NORTHWESTERN MEN'S BASKETBALL

THE OPENING TIP...

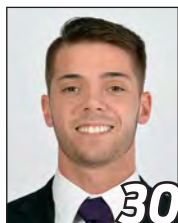

• Northwestern enters Thursday's game having won 13 straight home games dating back to last season, tying a school record. The Wildcats also won 13 in a row at Welsh-Ryan Arena in 2015 over the span of two seasons. NU is 9-0 at home after winning its final four home games last season. The 'Cats boast a 27-4 record in their last 31 games at Welsh-Ryan.

• The Wildcats saw their nine-game winning streak snapped in a 61-52 loss at Michigan State last Friday. Vic Law paced Northwestern with 16 points and 9 rebounds. NU trimmed a 19-point first-half deficit to four on three occasions in the second half but couldn't make it all the way back.

• Northwestern has one Minnesota native on its roster in redshirt senior Sanjay Lumpkin, whose father, Sean, was an All-Big Ten defensive back on the gridiron for the Golden Gophers in the 1990s. The Wildcats are 4-1 in games Lumpkin has played against his home-state school.

• Minnesota freshman Amir Coffey is the brother of All-American member of Northwestern's women's basketball team Nia Coffey. Nia is NU's all-time leader with over 1,000 rebounds in addition to her scoring nearly 2,000 points.

Of Note:

- Northwestern has won five of its last six meetings with Minnesota, including sweeping the season series a year ago. NU won 77-52 Jan. 9 in Minneapolis and 82-58 Feb. 4 in Evanston.
- The Wildcats and Golden Gophers have split their last 34 meetings since the turn of the century.

SCOUTING MINNESOTA

The Golden Gophers (13-2, 1-1 B1G) already have surpassed their win total from all of last season when they posted eight victories. Each of Minnesota's first two Big Ten games have gone to overtime, including a 91-82 victory at Purdue on Sunday. Nate Mason led the team with 31 points, 11 assists and 6 rebounds against the Boilermakers and paces the squad with an average of 14.7 points per game. Minnesota leads the Big Ten in both blocked shots (6.5 per game) and 3-point field goal percentage defense (.287).

TOUGH OPENING STRETCH

Northwestern is opening its conference season by playing four of its first five games on the road. This is the first time since the 1955-56 season that the Wildcats are opening their Big Ten season with four of their first five league games away from Evanston.

BIG MAC ATTACK

Junior guard Bryant McIntosh comes into Thursday's game needing 17 points to become the 34th all-time member of Northwestern's 1,000-point club. McIntosh already is third in school history with 447 career assists, five shy of current NU assistant coach Pat Baldwin for second place. His average of 5.6 assists per game this season ranks fourth in the Big Ten. McIntosh set the Northwestern single-season record with 213 assists last season, blowing away the previous mark of 157 set by Tim Doyle during the 2006-07 campaign.

LINDSEY'S LEAP

Scottie Lindsey is thriving in his first year as a starter. The junior leads the team and is seventh in the Big Ten in scoring (15.7 ppg) after averaging 6.4 points per game last season. The wing is the only Northwestern player to score in double figures in each of NU's first 15 games, including scoring a career-high 31 points in the Big Ten opener at Penn State Dec. 27. He is shooting 42.2 percent (35-83) from 3-point range and 89.7 percent (35-39) from the free throw line.

LAW RESTORED

Redshirt sophomore forward Vic Law has enjoyed a solid return to the Northwestern attack after missing the 2015-16 campaign due to injury. Law ranks 16th in the Big Ten with an average of 13.7 points per game. He has led NU in scoring six times, including scoring a career-high 26 vs. Eastern Washington Nov. 14. Law is second on the team with a .444 3-point field goal percentage (28-63). He connected on eight straight 3-point attempts over a three-game span from Nov. 11-16.

A DISH TO PASS

After ranking seventh nationally with a 1.59 assist-to-turnover ratio during the 2015-16 campaign, Northwestern has picked up where it left off. The Wildcats sport a 1.64 ratio (269 assists, 164 turnovers) this season ranking them first in the Big Ten and fifth in the nation. NU's average of only 10.9 turnovers per game is the 20th-best mark nationally while its 17.9 assists per game rank 16th.

SWAT TEAM

The 'Cats rank second in the Big Ten and 11th nationally with an average of 6.4 blocked shots per game. The Wildcats matched a school record when they swatted 12 shots in a Nov. 25 win over Bryant and then reached the total again in a Dec. 20 victory over IUPUI. Both Derek Pardon (Nov. 22 vs. Notre Dame) and Gavin Skelly (Dec. 20 vs. IUPUI) have blocked 6 shots in a game this year, tying them for the fifth most in a game in NU history.

DOING IT WITH DEFENSE

The Wildcats are limiting their opponents to 38.4 percent shooting from the field this season, the 22nd-best mark in the nation. Northwestern's foes shot 40.1 percent during the 2015-16 season, the school's best mark since the 1998-99 season.

SKELLY STEPS UP

Junior Gavin Skelly has been nothing short of stellar in Dererk Pardon's absence due to a hand injury suffered against Wake Forest Nov. 28. During NU's nine-game winning streak from Nov. 25-Dec. 27, Skelly came off the bench to average 11.7 points, 5.6 rebounds and 2.6 blocks per game while shooting 60.3 percent from the field. In the Dec. 20 win over IUPUI, he posted career highs in points (19), rebounds (11) and blocks (6) in recording his first career double-double.

WINNING WAYS

Northwestern won 20 regular-season games in 2015-16 for the first time in school history. The previous best was 19 wins during the 2009-10 season. NU put together a pair of impressive winning streaks during the 2015-16 season. The team's 10-game winning streak from Nov. 24-Dec. 30 was the second double-figure winning streak in school history. Also, dating back to the 2014-15 season, the Wildcats posted a school-record 13-game home winning streak. NU won its last four home games of the 2014-15 campaign before winning its first nine home games in 2015-16.

LUMPKIN, McINTOSH NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Redshirt senior Sanjay Lumpkin and junior Bryant McIntosh are serving as team captains for the 2016-17 season. Lumpkin, a native of Wayzata, Minnesota, has seen action in 116 career contests while making 105 starts with the Wildcats. A native of Greensburg, Indiana, McIntosh has started 77 of the 79 games he has appeared in through two seasons.

LAW, McINTOSH PARTICIPATE IN ELITE SUMMER CAMPS

A pair of Wildcats took part in prestigious camps during the summer of 2016. For the second straight year, Bryant McIntosh earned an invitation to serve as a college counselor at NBA MVP Stephen Curry's SC 30 Select Camp that was held in California June 28-July 1. Additionally, Vic Law participated in the same role at Under Armour's All-America Camp in Charlotte July 5-8.

FALZON UNDERGOES SEASON-ENDING KNEE SURGERY

Northwestern sophomore forward Aaron Falzon has undergone knee surgery and will miss the remainder of the Wildcats' 2016-17 season. Falzon is eligible to seek a medical hardship waiver. Falzon was limited to three appearances and 20 minutes of action this season. A year ago, the Newton, Massachusetts, native saw action in all 32 games with 29 starts while averaging 8.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game. His 63 three-pointers during the 2015-16 season were the second most by a Northwestern freshman in program history.

LUMPKIN NAMED NOMINEE FOR ALLSTATE GOOD WORKS TEAM

Senior forward Sanjay Lumpkin is a nominee for the 2017 Allstate National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Good Works Team®. The esteemed award honors an outstanding group of student-athletes who represent the sport's finest in the areas of community service and leadership among their peers. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection and team captain this season, Lumpkin has been heavily involved in community service efforts, including Relay for Life and Misericordia Candy Days, while also making yearly visits to the Illinois Youth Center, a correctional facility in Chicago. He also has made an impact in Evanston's youth community, dedicating his time and effort at the Kits, Cats and Kids Block Party in addition to being a regular visitor to Y.O.U., a local after-school program where he reads to children, answers questions and plays basketball.

WELSH-RYAN ARENA TO UNDERGO COMPLETE RENOVATION

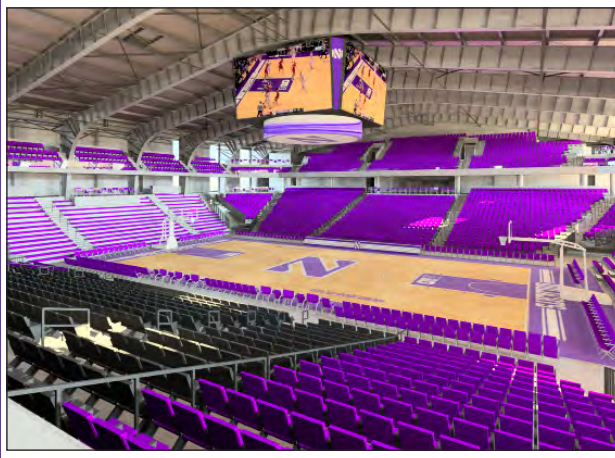

Immediately following the completion of the 2016-17 season, Welsh-Ryan Arena will undergo a complete renovation that will close off the facility until the fall of 2018.

The project is estimated at a cost of $110 million. A leadership gift from Patrick G. and Shirley W. Ryan, along with a $10 million gift from Stephen R. and Susan K. Wilson, donations from other loyal Northwestern benefactors and the existing athletics maintenance and equipment budget, will fund the project.

The project, part of the 2010 master athletics facilities plan recommendation, will entail a complete renovation of Welsh-Ryan Arena and McGaw Memorial Hall, including:

- New seating throughout the arena, with chair-back seats replacing existing wood bleachers
- Wider, more accessible concourses with improved lighting to alleviate congestion
- Improved accessibility for the mobility-impaired, with five new elevators replacing the existing one
- New restrooms, doubling the number of toilet fixtures as well as the addition of accessible family restrooms
- New concession areas with twice as many point-of-sale stations to increase efficiency, along with new food and drink offerings
- State-of-the-art lighting, audio and video capabilities in the arena
- Premium seating areas and expansion of the N-Club, which provides space for pre- and post-game events, by more than 400 percent. The club, which is located on the second floor, will be extended south onto Randy Walker Terrace at Ryan Field and provide expanded hospitality opportunities on football gamedays.
- Expansion of the building lobby by nearly 50 percent
- A new ticket office
- New locker rooms for men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball
- New offices for men's and women's basketball

Northwestern's men's basketball program has announced plans to play its home games at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Illinois, during the 2017-18 campaign.

HEAD COACH CHRIS COLLINS

61-51 CAREER RECORD (FOURTH SEASON)

Chris Collins is in his fourth season as the head coach at Northwestern. He was named the University's 24th head men's basketball coach on March 27, 2013.

In Collins' first three years at the helm, he has led Northwestern to an increased win total each season.

The 2015-16 campaign saw the Wildcats establish a school regular-season record 20 wins, including eight in Big Ten Conference play. Three of the Big Ten wins were by 20 or more points, marking the first time a Northwestern team posted three league wins by 20+ points since the 1943-44 season.

The Wildcats posted a 10-game winning streak—just the second double-figure winning streak all-time at NU—en route to a 13-1 start to the season, matching the school record for the top 14-game opening stretch in school history. The squad also notched a school-record 13-game home winning streak spanning the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons.

Northwestern ranked sixth in the nation with a 1.59 assist-to-turnover ratio paced by sophomore point guard Bryant McIntosh who recorded a school single-season record 213 assists. McIntosh earned honorable mention All-Big Ten distinction along with senior Tre Demps.

Collins' second season with the Wildcats saw the young team continue to improve throughout the season. Despite a stretch of heartbreaking losses, Northwestern showed the resilience to bounce back late in the year to post four straight Big Ten victories and five of six.

Three of the team's top six scorers were true freshmen, including McIntosh who set the school freshman record with 150 assists to go along with an average of 11.4 points per game en route to being named to the five-member Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

Demps and Alex Olah both earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition. Olah became the school's career leader in blocked shots in just three seasons and ranked third in the Big Ten with seven double-doubles.

In his first season at the helm, Collins led the Wildcats to an impressive string of road victories. Collins won his debut as a head coach, notching a 72-55 victory over Eastern Illinois Nov. 9. Northwestern's impressive string of road success began Jan. 18 at Indiana before the Wildcats earned a 65-56 win at 14th-ranked Wisconsin. The loss was just the fifth by an unranked Big Ten team in 73 games during Bo Ryan's tenure in Madison. The winning ways continued three days later when the 'Cats notched a one-point win at Minnesota, marking NU's first three-game road winning streak since 1960.

Even though second-leading scorer Cobb was lost to injury late in the season, the Wildcats finished the campaign strong, defeating Purdue on the road to wrap up the regular season before upsetting sixth-seeded Iowa in the opening round of the Big Ten tournament.

The Wildcats were greatly improved on the defensive end under Collins' guidance, holding four of their Big Ten opponents below 30 percent shooting in a game. NU allowed a mere 63.3 points per game in conference play to rank second in the league. Meanwhile, the team's .419 opponents field goal percentage ranked third in the Big Ten.

Collins came to Evanston after serving on the coaching staff at Duke since July 22, 2000. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2008. During Collins' 13 seasons on the Blue Devils' staff, Duke posted an overall record of 385-77 while recording eight ACC tournament championships, four ACC regular season titles, eight in-season tournament titles and national championships in 2001 and 2010.

Collins worked primarily with backcourt players during his time at Duke and tutored All-Americans Jason Williams, Mike Dunleavy, Chris Duhon, J.J. Redick, Gerald Henderson, DeMarcus Nelson, Jon Scheyer, Nolan Smith and Austin Rivers, in addition to NBA draft picks Daniel Ewing, Kyrie Irving and Kyle Singler.

Before returning to his alma mater, Collins served as an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two years with Tommy Amaker. In 1999-2000, Collins was part of a staff that guided the Pirates to a 22-10 record and the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament. Prior to Seton Hall, Collins spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant with the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Collins played professional basketball in Finland during the 1996-97 season, leading the league in scoring.

Collins also served as a court coach and scout for Mike Krzyzewski, assisting the USA Basketball Senior National Team staff with on-court duties as well as game preparation from 2006-12, including during the program's gold-medal performances at the 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championships and 2012 London Olympics. During the summer of 2014, he served as the coach of the USA Select Team which consisted of a group of up-and-coming NBA players who practiced against the USA National Team in preparation for the National Team's participation in the FIBA World Cup.

Collins is the son of former NBA All-Star and coach, Doug Collins, who is currently an NBA television analyst for ESPN. A native of nearby Northbrook, Ill., Collins is a 1996 graduate of Duke with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Collins and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ryan and Kate.

COACH/PLAYER AVAILABILITY

Interviews with Northwestern players and coaches are available to the media upon request throughout the season. To arrange an interview, please contact the athletic communications office. Please place your request at least 24 hours in advance. Interview availability is 30 minutes prior to the start of practice. All pre-practice interviews with players should be concluded well before the start of practice. As a Northwestern policy, players are not permitted to participate in live radio or television call-in shows. Player home telephone numbers will not be made available to media members, and they have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the athletic communications office.

WILDCATS ONLINE

The official website of Northwestern Athletics is NUsports.com. Updated daily, the site includes NU's basketball releases and features many other basketball related information. Live in-game Twitter updates will be provided at @NU_SportsLIVE. The official Twitter account of the Northwestern men's basketball team is @NUMensBball, while the official Northwestern Athletics account is @NU_Sports. Head coach Chris Collins' Twitter handle is @coach_collins. The official Facebook page of the Northwestern men's basketball team can be found at facebook.com/northwesternmbb. Northwestern's Athletics' official page is facebook.com/northwesternAthletics. The official Instagram account of the men's basketball program is numensbball while the official main Northwestern Athletics Instagram is nu_sports. Northwestern Athletics is also on YouTube at youtube.com/user/NUAthletics.

GAME CREDENTIALS

For any media wishing to obtain a credential for any home game, please apply at www.sportssystems.com/northwestern/basketball. Credentials may be picked up at the athletic communications office in Anderson Hall on game day. They can also be picked up at Will Call which is located at the east ticket office in the main lobby of Welsh-Ryan Arena. Doors open 90 minutes prior to game time.

POSTGAME PROCEDURE

Following a cooling off period after the conclusion of the game, Coach Collins, Northwestern players and the visiting coach will be available for a postgame news conference. Requests for Wildcats player interviews should be made to Northwestern SID Nick Brilowski prior to the end of the game. Requests for visiting players should be made to the visiting SID.

"POUND THE ROCK" IS WILDCATS' MANTRA

Since head coach Chris Collins arrived in April 2013, the Wildcats have adopted the mantra of "Pound The Rock." The Wildcats have a rock in their locker room, and above it is a quote from Jacob A. Riis. The quote reads:

"When nothing seems to help, I go look at a stonecutter hammering away at his rock perhaps a hundred times without as much as a crack showing in it. Yet at the hundred and first blow it will split in two, and I know it was not that blow that did it, but all that had gone before."

The mantra is one that also has been adopted by the NBA's San Antonio Spurs.

Game 1

NU 94, Mississippi Valley State 63

Nov. 11, 2016 • Evanston, Ill.

Vic Law scored a career-high 18 points with six rebounds and Scottie Lindsey added 17 points and five boards as Northwestern swept aside Mississippi Valley State 94-63 in the season-opener for both teams at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Sanjay Lumpkin stuffed the stat sheet, recording 11 points, eight rebounds, and a pair each of blocks and assists, and Bryant McIntosh added 11 points and four assists. Ten of the 11 Wildcats who played scored multiple baskets as Northwestern racked up 21 assists. A 12-2 run gave Northwestern a 17-8 lead after five and a half minutes. Law's hot start included draining back-to-back threes, giving him 10 points and an assist after just six minutes. An 11-4 Northwestern run midway through the half gave the Wildcats a commanding 37-19 lead. Dererk Pardon showed his mettle in the middle, scoring at the rim on consecutive possessions. Lindsey knocked down a three just before the half to bring his game-leading total to 13, as Northwestern went into the half leading 46-28. Law again opened the second half just as hot as he had the first, finishing off an alley-oop from Isiah Brown, before adding a free throw and a three minutes later to put the #B1GCats ahead 57-35 four minutes into the half. Northwestern's defense continued to keep MVSU at bay in the second, holding the Delta Devils to just 37 percent shooting for the night. Additionally, the Wildcats turned 12 turnovers into 17 points. Freshman Isiah Brown posted 11 points and four assists in his collegiate debut while Gavin Skelly enjoyed a solid all-around game with 7 points, 5 rebounds, 3 assists and a career-high 4 blocked shots. Northwestern shot 50 percent from the field in winning its ninth straight season-opener.

Game 2

NU 86, Eastern Washington 72

Nov. 14, 2016 • Evanston, Ill.

Five Wildcats scored in double-figures as Northwestern won the first game of the Legends Classic 86-72 against Eastern Washington at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Vic Law led the way with a new career-high 26 points, topping his previous high of 18 set last Friday. Bryant McIntosh added 18 points and 7 assists. Dererk Pardon contributed 12 points, 5 rebounds, and a career-high 5 blocks while Scottie Lindsey posted 12 points, 6 rebounds and 6 assists. The Wildcats were the first to attack, opening the game on a 24-9 run. Law went on a 7-0 run of his own, hitting a floater, three-pointer, and two free throws in the process. He led Northwestern with 14 points in the first half. The first half contained a big run by each team, however, as Eastern Washington responded strongly, going on a 15-8 run of their own. The Eagles were ignited by junior Bogdan Bliznyuk, who led all scorers with 20 first-half points. Lindsey put in a wide-open layup off a feed from McIntosh just before the buzzer putting Northwestern's halftime lead at 46-38. The Wildcats benefited from their ability to contain Bliznyuk in the second half, holding him to just five points, after he anchored the Eagle's offense early on. With the Eagles' best player stagnant, and the Wildcats working together as a team, Eastern Washington could never gain enough momentum to close the gap. Northwestern dished out 17 assists with only 5 turnovers in the contest while connecting on 23 of 26 attempts from the free throw line.

Game 3

Butler 70, NU 68

Nov. 16, 2016 • Indianapolis, Ind.

Vic Law scored 17 points, but Northwestern was clipped at the buzzer by Butler, 70-68, at Hinkle Fieldhouse. Kamar Baldwin's stepback jumper with 0.4 seconds remaining broke a tie score and was the difference. The contest featured 17 ties and 16 lead changes. Bryant McIntosh (12), Scottie Lindsey (10) and Sanjay Lumpkin (10) joined Law in double figures for the 'Cats. The Wildcats' solid defensive start saw them hold Butler to just six field goals in their first 23 attempts. With the score tied at 29 with just over a minute to go, Law drilled his third triple of the stanza in as many attempts helping the Wildcats take a 32-29 lead into the intermission. Both offenses came out on fire to open the second half with Kelan Martin scoring eight points in the first four minutes for Butler and Lindsey tallying five for the 'Cats. Law drained his fourth 3-pointer in as many tries as NU went up 42-39. However, Martin stayed red-hot, hitting his third trey of the half, putting the Bulldogs up 46-42. Butler's lead spanned between three and five points for a five-minute span but a 3-pointer by Gavin Skelly with 7:07 to go put NU in front before Law's fifth triple made it 60-54 with just under six minutes left. However, a 13-5 run by the hosts but the Bulldogs up by two before a layup by Lumpkin knotted the score at 67 with 1:42 remaining. Skelly hit one free throw with 1:03 remaining before Andrew Chrabascz also split a pair to tie the game for the 17th time with 53.4 seconds left. Following an NU turnover on the other end, Butler called a timeout, setting up the Bulldogs' game-winner.

Game 4

NU 77, #22/21 Texas 58

Nov. 21, 2016 • Brooklyn, N.Y.

Northwestern knocked off No. 22/21 Texas, 77-58, in the Legends Classic to advance to the championship game at Barclays Center. Junior Bryant McIntosh scored a game-high 20 points to lead four Northwestern players who tallied double-figures. Scottie Lindsey scored 16 points and Isaiah Brown chipped in 10, while Dererk Pardon recorded his first double-double of the season on 10 points and 11 rebounds. Northwestern put together a complete game, shooting 48.2 percent (27-of-56) from the field and holding Texas to just 37.3 percent (19-of-51) shooting. NU forced 14 turnovers and grabbed 40 rebounds, 10 of which came on the offensive end. Northwestern set the tone of the game early by jumping out to an 11-0 lead. The #B1GCats high level of play was not limited to the offensive end as the team forced five turnovers on Texas' first six possessions. With Northwestern leading 15-5 at the 12:01 mark of the first half, Texas' Andrew Jones drilled a 3-pointer that jump-started a 15-5 run for the Longhorns to pull the score even at 20-20. Following the Longhorns' surge, Northwestern settled down and retook control of the game. Lindsey and Taphorn combined for eight points over the final 3:48 of the first half and Northwestern kept Texas out of the score column during that period to take a 34-26 lead into the locker room. The Wildcats started the second half much like how they started the game. Sanjay Lumpkin scored five straight points to help Northwestern go on a 10-1 run to start the half. Northwestern did not take its foot off the gas for the remainder of the game.

Game 5

Notre Dame 70, NU 66

Nov. 22, 2016 • Brooklyn, N.Y.

Northwestern overcame a 12-point deficit in the second half, but it was not enough as Notre Dame hung on to win the Legends Classic title, 70-66, at Barclays Center. Scottie Lindsey led the Wildcats with 18 points, while Vic Law chipped in 14 and Nathan Taphorn had a season-high 12. Dererk Pardon blocked a career-best 6 shots. After Notre Dame built a 9-6 lead to start the game, Lindsey scored eight consecutive points to put the #B1GCats in front, 14-12, at the 14:15 mark of the first half. Notre Dame countered with an 8-0 run to take the lead and the Fighting Irish held that lead until 6:43 of the second half. Law chipped in nine points in the first half to pair with Lindsey's 11 to keep the Wildcats within two-possession at the break, 40-34. The game of runs continued in the second half as the Fighting Irish started the period with an 8-2 run and eventually built a 50-40 lead. With 13:22 to play in the second half and the Wildcats trailing, 53-48, Law hit one of his two 3-pointers to jumpstart a 9-2 run and bring Northwestern within a point, 55-54. Freshman Isaiah Brown hit a pair of free throws to tie the game, 58-58, with just over seven minutes to play in the contest. Taphorn and Bryant McIntosh then connected on back-to-back 3-pointers to give Northwestern it's largest lead of the game, 64-58, at the 6:17 mark. Seven straight points by Notre Dame gave the Fighting Irish a one-point lead, but a basket by McIntosh put the Wildcats back up by one. However, a three-point play by Matt Farrell and then two free throws by Farrell following a Northwestern miss on the other end sealed the win for the Fighting Irish.

Game 6

NU 86, Bryant 66

Nov. 25, 2016 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern opened a five-game homestand by topping Bryant, 86-66, in the final game of the 2016 Legends Classic at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Vic Law was Northwestern's leading scorer for the fourth time this season by scoring a team-high 22 points, while Scottie Lindsey chipped in a season-high 20 points and Gavin Skelly tallied a career-high 15. Northwestern matched a school record with 12 blocked shots in the contest, as Law turned away a career-high four shot attempts and Skelly recorded three blocks. Bryant was led by Nisre Zouzoua, who shot 9-of-19 from the field to score a game-high 24 points, while Adam Grant chipped in 19 points. As a team, Northwestern shot 47.7-percent from the field on 31-of-65 shooting. The 31 field goals made were one shy of its season-high mark and the 65 shot attempts were the most it has taken in a game this season. Northwestern held control of Friday's game from the opening tip. Lindsey scored the Wildcats' first five points of the game and helped NU build a 17-5 lead just seven minutes into the contest. Lindsey hit one of his three 3-pointers with 6:22 left in the first half to put the 'Cats up, 32-11, and give NU its largest lead of the first half. The Wildcats were good with the basketball in their hands in the opening 20 minutes, recording 13 assists to only four turnovers. Northwestern would go on to tally a season-high 25 assists in the game. Northwestern held a 38-23 lead at the break. Bryant showed energy by starting the second half with five-straight points and eventually closing the deficit to three points when Zouzoua hit a triple to make it, 42-39, with 15:29 to play. That was as close as Bryant would come to catching Northwestern, as the Wildcats answered with a 16-2 run to bust the game wide open and eventually go on to win, 86-66.

Game 7

NU 65, Wake Forest 58

Nov. 28, 2016 • Evanston, Ill.

Bryant McIntosh poured in 19 second-half points to lead a surging Northwestern past Wake Forest, 65-58, in the ACC/B1G Challenge. He finished with a game-high 23 points. The 'Cats relied on a staunch defensive effort led by Lumpkin, who had seven rebounds, three steals and one block. NU held the Demon Deacons to just 31.1 percent shooting for the game. The Wildcats got off to a slow start and the Demon Deacons took advantage, opening the game on a 12-5 run. Northwestern responded with an 11-2 run ignited by a Vic Law three, taking a 16-14 lead at the 12-minute mark. It was Wake Forest's turn to strike again and it responded with a 10-0 run, retaking the lead 24-16. A Skelly three-pointer capped off a Northwestern 10-0 run to answer, putting NU back on top 26-24. The teams traded baskets in the final five minutes, and the Demon Deacons entered the half with a 31-30 lead. The teams went back and forth in the second half, but McIntosh started to take charge. At the 12-minute mark he went on a 6-0 run of his own, putting in three consecutive layups that put the 'Cats up 44-42 with 11 minutes to go. The game was tied at 53 with 3:25 left when McIntosh took over. He added eight more points in that final stretch, including a corner three as the shot clock expired to give the Wildcats a 61-55 lead with just one minute left. Lumpkin tacked on two breakaway layups in the final 20 seconds, capping off the victory. Northwestern made 50 percent of its shots in the second half, while holding Wake Forest to 27.3 percent. The 'Cats committed only 10 turnovers, compared to 19 from the Demon Deacons.

Game 9

NU 83, New Orleans 49

Dec. 11, 2016 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern forced a season-high 21 turnovers and remained perfect at Welsh-Ryan Arena during the 2016-17 season by rolling to an 83-49 victory over New Orleans. Nathan Taphorn established a career high with 18 points off the bench while Scottie Lindsey scored 13 of his 16 points in the first half. The Wildcats got off to a solid start, jumping out to a 7-2 lead as Bryant McIntosh buried a 3-pointer before dishing out a pair of assists. Northwestern was stout defensively to begin the contest, limiting the Privateers to only two field goals while forcing seven turnovers over the opening 10 minutes of the stanza. Lindsey scored five points during an 11-2 run over a four-minute span that saw the 'Cats extend their advantage to 18-7. The lead was 24-15 when Northwestern gave itself some breathing room with yet another 11-2 run. Skelly sparked the run by knocking down a pair of free throws prior to grabbing an offensive rebound and kicking it out to a wide-open Taphorn for a triple. Following a New Orleans basket, Lindsey connected on three straight field goals, forcing the Privateers to burn a timeout as NU's lead grew to 37-18. Northwestern eventually took a 43-22 advantage into the intermission behind 13 points from Lindsey, while McIntosh (5 assists) and Taphorn contributed 7 points apiece. The 'Cats limited UNO to 31.8 percent shooting over the opening 20 minutes of play while forcing 11 turnovers by the Privateers. NU put the game away early on in the second half, out-scoring New Orleans 12-2 over the first four minutes of the stanza as the hosts stretched their lead to 31, 55-24. The run to open the half eventually grew to 22-2 over the opening 7:30 of the period with the advantage ballooning to 41, 65-24, with just under 13 minutes remaining and NU cruised the rest of the way.

Game 10

NU 68, Chicago State 64

Dec. 14, 2016 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern fought off a surge by Chicago State to escape with a 68-64 win at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Vic Law paced the Wildcats with 18 points. Chicago State was able to hang around early in the contest by knocking down a trio of 3-pointers as the game was knotted 9-9 eight minutes into the contest. A quick 7-0 NU run over a span of 1:34 gave the hosts a bit of breathing room. The Cougars closed back within two, but an 11-0 run over a five-minute span behind six points by Law extended NU's advantage to 27-14 with five minutes left in the opening stanza. Northwestern would eventually take a 29-21 lead into the intermission. The Wildcats extended their advantage to 14, but Chicago State connected on four straight field goal attempts to cut the deficit in half and forcing Northwestern to take a timeout with 12:17 remaining. The Cougars' 10th 3-pointer of the night in 18 attempts eventually tied the game 46-46 at the midway point of the half before Chicago State went in front on a free throw by Fred Sims Jr. The Cougars were up by two before back-to-back buckets by Scottie Lindsey and McIntosh gave Northwestern a slim 54-52 edge with 6:07 to go. A trey by Law out of the corner just over a minute later extended the lead to five. Four straight points got the Cougars within one, but a big 3-pointer by McIntosh with 1:46 remaining made it a four-point game. Following a steal by Lindsey, McIntosh found Gavin Skelly under the basket for a layup to make it 64-58 with a minute left. A tough triple by Anthony Eaves got Chicago State back within three but the Wildcats broke the press and Lumpkin scored on a layup with 35.2 seconds left. McIntosh then sealed the win with two free throws with 19.1 seconds to go.

Game 11

NU 67, Dayton 64

Dec. 17, 2016 • Chicago, Ill.

Northwestern put together a magnificent first-half performance and then held on a late charge by Dayton to post a 67-64 victory at United Center. Sanjay Lumpkin recorded a double-double, tallying 14 points and a career-high 14 rebounds. The Wildcats surged early, locking down on Dayton defensively while tallying the first 11 points of the contest, forcing the Flyers to burn a timeout at the 16:21 mark. Lindsey got NU going by drilling a pair of 3-pointers in the opening three minutes of action. The Flyers crept back to within 13-8, but Isiah Brown pushed the lead back to eight with a triple. Taphorn got into the act with a trey of his own, igniting an 18-3 run that pushed the advantage to a 36-12 as the clock ticked under three minutes left in the first period. The Wildcats would take a convincing 40-17 lead into halftime, limiting Dayton to 14.3 percent (4-28) shooting from the field. Dayton was much more effective offensively to start the second half. The Flyers got as close as they had been all game when they connected on back-to-back 3-pointers to trim NU's advantage to 55-41 with 8:11 left. The Dayton run eventually reached 13 straight points and cut the Northwestern lead to nine before Vic Law hit one free throw to make it 56-46 with 5:51 to go. The Flyers closed the deficit further with 2:17 left when Scochie Smith hit a free throw to make it 59-52. Dayton made it a four-point game on a 3-pointer by Smith, but a cold-blooded jumper by McIntosh pushed the lead to six with a minute remaining. Dayton got within three with 9.2 seconds remaining, but McIntosh hit two from the line with 7.8 seconds to go to seal the win.

Game 12

NU 87, IUPUI 65

Dec. 20, 2016 • Evanston, Ill.

Gavin Skelly and Sanjay Lumpkin recorded double-doubles to lead Northwestern to a seventh-straight victory as the Wildcats defeated IUPUI 87-65 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Skelly set career highs with 19 points, 11 rebounds and 6 blocked shots while Lumpkin posted 13 points and 13 rebounds. Bryant McIntosh nearly recorded a double-double of his own, recording 10 points and 9 assists. In all, six Northwestern players scored in double figures in the balanced offensive attack while the Wildcats matched a school record and season high with 12 blocked shots. The Wildcats were clicking early on the offensive end as they scored on each of their first four field goal attempts in jumping out to a 9-4 lead. Scottie Lindsey had two quick baskets but picked up his second foul just over three minutes into the game, forcing him to the bench. The advantage eventually grew to nine, 13-4, as Northwestern limited the Jaguars to only two field goals in their first 10 attempts. Meanwhile, the 'Cats stayed hot from the field with baskets by Isiah Brown and Nathan Taphorn eventually extending the lead to 21-7, forcing IUPUI to burn a timeout with 11:16 remaining in the half. The Jaguars eventually got things going offensively, using a 9-1 run to close to within six, 25-19, but a 3-pointer by Taphorn, a putback basket by Lumpkin and a layup by Skelly extended the advantage back to 13. Northwestern eventually took a 46-31 halftime lead as McIntosh splashed a triple that beat the first-half buzzer. The Wildcats kept things going into the second half. A second straight 3-pointer by Brown pushed NU's advantage to 58-39 with just over 14 minutes remaining. The lead grew to 25 by the midway point of the stanza and Northwestern cruised the rest of the way.

Game 13

NU 72, Houston Baptist 63

Dec. 22, 2016 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern used a solid defensive effort in the second half to overcome a slow start to earn a 72-63 victory over Houston Baptist at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Scottie Lindsey paced four Wildcats in double figures with 19 points. The Huskies got off to a good start offensively and led the Wildcats 16-11 eight minutes into the contest. A 3-pointer by Lindsey trimmed the NU deficit to two, but Houston Baptist responded by pushing its lead to seven, 23-16, as the clock went under 8 minutes left in the opening half. Houston Baptist eventually took a 35-25 halftime lead as Northwestern managed just 26.7 percent shooting (8-30) over the opening 20 minutes of play. The Huskies, meanwhile, connected on 53.8 percent (14-26) of their first-half field goal attempts. NU pecked away at the deficit at the start of the second period as 3-pointers by Sanjay Lumpkin and Bryant McIntosh got the Wildcats within four just over two minutes into the half. Northwestern twice got within one before a putback basket by Lumpkin gave the 'Cats a 45-44 lead as the clock went under 13 minutes remaining. Trailing by a point, Lindsey nailed a corner triple before Brown made a pair from the charity stripe and then scored in the lane, giving NU a 52-46 advantage with 9 minutes left. The Wildcats' lead was still at six when Vic Law grabbed an offensive rebound and scored to make it 58-50 with 5 minutes to go. Law's three-point play a minute later extended the advantage to 11 and Houston Baptist was unable to get closer than six the rest of the way.
