The Opening Tip...

• Northwestern is opening up a five-game homestand to conclude its nonconference season, including playing its next four games over a nine-day span.

• Northwestern hung with No. 23 Butler throughout their contest last Saturday at Hinkle Fieldhouse, but a late five-point run helped the Bulldogs post a 65-56 victory. Freshman Bryant McIntosh came off the bench for the first time this season to lead the Wildcats with 12 points and 5 assists.

• Last Saturday's game at Butler marked the first time that Northwestern had two players score in double figures off the bench since a contest against UCLA in Las Vegas Nov. 29 of last season. In addition to McIntosh's 12 points, fellow freshman Vic Law scored 10 vs. the Bulldogs. It was the first time coming off the bench this season for both players.

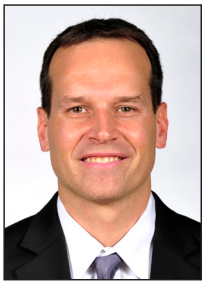
HEAD COACH CHRIS COLLINS
19-22 CAREER RECORD (SECOND SEASON)



Chris Collins was named the 24th head men's basketball coach at Northwestern University on March 27, 2013.

In his first season at the helm, Collins led the Wildcats to a 14-19 record, including an impressive string of road victories.

Collins won his debut as a head coach, notching a 72-55 victory over Eastern Illinois Nov. 9. He traversed the 'Cats through a grinding Big Ten schedule, including earning his first conference triumph at home against 23rd-ranked Illinois Jan. 12.

Northwestern's impressive string of road success began Jan. 18 at Indiana before the Wildcats earned a 65-56 win at 14th-ranked Wisconsin. The loss was just the fifth by an unranked Big Ten team in 73 games during Bo Ryan's tenure in Madison. The winning ways continued three days later when the 'Cats notched a one-point win at Minnesota, marking NU's first three-game road winning streak since 1960.

Despite the loss of second-leading scorer JerShon Cobb to injury late in the season, the Wildcats finished the season strong as they defeated Purdue on the road to wrap up the regular season before upsetting sixth-seeded Iowa in the opening round of the Big Ten tournament.

The Wildcats were greatly improved on the defensive end under Collins' guidance, holding four of their Big Ten opponents below 30 percent shooting in a game. NU allowed a mere 63.3 points per game in conference play to rank second in the league. Meanwhile, the team's .419 opponents field goal percentage ranked third in the Big Ten.

Collins came to Evanston after serving on the coaching staff at Duke since July 22, 2000. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2008. During Collins' 13 seasons on the Blue Devils' staff, Duke posted an overall record of 385-77 while recording eight ACC tournament championships, four ACC regular season titles, eight in-season tournament titles and national championships in 2001 and 2010.

Collins worked primarily with backcourt players during his time at Duke and tutored All-Americans Jason Williams, Mike Dunleavy, Chris Duhon, J.J. Redick, Gerald Henderson, DeMarcus Nelson, Jon Scheyer, Nolan Smith and Austin Rivers, in addition to NBA draft picks Daniel Ewing, Kyrie Irving and Kyle Singler.

Before returning to his alma mater, Collins served as an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two years with Tommy Amaker. In 1999-2000, Collins was part of a staff that guided the Pirates to a 22-10 record and the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament. Prior to Seton Hall, Collins spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant with the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Collins played professional basketball in Finland during the 1996-97 season, leading the league in scoring.

Collins also served as a court coach and scout for Mike Krzyzewski, assisting the USA Basketball Senior National Team staff with on-court duties as well as game preparation from 2006-12, including during the program's gold-medal performances at the 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championships and 2012 London Olympics. During the summer of 2014, he served as the coach of the USA Select Team which consisted of a group of up-and-coming NBA players who practiced against the USA National Team in preparation for the National Team's participation in the FIBA World Cup.

Collins is the son of former NBA All-Star and coach, Doug Collins, who is currently an NBA television analyst for ESPN. A native of nearby Northbrook, Ill., Collins is a 1996 graduate of Duke with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Collins and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ryan and Kate.

SCOUTING MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE

• The Delta Devils enter tonight's contest with a 1-7 record and have yet to play a home game this season. Most recently, MVSU suffered a 74-50 loss at Oregon State Dec. 3.
• Redshirt sophomore guard Jordan Washington leads the Delta Devils with an average of 14.8 points per game while shooting 39.5 percent from 3-point range. Opponents hold a +17.5 rebounding margin advantage over MVSU.
• Andre Payne is in his first season as the head coach at Mississippi Valley State. He was previously the head coach at Wiley College in Texas.

DOING IT WITH DEFENSE

Northwestern has not allowed an opponent to score 70 points in a game since Feb. 19 of last season. It's the furthest date back of any active streak in the nation. The stretch spans 14 straight games which is the second-longest total in the nation behind only Virginia (15).

HELPING HAND

It hasn't taken freshman point guard Bryant McIntosh long to establish himself as one of the top distributors in the Big Ten. He enters play this weekend ranked sixth in the league with an average of 5.0 assists per game. McIntosh has twice handed out a season-high 7 assists: vs. Elon (Nov. 22), vs. Georgia Tech (Dec. 3).

BLOCK PARTY

Northwestern set a school record for blocked shots in a half Nov. 25 against Miami (Ohio) with 10. The Wildcats had 10 blocks total in the game, a mark that tie for third all-time in a game. The school record for blocks in a game is 12 vs. Purdue on Feb. 2, 2013. Alex Olah had four blocks vs. the RedHawks. He currently has 102 career blocks, the fifth best mark in school history. Olah's average of 2.3 blocks per game this season ranks third in the Big Ten. Freshman Gavin Skelly added three blocks against Miami for the second straight game.

CAPTAIN CLUTCH DELIVERS AGAIN

No one should surprised that Tre Demps delivered in the clutch when he hit the game-winning shot in back-to-back games vs. North Florida Nov. 20 and Elon Nov. 22. If the redshirt junior has proven anything over the last year, it's that he has a flair for the dramatic. Last season, Demps hit three late 3-pointers to defeat No. 23 Illinois. Six days later, NU trailed Indiana by three with seven minutes to go when Demps scored the Wildcats' next 13 points during a 13-4 run that keyed another victory. Against Purdue on Jan. 21, Demps scored 11 of his 19 points in the final 3:11 of regulation or the two overtime sessions, including hitting game-tying 3-pointers with 3:11 to go in the second half and 1:36 to go in the first OT. He tallied seven of his 10 points during a decisive 30-9 second half run that turned a six-point deficit into a 15-point lead at Wisconsin Jan. 29. Three days later with the game at Minnesota tied 52-52, Demps' 3-pointer with 55 seconds remaining were the decisive points in a 55-54 NU victory.

DEMPS NAMED CANDIDATE FOR ALLSTATE GOOD WORKS TEAM

Redshirt junior guard Tre Demps has been named a candidate for the AllState Good Works Team. Demps has been heavily involved in the community. Among the projects he has been involved in are Relay for Life, Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago, Breaststroke for Breast Cancer, Illinois Youth Center, Dance Marathon and numerous school visits among various other causes.

DOUBLE DOWN

The Wildcats have had two indviduals record a total of three double-doubles this season. After Alex Olah recorded 21 points and 10 rebounds against Houston Baptist, Sanjay Lumpkin notched 15 points and 12 rebounds vs. Brown. Lumpkin's point total topped his previous career high of 13 achieved against Mississippi Valley State last season, while the rebounding total matched a career high. Lumpkin posted a team-best four double-digit rebound games a year ago as a redshirt freshman. Olah notched his second double-double when he posted 19 points and 10 boards vs. Georgia Tech Dec. 3 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge.

DAZZLING DEBUTS

True freshmen Vic Law and Bryant McIntosh both were outstanding in their first collegiate game against Houston Baptist on Nov. 14. Both players got the start in the contest. Law, a forward, finished with 13 points and 7 rebounds. Meanwhile, point guard McIntosh posted 12

FALK EARNS SELECTION TO NORTHWESTERN ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Former Northwestern basketball athlete and coach Rich Falk has earned a selection to the Northwestern Athletics Hall of Fame it was announced Nov. 21. Falk played for NU from 1961-64, scoring over 1,000 points in his three-year career and earned All-Big Ten recognition in 1963 and 1964. As a senior, Falk established the Northwestern single-game scoring record with 49 points in a game against Iowa—a record that still stands today. Falk returned to NU as an assistant coach in 1966, serving in that role for three seasons. He left the profession for three years, but returned in 1972 for another six-year stint. Falk served as the Wildcats' head coach from 1978-86 and led the program to its first-ever postseason berth in 1983 when the team defeated Notre Dame in the NIT.

TRIO ELECTED 2014 TEAM CAPTAINS

Redshirt senior JerShon Cobb, senior Dave Sobolewski and redshirt junior Tre Demps were the three individuals selected by their teammates to serve as team captains for the 2014-15 season. Sobolewski served in the role alongside Drew Crawford last season. He ranks sixth in school history with 313 career assists. Sobolewski's 733 career points are tops among all NU players. Cobb posted career-best averages of 12.2 points and 4.8 rebounds per game last season. Demps provided the 'Cats with a huge boost off the bench a year ago. His average of 11.0 points per game ranked among the nation's leaders for individuals who primarily came off the bench.

TALENTED FRESHMAN CLASS JUMPS ON BOARD

Head coach Chris Collins and his staff assembled an outstanding first recruiting class as this year's group of freshmen rank as the 31st-best recruiting class in the nation according to ESPN.com. Northwestern welcomes in seven newcomers this season: five scholarship freshmen (Vic Law, Scottie Lindsey, Bryant McIntosh, Gavin Skelly, Johnnie Vassar) one freshman walk-on (Nick Segura) and one fifth-year transfer (Jeremiah Kreisberg).

HUMPHREY JOINS NORTHWESTERN STAFF

Ryan Humphrey, a former standout forward at Oklahoma and Notre Dame, has joined the Wildcats' staff this season as the director of player development. He replaces Chris Quinn who accepted a similar position with the NBA's Miami Heat. Following his collegiate career, Humphrey was a first-round draft pick of the Utah Jazz but was acquired in a draft-day trade with the Orlando Magic. In addition to the Magic, he also played in the NBA with the Memphis Grizzlies before playing several seasons in Europe as well in in the NBA Development League with the Tulsa 66ers.

NBA CONNECTIONS

Northwestern has two individuals on the team with direct connections to the NBA. Redshirt junior Tre Demps is the son of Dell Demps, an NBA veteran who is currently the general manager of the New Orleans Pelicans. Redshirt sophomore Sanjay Lumpkin is the stepson of Jim Petersen, a former NBA player and current assistant coach for the WNBA champion Minnesota Lynx. Lumpkin's father, Sean, also played defensive back in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints following a standout career at the University of Minnesota.

BIG TEN (RE)LOADED FOR 2014-15

After being considered by most pundits the top conference in the nation a year ago, the Big Ten appears primed to be a dog (or cat) fight again this season. Northwestern looks to have drawn one of the toughest slates in the unbalanced 18-game league schedule.

Teams Northwestern plays twice—
Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Wisconsin
Teams Northwestern playes once—
Home: Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue
Away: Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, Rutgers

NORTHWESTERN ANNOUNCES EXPANDED OFFERINGS FOR NUT ALLERGY COMMUNITY

Northwestern's Welsh-Ryan Arena will be taking special measures to welcome families managing peanut and tree-nut allergies during the remainder of 2014. The Peanut/Tree Nut (PTN) Program include the Wildcats' 10 home games in November and December. It was also in effect for the first three home football games, as well as six women's basketball contests, three wrestling events and all 18 home volleyball matches. In order to create a safe environment for individuals with peanut and tree-nut allergies, no products containing peanuts or tree-nuts will be sold at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Both venues have undergone extensive cleaning to ensure that no peanut or tree-nut material remains anywhere in the facility.

UP NEXT...

Northwestern continues its busy stretch of four games in nine days Wednesday when it hosts Central Michigan at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Tip-off is set for 7 p.m.

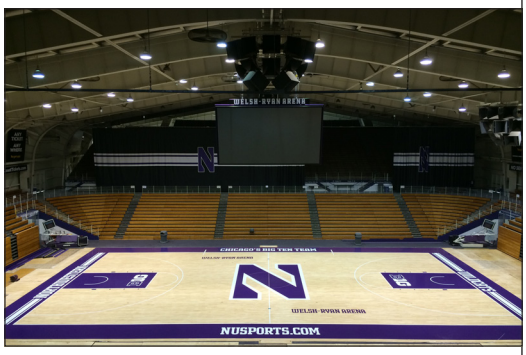
WELSH-RYAN ARENA GETS A NEW LOOK FOR 2014-15 SEASON



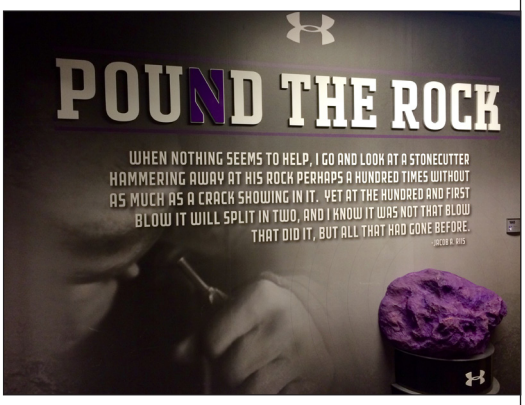
Individuals attending Northwestern contests at Welsh-Ryan Arena during the 2014-15 season will experience the Wildcats as they never have before thanks to the addition of four high-definition quality video boards.

A center-hung two-sided display will faces the north and south sides of the arena with each of the two boards measuring 23 feet wide and covering 280 square feet. Additionally, boards are mounted on both the east and west walls of the facility behind each basket. Those displays are 25 feet wide and cover 238 square feet.

Northwestern's procurement of enhanced video display capabilities in Ryan Field was achieved in conjunction with Anthony James Partners (AJP), one of the leading audio/video consultants in the marketplace. AJP previously has been responsible for implementing displays at venues including Spartan Stadium and the Breslin Center (Michigan State), Ohio Stadium (Ohio State), Lambeau Field (Green Bay Packers) and many other professional and collegiate venues.

In addition, the Welsh-Ryan Arena court has a new design for the 2014-15 campaign. The new look was designed by Under Armour and was implemented in late August.

"POUND THE ROCK" IS WILDCATS' MANTRA



Since head coach Chris Collins arrived in April 2013, the Wildcats have adopted the mantra of "Pound The Rock." The Wildcats have a rock in their locker room, and above it is a quote from Jacob A. Riis. The quote reads:

"When nothing seems to help, I go look at a stonecutter hammering away at his rock perhaps a hundred times without as much as a crack showing in it. Yet at the hundred and first blow it will split in two, and I know it was not that blow that did it, but all that had gone before."

The mantra is one that also has been adopted by the NBA's San Antonio Spurs.

Game 1
NU 65, Houston Baptist 58
Nov. 14, 2014 • Evanston, Ill.

Alex Olah's 18 second-half points and Northwestern's freshman duo of Vic Law and Bryant McIntosh led the Wildcats to a 65-58 win over Houston Baptist, marking the Wildcats' seventh straight season-opening victory. Law and McIntosh combined for 25 points, with the latter putting forth another all-around effort behind six assists and four rebounds. Redshirt sophomore Sanjay Lumpkin added seven points on 3-of-4 shooting, and seven different players had multiple rebounds for the Wildcats. After Houston Baptist grabbed 12 of the game's first 14 points, Law scored each of Northwestern's next five, and Lumpkin knocked down a wide-open three-pointer--his first shot of the season--to bring the deficit down to four. With just over three minutes remaining in the half, freshman guard Scottie Lindsey hit a trey of his own to tie the game, and Nathan Taphorn followed up with a go-ahead layup off his offensive rebound to give the Wildcats their first lead of the game, 27-25. With Northwestern trailing 31-28 at the half, McIntosh led all players with nine points and four assists. Coming out of the break, the teams alternated leads with five switches in the first six minutes of the period. With Houston Baptist leading 42-41, Olah put the Wildcats ahead for good with a layup to cap off a Northwestern possession that featured three offensive rebounds. The Huskies kept it close after Olah's go-ahead score, but the Romanian big man hit on his only three-point attempt of the night to put Northwestern ahead 54-49 minutes later. He then hit an and-one layup, his 13th and 14th points of the half, giving the Wildcats a seven-point advantage they would hold through the end of the game.

Game 2
NU 69, Brown 56
Nov. 17, 2014 • Providence, R.I.

JerShon Cobb scored 16 points and Sanjay Lumpkin had a double-double with 15 points and 12 rebounds as Northwestern cruised past Brown 69-56 at Pizzitola Sports Center. Lumpkin's point total surpassed his previous career high of 13 achieved vs. Mississippi Valley State on Dec. 16, 2013. After struggling in Friday night's season-opener, Tre Demps provided Northwestern with some instant offense off the bench. The redshirt junior tallied five quick points and had another basket taken away by a questionable charge call. A slam dunk by Vic Law off an inbounds play gave the Wildcats a 15-6 lead with 13:40 to go. Fellow freshman Scottie Lindsey entered the game and drilled a top-of-the-key triple to extend the advantage to 19-9. Five straight points by Brown cut the hosts' deficit in half but six straight by NU, capped by two free throws by Lumpkin, pushed the lead up to 25-14. Nine first-half turnovers by the Wildcats prevented them from extending their lead. A layup by Demps just before the first-half buzzer gave Northwestern a 36-26 advantage at the intermission. Lumpkin finished the first half with 9 points and 6 rebounds to help the NU offense with Law and Alex Olah limited due to foul trouble. Northwestern wasted little time in extending its lead to open the second half. The Wildcats scored 12 of the first 16 points of the half in the opening 3:30, capped by a 3-pointer by Cobb that made it 48-30. The advantage grew over 20 with 13:42 when Lindsey drilled his second trey of the game as the 'Cats extended the advantage to 53-32.Brown scored five straight to get with 16, but Cobb scored five points during a 7-2 run that pushed the advantage back to 21 and the Bears never threatened again.

Game 3
NU 69, North Florida 67
Nov. 20, 2014 • Evanston, Ill.

Tre Demps' game-winner and a pair of clutch 3-pointers by Bryant McIntosh led Northwestern to a hard-fought 69-67 win over North Florida in a Cancun Challenge matchup at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Northwestern overcame a seven-point deficit with four minutes left in the game, chipping away at the Ospreys' lead before McIntosh and Demps combined for the Wildcats' final 12 points. McIntosh nailed all four of his 3-point attempts in the game, scoring a team-high 16 points, and Demps had 15 of his own—including two big ones with 2.5 seconds left on the clock. Lumpkin took over during the first several minutes of the game, scoring six of NU's first eight points. Northwestern was up 23-17 with 11:29 left in the half, but North Florida went on a 10-1 run to take a 27-24 lead with just over five minutes remaining in the half. Northwestern eventually entered the half with a narrow 31-29 lead, thanks in large part to Lumpkin's 11 points. The Wildcats extended their lead to 44-38 lead, the Ospreys responded with a pair of 3-pointers to tie the score, the start of a 14-2 run that would test Northwestern's resilience. Trailing 61-54 with under four minutes left, the 'Cats got consecutive 3-pointers from JerShon Cobb and McIntosh to help get them within three. Follow a UNF basket, McIntosh scored on a layup and then hit a tying triple with 1:47 left to knot the score, 65-65. Demps and UNF's Dallas Moore traded layups before Demps took the ball in isolation from the top of the key and swished a step-back jumper from 18 feet, sealing the game for Northwestern with 2.5 seconds remaining.

Game 4
NU 68, Elon 67 (OT)
Nov. 22, 2014 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern used overtime to post a 68-67 overtime victory over Elon at Welsh-Ryan Arena. The Wildcats rallied from 10 points down as Tre Demps scored 21 points, including hitting a game-winning shot for the second consecutive contest. Elon went on an early 12-0 run to take a 19-9 lead. However, the Wildcats finally got their offense going and rattled off 10 straight points to tie the score up at 19. Elon eventually took a 29-27 lead into halftime. The Phoenix used a surge early in the second half to push their advantage back up to 10. Just as they did against North Florida two nights earlier, the Wildcats started chipping away, and a jumper by Demps put Northwestern within three points just past the eight-minute mark. The teams traded baskets down the stretch, and with 1:31 remaining, Vic Law converted two free throws to make it 61-59 in favor of the Phoenix. Northwestern then came up with a defensive stop after a missed jumper, and Bryant McIntosh drove baseline for an easy layup on the following possession to tie the game. NU had a chance to win it in regulation, but Demps narrowly missed a jumper from the free throw line. Tanner Samson gave the Phoenix an early edge in overtime with his eighth 3-pointer of the game to start the period, but Northwestern played steadfast defense after that and held Elon to just one point for the next two-and-a-half minutes. A nice feed from Demps to Lumpkin under the basket followed by two more free throws from Law put Northwestern within a single point. Another defensive stop set up Demps to once again play the hero, and he hit connected to give Northwestern a 68-67 edge. The Wildcats got two final defensive stops down the stretch to seal the victory and improve to 4-0.

Game 5
NU 55, Miami (Ohio) 46
Nov. 25, 2014 • Puerto Aventuras, Mexico

Northwestern used a late 9-0 run to defeat Miami University 55-46 in the Cancun Challenge at Hard Rock Hotel Riviera Maya. NU's defense limited Miami to 31.3 percent shooting in the contest (15-48), including 23.3 percent (7-30) in the second half. The RedHawks scored the first six points before a pair of 3-pointers by Bryant McIntosh tied the game at 8-8. Miami responded with eight straight points before Tre Demps ended the run with triple. The basket jump-started an 11-2 run that gave Northwestern its first lead of the game, 19-18, with 9 minutes left in the half. A pair of baskets by Vic Law capped a 17-4 surge overall by the Wildcats during a span of 8:22 as Northwestern went in front, 25-20. NU eventually got the last shot of the half and Demps nailed a 3-pointer from the top of the key to give the 'Cats a 31-25 lead at the break. After being limited due to foul trouble in the first half, Alex Olah started the second period strong as he blocked Miami shots each of their first two times down the court while hitting a pair of baskets on the other end to make it 35-25. The advantage was 38-28 following a 3-pointer by Law with 17:25 left when the offense went into a drought. NU managed only two points over a span of 11 minutes as the RedHawks rallied to tie the game on a pair of free throws by Eric Washington with 6:12 remaining. However, the 'Cats found Olah down low for baskets on consecutive possessions to make it 44-40 in NU's favor. Sanjay Lumpkin then finished in the paint before Law drilled a trey out of the corner, making it a nine-point Northwestern run and giving the Wildcats a 49-40 lead with 3:07 left. The 'Cats blocked 10 shots in the game, all in the second half, to set a school record for blocks in a half. Olah and Law posted game highs of 13 points and 8 rebounds apiece.

Game 6
Northern Iowa 61, NU 42
Nov. 26, 2014 • Puerto Aventuras, Mexico

A first-half scoring drought proved to be too much for Northwestern to overcome as the Wildcats dropped the championship game of the Cancun Challenge to Northern Iowa 61-42. Bryant McIntosh had the hot hand early on for the Wildcats, scoring the team's first 10 points, including the first five overall of the game, as NU got out of the gates quickly. A 3-pointer by Tre Demps at the shot clock buzzer put Northwestern in front 13-10 with 13 minutes remaining in the opening half. The Wildcats trailed by one when Alex Olah scored down low then stepped outside to hit a triple, giving NU an 18-14 lead. However, a pair of 3-pointers by Nate Buss ignited a 17-point run that put the Panthers up 31-18 as Northwestern was held scoreless over a span of nearly 10 minutes. The drought finally ended when McIntosh found Gavin Skelly for a layup with 31 seconds remaining in the half. Following a turnover by UNI, Tre Demps' half-court heave rattled in and out as the 'Cats took a 31-20 deficit into halftime. Consecutive baskets by McIntosh and Olah early on the second period got the Wildcats back with single digits at 33-24. Northwestern continued to hang around as Scottie Lindsey's 3-pointer off a reload make it 45-35 with just over 11 minutes remaining. However, the Panthers used a seven-point run to give themselves some breathing room on their way to the tourney title. McIntosh paced the Wildcats with 13 points while Olah added 8. Tournament MVP Seth Tuttle paced the Panthers with 19 points.

Georgia Tech 66, NU 58
Dec. 3, 2014 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern came within one point of making up an early 18-point deficit, but the comeback fell just short as the Wildcats dropped a 66-58 contest to Georgia Tech in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Thanks in large part to Alex Olah scoring 15 of his game-high 19 points in the second half, Northwestern rallied to trail by only 57-56 at one point. Vic Law opened Northwestern's scoring by knocking down a jumper in the opening minute to erase an early 2-0 deficit, but the Yellow Jackets rattled off 20 consecutive points. After the Wildcats slowed down Georgia Tech's offense, Olah converted on a layup to break the spell, the start of a 9-2 Northwestern run. Sanjay Lumpkin followed up with some nice footwork on the fastbreak that led to an easy layup, and Olah contributed on the defensive end right after with a steal. After the first 20 minutes, Georgia Tech led 31-18. With Northwestern trailing by 11, Demps knocked down his only 3-pointer of the game, then pulled up for a wide open jumper at the top of the key after the Georgia Tech defender went down without a call. The Wildcats then turned to Olah once again, and he converted on a jump hook to put Northwestern within four points with 3:26 remaining. After the Wildcats forced Georgia Tech's 11th turnover of the game, McIntosh brought the ball down the court, drove in and kicked out to a wide-open Olah on the perimeter after drawing a double team. Staying true to form, he hit his final shot of the night -- and only 3-pointer -- to remain perfect in the half and put Northwestern within one. The Wildcats failed to convert a field goal after that, however, and the Yellow Jackets walked away with the win.

Georgia Tech 66 • 6-1

Game 8
#23/-- Butler 65, NU 56
Dec. 6, 2014 • Indianapolis, Ind.

Northwestern battled toe-to-toe with No. 23 Butler at Hinkle Fieldhouse but a late run by the hosts helped the Bulldogs secure a 65-56 victory. Bryant McIntosh came off the bench to lead the Wildcats with 12 points and 5 assists while Alex Olah had 11 points and Vic Law added 10. Kellan Dunham paced Butler with a game-high 19 points. Both teams scored on each of their first two possessions before Butler scored six straight points to jump out to an early advantage. McIntosh, an Indiana native, entered the game and scored three baskets to trim the deficit to two before a leaner by JerShon Cobb tied the game 14-14 with 10:30 to go in the opening half. The Bulldogs would push their lead back up to five, 25-20, but three free throws by Dave Sobolewski got the 'Cats back within two. Baskets by Nathan Taphorn and McIntosh helped NU tie the game 28-28, but Butler got a pair of three-point plays in the last minute of the half to take a 34-28 lead at the break. Cobb started the second half with a 3-pointer to get the Wildcats back within three, but a 9-2 run by Butler put the Bulldogs up 43-33 with 15 minutes remaining and forced NU to burn a timeout. The lead grew to 11 before Northwestern was able to string a few baskets together to get back in the game. The Wildcats trailed 49-44 when Law drilled a 3-pointer, bringing Northwestern within two with 7:06 left. NU had a chance to tie it with just under 5 minutes to go, but the 'Cats couldn't convert and two free throws by Roosevelt Jones and a tough baseline jumper by Dunham made it a six-point lead for Butler as the clock ticked under 4 minutes remaining. Law knocked down another triple with the shot clock about to expire, making it 57-54 with 3:10 left. However, Butler scored five straight points in the next minute and the 'Cats couldn't recover.
