RUSS ANDERSON

(1970-2021)

Russ is part of the foundation of Conference USA. His contributions were remarkable, and his passion and dedication were evident in everything he did for the league.

We are proud to commemorate his lasting legacy to our conference.

Russell Anderson is the standalone inductee of the Conference USA 2021 Hall of Fame Class.

Anderson passed away suddenly in April at the age of 50.

He had recently been honored by his C-USA colleagues for 25 years of service with the league.

Anderson promoted Conference USA since its formation in 1995, primarily working as media relations contact for the league's football and baseball programs. He also worked with baseball and football scheduling, officiating, served as a liaison to the football and baseball coaches and was a member of the C-USA Hall of Fame Committee. Among the staff, Anderson was affectionately known as a walking encyclopedia of Conference USA facts, figures and history.

PROGRAM FACTS

This is Season 9 of Charlotte 49ers football and year 7 at the FBS level in Conference USA.

The 49ers football program began in 2013 and spent two years as an FCS Independent before taking a fast-track to FBS as a member of Conference USA in 2015.

In 2019, Charlotte enjoyed its first winning season and participated in its first bowl game: 2019 Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl.

Third-year head coach Will Healy is the second coach in program history.

SIMPLY CHARLOTTE

In referring to the 49ers athletic program, simply use "Charlotte" or "Charlotte 49ers". The university remains UNC Charlotte, but for athletic purposes, please use Charlotte. For short references and/or abbreviations, use 49ers and CLT.

WHY THE 49ERS

Charlotte adopted the nickname "49ers" in honor of the importance of the year, 1949. In 1946, The Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina (CCUNC) was established as a temporary institution designed to handle the influx of servicemen returning from the war. In 1949, community leaders, led by unofficial founder Bonnie Cone, successfully fought to make the school a permanent institution. Thanks to that can-do attitude and pioneering spirit, and in honor of the year 1949, the school's athletic teams were nicknamed the 49ers (adopted in 1962).

Gold Ties: While the 49ers nickname was brought about by the importance of the year 1949 and had nothing to do with the gold rush of 1849, it should be noted that the first gold discovered in America was found in the Charlotte area, less than 20 minutes from campus, in 1799. Charlotte's mascot, Norm the Niner, is a gold miner, by trade.

QUITE A COMBO

RS-Sr. QB Chris Reynolds and RS-Sr. WR Victor Tucker, a pair of team captains, were on the scout team together during a redshirt season of 2017. Reynolds, a walk-on at the time, and Tucker, a prized recruit, formed a strong working relationship that has become one of the best QB-WR combos in C-USA and the second most prolific duo in school history.

CRUZ MISSILE

K Jonathan Cruz kicked a 56-yd FG at WKU, matching the school record he shared with Blake Brewer. The 56-yarder is also tied for the longest made FG in FBS play this year. Cruz is now 5-of-6 (.833) all-time from 50 or more yards and owns a school record for FGM of 40+ yards (15-of-24; .625). All-time Cruz is 39-55 (.709), including 8-of-13 this year (.615)

BYRD CALLS

KR Shadrick Byrd is 2nd in C-USA with 490 return yards and his 24.5 kick return avg. is on pace to break the 49ers single-season school record (22.9, Demarrell Alexander, 2014). He ranks sixth in C-USA in all-purpose yards (113.36)

- Byrd had a pair of returns of over 55 yards at FIU to set up scores (C-USA STPOTW)
- Career-best 60-yard return; 57-yd return (2 returns; 117 yds; 58.5 avg.)
- First 49er with 2 50+ returns in one game
- Matches Aaron McAllister (App State, 2020) for most return yds (117) on 2 returns

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Charlotte scored its first-ever win over a power conference opponent (W, 31-28 vs. Duke, Sept. 3, 2021) and the 49ers received votes in the USA Today National Coaches poll for the first time in school history.

Third-year head coach Will Healy, who introduced the 49ers to Club Lit, famously, took Charlotte to its first bowl game (2019 Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl) in season one. Healy owns a 14-16 record in his first three years, including a 10-4 mark at home.

SCHOLARSHIP SURPRISE

Head coach Will Healy awarded a scholarship to walk-on offensive lineman Dejan Rasuo prior to the 2021 season. Former 49ers' all-American Alex Highsmith, a current Pittsburgh Steeler and former walk-on himself, presented Rasuo with the award following practice Fri., Aug. 27. Highsmith, who was a teammate of Rasuo's for two years, was in town for the Steelers NFL preseason game vs. the hometown Carolina Panthers. After Highsmith's announcement, the team mobbed the popular Rasuo who was surprised to realize his family was present, as well.

NEW FACES

Head coach Will Healy added four new coaches to the 2021 staff:

Special Teams Coordinator	Tyler Hancock (Kentucky Wesleyan, 2012)
Offensive Line	Pete Rossomando (Boston Univ., 1995)
Receivers	Perry Parks (Coastal Carolina, 2007)
Tight Ends	Joe Cox (Georgia, 2009)

A slew of newcomers are making immediate impacts:

- WR Elijah Spencer (true freshman): 25 rec.; 350 yds; shares team-high with 5 TD
- WR Jairus Mack (true freshman): 7 rec.; 88 yds; 1 TD; 3 rushes, 47 yds (15.7/rush)

- CB Geo Howard (transfer from Purdue): 39 tackles (4.4/gm); 11 tackles vs. Rice

DEUX BOSE

WR Grant DuBose has doubled up twice this year, scoring a pair of touchdowns in a pair of wins: the season-opener over Duke and the C-USA opener over Middle Tennessee. DuBose shares the 49ers lead with 5 receiving TDs

NINERS NOTCH FIRST-EVER WIN OVER POWER 5 FOE

The season-opening, 31-28, win over Duke was the 49ers' first-ever over a Power 5 opponent. The game was also Charlotte's first home game against a Power 5 team. Charlotte scored a pair of TD's in the final three minutes to card the victory.

WE WILL!

ENERGY AND ENTHUSIASM; PASSION AND POSITIVITY

Head coach Will Healy received the 2017 Eddie Robinson National FCS Coach of the Year Award after Austin Peay snapped a 29-game losing streak on its way to an 8-4 record. In his first season with the 49ers, he led Charlotte to its first winning record and first bowl bid.

He's known for the energy and enthusiasm, passion and positivity that he brings to the team's culture. Some of the mantras he espouses:

Fun:

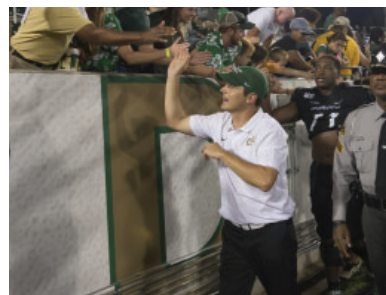

Celebrate Success! He encourages dancing during practice and celebrations after big plays. He introduced the "Dunk Can" to the defense to celebrate takeaways and he and his staff are eager to join in as teammates race down the field to celebrate a touchdown. After victories, the 49ers lockerroom is converted into "Club Lit", complete with DJ, flashing lights and loud music.

Access:

Healy prefers to open his practices to any and all fans of the program. He wants the community to see his team, to meet his team and to get to know his team. The better they know the Niners, he deduces, the more likely they are to come out and support the Niners. After practice, prior to the pandemic, his team would take time to talk with fans and shake hands. Similarly, after wins, the team circled the stadium thanking fans for their support.

Family:

He welcomes the families of his staff to practice and the facility. He wants them around. He has conducted more than one interview with Eli on his shoulders or Wynn in his arms.

WILL HEALY

HEAD COACH
3rd Season
(Richmond, 2008)

The sitting area in Will Healy's office is lit up by two lamps. Converted trophies, really. One is an MVP trophy presented by the Atlanta Touchdown Club to the top player in the Southeastern Conference. The other is for the SEC's Most Valuable Offensive Lineman, presented by the Birmingham TD Club.

Both were presented in 1948.

And both were awarded to Healy's grandfather, Bill Healy, an all-America tackle at Georgia Tech.

For Healy, football is a family affair. His father, uncle and grandad all played at Georgia Tech. Another uncle played at Vanderbilt and another uncle at The Citadel. He brought those family ties with him to Charlotte.

"I come from a football family," Healy explains. "I grew up around the game."

Will Healy celebrates during his first season at the helm.

He welcomes family members: his own, his assistants', his staff's to make the Rose Football Center their home away from home.

In addition to the two lamps and, of course, several family pictures, Healy also has images of players he has recruited who are "unbelievable examples of why you coach."

Good reminders of those who have had an impact on his life, and those whose lives he has impacted, through football.

"My Mom and Dad missed one college football game and I didn't play a whole lot," Healy notes. "I have unbelievably supportive parents and family but I still have coaches who have made a tremendous impact. We have a lot of players who don't have that structure and stability. If I had coaches that made that big of an impact in my life, imagine the opportunity for me to make an impact for guys who don't have that in their lives."

And while coaching is often about wins and losses, game-winning drives and third-down stops, Healy knows there can and should be another level.

"If we are doing it the way I would like, it has so much more to do with who I want them to be after football than it does with winning football games," Healy said. "Sometime you lose sight of that. We pride ourselves on teaching life lessons that transcend the game of football. I love trying to make an impact and a difference. I love having the opportunity to provide consistency, love and discipline to some guys who need it, want it, crave it and will be better for it."

WILL HEALY'S UNIQUE PERSPECTIVE

Dancing, dunk cans, hugs, best friends, fans abound, kids all around. Sounds more like a festival than a football practice.

Who does that? Will Healy does that.

The 49ers football coach is making an impact by turning some football ideals on their heads.

Dancing at practice is encouraged, not considered a lack of discipline. Celebrating success is expected, not considered showboating. Hugs after practice is a show of strength, not considered a sign of weakness.

Call it the new wave of football coaching.

As Healy has said, time and again, it's all about passion, energy, enthusiasm and positivity.

He has a different view of football. Perhaps a better one.

He hires friends to his coaching staff – not because it's best for his friends, but because it's best for the program.

He welcomes fans to practices, because building relationships is as important as winning games.

He brings his family to practice, to the office, to meetings because – well, family comes first.

He's heard that the coaching lifestyle means sacrificing time with the family. He's heard that best friends don't make the best assistants. He understands that many believe more people at practice provides more distractions.

He's heard all of that but prefers to look at it in a different way. All those negatives, he turns into positives. Which is his nature.

"When you have passion, energy and enthusiasm about something and you add that to positivity, you don't even realize how hard you're working," Healy explained. "I think the environment around what you're doing is contagious and makes people want to be a part of it and also gives you some joy in the journey. You work 365 days for 12 guaranteed opportunities and if you don't enjoy the other 353 days then why are you doing it? Ultimately, the definition of fun is executing at a high level and winning football games but to get there, there's a lot of work that goes into it and I believe that those characteristics and attributes will help us be successful."

So at practice, players rock, jump and holler. They dance and celebrate. They give each other alley-oop passes for dunks after turnovers. They chase each other into the end zone after touchdowns.

They celebrate success.

CLUB LIT

The 49ers host a post-game dance party in Club Lit (pseudonym for the 49ers locker room), complete with strobe lights and a DJ following victories. Head coach Will Healy has kicked off the post-game lockerroom pandemonium by tearing off his shirt, crowd-surfing, wearing a helmet and jersey, and by channelling his inner Lee Corso by wearing the head of the 49ers mascot, Norm the Niner.

When announcing the team's invitation to the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl, Healy entered the room in beach wear and snorkel mask before proclaiming "We're going to the Bahamas!"

Social media video of Club Lit has appeared on several national networks and been featured on ESPN's SportsCenter; GameDay and Get Up! as well as CBS Sports' Jim Rome Show.

ENERGY, ENTHUSIASM, PASSION and POSITIVITY

Healy and his staff pride themselves on four pillars of the culture they are building.

Charlotte celebrates success, chants W.A.R. (We Are Relentless) on defensive third downs, uses a "Dunk Can" to celebrate defensive turnovers, and holds a post-game dance party in Club Lit (pseudonym for the 49ers locker room), complete with strobe lights and a DJ following victories.

Prior to the 4th quarter at home games, a video plays with images of workouts and celebrations while Sports Performance Coach Chris Laskowski provides a motivational speech.

The sideline, like practices, remains energized and enthused throughout with a "Hype Squad" at home games.

DEFENSIVE MANTRA

"We never stop running".

Head coach Will Healy, alongside ESPN host Gene Wojciechowski and Carolina Panthers head coach Matt Rhule, on the set of ESPN's College GameDay in uptown Charlotte following the 49ers victory over Duke.
