EASTERN ILLINOIS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SIGNING CLASS

CHARLESTON, Ill. – Eastern Illinois women's basketball head coach Debbie Black has signed two impact players for the program as the Panthers announced their 2015 recruiting class during the NCAA's fall signing period. Set to join EIU next season are Brittin Boyer and Kayla Steward.

Boyer is a 5'11" forward that plays locally at Sullivan High School for coach Sheri McCain. She was named the Area Player of the Year as a junior by the Journal-Gazette/Times-Courier. Last season she led her team to an IHSA Class 2A Regional appearance with a 21-4 record. She averaged 16.4 points per game with 10 rebounds per game earning IBCA 4th Team All-State honors. Boyer was a first team All-Okaw Valley selection.

"Brittin is a versatile player that we think can have a nice career here at Eastern Illinois," said Black who is entering her second season at EIU. "She is becoming a stronger player and working to develop both her perimeter and post game. I think it will be nice for our program to have a player with local ties so people in the community can come watch a player they have seen at the high school level."

Steward is a 5'8" guard that plays for coach Paul Perrone at Boylan Catholic High School in Rockford. She flourished as a junior scoring more than 500 points for the season as the team reached the IHSA Class 4A Super Sectionals. She was key in the team winning 23 straight games during the season which included a 30-point night in a win over Hononegah High School. She was a first team All-Northern Illinois Conference selection and special mention All-State. During her summer AAU season she was selected to the USJN Pool All-Star team.

"Kayla is a player that is still developing and growing her game. Last season she became a true scoring threat scoring more than 500 points in what was her first true varsity playing experience," said Black. "She is a good 3-point shooter who can also score for other areas on the floor."
