Owls Head to Old Dominion

Rice hits the road again this weekend for a pair of C-USA games at Old Dominion (5-3, 2-2). The Owls have won five of their last six contests, including four straight overall while the Monarchs are coming off a road sweep at Florida Atlantic. Last season the two teams split the season series with each team winning at home. The Owls took down the Monarchs 73-70 in the last game of the regular season to clinch their second straight C-USA title.

Last Time Out

The Owls put together their best defensive performance of the season last Saturday at Tudor Fieldhouse, defeating the UTEP Miners 55-43 to sweep the weekend series. Rice (8-1, 4-0) allowed a season low in points and opponents field goal percentage (.271) while winning their 20th straight Conference USA home contest. Senior center Nancy Mulkey recorded six blocks for a second straight game. Rice had the upper hand in points in the paint (28-14) and the battle of the boards (44-38).

No Points for You

Defensively the Owls rank 8th in the NCAA in opponents' field goal percentage (32.2) and are surrendering just 55.4 points per game, which ranks 24th in the NCAA.

Receiving Votes

In this week's AP Top-25 Poll the Owls are receiving five votes, marking the fourth straight week the Owls have received recognition. Rice was last ranked in the AP-Top 25 when they finished the season No. 21 in 2019 after going 28-3.

Conference Dominance

The Owls have won 39 of their last 41 conference contests dating back to 2018. Rice has won nine straight in league play, the 11th-longest active conference win streak in the NCAA. Last season Rice pushed their conference winning streak to 30 straight wins over C-USA opponents before it was snapped, the longest in league history.

Defending Home Court

The Owls have won 15 straight at Tudor Fieldhouse, the 9th-longest active streak in the NCAA. Rice went 13-1 at home last season. Over the last three-plus seasons, Rice is 43-2 at home and have won 20 consecutive C-USA games at Tudor.

All About Efficiency

The Owls have been one of the most efficient teams in the nation offensively, ranking 16th in the NCAA in field goal percentage (48.2). A big reason for their success is the beautiful ball movement, averaging 17.4 assists per game (27th in NCAA) as a team. Senior Sydne Wiggins (3.7 apg-8th in C-USA) and junior Jasmine Smith (3.7 apg-8th in C-USA) each rank in the top-10 in the league in assists per game.

Fitting Right In

While four of Rice's five starters returned this season, sophomore guard Katelyn Crosthwait joined the unit this year and has flourished. The Purcell, Okla. native is averaging 8.7 points, 4.9 rebounds and is shooting 36 percent from three-point territory.

Mulkey's Block Party

Nancy Mulkey ranks third in Rice history in career blocks (200), one behind Jessica Kuster (201) for second place. The senior center currently ranks third in the NCAA among active players in career blocked shots (262) and fourth in career blocked shot average (2.91).

Milestone Win at Texas Tech

The Owls delivered their first win over a Power Five opponent in 14 years by defeating the Texas Tech Lady Raiders in convincing fashion, 81-62 on Dec. 5 at the United Supermarkets Arena. The Owls previous win over a P5 program came back on Dec. 1, 2006 when they defeated then No. 10 Texas A&M, 79-66. It also marked the first time Rice won a P5 road game since defeating Texas A&M (58-49) on Dec. 20, 1999.

Mulkey Collects Preseason Awards

Rice senior center Nancy Mulkey was recognized this preseason for three major awards, starting with the Conference USA Co-Preseason Player of the Year. In addition, Mulkey was named to a pair of national watch lists; the Lisa Leslie Award honoring the nation's top-20 centers and the Naismith Trophy recognizing the top-50 players in the country. The two-time C-USA Defensive Player of the Year ranked fifth in the NCAA last season in blocks per game (3.21) and earned a spot on the All-Conference First Team and All-Defensive Team for a second straight season after averaging 12.9 points, 6.9 rebounds and 3.0 blocks during league play.

Golden Era for Owls

Over the last 138 games, the Owls have gone a combined 102-36 (.739) and are coming off a second straight Conference USA Championship season. Under Langley the Owls have reached the 20-win plateau in four consecutive seasons (22, 23, 28, 21), the greatest four-year stretch in program history. The Owls have played in the postseason in three of the last four seasons, which includes the NCAA Tournament (2019), WNIT (2018), and WBI (champions in 2017). Rice was also set to be the automatic NCAA Tournament qualifier in 2020 before the postseason was canceled.

Look Who's Back

The Owls return 10 letterwinners from last year's squad, including four starters in seniors Nancy Mulkey and Sydne Wiggins, junior Jasmine Smith, and sophomore Lauren Schwartz. Despite losing the reigning C-USA Player of the Year Erica Ogwumike to graduation, the Owls' four returning starters make up 79 percent of last year's minutes and 65 percent of the team's scoring.

TINA LANGLEY - Head Coach - 6th season at Rice (111-58, 61-29 Overall)

Entering her sixth season at the helm of the Owls, head coach Tina Langley has helped put Rice basketball back on the map in a major way.

Over the last four seasons, the Owls have gone a combined 94-35 (.728) and are coming off a second straight Conference USA Championship season. Rice became the first team in Conference USA history to win regular season titles outright in consecutive seasons.

Under Langley the Owls have reached the 20-win plateau in four consecutive seasons (22, 23, 28, 21), the greatest four-year stretch in program history. The Owls have played in the postseason in three of the last four seasons, which includes the NCAA Tournament (2019), WNIT (2018), and WBI (champions in 2017). Rice was also set to be the automatic NCAA Tournament qualifier in 2020 before the postseason was canceled.

In 22 years on the sidelines, Langley has coached 43 All-Conference players, led her teams to 14 postseason appearances (13 conference championships in Big Ten, ACC, MAC, and C-USA), and has developed 20-plus professional players, including 12 WNBA draft picks. She's helped to bring in nine ranked recruiting classes among her stops and three have been ranked as top-10 classes.

On Feb. 22, 2019, Langley earned her 100th career victory, becoming the quickest coach in program history to reach the century mark.

In 2019-20, Erica Ogwumike repeated as C-USA Player of the Year while Nancy Mulkey won her second straight C-USA Defensive Player of the Year. Ogwumike and Mulkey also earned spots on the C-USA All-Defensive Team while Lauren Schwartz was selected to the C-USA All-Freshman Team.

In 2018-19, the Owls went 28-4 en route to winning both the Conference USA regular season (16-0) and tournament titles. The 28 wins established a new program record for the Owls and Rice advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 14 years, going toe-to-toe with No. 18 Marquette.

Langley was awarded the C-USA Coach of the Year in a season where the Owls set a program record by winning 21 consecutive games and earned their first-ever AP Top-25 ranking, spending a total of five weeks in the poll while climbing as high as No. 21 prior to the NCAA Tournament. The Owls also made their first appearance in the USA Today Coaches Poll at No. 23 prior to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2017-18, the Owls reeled off 23 wins, the second-most in school history and advanced to the second round of the WNIT for the first time since 2006. In addition, for the first time in 11 years the Owls reached the semifinals of the C-USA Tournament. The Owls finished with the highest home winning percentage (.929) in all of C-USA and were top-20 nationally.

The team's 17-3 start to the season was the program's best 20-game start in school history.

In only her second season (2016-17) at Rice, Langley guided the Owls to a WBI Championship (the school's first postseason title) and 22 victories. The Owls improved by 13 wins from her first to second season, one of the top increments in the nation.

Langley, who helped develop Maryland into a Final Four program, was named the fifth head coach in Rice University women's basketball history on April 15, 2015. In her first season at Rice (2015-16) the Alabama native guided the Owls to the quarterfinals of the C-USA Tournament for the first time since 2012.

Langley spent seven seasons coaching at Maryland, the final five of which were as the associate head coach, and compiled a 195-49 record during that time. The Terrapins were coming off a 2014-15 campaign in which Langley helped guide the team to their second consecutive Final Four appearance and a 34-3 record, climbing as high No. 3 in the USA Today Coaches Poll.
