(29) American University

American

Old Dominion University hosts American University this Sunday afternoon at 4:00 pm. The Eagles are led by head coach Mark Cody in his fourth year at American. Cody has brought American into the national spotlight during his tenure at American. The Washington, DC based team is ranked 29th by wrestlingreport.com.

On the mat, the Eagles are led at the 197-lb. slot in Josh Glenn. Glenn is currently ranked 4th in the nation as he has compiled a 16-1 overall record and a perfect 10-0 showing. He has pinned two nationally ranked opponents and defeated another by decision. Glenn will match up with the Monarchs 20th ranked David Mendoza in what will be certainly be billed as the top matchup.

Mike Cannon (165) has a 21-4 record and is ranked 20th in the nation. He will certainly give ODU's struggling Nick Pullano a great match. Other Eagles that could give ODU grapplers a run for their money are Rudy Rueda (174) with a 19-8 record and Kyle Borshoff (141) who has a 12-8 record but has matched up with eight nationally ranked opponents this year.

Senior Day

Sunday is the final home match for two wrestling Monarchs.

Josh Tyler (Mechanicsville, VA/Lee-Davis HS) has been a member of the ODU squad for four years beginning in 2003-04. He wrestles in the 149-lb. weight class. Tyler has had his best season as a senior compiling a 5-4 record in limited action.

Christian Staylor (Chesapeake, VA/Great Bridge), a transfer from Arizona State, has been a Monarch for three years beginning in 2004-05. He has wrestled in both the 125-lb. and 133-lb. weight classes. Staylor has compiled a 17-6 record including 8 major decisions and three technical falls in his final campaign.

Mind of Mendoza

ODU has seen a breakout year from their 197-pounder, David Mendoza. The sophomore has only lost seven bouts all season and hasn't lost by more than five points in any one bout yet this season.

Meanwhile, he rarely gives his opponent an opportunity to score. He leads the team in pins with eleven and was named CAA Wrestler of the Week for all wrestling from December 19th – January 9th.

Alaskan Assassin

Kaylen Baxter (Fairbanks, Alaska) has made it a habit this season of knocking off nationally ranked opponents. Baxter has stormed off to a 26-18 record his rookie year including three wins over Top 20 wrestlers.

He knocked out 7th ranked John Cox (Navy), 10th ranked Trevor Chinn (Lehigh), and 18th ranked Sam Alvarenga (VMI). The bout against Alvarenga was the title bout of the Virginia State Tournament.

Champions Developing the Future

Head Coach Steve Martin has led the Monarchs to a 34-18-1 mark midway through his third year at the helm. In the CAA the Monarchs have dominated with a 16-4-1 mark. Martin comes from a powerhouse of high school wrestling in Great Bridge High School in Chesapeake. In 14 years as head coach, the Great Bridge Wildcats won 13 state championships.

Martin is assisted by Lee Pritts, Mike Dixon, and Jon Sioredas. Pritts left a solid position at Missouri to come to the building ODU program and has been with Martin since his inception. Pritts, an All-American wrestler, has coached six NCAA All-Americans and two finalists.

Dixon brings great recruiting skills and knowledge of the CAA coming from James Madison. He has experience coaching championship contenders while at the University of Indianapolis.

Sioredas is a first-year coach with a wealth of knowledge about the sport. Named an All-American and ranked as high as 2nd nationally, Sioredas is now using his skills to teach. All four coaches are wrestling champions in their own right and are building a championship future.

Toppling The Top Tier

Old Dominion has made it a habit to rise against top competition this season. At the Virginia Duals, Christian Staylor knocked off Virginia's Eric Albright, ranked as high as 10th this season.

The biggest win of the year came at the hands of Kaylen Baxter when he toppled 7th ranked John Cox early in the year. Since, Baxter has knocked off two more ranked opponents including another top ten grappler.

Kyle Hutter (125) knocked Kent State's Chad Sportelli (ranked as high as 14th) out of the Southern Scuffle tournament with an 8-2 decision in the wrestlebacks. Another Kent State wrestler fell to Jesse Strawn when Eric Chine (24th nationally) was dropped in an 11-6 decision.

Finally, David Mendoza has four wins over ranked opponents with a default victory over Cornell's Jerry Rinaldi and two pins of Mason's Harry Zander. Most recently, Mendoza won 5-3 over Rider's T.J. Morrison.

At the Penn State Open James Nicholson (unattached) toppled Lehigh's nationally ranked Matt Fisk 3-2. Fisk was ranked 15th. Nick Pullano has beaten Tyler Tisdell twice, the 17th ranked 165-pounder in the nation.

Conference Honors

The Monarchs have been a mainstay in the conference voting all season. Most recently, Nick Pullano and Chris Brown were honored as the conference's best during the week of January 9-16.

Pullano went 6-0 at the Virginia Duals including two major decisions and another of his team-leading five technical falls. He was the only wrestler at the Duals to win six bouts as he gathered the most match points and the third most team points at the duals. Pullano is having a great dual season in dual competition at 14-2.

Brown won his second Rookie of the Week award going 5-1 at the Duals with two major decisions and a fall. He is 30-11 on the season and 12-4 in dual competition.

The Monarchs continue to impress the conference every week. This was the third of four releases that the Monarchs were honored. Last week, David Mendoza and Kaylen Baxter were named wrestlers of the week for their performances and on the first release Brown was named as Rookie of the Week.

Pullin' for Pullano

Nick Pullano has been on fire in dual competition this season, starting a perfect 14-0 in the Monarch duals. He has cooled recently with duals against two top ten wrestlers and the top Tech grappler. He still has a 14-3 record as he will again be tested Sunday. The 165-pounder for American is ranked 20th in the nation.

Pullano has notched his 60th career win this season and has a winning percentage of just under 70% going 21-10 this season. He is also the team-leader in technical falls with seven. The junior, with Staylor, is one of just two veterans in the Monarch starting lineup.

Winning With Williams

The Monarchs don't usually worry when the 141-lb. match-up comes around. The sophomore notched his 50th career win at the Virginia Duals and has a career 70.1% winning percentage. Williams finished his rookie campaign with a 29-15 record and is well on his way to an even better finish this season with his season record at 25-8. Never overmatched, the sophomore has only lost by decision this season.

By Weight Class

125: True freshman Kyle Hutter has won 20 bouts as a freshman including a win over 14-ranked Chad Sportelli. He is ranked 3rd in the conference and 12th in the region.

133: Christian Staylor has stepped in and gone 14-4 while Koballa nurses an injury and has even jumped back into the national rankings. He is ranked second in the CAA at 133 and has been winning big since coming back.

141: Ryan Williams got back on track in Iowa and is the Monarchs sure thing at 141. He is ranked 3rd in the CAA. One of only two Monarchs to have lost only by decision this season.

149: Kaylen Baxter has won the spot at 149. Baxter has knocked off three nationally ranked opponents including Sam Alvarenga (VMI) in the title bout at the Virginia States.

157: Chris Brown has wrestled to a 31-11 record leading the team in major decisions (11) and in wins. He is currently ranked 14th in the region and 3rd in the conference. Brown has placed four times this season and has been named the CAA Rookie of the Week twice this season.

165: Nick Pullano has become a mainstay in the ODU lineup and will be Martin's go-to at 165. He has a 14-3 dual record and leads the team with seven technical falls. Pullano is ranked third in the conference.

174: Derek Coffey has battled for more time in this spot. Ranked 6th in the conference, Coffey has a 10-25 record with a 4th place finish at Virginia States.

184: Jesse Strawn has eight pins and has inserted himself into the national rankings. Strawn was a two-time state champion and was selected to the CAA's pre-season All-Rookie team. He's ranked third in the CAA.

197: David Mendoza has climbed the rankings in his new weight class after winning 197 at Mat Town and the Virginia States including two pins of nationally ranked Harry Zander. He leads the team with 10 pins and is the third ranked 197 in the CAA. Has only lost by decision this season.

Hwt: Matt Pellar should solidify the lineup for Martin at the 285 slot. He has gone 8-3 in tournament competition and 6-5 in duals this season. He won the weight class at Mat Town and took a second place finish at the Virginia Intercollegiates.

ODU had a strong showing at the MSU Open against over 360 wrestlers from 21 different schools. Chris Brown finished a great weekend going 4-1 at the Open defeating three seeded opponents. Also continuing early season success was Ryan Williams with a 3rd place effort. Williams went 5-1 with his only loss coming in a 6-5 squeaker against No. 2 nationally ranked and number one seed at the MSU Open Andy Simmons. David Mendoza, Adam Koballa and Jesse Strawn all placed for the Monarchs on the first weekend of competition in 2006.

ODU faced a tough group at the Cornell Body Bar as head coach Steve Martin fielded a roster of nearly all freshmen. Junior Nick Pullano and sophomore Ryan Williams were the only two grapplers with more than two days of official collegiate experience at the Bar. Rookies Adam Koballa, Jesse Strawn and red shirt freshman Chris Brown stepped up to the challenge.

Koballa ran the table in the wrestlebacks to steal 3rd from the man who knocked him out of the championship bracket, William Simpson (Army). The four placewinners for the Monarchs also placed at the MSU Open and have garnered national attention for Coach Martin this season.

True freshmen Jesse Strawn and Adam Koballa continue to jumpstart their collegiate careers with another tournament placing. Strawn and Koballa, with redshirt freshman Chris Brown and sophomore Ryan Williams are the only Monarchs to place in all three tournaments so far this season. With the tough schedule, the coaches continue to force the young team into high-pressure situations and yet the youth have made an immediate impact for ODU wrestling.

ODU hosted their first CAA dual of the year and made a statement to the conference with a 38-12 win over the Patriots. George Mason boasted two nationally ranked wrestlers before David Mendoza and Nick Pullano disposed of each. ODU's tough schedule has put them on the map. Three Monarch starters were ranked nationally coming into the dual and a fourth in Adam Koballa joined his teammates after adding his third pin on the season. ODU tallied four pins and a technical fall in the victory.

The Monarchs went 4-1 at the CAA Duals and battled against the number six team in the country in Hofstra. The Monarchs used the performance as a springboard for the rest of the weekend and won 28 of the remaining 40 bouts. Nick Pullano continued to excel in dual competition, taking his undefeated streak to 14. David Mendoza added another pin to his team-leading total as Chris Brown also grabbed two more major decisions to add to his team-leading total in wins and majors. The performance should solidify good seeding for the CAA Championships.

The loss halted the Monarchs four-match winning streak. With the team score teetering after half the match, it was the Huskies that stepped up and won four of the last five bouts to put away Old Dominion. Chris Brown earned another win to add to his team-leading total, while upperclassmen Christian Staylor, Ryan Williams, and David Mendoza dispatched their opponents easily. Nick Pullano's 14-bout winning streak was put to an end as he lost to nationally ranked Johnny Galloway.

Old Dominion could not endure a five bout losing streak to come back against the Panthers of Northern Iowa. David Mendoza and Ryan Williams finished their day with perfect 2-0 records after beating both NIU and UNI grapplers. However, the nationally ranked individuals for UNI proved too much for the Monarchs. Williams sweep was a bounceback from a tough weekend at the CAA Duals. He leads the team in decisions with 16 and has a 75% winning percentage while only losing by decision this season. Mendoza's win was just one point shy of another major decision while Staylor lost his first bout in his last six.

Conference Honors This Season

What's Left?

ODU faces American Sunday at home, once again in The Ted, on February 11th. ODU holds a decisive 25-4 advantage in a series that dates back to just the second year Old Dominion had wrestling. The Monarchs have won six straight and ten of the last eleven against the Eagles. American is 8-8 on the season.

ODU will close out the season with an extremely tough road trip to Missouri, as they will face off against the number two team in the country. The last meeting against the perennial power was in 2002. Missouri holds an 0-4-1 advantage in the series.

Mendoza added to his team-leading total of pins and win percentage while Brown tallied another major decision and win to his team-leading totals.
