The Preview

One week after playing in the prestigious Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic near Palm Springs, Northwestern heads back to the West Coast for another nationally reknowned tournament—the Judi Garman Classic hosted by Cal State Fullerton.

The Garman annually attracts top programs to its field, giving the Wildcats another great preconference slate of games. The action begins with a re-match against No. 22 Fresno State Friday after the Bulldogs defeated the #B1GCats in extra innings last weekend at the Nutter. NU then takes on Long Beach State later Friday before facing San Jose State and the host Titans on Saturday. Sunday's game features a tilt with No. 19 Arizona State.

Northwestern traditionally travels to Fullerton each season for a smaller tournament hosted by the Titans, but it has never been able to attend the Judi Garman Classic due to its academic calendar surrounding winter quarter finals. With the calendar falling favorably in 2016, NU is among the field.

The Wildcats return to California with confidence following a weekend of strong play across the board. Though its final record was 2-3, Northwestern held leads in all five of its games and was ahead in the seventh inning against a trio of top-20 opponents. No. 8 Georgia and the aforementioned Fresno State Bulldogs each came back in the final inning against the Wildcats during a tough Saturday on the field, but the squad quickly made adjustments and came out on Sunday to slam the door shut with five late-inning runs in a 7-2 victory over No. 11 UCLA.

Senior Amy Letourneau earned the complete-game win in the circle against UCLA while having a great weekend at the plate, as well. She recorded three home runs overall, hitting two of them during a school single-game record eight RBI performance in a run-rule win against New Mexico State. Letourneau hit .444 at the Nutter, a team-best mark matched by junior Krista Williams and freshman Morgan Nelson. Williams is quietly having a tremendous start to the year, making several outstanding defensive plays in the outfield while raising her batting average up to .381 through 14 games.

LEADING OFF

Strength of Schedule the Calling Card of the 'Cats

Year in and year out, no team seeks out stronger opponents than NU. That scheduling strategy helped the 'Cats earn No. 2 and No. 4 overall national seeds during its Women's College World Series runs of 2006 and 2007, and it bore fruit again in 2012 when NU had the No. 1 rated nonconference strength of schedule to help it earn an NCAA Tournament berth. Last year, NU had the nation's sixth-toughest nonconference SOS. A few notes on this year:

- Fully 36 of the Wildcats' 50 scheduled games are against teams that finished in the top-100 of the RPI last season (72 percent)
- Of those contests, 19 are against top-50 RPI opponents and 11 are versus squads that finished in the top-25 of the 2015 RPI
- Twenty-one of Northwestern's 27 non-conference opponents in 2016 finished inside the NCAA RPI top-100 in 2015 (78 percent)

Tough Mary Nutter Weekend Builds Confidence

Northwestern's five opponents at the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic had a combined 45-6 record entering the event. The Wildcats held leads in all five of the games, including final-inning leads in four of them, but still came out with just a 2-3 record. No. 8 Georgia staged a three-run, two-out rally to defeat NU, 5-4, while No. 20 Fresno State forced across a tying run in the seventh before winning in eight. The Wildcats took those hard lessons and shut the door on No. 11 UCLA in a confidence-building 7-2 victory in the event's final game.

The Circle is Fully Staffed in 2016

Northwestern had no trouble scoring runs in 2015, but the pitching staff was decimated by injury. NU lost undefeated Nicole Bond (7-0 as a freshman in 2014) to injury prior to the season, was forced to shut down former USA Softball Player of the Year candidate Amy Letourneau midway through the year while she continued to recover from a medical redshirt in 2014 and saw two-time NFCA All-Region selection Kristen Wood battle her own injuries throughout the season. Those three hurlers are back for 2016, and they are joined by freshmen Kenzie Ellis and Kaley Winegarner to give NU its largest pitching staff since five hurlers comprised the opening-day rotation in 1990 (five pitchers threw a pitch in 1994, but one of them tossed just a single inning all year).

Andrea Filler Named One of 30 Candidates for Senior CLASS Award

Andrea Filler is one of 30 candidates for the 2016 Senior CLASS Award for softball, which honors student-athletes who excel both on and off the field. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence -- community, classroom, character and competition.

Northwestern softball has a long history of success with this award, earning top-10 finalists in 2007 (Garland Cooper), 2009 (Tammy Williams) and 2010 (Nicole Pauly). In addition, Adrienne Monka (2012), Emily Allard (2013) and Mari Majam (2014) have been named candidates for the honor.

HEAD COACH KATE DROHAN

@KateDrohan

Northwestern head coach Kate Drohan is in her 15th season at the helm of the Wildcats' program alongside her twin sister, Caryl Drohan. A 1995 graduate of Providence who earned three All-BIG EAST honors as a player, Drohan spent three seasons as an assistant with Boston College before coming to NU as an assistant prior to the 1998 season. She was promoted to head coach in 2002 after the retirement of NFCA Hall of Fame Coach Sharon J. Drysdale. Below are several need-to-know numbers about Kate and Caryl Drohans' Northwestern tenure:

487 Wins at Northwestern, ranking second all-time in program history.

.638 Career winning percentage at Northwestern

10 NCAA Tournament appearances in 14 prior seasons for the Wildcats under the Drohans

4 NCAA Regional titles, leading to two Women's College World Series berths

5 Victories at the Women's College World Series, leading to a second-place finish in 2006 and a third-place result in 2007

29 Total postseason victories for Northwestern under Kate and Caryl Drohan

180 Total Big Ten wins for the Drohans, including two Big Ten championships

14 All-America honors earned by players under the Drohans, including three by pitchers

1000 Perfect multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score for NU, one of just three in the B1G

THE MIDDLE INNINGS

500 Wins on the Horizon for the Drohans

Now in their 15th year at Northwestern, head coach Kate Drohan and associate head coach Caryl Drohan, her twin sister, enter this weekend's Judi Garman Classic just 13 wins away from the major milestone of Win No. 500. The pair have won 487 games with the Wildcats, averaging over 34 wins per year during their tenure. That total includes 180 Big Ten victories, 29 postseason wins and five at the Women's College World Series. The Drohans have never had a losing season with NU.

Kate Drohan's current .638 career winning percentage ranks her third in Big Ten history among coaches with more than 10 years at a single conference institution. In terms of most overall wins at their respective schools, Drohan ranks 11th overall but is poised to climb into the top-10 with Northwestern's very next victory.

Additionally, along with her mentor Sharon J. Drysdale's 640 wins as the longtime coach of the Wildcats, once Drohan reaches 500 wins Northwestern will be the only school in the Big Ten with two different coaches to reach 500 victories at that school.

The #B1GCats Welcome Two Bandits to the Coaching Staff

With former pitching coach Courtnay Foster now the head coach at Bucknell, Northwestern turned to the NPF's Chicago Bandits to fill out its coaching staff. 2013 NCAA champion and 2015 NPF champion Michelle Gascoigne now directs the pitching staff; the lefty tossed a three-hit shutout in the title game of the 2013 WCWS and brings a new approach to the circle for the Wildcats. Her Bandits teammate and 2015 Iowa graduate Megan Blank is NU's volunteer assistant after a career as one of the Big Ten's best all-around players in the current decade.

Northwestern Breaks Three Team Offensive Records in One Game

In the second game of Opening Day 2016, Northwestern took a torch to its single-game offensive record book. Trailing Virginia, 2-1, in a tight game entering the fourth inning, NU scored seven runs in the fourth before plating a school-record 14 runs in the fifth, eventually winning 22-4 (5). The Wildcats broke school records for runs in an inning, runs in a game and hits in a game (21) in the contest. More on NU's single-game records can be found on Page 6 of these notes.

#B1GCats Have #B1GBats

Northwestern's offense has been capable of big bursts in 2016, ranking in the top-25 in the nation in four different categories: doubles per game (12th), home runs per game (17th), scoring (21st) and slugging (24th).

Fully 36 percent of the Wildcats base hits this have gone for extra bases, led by an absurd start to the year by Andrea Filler, who has 14 extra base hits among her 20 total (70 percent). Take slappers Sabrina Rabin (15 hits) and Krista Williams (16 hits) out of that mix, and the rest of the Wildcats have recorded extra bases on 46 percent of their safe knocks.

Northwestern to Celebrate its World Series Teams in April

During Northwestern's home series April 15-17 against Nebraska at Sharon J. Drysdale Field, the Wildcats will welcome back members from all five of their Women's College World Series teams. 2016 marks the 10-year anniversary of the 2006 squad that finished second in the nation and the 30-year anniversary of the 1986 team that qualified for the WCWS for third year in a row, capping an incredible run of success from 1984-86. The 2007 NU team that finished third in the country also will be celebrated during the weekend-long festivities. Each week during this season, these notes will celebrate a World Series memory from one of those teams on the next page.

THE CLOSER

• Though her 3-4 record belies it a bit, senior Amy Letourneau has regained the ace form in the circle she developed as a sophomore in 2013. At the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic, she held high-octane Oregon State to only singles and kept No. 8 Georgia at bay until a two-out, top-of-the-seventh rally. Despite dropping both of those games, Letourneau returned to toss a complete-game five-hitter vs. No. 11 UCLA in a 7-2 NU win to close the tourney.

• Meanwhile, at the plate, Amy Letourneau tied the Northwestern single-game record with eight RBIs in a run-rule win over New Mexico State on Feb. 26. She had two three-run home runs and a two-run single. Letourneau leads NU with six homers through 14 games.

• Senior Andrea Filler has been unstoppable in 2016. She started the year with an 11-game hitting streak, has at least one extra-base hit in 11 of NU's 14 games this year and fully 70 percent (14-of-20) of her base hits this year have been for extra bases. She leads the team with 21 RBIs through 14 games, one season after recording 60 for the 'Cats.

• Freshmen pitchers Kaley Winegarner and Kenzie Ellis each picked up the first wins of their careers Feb. 20 at the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. Winegarner tossed a complete-game three-hitter, retiring the final 13 batters she faced against Boston College. Ellis threw 2.2 innings of strong relief to enable a come-from-behind walk-off win over North Carolina.

• In a nice moment, senior Aubrie May hit her first-collegiate home run on Feb. 26 against New Mexico State. May played in 25 games as a freshman in 2013, but injuries limited her to just a single appearance in her sophomore and junior seasons. The would-be slugger is finally healthy and able to show her promise with five doubles and the homer in 2016.

• Freshman Morgan Nelson hit a dramatic walk-off grand slam in the eighth game of her college career Feb. 20, giving NU a come-from-behind 11-8 win against North Carolina.

• Senior Kristen Wood has finished among the top 30 in the nation in strikeouts in each of the last two years. She fanned seven in 4.0 innings of work in her first start of the year against Virginia, crossing the 500 K mark in her career (she now has 514).

• Northwestern hitters have been incredible in a pinch, batting .400 (6-for-15) this year. No one has been better than Brianna LeBeau, who is hitting .571 (4-for-7) with seven RBIs in pinch hit opportunities. Of her nine pinch hit appearances, she has either reached base safely or recorded an RBI in seven of them (78 percent).

• Northwestern is known as Chicago's Big Ten Team and the 2016 NU softball team is taking that mantra one step further. The Wildcats have adopted the workman-like, blue collar attitude that Chicago was built on as their team identity, so much so that the Chicago flag is stitched to the underseam of NU's jerseys.

• Head coach Kate Drohan has professed her desire to use a "Joe Maddon" approach to the 2016 season, taking advantage of the deep repertoire of skills her 'Cats possess to exploit individual matchups throughout the year. The Cubs skipper and Drohan bear a striking resemblance.

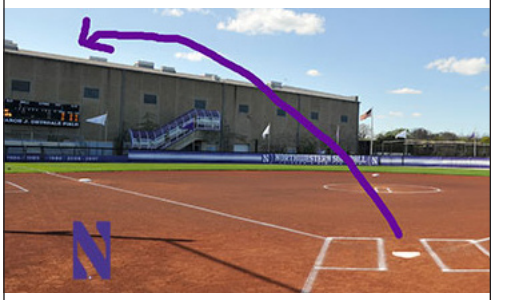

• Northwestern made its 15th overall appearance in the NCAA Tournament last year including its 10th in the previous 14 years of the Drohan era. Together, Kate Drohan and Caryl Drohan have led NU to six NCAA Regional championship rounds in the last 10 years.

• #B1GCATS IN THE PROS: 2014 grad Emily Allard will continue to play professionally for the Chicago Bandits of National Professional Fastpitch in 2016. Allard, along with current Northwestern coaches Michelle Gascoigne and Megan Blank, and former Wildcat Tammy Williams, won the NPF Championship last year with the Bandits.

THE @NUSBCATS ROOF CLUB

Few clubs in sports are as small or exclusive as Northwestern's Sharon J. Drysdale Field Roof Club. Just seven players are members after homering onto the roof of McGaw Hall, which houses Northwestern's Welsh-Ryan Arena and borders NU's softball park beyond left field. In the 35-year history of Sharon J. Drysdale Field, only nine fair home runs balls have reached the roof of the building—and all nine of those blasts have come since 2007 off the bats of NU players:

- Jessica Miller vs. Michigan (March 31, 2007)
- Nicole Pauly vs. Indiana (April 4, 2009, game 1 of DH)
- Erin Dyer vs. Indiana (April 4, 2009, game 2 of DH)
- Adrienne Monka vs. Minnesota (April 14, 2010)
- Olivia Duehr vs. Iowa (April 7, 2012)
- Adrienne Monka vs. Ohio State (April 29, 2012)
- Olivia Duehr vs. Notre Dame (April 9, 2013)
- Marisa Bast vs. Indiana (April 18, 2014)
- Olivia Duehr vs. Ohio State (April 25, 2015)

WORLD SERIES MEMORIES

During Northwestern's series against Nebraska April 15-17 at Sharon J. Drysdale Field, the Wildcats will honor all five of their Women's College World Series teams from 1984, 1985, 1986, 2006 and 2007. Each week in this space, we will feature a different moment from one of those World Series.

May 31, 2007

Northwestern began its fifth Women's College World Series appearance with an opening-round game against Arizona State in a contest that was dominated by senior pitcher Eileen Canney. The two-time All-American struck out 11 and allowed only a sixth-inning bunt single after no-hitting the Sun Devils through five innings of play. The one-hit shutout was the second for Canney in her World Series career; she also tossed a one-hit shutout in a winner's bracket matchup against Tennessee at the 2006 WCWS.

Also of note was freshman Kelly Dyer's 2-for-2 performance against ASU ace Katie Burkhart in the game. Earlier in the season, Dyer—who batted just .161 overall in her first college campaign—clubbed a pair of home runs against Burkhart, including a seventh-inning grand slam in a 5-2 NU win.
