game to start the year. Opponents have not fared much better, connecting on 38 percent overall and 31 percent from beyond the arc. The Wildcats have also been -3.3 in turnover margin so far.

Pete Nance paces the Wildcat squad with 14.7 points and 10.0 rebounds. Miller Kopp is also in double figures with 12.0 points. Two more starters in Pat Spencer (9.7 points, 4.0 assists) and Ryan Young (9.0 points, 6.0 rebounds) also play a part on offense.

Last Time Out

The Spartans held the lead for nearly 13 minutes in the first half against Bradley. The Braves, however, closed the half on a run and held off the Spartans for the rest of the game in a 69-57 victory on Tuesday night at Carver Arena. BU's lead never got more than the final margin of 12, and NSU got as close as two in the latter half of the second stanza.

Five players scored in double figures for the Braves (3-1), who shot 50 percent in the second half after NSU did the same in the first. The Spartans made 40 percent for the game, but just 20 percent (4-of-20) from deep.

Joe Bryant Jr. led NSU with 17 points on 6-of-12 shooting, and Jermaine Bishop added 14 points as well. For Bradley, Koch Bar tallied 15 points and eight rebounds, while Darrell Brown went for 13 poitns, eight assists and five rebounds.

Cleaning Out the Notebook

- NSU nailed 20 3-pointers against Apprentice School, breaking the previous best of 18 set last year against Maryland Eastern Shore. NSU also tied its Division I record with 26 assists
- Its 32 3-point attempts are tied for the third-most in a single game in D-I history, and its 3-point percentage of 62.5 is the fifth best mark over that time.
- Its 113 points scored against Apprentice are the second-most since moving to D-I in 1997, topped only by a 115-point performance in November of 2013. The 59-point margin of victory is the second-biggest in D-I history as well behind a 78-point win over Mid-Atlantic Christian in December of 2017.
- They recorded 16 steals, the most in a game January of 2009 (17).
- Since 2002-03, NSU has never had at least 28 fastbreak points in a game.
- NSU last played three of its first four games of the season at home in 2014-15.
- The Spartans have had three 30-point wins for the second year in a row.
- They recorded back-to-back 40-point wins for the first time in their Division I history following the 93-53 victory over Penn State Wilkes-Barre and the season-opening 100-59 win against Greensboro. The previous best was back-to-back 25-point wins last year.
- Wilkes-Barre also had 28 turnovers, the most by an NSU opponent since Morgan State had 29 on Jan. 21, 2013. The Spartans' 41 points off turnovers are the most since also posting 41 against Mid-Atlantic Christian two years ago. They have not had more than that since 2002-03.
- NSU had not started a season 2-0 since 1998-99.
- The team's 57 rebounds against Greensboro are tied for the fourth-most in D-I records.
- The Spartans reached the 100-point plateau for the third season in a row.

The Spartans rank 1st in the MEAC in scoring offense (90.2), scoring defense (58.5), scoring margin (+31.8), field goal % (47.2), 3-point field goal % (41.1), 3-point field goal defense (25.0), 3-pointers (11.0), opponent rebounding (33.2), rebound margin (+8.5), defensive rebound % (79.1), assists (17.8), steals (11.3), turnover margin (+10.0), and assist-turnover ratio (1.6).

National Rankings
On a national level, Norfolk State stands 23rd in scoring margin (+23.0), 24th in steals (10.6) and turnovers forced (19.60), 31st in 3-point field goal % defense (25.0), 44th in scoring offense (83.6), 49th in 3-point field goals (9.6), 65th in 3-point field goal % (37.8), and 67th in scoring defense (60.6).

Early Start
This year's start date of Nov. 5 marked the earliest start to the season ever for NSU. Prior to this year, the Spartans' earliest start date was Nov. 6 last year and Nov. 9 in both the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons.

This was just the second time in the past 16 years NSU began its season at home, and the first time starting off with back-to-back games at home since 2002-03. It was also the first time in five years the Spartans did not open their season at a Power 5 opponent following games at South Carolina (2015), Mississippi State (2016), Auburn (2017), and Michigan (2018).

Lost Production
Of NSU's top eight scorers from a season ago, only one is back, that being senior guard Steven Whitley. Of the other seven, four players were seniors, and three transferred. Altogether, the Spartans lost 79.7 percent of their scoring from a season ago, while 60 percent of the scoring that is back is from Whitley.

Of the team's 15 players on the roster, 10 are newbies this year and 11 have never put on a uniform for the Spartans (senior Jermaine Bishop sat out last year at NSU).

Who Are You?
In fact, NSU's 10 newcomers are some of the most of any team in the nation. In information compiled by Utah's sports information staff, only 13 teams in the country have more newcomers than NSU.

Last Season Notes

• The Spartans secured their second-ever MEAC regular season title, joining the 2012-13 team that finished 16-0. NSU finished the year with the second-most wins ever in MEAC play (14) next to that undefeated season. In 2013, their only other time as a No. 1 seed in the tournament, the Spartans were upset in the quarterfinal round by Bethune-Cookman in overtime, 70-68.

• The Spartans also secured a 20-win season, their fourth since joining Division I. They had 26 wins in 2011-12, 21 in 2012-13 and 20 in 2014-15. Their 36 total games were tied for the most ever with the 2011-12 squad.

• The Spartans surpassed school D-I records for points (2,652), scoring margin (+4.1), field goals (900), field goal attempts (2,079), 3-point field goal percentage (36.6), and rebounds (1,318), and the school's overall records for 3-pointers (282), 3-point attempts (770) and personal fouls (763). They also had the second-most free throws (570) and attempts (803) and the third-most assists (457) and third-best free throw percentage (71.0) in the D-I era.

• NSU averaged 73.7 points per game, its highest scoring average since the 1999-2000 season (76.0) and the third highest in the D-I era.

• The team also set the school record for 3-pointers in a game with 18 against Maryland Eastern Shore on Jan. 26, breaking the previous record of 14. The Spartans also connected on 66.7 percent from beyond the arc that night, topping the previous D-I best of 64.3 percent (9-of-14) set against Howard in 2012 and against Bethune-Cookman in 2006.

• NSU had the same amount or more fouls than the other team in 26 of 36 games (+2.2 per game).

• In 28 of 36 games, the Spartans scored the same or more points in the second half than the first (+8.1). They shot better in the second half (46.5 - 39.9), as did opponents (42.8 - 39.2). NSU was also -1.2 on the glass in the first half and +1.5 in the second, and the Spartans forced 8.4 turnovers in the first half compared to 7.1 in the second.

• NSU had five all-conference players, the most ever for the program since joining the MEAC in 1997. They have also had at least one all-MEAC player in 15 of the last 16 years. C.J. Kelly became the eighth All-Rookie Team member for NSU since joining the league, and Robert Jones won the program's second-ever Coach of the Year award.

NIT History
The Spartans made history against Alabama, earning their first win ever in the tournament in their second appearance. It was also the fourth win by a MEAC team and the first since the NIT went to its current format of 32 teams in 2007. Maryland Eastern Shore (1974), Coppin State (1995) and Delaware State (2006) also won games in the NIT.

It was also the eighth win by a No. 8 seed over a No. 1 seed since 2007. In first round games during that time, eighth seeds are now 8-44 against first seeds.

Major Wins
Last year's win over Alabama in the NIT marked one of the biggest wins in NSU's Division I history. Along with the victory over Missouri in the 2012 NCAA tournament, the Spartans also defeated TCU that year in the Paradise Jam, although it was a member of the Mountain West at the time. Now a member of the SEC, Missouri was in the Big 12 in 2012.

NSU's next biggest victories over major opponents as a D-I program are wins over Atlantic-10 members Richmond (2007) and Rhode Island (2012).

Postseason History
NSU made its seventh postseason appearance in its Division I era (1997-Present) last year, and all have come in the last eight years. It started with the NCAA tournament in 2012 after the Spartans won their first-ever MEAC title. NSU went to the NIT in 2013 after winning the conference's regular season title at 16-0. NSU also faced Eastern Michigan (2014), Eastern Kentucky (2015), Columbia (2016) and Liberty (2017) in the CollegeInsider.com tournaments.

Conference Domination
Since the start of the 2011-12 season, Norfolk State is 101-27 in regular season MEAC play, a 78.9 winning percentage. Among all D-I programs, NSU ranks 10th in the nation in conference winning percentage during that time (See table page 7).

At 101-27 (53-11 at home - 28-4 since the start of the 2015-16 season - and 48-16 on the road), NSU is ahead of North Carolina Central (95-33) for the best record in the league since 2011. Counting MEAC tournament games, the Spartans are 113-34, while the Eagles are 111-37 during that time.

NSU also owns a 159-120 overall record since the start of the 2011-12 season, second in the conference to North Carolina Central (168-102).

Conference Standings
The Spartans have finished fourth or better in the MEAC standings in 12 of the last 13 seasons, including eight straight years. Only 13 other teams in Division I have a longer streak than NSU of finishing in the top 4 of their respective conference standings (see table page 7).

Conference Streak
Last year, NSU secured its 21st straight season with a .500 or better conference record in its Division I era. In fact, in Norfolk State's 64 seasons in either the EIAC, CIAA or the MEAC, the program has had just one losing conference record (9-10 in the CIAA in 1990-91).

NSU ranks eighth in the nation for the longest streak of .500-or-better conference records in a row in D-I (See table page 7). NSU has posted 27 straight .500 or better conference records, dating back to that 1990-91 campaign.

Every other team in the MEAC has had at least one losing conference record since 2015-16.

Winning Record
NSU has had seven non-losing seasons in the last eight years. Prior to the start of that streak, NSU had a .500 or better overall record just twice in 14 seasons since moving to Division I in 1997.

MEAC Tournament History
NSU has been to the semifinals of the MEAC tournament nine times in the last 12 seasons. The Spartans have been a No. 4 seed or better in 10 of the last 12 years as well. The Spartans secured their fourth-ever trip to the finals last year along with the 2009, '12 and '17 teams. The 2012 team captured the program's only MEAC title.

Series Edge
NSU has a winning record against every school in the MEAC, with several of those series covering a lot of ground in the Division II era. The Spartans' closest rival over the years has been North Carolina A&T (26-22).

Winning the State
Since the start of the 2011-12 season, NSU has the fourth-most wins (159) among the 14 Division I schools in the state of Virginia. The Spartans trail Virginia (227), VCU (206) and Old Dominion (170) (See table page 7).

Predictable Numbers
Since the start of the 2015-16 season, NSU is 66-9 when shooting better than the opposition and 7-60 when the other team has a better shooting percentage.

Good from 3
Norfolk State has made a 3-pointer in 323 straight games, dating back to a contest at South Carolina State on Jan. 25, 2010, when NSU finished 0-of-17 from 3-point range.

Ahead at the Half
The Spartans are 121-27 (81.8 winning percentage) since the start of the 2011-12 season when leading or tied at the half.

What Deficit?
NSU has erased a double-digit deficit in a victory 18 times since the start of the 2014-15 season.

Block Party
NSU has averaged 158.7 blocks per season over the previous nine years. The program's seven highest season totals all-time in terms of total blocks have come during that nine-year stretch.

Kyle O'Quinn Update
Former Spartan Kyle O'Quinn is now in his eighth year in the NBA and the first with the Philadelphia 76ers. He became NSU's first NBA player in 25 years after getting drafted in the second round in 2012 by the Orlando Magic.

Professional Spartans
Aside from O'Quinn, NSU has 12 other players competing professionally. Pendarvis Williams (France) and Anell Alexis and Ed Seward (Germany) will be competing in Europe, while Chris McEachin will spend the year in Iraq.

Eight other players who finished their careers recently at NSU will also be playing professionally. Stavian Allen and Jordan Butler will be in Bulgaria, with Jonathan Wade (Kosovo), Preston Bungei (Bosnia) and Alex Long (North Macedonia) also nearby in the Baltics. Derrik Jamerson Jr. will find himself in Austria, Kyle Williams will be in Iceland, and Dan Robinson will spend time in El Salvador.
