending the 2016-17 season as an assistant at Michigan. Donlon previous served as the head coach at Wright State. Like head coach Chris Collins, Donlon is a graduate of nearby Glenbrook North High School in Northbrook, Illinois, where both individuals were coached by current NU assistant Brian James. Donlon's father, Bill, was an assistant coach at Northwestern under head coach Bill Foster from 1986-93.

GUYTON COMES ABOARD AS DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

A.J. Guyton has joined NU as the program's director of player development. Guyton joins the Wildcats after spending last season as an assistant coach of the Windy City Bulls of the NBA G League. A 2000 graduate of Indiana University, Guyton earned Big Ten Player of the Year and consensus first-team All-America honors his senior year. A three-time team MVP, he earned second-team All-Big Ten recognition and was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1997 before earning first-team all-conference accolades in 1998 and 2000.

2018-19 RECRUITING CLASS

Four individuals have signed National Letters of Intent to join the Northwestern men's basketball program for the 2018-19 season Sullivan-Ubben head men's basketball coach Chris Collins announced Wednesday, Nov. 8.

SULLIVAN-UBBEN HEAD COACH CHRIS COLLINS

81-64 CAREER RECORD (FIFTH SEASON)

Chris Collins is in his fifth season at Northwestern. He was named the University's 24th head men's basketball coach on March 27, 2013.

In Collins' first four years at the helm, he has led Northwestern to an increased win total each season.

Collins guided the Wildcats to heights never before reached during the 2016-17 season. The unforgettable campaign saw Northwestern accumulate a school-record 24 wins while earning the program's first NCAA tournament berth and victory in school history.

NU captured the nation's attention with its outstanding start to the season. An 18-4 start, including a six-game winning streak in Big Ten Conference play — the program's first since 1933 — saw the team crack the top 25 of the AP poll on Jan. 30, the team's first national ranking in seven years. NU went on to record 10 wins in league play, its most since the 1932-33 campaign. Five of the victories came on the road, including a 66-59 triumph at No. 7/5 Wisconsin on Feb. 12.

The 'Cats picked up a pair of wins in the Big Ten tournament in Washington D.C., including defeating 25th-ranked Maryland in its own backyard, to give NU its first appearance in the conference tournament semifinal round in school history.

NU was rewarded with an NCAA tournament berth on Selection Sunday and the Wildcats earned a 68-66 victory over Vanderbilt in an opening-round contest in Salt Lake City. Northwestern pushed second-ranked and eventual national runner-up Gonzaga to the limits in the second round before eventually suffering a narrow loss.

The 'Cats placed two individuals on the All-Big Ten teams for the first time since 2012 as Bryant McIntosh was a unanimous second-team selection while Scottie Lindsey was recognized as a third-team pick of the league's coaches. In addition, Vic Law was named to the conference's five-member All-Defensive Team.

Collins' contributions to the program were rewarded by being named one of four national finalists for the Naismith Men's Coach of the Year award. Following the season, Collins agreed to a contract extension that runs through the 2024-25 campaign.

Collins came to Evanston after serving on the coaching staff at Duke since July 22, 2000. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2008. During Collins' 13 seasons on the Blue Devils' staff, Duke posted an overall record of 385-77 while recording eight ACC tournament championships, four ACC regular season titles, eight in-season tournament titles and national championships in 2001 and 2010.

Collins worked primarily with backcourt players during his time at Duke and tutored All-Americans Jason Williams, Mike Dunleavy, Chris Duhon, J.J. Redick, Gerald Henderson, DeMarcus Nelson, Jon Scheyer, Nolan Smith and Austin Rivers, in addition to NBA draft picks Daniel Ewing, Kyrie Irving and Kyle Singler.

Before returning to his alma mater, Collins served as an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two years with Tommy Amaker. Prior to Seton Hall, Collins spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant with the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Collins played professional basketball in Finland during the 1996-97 season, leading the league in scoring.

While attending Duke, Collins was a team captain as a senior and four-year letterman from 1993-96. He ranks 11th among Duke's all-time leaders in three-point field goals (209) and 10th in three-point field goal attempts (539). Collins averaged 9.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.4 assists as a collegian. He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior.

Collins is the son of former NBA All-Star, Doug Collins, who is currently a senior advisor for the Chicago Bulls. A native of nearby Northbrook, Illinois, Collins is a 1996 graduate of Duke with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Collins and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ryan and Kate.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Season and single-game credential requests for Northwestern men's basketball must be requested online at: <http://sportssystem.com/northwestern>

Phone requests will not be accepted. Reporters may not use a credential to cover the game for another newspaper, TV station, radio or internet site. Failure to comply will result in both agency's credentials being revoked for the entire season.

Credentials can be picked up at the Allstate Arena Ticket Office which is located across Lunt Avenue, north of the arena. Entrance to the arena is via the North VIP entrance off Lunt Avenue. Doors open to the media two hours prior to game time.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEWS

Interviews with Northwestern players and coaches are available to the media upon request throughout the season. To arrange an interview, please contact the athletic communications office at (847) 491-7503. Please place your request at least 24 hours in advance. Interview availability is 30 minutes prior to the start of practice. All pre-practice interviews with players should be concluded well before the start of practice. As a Northwestern policy, players are not permitted to participate in live radio or television call-in shows. Player home telephone numbers will not be made available to media members.

PRO SCOUTING PASSES

Scouts of professional teams wishing to attend Northwestern home games should contact Sarah Holmes, Northwestern's director of ticket operations, at (847) 491-4659 or at sarah.holmes@northwestern.edu.

PRACTICE SESSIONS

Media members may attend the first 15 minutes of practice—however, this is subject to change on a daily basis. In order that the Northwestern Athletic Communications Department may be of better service, media members should call ahead to confirm practice time, player and coach interview availability, and media access.

MEDIA ROOM

The media room in Allstate Arena is located between sections 107 and 108 atop the lower seating bowl and is accessible via the concourse. The room will be open approximately two hours prior to tipoff. Game notes and flipcards will be made available. Soda, water and a light meal will be provided to working media only. The postgame press conference will be held in that same room.

PARKING

For the 2017-18 season, all media parking will be handled via a parking list. No physical passes will be issued. Media members who would like their name added to the parking list for a particular contest can do so via the online credential application or can contact Nick Brilowski. Press parking is located in the lot north of Allstate Arena and west of the Allstate Arena Ticket Office. The entrance to the parking area is on Chestnut Street.

PRESS RELEASES AND GAME NOTES

The Northwestern men's basketball game notes, along with statistics and other up-to-date information, can be found at NUsports.com in PDF format. If you wish to receive the PDF release via e-mail, please sign up via the Big Ten Conference's distribution system at office.bigten.org/media.

"POUND THE ROCK" IS WILDCATS' MANTRA

Since head coach Chris Collins arrived in April 2013, the Wildcats have adopted the mantra of "Pound The Rock." It's based on the quote "The Stonecutter's Credo" by Jacob A. Riis. The quote reads:

"When nothing seems to help, I go look at a stonecutter hammering away at his rock perhaps a hundred times without as much as a crack showing in it. Yet at the hundred and first blow it will split in two, and I know it was not that blow that did it, but all that had gone before."

The mantra is one that also has been adopted by the NBA's San Antonio Spurs.

WELSH-RYAN ARENA RENOVATION

Immediately following the completion of the 2016-17 season, Welsh-Ryan Arena began to undergo a complete renovation that will close off the facility until the fall of 2018.

The project is estimated at a cost of $110 million. A leadership gift from Patrick G. and Shirley W. Ryan, along with a $10 million gift from Stephen R. and Susan K. Wilson, donations from other loyal Northwestern benefactors and the existing athletics maintenance and equipment budget, will fund the project.

The project, part of the 2010 master athletics facilities plan recommendation, will entail a complete renovation of Welsh-Ryan Arena and McGaw Memorial Hall, including:

- New seating throughout the arena, with chair-back seats replacing existing wood bleachers
- Wider, more accessible concourses with improved lighting
- Improved accessibility for the mobility-impaired, with five new elevators replacing the existing one
- New and expanded restrooms, as well as the addition of accessible family restrooms
- New concession areas with twice as many point-of-sale stations for increased efficiency, along with new food and drink offerings
- State-of-the-art lighting, audio and video capabilities in the arena
- Premium seating areas and expansion of the N-Club, which provides space for pre- and post-game events, by more than 400 percent
- Expansion of the building lobby by nearly 50 percent
- A new ticket office
- New locker rooms for men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball

Northwestern's men's basketball program has announced plans to play its home games at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Illinois, during the 2017-18 campaign.

The renovation of Welsh-Ryan Arena also will include a state-of-the-art practice facility for basketball, volleyball and other Wildcats programs, the University announced Feb. 7. The enhancement is possible thanks in large part to a gift of up to $20 million from University trustee and alumnus Howard J. Trienens. In recognition of his continuing generosity, the facility will be named the Trienens Performance Center.

The Trienens Performance Center will feature a fieldhouse with three courts constructed inside the existing Trienens Hall, adjacent to Welsh-Ryan Arena. The facility will allow for construction of larger team locker rooms inside the Arena for men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball. It also will include:

- Best-in-class athletic training and rehabilitation amenities
- Ultramodern strength and conditioning facilities
- Team meeting rooms with advanced teaching technologies
- Expanded performance nutrition hub
- Offices for men's and women's basketball
- Staff locker rooms

GAME RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

Game 1

Five Northwestern players scored in double figures and the Wildcats finished with a 34-16 rebounding advantage en route to a 75-66 victory over Saint Peter's at Allstate Arena. Bryant McIntosh led the way with 17 points and matched his career high with seven rebounds. The Wildcats' starting frontcourt of Dererk Pardon and Gavin Skelly added 15 and 14 points, respectively. The Wildcats started out fast thanks to an early 8-0 run. Skelly energized the run with two highlight-reel dunks, including a thunderous alley-oop from Law followed by a put-back slam. Moments later, Lindsey drained a 3-pointer to extend the lead to 11-3 and force Saint Peter's to call a timeout. Skelly led all players at the half with eight points and four rebounds. McIntosh and Pardon each finished the period with seven points. The Wildcats went into halftime with a 32-25 lead thanks to an efficient offensive performance and disciplined defense in the first half. The #B1GCats started the second half red hot from behind the arc. Skelly, Lindsey and Law each hit a triple on NUs first three possessions of the period. A layup by Pardon followed by a McIntosh jumper helped improve the 'Cats' shooting numbers to 5-of-6 to start the half. The jumper opened the lead up to 15 and forced another Peacocks' timeout. Anthony Gaines turned in a strong stretch of play midway through the second half, scoring five consecutive points including his first-career 3-pointer to extend NU's lead to 18 points. Saint Peter's wouldn't go away as an 11-3 run brought them back within 10 points midway through the second half, but Northwestern shut the door on any further comeback efforts. The Wildcats finished the night shooting 48.9 percent from the field and 23-of-24 from the free throw line.

Game 2

Vic Law scored a career-high 30 points but No. 20 Northwestern was unable to complete a furious second-half comeback as the Wildcats fell to the Creighton, 92-88, at Allstate Arena as part of the Gavitt Tipoff Games. Bryant McIntosh added 24 points along with a team-high nine assists. Five consecutive baskets for Creighton helped the Bluejays pull ahead with a 22-13 lead, however Northwestern continued to fight offensively to keep the score close. Despite six consecutive field goals by the 'Cats midway through the half, a 10-0 run by Creighton opened up their lead to 15 late in the first half, but the #19 Cats would not go away. The Wildcats went on a 7-2 run to close the first half, holding Creighton without a field goal for the final 2:52 of the half to head into the locker room trailing, 51-43. A 7-0 run to begin to half cut the NU deficit to just one. Northwestern kept its foot on the gas pedal as Law converted on four-point play to give the 'Cats a 56-55 lead with 17:02 remaining. Following a Creighton basket on the ensuing possession, Law stayed hot as he drained a fade-away three to put Northwestern back on top, 59-57. The Bluejays kept answering every NU charge, though. With the 'Cats trailing by seven with under four minutes left, Law scored four straight points to close the deficit to three. A basket by Martin Krampelj and a free throw by Ronnie Harrell Jr. made it a six-point game, but a triple by Scottie Lindsey cut the margin in half. A putback basket by Krampelj extended the guests' lead to five. After Gavin Skelly hit a 3-pointer to cut the Bluejays' lead to 90-88 with 18 seconds remaining, Khry Thomas converted on two free throws to make the score 92-88 and seal the game for Creighton.

GAME RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

Game 4 #20/20 NU 82, La Salle 74

Nov. 18, 2017 • Uncasville, Conn.

Bryant McIntosh and Scottie Lindsey combined for 41 points to lead Northwestern over La Salle, 82-74, in the 2017 Hall of Fame Tip-Off Tournament at Mohegan Sun Arena. McIntosh scored a team-high 21 points with a 5-of-6 mark behind arc, while Lindsey dropped 20 points to go along with six rebounds. Aaron Falzon made his season debut after missing the majority of the 2016-17 campaign due to injury, scoring 11 points on a trio of 3-pointers and pair of free throws. The contest was knotted at 13 just over eight minutes into the contest when NU took control. An 8-1 run put the 'Cats up by seven, 21-14, with 9:38 remaining before halftime. The advantage was 23-18 with eight minutes remaining, but the Wildcats closed the opening stanza on a 23-6 run to take a convincing 46-24 advantage into halftime. The Wildcats connected on six of their 10 3-point attempts over the opening half with McIntosh (11 first-half points) leading the way by knocking down each of his three triple tries. Northwestern shot a blistering 62.1 percent (18-29) from the field while holding the Explorers to 31.3 percent shooting (10-32) in the opening half. The lead grew to 26 before a 12-point La Salle run got the Explorers within 14 with 16 minutes remaining. Falzon ended the opposing surge by knocking down his second 3-pointer of the game. The Explorers, who connected on 10 of their first 12 field goal attempts to open the second stanza, crept to within eight, 59-51, but Lindsey's third trey pushed the lead back to double digits. B.J. Johnson, who hit each of his first six field goal attempts of the half, led La Salle's charge back as it got within seven, but a 3-pointer by McIntosh and a dunk by Pardon extended the lead back to 12. NU eventually pushed the advantage to 20 with 3:15 remaining before La Salle used a 12-point run to close the game.

Game 5

Texas Tech 85, #20/20 NU 49

Nov. 19, 2017 • Uncasville, Conn.

Northwestern was unable to overcome a rough opening half as the Wildcats dropped the championship game of the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Tournament to Texas Tech, 85-49, at Mohegan Sun Arena. Scottie Lindsey led Northwestern with 20 points and was named to the all-tournament team. Turnovers were the story of the first half as miscues dug the Wildcats into an early deficit. The Red Raiders scored the first nine points of the contest before Lindsey got NU on the board with a 3-pointer. Texas Tech answered with a 14-2 run to push its advantage to 18, 23-5, just beyond the midway point of the opening stanza thanks in large part to nine turnovers by the Wildcats. The deficit was still 18 when Northwestern finally got things going offensively. Behind seven points by Aaron Falzon off the bench and five by Lindsey, Northwestern brought the crowd to life with a 12-4 surge that cut the deficit to 10, 29-19, with five minutes left in the half. Texas Tech responded with 10 straight points, however, to take its largest lead of the half. The lead was 19 following a last-second bucket by Keenan Evans, but Lindsey's heave from three-quarters court went in at the buzzer making it 41-25 at the intermission. Lindsey single-handedly kept NU in contention by scoring 17 of the team's 25 first-half points. Vic Law's 3-pointer right out of the gates to open the second half brought the Wildcats with 13 as Northwestern began to get better looks from the field. However, NU never was able to get hot from the field as it was unable to mount a serious charge to put pressure on the Red Raiders. Bryant McIntosh went 3-for-3 from the free throw line in the contest giving him 17 straight makes from the charity stripe to open the season.

Game 6

NU 81, Sacred Heart 50

Nov. 24, 2017 • Rosemont, Ill.

Scottie Lindsey scored a game-high 19 points and Northwestern put forth a dominant defensive performance in earning an 81-50 win over Sacred Heart at Allstate Arena. Vic Law (15), Dererk Pardon (11) and Gavin Skelly (10) also scored in double figures for Northwestern. The Wildcats started the game on the right foot, tallying the first eight points of the contest in surging out to an early advantage. NU forced five turnovers in just over four minutes to begin the matchup as the lead grew to 13-3, forcing the Pioneers to burn an early timeout. Sacred Heart got things going on the offensive end, trimming Northwestern's lead to four by the second media timeout before a 3-pointer made it a one-point game. The Pioneers were within two, 21-19, when the 'Cats picked it up again on the offensive end. Aaron Falzon and Skelly each hit 3-pointers as part of a 10-2 run that pushed the lead back up to 10, 31-21, with five minutes left in the half. The Wildcats would eventually take a 43-31 lead into halftime. The 'Cats started the second half similar to how they started the first as the hosts scored 16 of the first 22 points in opening up a 59-37 lead. Sacred Heart scored four straight points to make it 59-41, but NU's defense held the visitors scoreless over the next eight minutes and 17 seconds in pulling away. In fact, Northwestern allowed only 10 points over the first 16 minutes of the second stanza while not allowing a field goal for nearly 10 minutes. The Wildcats held Sacred Heart to 33.3 percent shooting in the second half (6-18). Northwestern forced 23 turnovers in the contest, their most in a game in eight seasons.

Game 7 Georgia Tech 52, NU 51 Nov. 28, 2017 • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite a furious second-half comeback, Northwestern was unable to overcome a rough shooting performance as the Wildcats fell to Georgia Tech, 52-51, on a buzzer-beater at McCamish Pavilion. Bryant McIntosh turned in an impressive performance, finishing with a game-high 18 points while adding six rebounds and five assists. Dererk Pardon registered his first double-double of the season as he finished with 10 points and 12 rebounds. Both teams had trouble getting the lid off the basket early, but eight straight points by the Wildcats midway through the first half, highlighted by two field goals from McIntosh and a three-point play by Skelly, helped wipe away a seven-point deficit and give the Wildcats a 10-9 lead early. The pace began to pick up as both teams traded buckets in the last 10 minutes of the half. A floater by McIntosh knotted the score at 22 with 2:34 remaining in the half, however a pair of 3-pointers from the Yellow Jackets' Curtis Haywood II sent Georgia Tech into halftime with a 28-22 lead. Law's jumper to open the second half brought the Wildcats within four, but Georgia Tech kept its foot on the gas pedal and extended the lead to as much as 10 with just under 14 minutes to play in the game. Georgia Tech's lead was 47-37 with eight minutes remaining, but the Wildcats came roaring back, going on an 12-0 run to take the lead with 2:22 remaining in the game. A putback by Pardon gave the Wildcats a 51-50 lead with seven seconds to play, however a Tadric Jackson layup at the buzzer gave the Yellow Jackets a 52-51 victory. Northwestern forced 15 Georgia Tech turnovers, one game after forcing 23 against Sacred Heart.

Game 8 NU 72, Illinois 68 (OT) Dec. 1, 2017 • Rosemont, Ill.

Northwestern came up with a thrilling, 72-68, overtime victory over in-state rival Illinois in the Big Ten opener for both teams at Allstate Arena. Scottie Lindsey led the scoring efforts for the Wildcats, finishing with a game-high 22 points, while Vic Law chipped in 16 points and seven rebounds. NU trailed, 26-18, with 6:12 remaining in the first half but promptly cut the Illini lead to just one thanks to a 9-2 run. Moments later, after a pair of Illinois free throws, a triple by McIntosh tied the score at 30. However, Illinois entered halftime with a 36-32 lead. The #B1GCats came out blazing hot to start the second half with a 7-0 run to give them a three-point lead, their first lead in over 15 minutes of action. Pardon jumpstarted the run with a layup on the first possession of the half, then moments later Lindsey converted on his first three of the night to give Northwestern a 37-36 lead. Northwestern regained the lead with 3:34 remaining in the game when Lindsey skied over an Illinois defender for a two-handed slam to put the Wildcats on top, 60-59. After Illinois converted on a pair of free throws, Law drained a three on the ensuing possession to give NU a two-point lead. Tied 63-63 in the final minutes, both defenses ramped up their efforts, with no team scoring in the final 2:49 of regulation to send the game into overtime. With the score tied at 68 and just under a minute remaining in overtime, Lindsey converted on a pair of free throws to put the Wildcats on top. Holding a two-point lead, the #B1GCats came up with two defensive stops, highlighted by a block by Pardon with three seconds remaining before Isiah Brown hit two free throws, to seal the game.

Game 9 Purdue 74, NU 69 Dec. 3, 2017 • West Lafayette, Ind.

A strong second-half effort from Dererk Pardon nearly gave Northwestern a win in its first Big Ten road trip of the season, but the Wildcats fell to Purdue, 74-69, at Mackey Arena in a back-and-forth game that featured 13 lead changes. Pardon led Northwestern with a team-high 20 points, 14 of which came in the second half, along with eight rebounds and four assists. Vic Law added 12 points and 10 rebounds to give him his first double-double this season. Northwestern got off to a quick start offensively, converting on three of its first five shots of the game to jump out to a 6-2 lead. Hot shooting by Purdue gave the Boilermakers a double-digit lead midway through the first half. However, the Wildcats clawed their way back into the game as they went on a 14-1 run to take a 27-25 lead. Following the run, Purdue responded with a triple and a pair of free throws to take back the lead, but back-to-back baskets by Gavin Skelly helped tie the score, 33-33, heading into halftime. Purdue got off to a hot start to open the second half, but Northwestern was able to keep the lead close thanks to some stellar play from Pardon, who scored the first eight points of the half for the Wildcats. Pardon continued his second-half takeover as he scored six consecutive points to bring his total to 20 on the night and give the Wildcats a 62-61 lead with 3:32 remaining. Law converted on his third triple of the half and Lindsey hit back-to-back jumpers in the final minutes with the second giving NU a 69-67 advantage with 1:34 remaining. However, despite getting some good looks on the final two possessions of the game, Northwestern could not keep up with Purdue down the stretch as the Boilermakers scored the final seven points of the contest.

Game 10 NU 96, Chicago State 31 Dec. 11, 2017 • Rosemont, Ill.

Northwestern cruised to its largest margin of victory in program history with a 96-31 win over Chicago State at Allstate Arena. The Wildcats were firing on all cylinders both offensively and defensively as they finished with a team-high in points on the season, while holding the Cougars the fewest points scored in a game by an NU opponent since Nov. 22, 2012 (TCU, 31). The 65-point winning margin for the #B1GCats broke a 73-year record. Five Wildcats finished the game scoring in double figures, led by 18 points from Vic Law. The Wildcats jumped out to an early start, scoring the first 15 points of the game, holding Chicago State scoreless for the first 4:40 of the contest. Later on in the half, they held the Cougars scoreless for 6:40 as the 'Cats mounted a 22-0 run to extend their lead to 44-5. Northwestern held Chicago State without a field goal for the final 12:08 of the half and went into the locker room with 55-8 lead. All-in-all, the Wildcats' first half was one of the best performances turned in by any team in the country this season. The eight points scored by Chicago State is tied for fewest points scored by any Division I team in a half this season and is a low by a Northwestern foe in the shot clock era. The 55 points scored by NU marked the most points the Wildcats have scored in a half since they scored the same amount against Sacred Heart in 2015. Northwestern shot a blistering 55.2 percent (16-29) from the field in the first half while holding Chicago State to 10.5 percent shooting (2-19) in the opening half. The Wildcats held the Cougars without a 3-pointer in the half, while converting on 9-of-16 of their own looks from behind the arc. Northwestern did not let up as it outscored the Cougars, 41-23, in the second half. NU forced 25 turnovers, the most by an NU opponent in a game in 10 years.

Game 11 NU 84, Valparaiso 50 Dec. 14, 2017 • Rosemont, Ill.

Vic Law posted 18 points with five 3-pointers as a big first-half run propelled Northwestern to a convincing 84-50 win over Valparaiso at Allstate Arena. Gavin Skelly posted the second double-double of his career as he finished with 12 points along with a game-high 10 rebounds. Coming off a dominant offensive performance earlier in the week, Northwestern carried over that strong play as the team shot a scorching 54.5-percent from three point territory on 12-of-22 shooting. On the defensive end, the Wildcats stifled the Valparaiso all night as the Crusaders turned the ball over 21 times and shot just 38.5-percent (15-of-39) from the field. The Wildcats hit their first six 3-pointers of the game and Law hit his first four threes while scoring 15 of the Wildcats' first 24 points to help the 'Cats jump out to an early lead. Law's four-point play came in the middle of a 14-0 scoring run that Northwestern mounted midway through the first half. The run helped the 'Cats extend their lead to 27-10, during which Northwestern's defense held the Crusaders scoreless for over four minutes and without a field goal for over eight minutes during the stretch. NU eventually took a 43-26 lead to the break. The Wildcats opened up their lead even further to start the second half. The #B1GCats' defense continued to lock down the Crusaders, holding them without a field goal for the first 6:53 of the half. An 11-0 run by the Wildcats during that stretch gave NU a 34-point lead with just over 13 minutes to play. Northwestern did not let up as it outscored the Crusaders, 41-24, in the second half. Lindsey led the Wildcats with eight points in the second half, while first-year Anthony Gaines added six points. NU finished the contest with a 30-4 advantage in points off turnovers.
