'Cats Close Home Schedule Sunday vs. #10 Indiana

Northwestern closes out the 2011 regular season home schedule Sunday against No. 10 Indiana. Match time is scheduled for 2 p.m. and NU will honor Lucas Swertloff (Brooklyn, N.Y./Midwood), Oliver Kupe (Clarkston, Mich./Clarkston), Peter O'Neill (Fairway, Kan./Rockhurst), Jonathan Harris (Arlington Heights, Ill./St. Viator), John Rogers (Birmingham, Mich./Detroit County Day) and Christian Ludtke (Wilmington, N.C./New Hanover) prior to the game for Senior Day.

Sunday's match features two of the top teams in the Big Ten as NU heads into the match first in the conference standings (3-0-1, 10 points) while Indiana is in fourth (2-1-1, seven points). Both teams also bring significant unbeaten streaks into the match as Northwestern has not lost in its last seven games while IU is unbeaten in its last five.

The Northwestern Band will also be in the stands Sunday providing musical entertainment for the match.

Be Positive with Men's Soccer Team and NU Dance Marathon

The NU men's soccer team will partner with the Northwestern chapter of Dance Marathon Sunday to benefit the Andrew McDonough B+ Foundation. Dance Marathon will be collecting donations prior to Sunday's game with all proceeds going towards the B+ Foundation (www.bepositive.org). The first 100 fans to donate at least $5 will receive pink mini-soccer balls, which were donated to the men's soccer team by Wilson. NU alum Eamon O'Neill is the Midwest Regional Director of the B+ Foundation.

The B+ Foundation honors the memory of Andrew McDonough, a 14-year-old athlete and student from Wilmington, Del. In 2007, Andrew helped lead his team to victory in a state championship soccer tournament. Within 48 hours, he was in cardiac arrest and diagnosed with Leukemia (AML). The doctors didn't expect Andrew to live through the night, but he fought for 167 days. B+ not only reflected Andrew's blood type, but the way he lived his life and how he inspired others to do the same.

The Northwestern Athletic Department's Wildcat Charities also donated tickets to the B+ Heroes and they will be in attendance at Sunday's match.

Last Two Games

Northwestern played two games last week, defeating Wisconsin 1-0 on Oct. 23 to move into first place in the Big Ten standings and downed Rockford College 6-0 on Thursday in a replacement game. On Sunday, the 'Cats used a second-half goal by Nick Gendron (Ramsey,

Junior NICK GENDRON was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 24 for scoring the game-winning goal against Wisconsin on Oct. 23. His goal helped NU move into first place in the Big Ten standings.

standings through 10/27

N.J./Ramsey) to remain the only unbeaten team in Big Ten play. Gendron's header with 14 minutes remaining came off an assist by Layth Masri (Louisville, Ky./Louisville Collegiate) who received the ball off a corner kick from Reed Losee (Lake Orion, Mich./Lake Orion). Tyler Miller (Woodbury, N.J./Bishop Eustace) shut out his eighth opponent of the season, saving three Badger shots.

Thursday night, Kyle Schickel (Louisville, Ky./Saint Xavier) scored a goal and had three assists in NU's win. Tommy Tombridge (Springfield, Mo./Kickapoo) started in goal and saved two shots. With the win Thursday, NU has won five-straight games and is unbeaten in its last seven.

Scouting Indiana

Indiana is 10-3-3 overall and 3-1-1 in the Big Ten. The Hoosiers have a better away record (4-1-2) than home record (4-2-1) and are unbeaten in their last five games. Eriq Zavaleta leads Indiana with eight goals and 19 points and both tallies lead the Big Ten this year. In goal, Lius Soffner has six shutouts and averages 3.73 saves per game (both rank third in the conference).

Last Time vs. the Hoosiers

Northwestern traveled to Bloomington last year and had a late lead but then-No. 25 Indiana came back for the 3-2 victory. Connor Holloway (Deerfield, Ill./Deerfield) scored his first career goal and Oliver Kupe notched another, but Indiana scored the game-winner with just over 10 minutes remaining for the victory.

Climbing up the Charts

Tyler Miller may only be a freshman, but he ranks as one of the top goalies in NU history already and in the Big Ten. He recorded his eighth shutout of the season Sunday against Wisconsin, giving him sole possession of second on NU's single-season list. His eight shutouts also ties for fifth for career shutouts. Miller also has a 0.69 goals against average overall (second in the Big Ten; third on NU's all-time list). In four Big Ten games, Miller has a 0.71 goals against average (three goals), which also ranks second.

Oliver Kupe also ranks on a number of NU all-time lists. Kupe has 50 career points, putting him at 10th in school history. He also has 20 career goals, which ties for seventh.

Hard to Beat

After starting the season 1-3-1, Northwestern is 8-1-2 in its last 11 matches, including a seven-game unbeaten streak, which is currently the longest streak in the Big Ten. The Wildcats are also unbeaten in Big Ten play, posting a 3-0-1 mark in their first four conference matches. This is the first time in NU history that the team is unbeaten in its first four conference matches. A victory Sunday would give NU a program record for Big Ten wins.

Here's a look at NU's numbers in its seven-game unbeaten streak compared to the first nine games:

	Last 7	First 9
Goals:	16	8
Goals/game:	2.29	0.89

HEAD COACH TIM LENAHAN

Head coach
TIM LENAHAN

Tim Lenahan is in his 11th season at the helm at Northwestern as the architect of a program that has undergone a metamorphosis from an also-ran to a national power. He inherited a program that had won a total of four Big Ten matches in the 10 years prior to his arrival and turned it into one that has reached the NCAA tournament in five of the last seven seasons. The team advanced to the NCAA quarterfinal round in 2006 and again in 2008. Lenahan has a 109-81-27 record at Northwestern and is 235-149-45 mark in 22 seasons overall as a head coach. A 1983 graduate of Richard Stockton College, Lenahan coached for eight seasons at his alma mater and for three more at Lafayette before coming to Evanston.

Significant Streaks

This is not the first long unbeaten streak in the Tim Lenahan era. In 11 seasons with Northwestern, the Wildcats have had eight streaks of at least five or more games where NU either won or tied in every match (including the current streak). Here is a look at the longest unbeaten streaks in the Lenahan era:

*13 games: Aug. 29 - Oct. 22, 2008

10 games: Sept. 11 - Oct. 14, 2009

8 games: Aug. 31 - Sept. 26, 2007

Shutting Them Out

The Wildcats have not lost since Sept. 30, but more impressive, they have shut out five opponents in the last month, including four-straight.

Counting on Kupe

Oliver Kupe currently leads the team with six goals. Kupe was on fire at the beginning of the season, scoring one goal in three of the first four games, but went on a six-game scoring drought before finding the back of the net against Notre Dame. He scored again at Ohio State, giving him goals in back-to-back games for the second time this season (scored back-to-back goals vs. UMKC on 9/5 and vs. Portland 9/9). Kupe is fourth in the Big Ten with six goals and fifth, scoring 0.80 points per game.

Schickel With The Assist

Kyle Schickel leads the Wildcats with a career-high six assists this year. He is tied for second in the Big Ten with an 0.38 assists per game average and his three assists against Rockford College are the most by any Big Ten player this season. Schickel also dished out multiple assists (two) against Missouri State.

NU Big Ten Player of the Week Honors

Northwestern has had five different players recognized six times by the Big Ten this season, which are both program records. Here's a list of the honorees for the 2011 season:

Tyler Miller	Defense	Sept. 5
Chris Ritter	Offense	Sept. 19
Oliver Kupe	Offense	Oct. 10
Nikko Boxall	Defense	Oct. 17
Nick Gendron	Offense	Oct. 24
Tyler Miller	Defense	Oct. 24
