

ENTERPRISE SEARCH MADE SIMPLE IF YOU CAN SEE IT, WE CAN FIND IT

With our custom search engines everyone can find products easily.

- Use images, keywords or codes to find what you are looking for
- Get reliable and accurate results instantly
- Available as ready to use standalone application or API for developers

At nyris, we want to give anyone access to an outstanding search experience, no matter if you take an image of the product you need, type a keyword or scan a barcode. A Berlin and Düsseldorf-based company, nyris serves companies in the industrial, manufacturing, and e-commerce sectors.

Why choose nyris

Nobody likes to waste time searching! If you cannot find what you are looking for below a second, you are missing a huge opportunity to improve your business significantly.

FRUSTRATED CUSTOMERS

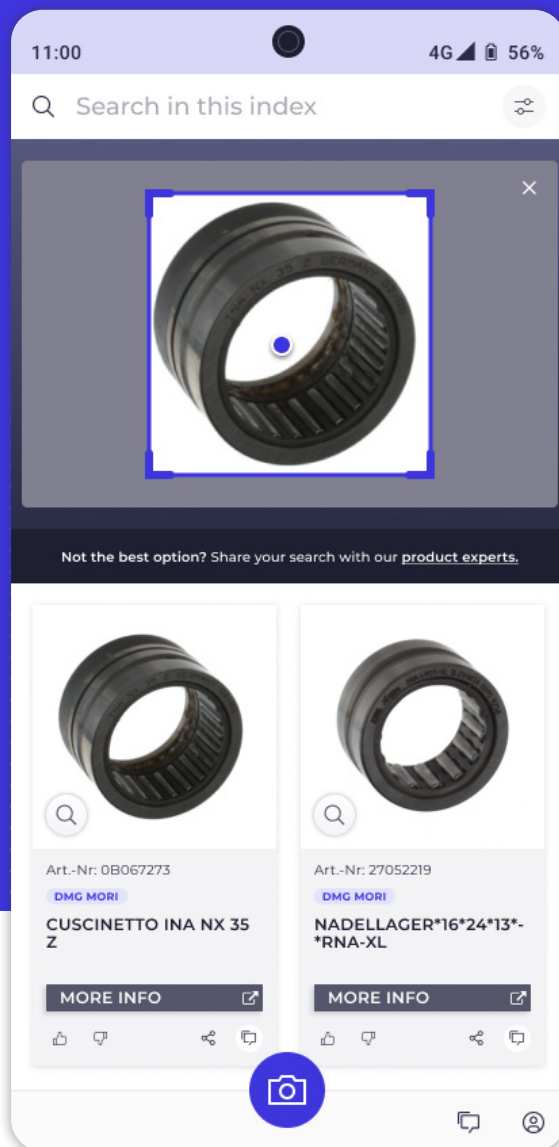

If you don't deliver results quickly, people will abandon your website. Every second counts; slow searches reduce conversions by as much as 7%.

ANNOYED EMPLOYEES

Thousands of hours can be wasted if your employees have to ask several technicians or colleagues to locate a spare part.

REPUTATIONAL DAMAGE

Slow and unreliable searches will ruin your brand. Quick and reliable searching provides a strong base for converting traffic into paying customers.
