Game Notes • ODU at NC State

Leading the Way

• ODU senior James Nicholson leads the Monarchs in his final season wearing the singlet. The Des Moines, Iowa native is currently fifth on ODU's all-time wins list with 127. He needs one more win to tie Jesse Strawn for fourth on ODU's career wins list.

• The senior went 3-0 at the Virginia Duals to up his season record to 17-0. In his only match against a ranked foe, Nicholson defeated No. 19 Tyler Cox of Wyoming 16-8.

• For his performance at the Southern Scuffle, Nicholson was named the CAA Wrestler of the Month for December. His second time this season receiving the monthly honor.

• Nicholson continued his impressive start to his senior season with a dominant performance at the Southern Scuffle, winning the 125 pound weight class. The senior went 5-0 and did not allow more than two points in any of his matches. He defeated two ranked opponents; No. 20 Jason Lara of Oregon State 8-1 in the semi's and No. 7 Zach Sanders (two-time All-American) of Minnesota 4-2 in the finals. The win over Sanders is especially nice for Nicholson as it avenges a loss to Sanders at the 2009 NCAA Championships

• Nicholson opened the season with a first place finish at the Hokie Open, going 5-0, defeating No. 10 Jarrod Garnett in the finals.

• The senior capped off his terrific start to the season by being named the CAA Wrestler of the Month for November. Nicholson went 9-0 on the month with four major decisions and one technical fall.

• A three-time CAA Champion at 125-pounds, Nicholson earned All-American honors as a freshman in 2008. Also solid in the classroom, he was named the CAA Wrestling Scholar Athlete of the Year last season.
