SCOUTING TCU

- The Horned Frogs (4-1) are coming off a 47-45 home win over Navy on Thursday. Devonta Abron led TCU with 13 points and 12 rebounds.
- Jarvis Ray leads the team with an average of 10.2 points per game. TCU has held its first five opponents to a .349 field goal percentage. The Horned Frogs posted an 18-15 overall mark, including a 7-7 record in Mountain West play, last season.
- Trent Johnson is in his first season as the head coach at TCU. He has a career record of 230-186 in 14 overall seasons as a head coach, including stints at Nevada, Stanford and LSU.

FAMILIAR FACES

Friday's game marks the third time in the last six seasons that Northwestern has faced a team coached by Trent Johnson. All three meetings will have come against different schools: Stanford, LSU and now TCU. The Wildcats defeated LSU 88-82 in Charleston, S.C., last season while Johnson was at the helm of the Tigers. In addition, NU redshirt junior forward Nikola Cerina spent his first two seasons as TCU. In his first game as a Wildcat against Fairleigh Dickinson on Thursday, Cerina posted 5 points and 7 rebounds in 10 minutes of action before suffering a sprained ankle that will prevent him from playing this weekend.

TRIO NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Seniors Drew Crawford, Reggie Hearn and Alex Marcotullio have been named the team's captains this season. All three are in their fourth year with the program and have led the Wildcats to postseason berths in each of their first three seasons.

BESTING THEIR BEST

Seniors Reggie Hearn and Jared Swopshire each posted career-best point totals in a win over Mississippi Valley State Nov. 15. Hearn's team-high 23 points topped his previous best of 20 points in a win at Illinois Feb. 5, 2012. Swopshire's previous career-high point total was 15 against St. John's on Jan. 9, 2010 while he was playing for Louisville. He knocked down five of his 3-point attempts in the victory over the Delta Devils. During the entire 2011-12 season at Louisville, Swopshire made five of 24 attempts from 3-point territory.

DISHING IT OUT

Sophomore Dave Sobolewski has been in a giving mood through the Wildcats' first four games. The point guard handed out a career-best nine assists in Northwestern's season-opening win over Texas Southern Nov. 13 and then followed it up with eight helpers against Mississippi Valley State Nov. 15. Sobolewski has 25 assists to just two turnovers through NU's first three games. His average of 6.3 per game ranks second in the Big Ten to only Michigan's Trey Burke (8.0 pg). A year ago, Sobolewski led the Big Ten and paced all nation's freshmen with a 2.63 assist-to-turnover ratio. Through four contests, Northwestern leads the nation with an average of 23.5 assists per game.

NOVEMBER REIGN

The Wildcats have found the month of November to their liking. Northwestern has won its last 19 games in the month of November, the third-longest streak in the nation. Only Syracuse (29) and UNLV (20) have longer active winning streaks in the month.

DOING IT ON DEFENSE

The Wildcats have been especially stingy on the defensive end in the first half twice this season. Northwestern limited Texas Southern to 6-of-29 shooting (20.7 percent) in the first half as the 'Cats led 43-14 at the break. NU also held Fairleigh Dickinson to the same point total before the break (41-14) and 6-of-28 shooting (21.4%) on Nov. 18. The 14 points are the fewest by a Northwestern opponent in a half since UC Riverside scored 14 points in the first half on Dec. 1, 2008.

DAZZLING DEBUT

Northwestern freshman Kale Abrahamson got off to a good start in his collegiate debut Nov. 13. The native of West Des Moines, Iowa, hit each of his first four field goal attempts—including three 3-pointers—while making all four of his free throw attempts in scoring 15 points. It was the highest-scoring debut by a Northwestern freshman since Michael Thompson scored 16 points against Stanford on Nov. 15, 2007.

CRAWFORD CLIMBS SCORING LIST

Forward Drew Crawford currently ranks 13th in school history with 1,333 career points. He is 14 points shy of matching Rod Roberson for 12th place. Last season, Crawford became the 17th Northwestern player to reach the 1,000 career point mark in his first three seasons of action. He is the second-leading returning scorer in the Big Ten in terms of scoring average behind only Penn State's Tim Frazier after posting a norm of 16.1 points per game in 2011-12.

RETURNING AWARD-WINNERS

Northwestern welcomes back two players who earned season honors from the Big Ten in 2011-12. Senior forward Drew Crawford was a consensus third-team all-league pick. He was also the Big Ten Freshman of the Year and an honorable mention All-Big Ten pick in 2010. In addition, guard Dave Sobolewski earned a Big Ten All-Freshman Team selection a year ago. He was the fourth NU player to earn the honor in the last seven seasons.

CRAWFORD NAMED CANDIDATE FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Drew Crawford's efforts both on and off the court have allowed him to be named one of 30 national candidates for the Senior CLASS Award. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence—community, classroom, character and competition. An economics major, Crawford was named a CoSIDA second-team Academic-All-American as a junior. Crawford has also been heavily involved in community service, including working with Special Olympics, Misericordia, Northwestern's Dance Marathon and Relay For Life, as well as making numerous visits to area schools as well as the Illinois Youth Center.

POSTSEASON REGULARS

The Wildcats' appearance in the National Invitation Tournament a year ago was its fourth consecutive, marking the first time in school history that NU has made postseason appearances in four straight seasons. Northwestern had never made back-to-back postseason appearances prior to the 2009-10 campaign.

BOMBS AWAY!

Northwestern led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in 2011-12 with an average of 9.0 3-point makes per game. The Wildcats have picked up where they left off, averaging 10.0 makes through the first four games of the 2012-13 season.

HELLO, MY NAME IS...

Northwestern welcomes five true freshmen, two redshirt freshmen and two transfers who are eligible to the lineup this season. The Wildcats got much bigger in the off-season with the following additions to the lineup:

Chier Ajou—7'2"
Alex Olah—7'0"
Aaron Liberman—6'10"
Nikola Cerina—6'9"
Jared Swopshire—6'8"
Mike Turner—6'8"

REACHING FOR THE TOP

This year's senior class has 63 career victories to date. The school record for wins by a senior class is 76 victories achieved by last year's group. The Wildcats posted a school-record 20 wins in 2009-10 and again in 2010-11 before notching 19 wins a year ago.

SUCCESS UNDER CARMODY

In head coach Bill Carmody's first 12 seasons in Evanston, the Wildcats have now recorded at least six Big Ten victories eight times. The program totaled six or more conference wins just five times in the previous 31 years prior to Carmody's arrival.

MEET SWOP

Among the list of newcomers to the Northwestern lineup is graduate student Jared Swopshire. He spent the last four seasons at Louisville, helping the team reach the Final Four last year. In his three seasons of action, he appeared in 109 contests, making 23 starts while averaging 3.9 points and 3.2 rebounds per game. Swopshire is eligible to play this season and is pursuing his graduate degree in sports administration.

HELPING HAND

Northwestern is well known for playing "team" offense and that's reflected in the statistics. The Wildcats ranked fourth in the nation with a 1.53 assist-to-turnover ratio last season. NU ranked second nationally to only Wisconsin with a 1.70 mark in 2010-11. NU also ranked fourth in the country last season with an average of just 10.2 turnovers per contest. In addition, Northwestern assisted on 64.8 percent of its made field goals, the fifth-highest percentage nationally.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Wildcats posted a 12-5 home record last season with three of the losses coming to teams that were nationally ranked at the time (Baylor, Michigan, Ohio State). After setting a program best with 13 home wins in 2008-09, the Wildcats established a new mark with 15 victories at Welsh-Ryan Arena in 2009-10. Northwestern has a 53-5 home record against unranked opponents over the last five seasons.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

The Wildcats have avoided "bad" losses each of the last two seasons. NU did not lose a game to a team with an RPI over 100 in either the 2010-11 or 2011-12 campaigns. Only four other teams in the nation can make that claim: Kansas, Duke, Georgetown, Ohio State.

THE CARMODY TREE

Northwestern head coach Bill Carmody has compiled an impressive list of individuals who have been coached by him or have served as an assistant coach under him and

STARTING FAST

Northwestern started its 2011-12 season

HEAD COACH BILL CARMODY

Bill Carmody is in his 13th season as the head coach at Northwestern. He has guided the Wildcats to four consecutive postseason appearances, a school record. Carmody's 183 victories at NU are the second most in school history, trailing only the 236 games won by Arthur "Dutch" Lonborg from 1928-49.

He has led Northwestern to the two winningest seasons in program history (20, 2009-10 & 2010-11), the most wins over a two-year span (40, 2009-11), over a three-year span (57, 2008-11) and over a four-year span (76, 2008-current).

Under Carmody's watch, the Wildcats have earned at least six Big Ten wins in eight of his first 12 years at the helm. Prior to his arrival in Evanston, the team reached six conference victories just five times in 31 seasons. He was named the 2003-04 Big Ten Coach of the Year after guiding Northwestern to an 8-8 league record.

The squad's 10-1 start in 2009-10 allowed it to earn its first national ranking in 41 years when it came in at No. 25 in the Dec. 28, 2009 Associated Press poll. En route to the first 20-win season in school history, Drew Crawford became the first freshman in school history to be named Big Ten Freshman of the Year, while John Shurna was named the nation's Most Improved Player by Sporting News.

Northwestern has placed two individuals on the All-Big Ten teams three times in the last four seasons, including Shurna being named to the first team and Crawford to the third team in 2011-12. Considered one of the top offensive coaches in the nation, Carmody has continued to tweak and evolve the "Princeton Offense" over the years. His teams are well known for their 3-point shooting, unselfish play and taking care of the basketball. The Wildcats annually rank among the nation's leaders in 3-pointers made, assists, assist percentage and assist-to-turnover ratio. NU set a Big Ten season record by making 170 3-pointers in conference play in 2009-10.

The team's total of 162 triples 2010-11 is the second-best mark in Big Ten history.

Before coming to Evanston, Carmody was the head coach at Princeton for four seasons, replacing legendary coach Peter Carril. Carmody led the Tigers to a 92-25 record and postseason appearances each of his four years at the helm.

A native of Spring Lake, N.J., he graduated from Union College in 1975 with a bachelor's degree in history.

Carmody and his wife, Barbara, have two sons, Michael and Eddie.

2012-13 RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

Game 1 NU 79, Texas Southern 49 Nov. 13, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Drew Crawford keyed a first-half onslaught as Northwestern rolled to a season-opening 79-49 win over Texas Southern at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Crawford connected on each of his first eight field goal attempts in scoring all of his game-high 20 points before the break. NU set the tone off the opening tip as Crawford scored off a feed from Alex Olah. The Naperville, Ill., native was just getting started as he scored the Wildcats first six points. Jared Swopshire also connected on a pair of early baskets to help Northwestern surge out to a 13-4 lead seven minutes into the contest. The advantage was 13-7 when the Wildcats' defense took over, holding the Tigers scoreless over a span of five minutes and 24 seconds while Northwestern rattled off nine straight points to extend the advantage to 15. In all, the 'Cats went on a 27-2 run over a stretch of nine-plus minutes as Olah capped the surge with a slam to make it 40-9 with 3:43 left in the opening half. Northwestern took a 43-14 lead into the intermission as it limited Texas Southern to 6-of-29 shooting. Freshman Kale Abrahamson picked up where Crawford left off, tallying 15 second-half points and hitting three 3-pointers. Northwestern's lead reached as many as 37 points when Olah stepped outside to hit a triple and then scored in the paint, giving the hosts a 68-31 lead with 8:23 left. Dave Sobolewski dished out a career-high nine assists in the contest with Northwestern helping on 24 of its 29 field goals in the contest. Texas Southern was limited to 29.3 percent shooting in the contest, compared to 50 percent for the Wildcats.

Game 2 NU 81, Mississippi Valley State 68 Nov. 15, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Reggie Hearn scored a career-high 23 points and Jared Swopshire added a career-best 22 as Northwestern pulled away late to fight off a scare from Mississippi Valley State 81-68 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Dave Sobolewski added 13 points, eight assists and six rebounds. Northwestern surged out of the gates, posting a 14-5 lead five minutes into the contest. However, the Delta Devils were able to hang close throughout the remainder of the half. Davon Usher, who had 35 points in the contest, scored the final five points of a 6-0 run to close the half and get the guests within 40-38 at the break. The Delta Devils tied the game at 43-43 early in the second stanza before the Wildcats went on a 13-2 run as they appeared primed to pull away. Alex Marcotullio's 3-pointer out of the corner with 13:18 remaining forced the guests to burn a timeout. MVSU responded, though, scoring 10 consecutive points to get back within one. The 'Cats didn't have much of an answer for Usher most of the night as his two free throws with 6:28 remaining cut Northwestern's advantage to 64-60. NU was able to clamp down on Usher down the home stretch, though. Sobolewski answered Usher's free throws with two of his own before scoring on a backdoor layup off a feed from Hearn. Following one free throw by the Delta Devils, Swopshire pushed the lead to 10 with his fifth triple of the night. Swopshire then split a pair from the charity stripe before Sobolewski delivered the dagger with a trey to make it 75-61 with four minutes left. As a team, NU assisted on 25 of its 27 field goals in the contest.

Game 3 NU 80, Fairleigh Dickinson Nov. 18, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Eleven different Wildcats found the scoring column as Northwestern opened up 27-point halftime lead and rolled to an 80-53 victory over Fairleigh Dickinson Sunday afternoon. Reggie Hearn led NU with 14 points—all in the first half—while Alex Olah contributed 10 points and nine rebounds in just 16 minutes of action. Alex Marcotullio and Kale Abrahamson contributed nine points apiece off the bench. Northwestern's lead was 8-5 when the Wildcats rattled off 23 of the game's next 29 points to increase the edge to 31-11. The 'Cats took a 41-14 lead into the intermission. Hearn didn't miss in the opening half, hitting all four of his field goal tries and all four of his free throw attempts. Olah used his size advantage to his benefit, posting six points, seven rebounds and two blocked shots before the break. For the second time in three games to open the season, the Wildcats allowed just 14 first-half points. After holding Texas Southern to 14 in Tuesday's season-opener, NU limited the Knights to the same total as the guests made just six of their 28 field goal attempts over the opening 20 minutes of play. Northwestern got solid contributions across the board as the lead grew to as many as 36, 60-24, just over eight minutes into the second stanza. The 'Cats boasted a 50-34 advantage on the boards, including hauling in 15 offensive caroms, and held a 46-26 edge in points in the paint. Mike Turner handed out a team-high five assists as Northwestern dished out 24 helpers as a team.

Game 4

NU 69, Delaware State 50 Nov. 20, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Drew Crawford posted team highs of 18 points and seven rebounds as Northwestern earned a 69-50 victory over Delaware State. The Wildcats finished with a commanding 37-22 rebounding advantage, including hauling in 13 offensive boards that led to 17 second-chance points. Delaware State got off to a hot start as it connected on five of its first six field goal attempts as the guests surged out to a 15-10 lead following two free throws by Tyshawn Bell with 12:35 remaining in the opening half. A lay-in by Alex Olah followed by a 3-pointer by Crawford got NU back to even before a break-away layup by Dave Sobolewski gave the hosts the lead. The surge ignited a 22-4 run by Northwestern. Crawford got hot late in the half, knocking down back-to-back triples after Mike Turner had hit one of his own from the top of the key. NU limited the Hornets to just two makes in 14 attempts after the hot start before a late 3-pointer by Tahj Tate. The 'Cats eventually took a 35-22 lead at the break. The advantage quickly grew to 20 just over three minutes into the second half, but behind 10 points by Tate, Delaware State went on an 18-6 run to trim their deficit to eight. However, Sobolewski answered with a 3-pointer and Turner scored on a put-back to start a 13-3 surge for the Wildcats over a three-minute span to put the game away. Sobolewski contributed 14 points and was one of four Northwestern players to record four assists in the contest. Reggie Hearn (14) and Olah (10) also scored in double figures for the 'Cats. NU shot 50 percent from the field (26-52) compared to 39.1 percent (18-46) for Delaware State.
