Christmas finally comes for Alfred and he gets to spend it with Elmer and the rest of the family. Later that Christmas day, Alfred peers through the window and sees a few trees just like him tossed out to the curb. Not knowing his own fate, he trembles and worries for his 'future' for most of that week. Well, Elmer's family finally decides it is time to take Alfred down along with all the ornaments. Little does Alfred know that Elmer's family does not plan to just toss him to the curb. They ...
