- The Cavaliers have won six of the last seven home games against non-conference foes dating back to 2018. The only blemish in that span came last season against Notre Dame.
- Playing its first season in the Sun Belt Conference, ODU is the first active member of the SBC to visit Scott Stadium. UVA's only other previous matchup against an active member of the SBC was in 2007, a 23-21 win at Middle Tennessee which left the league in 2013.
- Virginia is scheduled to play the 2020 SBC Champion Coastal Carolina at Scott Stadium on Nov. 19.

Lex Long led the Cavaliers with a career-high 13 tackles against Illinois.

TOP STORYLINES

- Saturday's contest will feature two of the country's top tackling linebackers in UVA's Nick Jackson and ODU's Jason Henderson. In the first two games, Henderson has been in on 32 stops, the third most in the nation while Jackson leads the ACC with 11.5 tackles per game. Henderson has 26 assisted tackles, the most in the country.
- Virginia quarterback Brennan Armstrong is on the verge of breaking two UVA passing records. He is 253 yards away from eclipsing the UVA career passing record and four touchdowns shy of the school's career touchdown mark. Both records are owned by Matt Schaub (2000-03).
- The Cavaliers are looking to bounce back from a 24-3 loss at Illinois last Saturday. It was only the second time since 2019 in which UVA did not score an offensive touchdown (Miami - 2019 & Notre Dame 2021).
- UVA's defense against Illinois forced four turnovers (3 fumble recoveries & 1 interception) with two coming on Illinois' first two drives. The Cavaliers haven't recovered three fumbles in a game since the 2019 against Duke.

STREAKS COME TO AN END

· Against Illinois Wide receiver Billy Kemp was held without a reception for the first time since Nov. 2, 2019, a span of 28 games. It was tied for the seventh-longest streak in college football going into the game.

· Brennan Armstrong's school-record streak of 18 straight-games with a touchdown pass came to a close against Illinois in week two. He has a touchdown pass in 20 of his 22 starts as the Cavalier quarterback.

· Armstrong also had thrown for 200 or more yards in 17-straight games. He finished with 180 against Illinois, the fewest since coming out of the game early against NC State in 2020 due to injury.

MILESTONE WATCH

· Billy Kemp needs 21 yards receiving to pass Heath Miller for 10th all-time on UVA's career receiving list.

Name	Career Yards
8. Hasise Dubois (2016-19)	1,859
9. Patrick Jeffers (1992-95)	1,785
10. Heath Miller (2002-04)	1,703
11. Billy Kemp (2018-pres.)	1,683

· Keytaon Thompson is five receptions away for 100 for his career. Thompson is looking to become the 27th Cavalier to haul in 100 career passes

· Armstrong needs one more 200-yard passing game to tie Matt Schaub for the most in program history. Schaub threw for 200 or more yards 20 times in his career from 2000-03. Armstrong has the most 300 (11), 400 (5) and the only 500-yard performance in UVA history.

TALE OF TWO RUNNING GAMES

· In the season opener against Richmond, the Cavaliers ran for 262 yards on 42 attempts. Both were the most in a game since 2020 against Boston College and marked on the fourth time since 2015 UVA has ran for 250+ on the ground, a span of 87 games.

250+ Team Rushing Yards since 2015

Date	Opponent	Yards

· Perris Jones was the first UVA running back with a 100-yard rushing effort since Jordan Ellis in the 2018 Belk Bowl.

· Both Jones and Brennan Armstrong had 100-yard games on the ground, the first time two UVA rushers went for 100+ yards in the same game since Jordan Ellis (146) and Bryce Perkins (108) vs. Richmond in 2018.

· Against Illinois, UVA accumulated 42 rushing yards on 29 attempts. It's the fewest amount of yards on 27 or more attempts since 2019 against Notre Dame.

UVA 100-yard rushing efforts in 1st career starts

Marcus Wilson - 129 yds (1987)

Jerrold Washington - 107 yds (1992)

Chris Warren - 105 yds (1986)

Perris Jones- 104 yds (2022)

Since 1986*

· Armstrong's 64-yard run against Richmond was the longest of his career, the longest of any Cavalier since his 60-yard scamper against Boston College in 2020 and the sixth-longest ever by a UVA quarterback.

· The Cavaliers hadn't recorded more rushing yards than passing yards in a game since 2020 against North Carolina (210 rush/208 pass).

· Promising a commitment to the running game, Tony Elliott delivered in week one. As a play caller at Clemson that started with 2014 season bowl win over Oklahoma, the Tiger offense had 39 games in which the offense accumulated 200 or more passing and rushing yards in a game and went a perfect 39-0 in those games.

· In the 12 seasons before Elliott's arrival, UVA has rushed for 200+ and passed for 200+ in the same game 20 times and own a record of 14-6 in those contests.

UVA UP FRONT

· The Virginia offensive line debuted with five players who made their debut in a UVA uniform. Only John Paul Flores (LG) had previously started a game.

· Virginia returned one letterwinner (Jonathan Leech) on its offensive line from last season, tied with Colorado State with the fewest in college football.

· Freshman McKale Boley became only the second Cavalier true freshman ever to start the opening game at offensive tackle. He's only the sixth UVA freshman OT to start a game at offensive tackle.

LOOKING AHEAD TO WEEK THREE

- Armstrong's school record streak of 18-straight games with a touchdown was snapped last week against Illinois.
Armstrong is the school's record holder in 300-yard games (11), 400 yard games (5) and the only player in school history to throw for 500 yards in a game.
Record Watch: Armstrong needs 253 yards to break UVA's career passing record, four touchdowns to break UVA's career touchdown passes record.
The Cavalier signal caller broke UVA's career total offense record on a 64-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Richmond.
His 64-yard TD run was the 15th rushing touchdown of his career, tying him with fellow southpaw Jameel Sewell for the fifth most by a quarterback in program history.
Armstrong has 7,250 career passing yards the second most by a lefthanded quarterback in ACC history.
He trails only Wake Forest's Tanner Price who threw 8,899 from 2010-13.
Armstrong joins Jameis Winston (Florida State), Deshaun Watson (Clemson) and Sam Hartman (Wake Forest) as the only ACC quarterbacks to return the next season after passing for 4,000 yards in the year prior.

HIGHLIGHTS OF A HISTORIC 2021 SEASON

Armstrong's 4,449 passing in 2021 were the most ever by an NCAA left-handed quarterback.

The 4,000-yard season was one of 10 ever by an ACC quarterback.
Armstrong broke UVA's single season passing record in just nine games and finished with 4,449 passing yards, the fourth most in a single season in ACC history.
In addition, Armstrong set Virginia's single-season records for total offense (4,700), passing touchdowns (31) and completions (326).
Armstrong threw for 300-or-more yards 10 times and 400 yards six times in 11 games played, both school records.

Tony Elliott, a patient man, was looking for the right fit when it came time for him to leave the assistant coaching ranks and take on the responsibility of running a collegiate football program as the head coach. During his 11-year tenure at Clemson, his alma mater, several opportunities presented themselves, but it was not until Virginia came calling that he felt the setting was right for what he wants to accomplish.

On Dec. 10, 2021, Elliott was named the University of Virginia's Fralin Family Head Football Coach. At his introductory press conference, he explained his decision to become the Cavaliers' head coach and what he wants to accomplish in Charlottesville.

"I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics," he said "I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes.

"I wanted to compete in the best conference in college athletics. I wanted to be a part of an alignment with (athletic director) Ms. Carla (Williams) and President (Jim) Ryan that shared a vision that was similar to mine, which is centered around the holistic development of the student-athlete. And lastly, I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.

"There is no better place for me than UVA. And there is no better time than now."

With that, Elliott went to work crafting what he had hoped to build for years - The Model Program.

"My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football," he said. "My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service."

Elliott's cornerstones of that culture are based on H.E.A.R.T.- humility, effort, accountability, respect and toughness.

"I think that building a championship culture starts with making sure that you have alignment and a vision," he said. "You clearly state the vision and you are particular in the people that you bring in and make sure that they align with the vision, and then you stay grounded to the principles that you set in place for the players and the staff, and you go to work every single day, and you keep an inside-out mentality. It's one day at a time, and eventually that will bring your championship culture to life."

Elliott's background and coaching pedigree is rich with championship experiences.

He spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team's co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team's running backs coach (2011-20).

At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.

Since Elliott's promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott's 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.

Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room this year, Elliott was in charge of Clemson's running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

As the program's offensive coordinator, Elliott worked with two first-round draft picks at quarterback, including the 2021 first overall pick Trevor Lawrence. From 2015-2020, a Clemson offensive player took home both the ACC's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year awards four times.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Elliott spent three seasons at Furman (2008-10) and two at South Carolina State (2006-07) coaching wide receivers at both schools. Prior to his coaching career he worked for Michelin North America for two years.

In 2002, Elliott earned his undergraduate degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team Academic All-ACC selection as well as a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of an ACC Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

Under Tommy Bowden, he came to Clemson as a walk-on wide receiver in the fall of 1999 and finished his career with four letters and appeared in 44 games. Swinney was his position coach his senior year (2003) in which he was named a co-captain of a team that finished with a 9-4 record and a No. 22 final ranking by AP and USA Today.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 will mark Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women – Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel – were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

GAME 1 • UVA 34, RICHMOND 17
Sept. 3 • Charlottesville, Va.

Game Notes

- UVA is 85-39-9 all-time in season openers and has won six-straight for the first time since winning six-consecutive openers from 1927-32.
- Tony Elliott made his head coaching debut and became the second UVA coach since 1965 win in his debut.
- Virginia had two 100-yard rushers - Brennan Armstrong (105 yards) and Perris Jones (104 yards) for the first time since Jordan Ellis (146) and Bryce Perkins (108) in 2018 against Richmond.
- UVA ran the ball 42 times and totaled 259 yards rushing, the most since accumulating 262 yards on 42 attempts against Boston College on Dec. 5, 2020.
- Virginia wore orange pants and orange jerseys for the first time since 2010 against North Carolina.
- Brennan Armstrong broke UVA's career total offense record with a 64-yard touchdown run. He surpassed Shawn Moore (7,987) and Bryce Perkins (7,910) on UVA's all-time list. It was the longest rush of his career and the 6th-longest ever by a UVA quarterback. His previous career long was 60 yards against Boston College in 2020.
- Armstrong rushed for 105 yards, his second 100-yard rushing effort of his career. He ran for 130 yards against Boston College on Dec. 5, 2020.
- Armstrong's 64-yard rushing touchdown was his 15th rushing score of his career, tying him with fellow southpaw Jameel Sewell for the fifth most ever by a UVA quarterback.
- McKale Boley and D'Brickashaw Ferguson are the only two true freshmen in UVA history to start at offensive tackle in the season opener. Only six true freshmen in program history have started a game at offensive tackle - Ferguson (2002 - all 14 games), Brad Butler (2002-1 game), Morgan Moses (2010 - 6 games), Eric Smith (2013 - 8 games), Chris Glaser (2017 - 2 games) and Boley (2022).
- Perris Jones is the first UVA running back with a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game since Wayne Taulapapa at Miami on Sept. 30, 2021. He totaled 104 yards on the ground, the first UVA running back to rush for 100 yards since Jordan Ellis against South Carolina in the 2018 Belk Bowl.
