Scouting the Cardinals

The Cardinals enter the game with an overall record of 5-0 after a thrilling 7-6 overtime victory over No. 14 Boston College this past Saturday to open ACC play. Kaylin Morissette and Kelli Gerding scored two goals each and Hannah Koloski scored the game-winning goal off of a free position with 9.8 seconds left in the first overtime period.

Morissette continues to lead the way for the Cardinals in scoring with 17 points, scoring 13 goals and four assists. Koloski and Morissette are tied for the team lead in goals with 13 while Kelli Gerding paces the team in assists with eight. Sophomore Brittany Read has started all five games in goal, recording a 4.90 goals against average with 37 saves on the year.

Scouting the Wildcats

Northwestern enters the game with an overall record of 1-2 with a win over No. 4 Duke to begin the season. The Wildcats have lost their last two games to No. 10 Virginia and No. 2 Syracuse. This will be their fourth-consecutive game against a ranked opponent this season.

Senior Kaleigh Craig leads the Wildcats with nine points from seven goals and two assists. Craig is tied with Selena Lasota and Sheila Nesselbush with a team-high seven goals apiece and Christina Esposito is leading the team in assists with three. Mallory Weisse has started all three games for the Wildcats and has posted an 11.33 goals against average with 25 saves.

The Series

Northwestern leads the series 4-0 and this will be the Wildcats' second trip to Louisville all-time. The Cardinals and Wildcats faced off twice last season with Northwestern winning 12-10 during the regular season matchup and 10-7 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Cardinal Quick Notes

- Hannah Koloski tied her career-high with six goals in the Cardinals 15-5 win over Vanderbilt on Feb. 23.
- Kelli Gerding moved into the all-time career list this season. She currently ranks ninth on the list with 21 assists.
- Koloski moved into the all-time career goals list against Denver. She currently ranks ninth on the list with 67 career goals.
- The Cardinals are off to a 4-0 start this season. The best start in school history was during the 2011 season when Louisville began the season with a 6-0 start. Last season the Cardinals began the season with a 5-0 start.

Ranked Opponents

The Cardinals started a stretch in which they play our straight ranked opponents when they defeated No. 14/15 Boston College 7-6 in overtime last Saturday. Louisville continues the stretch when then face No. 10/10 Northwestern for a midweek game on March 3 and host No. 4/5 Notre Dame on Saturday, March 5. They will wrap up the four game stint on the road against No. 14/16 Duke on March 12. Last season the Cardinals finished the season with a 2-8 record against ranked opponents.

Morissette Named to the Tewaaratton Watch List

The Tewaaratton Foundation has announced the 2016 Tewaaratton Award women's watch list. Louisville senior midfielder Kaylin Morissette is one of 50 players named to the watch list for the second straight year. The list includes the top players across all three divisions of NCAA lacrosse and highlight the early contenders for the 2016 Tewaaratton Award, presented by Under Armour.

Morissette was recently selected as a preseason Lacrosse Magazine All-American and to the preseason All-ACC Team. The senior leads the Cardinals in scoring so far this season with 11 goals and four assists for 15 points. She also leads the team in draw controls with 46 so far this season.

Daley, McNamara, Smith and Howell Named 2016 Team Captains

Head coach Kellie Young announced today that senior Cortnee Daley, juniors Stephanie McNamara and Heidi Smith along with sophomore Emily Howell will serve as Louisville's 2016 team captains.

"I am very proud to announce Cortnee Daley, Steph McNamara, Heidi Smith and Emily Howell as our 2016 captains,” said Young. “Each of them has played a huge role in the growth of our program and the re-establishment of our culture this fall. They each bring something different to the table and I look forward to the leadership they’ll provide both on and off the field this spring.”

Daley will serve as captain for the second straight year. She started every game as a junior and was second on the team in goals scored with 47. McNamara anchored the Cardinal defense last year, starting in all 18 games. She ranked second on the team in caused turnovers with 14.

Smith also started all 18 games for the Cardinals last season. She was second on the team in draw controls with 25. She also finished the year with seven goals and four assists for 11 points. Howell earned a starting position in her freshman year. She finished her rookie season with 22 ground balls and 12 draw controls.

Morissette and Daley score 100th goals

Senior Kaylin Morissette became the seventh player in school history to score 100 goals last season with her fifth goal against Duquesne on Feb. 21. She currently ranks sixth on the all-time scoring list with 141 goals. Senior Cortnee Daley became the eighth player in school history to score 100 goals with her final goal (6th) against American on March 31. She currently ranks seventh on the all-time list with 124 goals.

ACC Preseason Poll

The University of Louisville lacrosse team was picked to finish seventh in the ACC Women’s Lacrosse Preseason Poll. The defending ACC champions Syracuse was selected as the preseason favorite.

The defending ACC champion Orange received five first-place votes en route to 61 total points, followed by North Carolina (one three-place vote, 59 points) and Notre Dame (45 points). One point separated the fourth- and fifth-place teams selected in the predicted order of finish, as Duke was picked fourth (31 points) and Boston College and Virginia each earned 30 points to tie for fifth. Louisville (24) was picked to finish seventh and Virginia Tech (8) eighth.

Preseason All-ACC Honors

Senior midfielder Kaylin Morissette was one of seven returning First- and-Second Team IWLCA All-Americans selected to the preseason All-ACC Team. Six of the eight ACC institutions were recognized on the Preseason All-ACC Team, led by North Carolina with four selections. Syracuse had three student-athletes named to the team while Notre Dame had two student-athletes named to the team, and Boston College, Duke, and Louisville each had one student-athlete tabbed.

A first team All-ACC selection in 2015, Morissette wrapped up her junior campaign as the all-time draw controls leader with 418 and ranked second in the nation in draw controls in 2015 with 10.17 per game. She led the team with 62 points, scoring 44 goals and dishing out 18 assists. She registered seven hat tricks and led the team in assists during the 2015 campaign. She finished her first season in the ACC ranked in the top 11 of goals, goals per game, points and draw controls. She was also a first team Intercollegiate Women’s Lacrosse Association All-West Region selection.

Preseason All-America Honors

Louisville senior Kaylin Morissette was selected as a preseason All-American by Lacrosse Magazine, the publication announced. Morissette was one of 13 players nationally and one of six players from the ACC named to the list.

Morissette was recently selected to the preseason All-ACC Team. Last season she was named a first team IWLCA All-American and a first team All-ACC selection. As a junior she became the all-time draw controls leader with 418 and ranked second in the nation
