BUTCH JONES

Head Coach • Second Year at A-State

33rd Year Coaching • 13th Year as a Head Coach
Ferris State '90

Butch Jones was announced as the Red Wolves' 31st all-time head football coach on December 12, 2020.

Jones not only brought 11 years of head-coaching experience at the NCAA FBS level with him to Jonesboro after previous stops leading the football programs at Tennessee (2013-17), Cincinnati (2010-12) and Central Michigan (2007-09), but he also spent three seasons (2018-20) working as part of Nick Saban's staff at national-power Alabama.

During Jones' 12 seasons serving as a head coach, his teams have combined to win four conference championships, play in eight bowl games and finish ranked in the AP Top 25 five times. He has coached a total of 87 all-conference honorees and 27 NFL Draft picks, including All-Pro selections Alvin Kamara, Travis Kelce, Nick Bellore and Antonio Brown.

Jones guided 10 players to 11 all-conference selections in 2021, led by Alan Lamar's first team selection as a kick returner after posting a school and Sun Belt Conference-record 1,333 kickoff return yards. Among the 11 All-Sun Belt picks were five offensive players who helped the Red Wolves rank 11th in the country in passing yards per game.

Since his arrival in Jonesboro, Jones has made an immediate impact on the recruiting trail. The 2022 Arkansas State recruiting class not only ranked as the best in school history, but was also listed No. 1 in the Sun Belt Conference by both 247Sports and Rivals and inside the top five among Group of Five programs.

In 2020, Jones served as the Special Assistant to the Head Coach at Alabama, helping the Crimson Tide post an unblemished 13-0 record on their way to claiming the National Championship. He was also an offensive analyst for the program in 2018 and 2019 as it compiled a combined 25-3 record. The 2018 team played in the CFP national championship game, while the 2019 squad capped off the year with a 35-16 win over Michigan in the Citrus Bowl to finish ranked No. 8 in the final AP Top 25 poll.

Prior to Alabama, Jones spent a five-year stint at the University of Tennessee, collecting 34 wins and leading the Volunteers to bowl wins three times. He inherited a program that hadn't won a bowl game since 2007 and proceeded to direct the Vols to three consecutive bowl game victories for the first time in over 20 years (1994-96).

While Tennessee didn't have any Top-25 finishes the five seasons prior to Jones' arrival, he led the program to a pair of Top-25 rankings in both the final AP Poll and Coaches Poll in 2015 and 2016. Following the 2016 campaign, which saw Tennessee defeat both Florida and Georgia in the same season for the first time in 15 years, the Vols had six NFL Draft selections taken within the first four rounds for the first time since the 2001 season.

During his time in Knoxville, Jones was one of just three SEC head coaches to post back-to-back seasons with at least nine victories. Heading into his final season at Tennessee, he had the second most wins by a head coach in the conference behind only Saban.

Focusing on the complete student-athlete, Jones helped mentor over 200 academic all-conference winners and 100-plus academic honor roll recipients while in Knoxville. Under his direction, every academic record in Tennessee history was broken with 85-plus players earning their degrees. In addition to Tennessee, both Cincinnati and Central Michigan also posted the highest graduation rates and team GPAs in school history while under Jones' leadership as head coach.

Jones took over the Tennessee program after spending the 2010-12 seasons as Cincinnati's head coach. The Bearcats compiled a 23-14 record in his three seasons while also winning the Big East title in 2011 and 2012. Jones was named the league's Coach of the Year after Cincinnati's 10-win season in 2011, while also earning the same honor from CBSSports.com in 2012 after his squad captured its second consecutive bowl victory and finished in the Top 25.

Jones was also the head coach at Central Michigan from 2007-09, winning 27 contests and leading the Chippewas to the 2007 and 2009 Mid-American Conference (MAC) titles. His three-year stint in Mount Pleasant saw Central Michigan compile a 22-3 MAC record, make three consecutive bowl-game appearances and post a No. 23 postseason ranking in 2009. Jones was the only head coach to lead the program to consecutive bowl games, as well as the first in the history of the MAC to do so in his first three seasons.

Prior to making his second stop at Central Michigan, Jones was the wide receivers coach at West Virginia from 2005-06. While coaching in Morgantown, WVU combined to post a 22-3 record, including a Sugar Bowl win over Georgia and Gator Bowl victory against Georgia Tech.

Jones served as an assistant at Central Michigan for seven years from 1998-2004. During that time, he served as offensive coordinator (2002-04), running backs coach (1999-2004) and as tight ends coach (1998).

He was also the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Ferris State, from 1995-97 and at Wilkes University from 1993-94 while also serving as an assistant at Rutgers from 1990-92. His original entry into the coaching ranks was as an intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1987-89.

Jones is a 1990 graduate of Ferris State University in Michigan. Jones and his wife, Barb, are the parents of three sons - Alex, Adam and Andrew.

108TH SEASON: A-State holds a 488-511-37 record since the inaugural season and has played in 17 bowl games. The Red Wolves are 147-201-1 since joining the FBS level in 1992.

HEAD COACH BUTCH JONES: Butch Jones was announced as the Red Wolves' 31st all-time head football coach on December 12, 2020. Jones not only brought 11 years of head-coaching experience at the NCAA FBS level with him to Jonesboro after previous stops leading the football programs at Tennessee (2013-17), Cincinnati (2010-12) and Central Michigan (2007-09), but he also spent three seasons (2018-20) working as part of Nick Saban's staff at national-power Alabama. During Jones' 12 previous seasons serving as a head coach, his teams have combined to win four conference championships, played in eight bowl games and finished ranked in the AP Top 25 five times. He has coached a combined 87 all-conference honorees and 27 NFL Draft picks.

AN A-STATE WIN WOULD ... run the Red Wolves all-time Sun Belt Conference record to 92-64 ... give A-State wins in 60 of its last 88 Sun Belt Conference games ... improve the Red Wolves to 14-8 all-time in Sun Belt Conference openers ... snap a three-game skid in road contests

ON THIS DATE: A-State is set to play on Sept. 24 for the 13th time in program history. The Red Wolves carry an 8-4 record on this date and a 2-1 record on the road. This is the first time A-State places a conference game on this date since 2005 and the third time in program history (2-1).

Inducted into the Arkansas State Athletics Hall of Honor in 1987, the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1996 and the A-State Ring of Honor in 2001. Lacewell was at one time the only coach in the nation to have led college teams to back-to-back championships and been a part of back-to-back NFL Super Bowl wins. Roaming the sidelines for A-State from 1979-89, he led the program to 69 wins, two Southland Conference titles and four straight appearances in the Division I-AA Playoffs, including the 1986 national championship game. The 1985 and 1986 Southland Coach of the Year, Lacewell coached five First Team All-Americans, 23 Honorable Mention AP All-Americans and 24 All-Southland Conference selections. In his A-State tenure, 13 players went on to play in the NFL and 18 have since been inducted into the A-State Hall of Honor.

Blackman passed for two scores and ran in two more. Blackman's two rushing touchdowns marked the first time any A-State rusher had multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since Marcel Murray had three at ULM on Nov. 2, 2019. Blackman's performance also marked the first time an A-State QB had multiple rushing and passing touchdowns in the same outing since Justice Hansen had three passing and two rushing touchdowns against Georgia State on Oct. 18, 2018.

GO JOHNNIE GO: RB Johnnie Lang Jr. rushed for a career-high 124 yards on 13 carries against Grambling State becoming the first A-State rusher to eclipse 100 yards since Jamal Jones rushed for 106 yards at Texas State on Nov. 21, 2020. His 124 yards were the most since Marcel Murray rushed for 175 at ULM on Nov. 2, 2019. Lang had a career-long rush of 49 yards, the longest rush by an A-State player since Lincoln Pare had a 58 yard rush at Kansas State on Sept. 12, 2020.

HELLO CHAMP: Oregon State transfer WR Champ Flemings has made an immediate impression with back-to-back 100-yard receiving games, a first for any A-State player since 2020. Flemings had seven catches for 122 yards in the opener and added 10 catches for 105 yards at Ohio State. He ranks 18th nationally, third in the Sun Belt, with 6.7 receptions per game.

SEYDOU GOES OVER 100: Seydou Traore hauled in six receptions for a career high 120 yards at Memphis, the first A-State tight end with 100-plus receiving yards since Blake Mack had eight receptions for 124 yards against Central Arkansas on Sept. 24, 2016. Traore has two of the Red Wolves four receiving touchdowns this season and is second on the squad with nine receptions for 150 yards.

FIRST SINCE 2004: With Champ Flemings (2) and Seydou Traore going over 100 yards receiving in the first three games, this season marks the first time since 2004 A-State has a receiver with 100 yards receiving in each of the first three games. In 2004, Chuck Walker had six receptions for 126 yards at Missouri in the opener and three catches for 113 yards at LSU in game two while Jason Wood had eight catches for 101 yards against Memphis in game three. This is the first time the 2020 season, games 3-6, with consecutive games where an A-State receiver had 100-plus yards receiving.

APPROACHING 2K: Redshirt-junior RB Marcel Murray is 27 yards shy of becoming the 15th player in program history to record 2,000 rushing yards. With 1,973 rushing yards to date, Murray ranks 15th among the program leaders in rushing yards. He needs 59 yards to move past Johnston White (2014-17) for 14th. Murray needs 545 yards to break into the top 10.

PICK IT OFF: A-State finished last season with 11 interceptions, which topped its total of six from the 2020 season. With safety Eddie Smith collecting his first career interception against Grambling State, the Red Wolves have posted at least an interception in six of the last nine outings, including a five-game stretch before the 2021 season finale.

DISRUPTING THE BACKFIELD: Kivon Bennett made an immediate impact on the A-State defense in his first season with the program, posting 16.5 tackles for loss and 8.0 sacks. Bennett posted at least a half-tackle for loss in 11 of 12 games, one of 26 players nationally last season with 0.5 or more tackles for loss in 11 or more games. With a total of 16.5 tackles for loss, Bennett finished last season ranked 13th nationally with 1.4 tackles for loss per game. With at least half a tackle for loss in all games this season, Bennett has 13 games in his A-State career with 0.5 TFL or more, third-most nationally since the start of the 2021 season.

A LOSS ON THE PLAY: Dating back to the 2013 season, A-State has 5.0 or more tackles for loss in 91 of 116 games. A-State had 14 tackles for loss against Grambling State, six at No. 3 Ohio State and seven at Memphis. With an average of 9.0 TFL per game, A-State ranks seventh nationally and third in the Sun Belt Conference after week three. The Red Wolves 91 such games since 2013 are most in the Sun Belt in that span ahead of Marshall (88), Southern Miss (85), Troy (81) and Appalachian State (81). Nationally, A-State ranks 13th in that span, third among Group of Five teams behind Tulane (94) and UCF (93).

SELECT COMPANY: DE Keyron Crawford and DE Thurman Geathers each had 3.0 tackles for loss against Grambling State in the season opener. It marked just the fourth time since 2000 that A-State had two players with three or more tackles for loss in the same game, first since Darreon Jackson and Kevin Thurmon had 3.0 TFL each against Georgia Southern on Nov. 23, 2019. Ja'Von Rolland Jones (3.5 TFL) and Kyle Wilson (3.0) against Texas State on Nov. 18, 2017 along with Kyle Wilson (5.0) and Chase Robinson (3.0) against Georgia Southern on Oct. 5, 2016 are the other occasions.

GETTING TO THE QUARTERBACK: While posting 5.0 or more tackles for loss 91 times over the last 116 games (since 2013), A-State has a sack in 105 of those 116 games. The Red Wolves 105 games in that span are second in the new-look Sun Belt Conference behind Marshall (107) and only the Thundering Herd have more such games than the Red Wolves among Group of Five programs.

BEEN A MINUTE: A-State held Grambling State to 102 total yards, fewest by any opponent since Mississippi Valley State had 69 total yards in 2009. The Red Wolves also held Grambling State to 50 or fewer rushing yards, first time an A-State team has accomplished that since Troy had 47 in the 2017 season. It also marked the first time an opponent did not score a touchdown since the 2019 contest against Louisiana.

GRAMBLING STATE 3
ARKANSAS STATE 58

CENTENNIAL BANK STADIUM • JONESBORO, ARK. • SEPT. 3, 2022
JONESBORO, Ark. - A potent offense and stout defense lifted the Arkansas State football team to a dominant 58-3 season-opening win over Grambling State Saturday night at Centennial Bank Stadium.

A-State (1-0) pounded out 339 yards on the ground and 233 through the air for 572 yards of offense, while holding the Tigers (0-1) to just 102 total yards of offense. The Red Wolves' rushing total is the most since Oct. 5, 2016 (343 versus Georgia Southern). A-State also did not punt in a game for the first time since Sept. 24, 2011, against Central Arkansas.

The Red Wolves scored six times on the ground, eclipsing last season's total (4) and the most in a single game since Oct. 3, 2015, versus Idaho (6). Johnnie Lang led the ground attack with 124 yards on 13 carries, while Brian Snead rushed 12 times for 57 yards. Freshman Mike Sharpe II added 32 yards on seven attempts. All three found the end zone.

Defensively, A-State held its opponent without a touchdown since Oct. 19, 2019, while also limiting the ground game to under 50 yards since Dec. 2, 2017. The Red Wolves also allowed the fewest yards since giving up just 69 on Sept. 5, 2009 (vs Mississippi Valley State).
