A LOOK AT THE SERIES

► The Blue Raiders and Monarchs have met just twice in football with MT owning a 2-0 advantage in the series. MT won the 2014 meeting in Norfolk, 41-28, then picked up a 41-10 victory last year in Murfreesboro.

4-1 START?

► A win at Old Dominion would give the Blue Raiders a 4-1 C-USA record which would go down as their best start ever in Conference USA play. MT was 3-2 after five games in 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016. The last time MT started league play 4-1 came in 2012 which was the final season of Sun Belt Conference play.

LEE STAYS HOT

► Junior Ty Lee, who ranks in the top 10 at MT all-time in receptions, receiving yards and touchdown grabs, has elevated his play in recent weeks. After hauling in 10 passes in the first three games combined, Lee has 21 receptions in his last four outings and is coming off a two-touchdown performance against Charlotte. He needs 33 more receiving yards to become just the sixth player in MT history to garner 2,000 yards.

ACCURACY KEY FOR STOCKSTILL

► Senior signal-caller Brent Stockstill is enjoying his best year in terms of accuracy in 2018. Stockstill ranks 16th nationally at 68.0 percent which would go down as the third most accurate season in Blue Raider history (behind Wes Counts' 72.6 percent in 2001 and the 70.4 percent by Clint Marks in 2004). Prior to 2018, Stockstill's best season in terms of completion percentage came in 2015 (66.7 %).

Marshall, senior quarterback Brent Stockstill topped the 10,000-yard mark for his career which is a Blue Raider record. Stockstill is now one of just 11 QBs in the history of Conference USA to pass for over 10,000 yards in a career.

STOCKSTILL TIES RAMSEY

► QB Brent Stockstill recorded his 16th career 300-yard passing game and his second of the season when he tallied 317 yards against Marshall. Stockstill is now tied for 7th all-time in C-USA history with former Tulane star Patrick Ramsey with 16 300-yard outings. With his next 300-yard game he will tie Mike White (WKU) and Kevin Kolb (Houston) for 5th.

MOFFATT HAS CAREER GAME

► Safety Jovante Moffatt turned in a career performance with his 17-tackle effort against Marshall. Moffatt's previous high was 15 against FAU (2017). Moffatt also forced a fumble that led to first-half points for the Blue Raiders. It was only Moffatt's second game of the season and now has 31 stops in his three outings. His 17 stops were just three off Middle Tennessee's single-game Top 10 list.

SECOND HALF D REMAINS STRONG

▶ In Middle Tennessee's four conference games, the play of the Blue Raider defense in the second half has been strong. In games against FAU, Marshall, FIU, and Charlotte, the Blue Raiders have allowed a total of 648 second half yards (162.0). In the four games, MT has outscored the opposition in the second half by a combined score of 53-28.

9 TIMES IN 12 YEARS

▶ In 12 years under Rick Stockstill, Middle Tennessee has reached bowl eligibility nine times and eight times in the last nine years. The Blue Raiders have been bowl eligible under Rick Stockstill in 2006, 2009, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. The nine bowl eligible years during the 12-year span is more than any FBS team in Tennessee and equals the most of any program in C-USA.

After seven games, Harris leads the team with 53 tackles to go with 4.0 sacks and a forced fumble.

GIANT KILLERS

▶ Under Rick Stockstill, the Blue Raiders have a knack of knocking off Power 5 opponents. With the win at Syracuse last season, MT now has five wins over Power 5 foes in the Rick Stockstill era. MT has wins over Maryland (2008, 2009), Georgia Tech (2012), Missouri (2016) and Syracuse (2017) with six others being decided by a touchdown or less. The Raiders will have plenty chances in the future with games against Georgia and Kentucky in 2018; Michigan, Duke and Iowa in 2019; and Ole Miss and Virginia Tech in 2020.

RICK STOCKSTILL

Head Coach

13th Year - Florida State '82

2-Time Coach of the Year

Winning on the field, off the field and having a first-class football program from top to bottom is the goal of any university at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics. That is exactly what Middle Tennessee has as a result of the leadership of head coach Rick Stockstill.

In his 13th season at the helm of the Blue Raiders, Stockstill is the sixth-longest tenured coach in the country and third-longest in MT history. With his long tenure have come numerous achievements and accolades, including:

- 2006 Sun Belt co-champions
- 2009 New Orleans Bowl and 2017 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl champions
- 79 wins, third all-time in program history
- 7 bowl appearances and bowl eligible 9 times
- 2 NCAA awards for APR success (2011, 2012)
- American Football Coaches Association's 2017 Academic Achievement Award
- Back-to-back eight-win seasons in 2012-13 for first time in 21 years
- Six of the top eight crowds in Floyd Stadium history, including top three
- 8 All-Americans (1 Academic All-American)
- Three conference defensive players of the year
- Produced 36 First Team All-Conference honors
- Four bowl game MVPs
- Six NFL Draft picks and a pro bowler
- Produced the school's all-time leader in passing yards, receptions, sacks and interceptions
- 2018 recipient of the Grant Teaff "Breaking the Silence" Award

Stockstill and the Raiders advanced to their third bowl game in as many seasons in 2017 when they went to Montgomery, Alabama and took down Arkansas State for the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl championship, the first time in program history they played in bowl games in three successive seasons. It was also the seventh bowl game for MT under Stockstill's guidance and second win, joining the 2009 New Orleans Bowl title.

The first of the three-year bowl streak came in 2015, when MT held a 7-6 record and Popeyes Bahamas Bowl berth. The Blue Raiders had to show a tremendous amount of grit to become bowl eligible, winning all four games in November.

Prior to the three years finishing in bowl games, Stockstill led Middle Tennessee to three straight second-place finishes in Conference USA's East Division from 2012-14, including a berth in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl in 2013 against Navy.

Some regard the 2012 season as his best coaching job after leading the Blue Raiders to the nation's biggest win improvement from the previous year. They won just two games in 2011, but Stockstill turned the 2012 MT squad around, finishing with an 8-4 record that included an FBS school record five road wins. They also received votes in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll three straight weeks, another school record, and upset ACC Coastal Division Champion Georgia Tech. Along the way, he produced a Freshman All-American, eight all-conference players and a national offensive player of the week.

Throughout his 13-season tenure, Stockstill has also shown a commitment to academics. The Blue Raiders have gone from an APR score of 892 to a very impressive 992, the biggest increase of any program in the country.

Born Dec. 23, 1957 in Sidney, Ohio, Stockstill grew up in Georgetown, Kentucky, and then moved to Fernandina Beach, Florida, where he was inducted into the Fernandina Beach Hall of Fame in 2006. He was a three-year letterman at Florida State as a quarterback, where he was team captain and earned Honorable Mention All-American honors in 1981 under Coach Bobby Bowden. During his career at FSU, the Seminoles had two top-10 final Associated Press rankings and had wins over powers Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Ohio State and Nebraska. Stockstill, who received his bachelor's degree from FSU in 1982, made three bowl trips with the Seminoles.

RAIDERS FALL IN OPENER

NASHVILLE - Troubles offensively cost Middle Tennessee, as the Blue Raiders traveled to Vanderbilt and were defeated 35-7 in their season opener.

It was the fourth loss in a row for the Raiders in the series, which is in its final year in the current contract.

"I told them [after the game], I like this team and I'm not down on this team one bit," head coach Rick Stockstill said. "I'm sick to my stomach that we lost, and they're sick to their stomachs because they lost. We're still going to be a dang good football team.

"I feel a lot better about this team than I did at this point last year."

Middle Tennessee (0-1) looked to have control of the Commodore (1-0) defense in the first quarter, as a 4-yard pass from redshirt senior Brent Stockstill to junior CJ Windham ended a 93-yard drive with a touchdown. It knotted things at seven with two minutes left in the opening frame, and momentum had been snatched.

From there, though, the Blue Raider attack turned inconsistent.

It started with a bad lateral pass from Brent Stockstill to sophomore Brad Anderson that was dropped and returned 3 yards by Vanderbilt's Dayo Odeyingbo for what proved to be the game-winning score with 14 minutes left in the first half.

Middle Tennessee's defense did all it could to hold things close, holding Vanderbilt to just 89 total yards in the first half. But, the costly mistakes and inconsistencies on offense voided the good effort.

The Blue Raiders moved the ball effectively, getting to the Vanderbilt side of the field five times after their scoring drive in the first quarter. However, all five drives ended without points (three punts, an interception and a missed field goal).

Brent Stockstill finished the game 24 of 36 for 178 yards, one touchdown and an interception, and he added 10 yards rushing. He was sacked six times.

Ten Blue Raiders caught at least one pass, led by Anderson and junior Ty Lee with five catches apiece, Anderson for 37 yards and Lee for 25.

Defensively, redshirt senior linebacker Darius Harris led the way with eight tackles, a sack and tackle for loss. Khalil Brooks added five tackles and a tackle for loss, and Chris Melton and Kylan Stribling also had five tackles apiece.

BLUE RAIDERS ROLL IN HOME OPENER

MURFREESBORO - It wasn't pretty at times, but a win is a win.

That's what Middle Tennessee Head Coach Rick Stockstill told his team after the Blue Raiders (1-1) sent their fans home happy with a 61-37 win over UT Martin (0-2) at Floyd Stadium.

"Winning is hard," he said. "This was a grind ... it was a tough, competitive game." Not everything went MT's way against its old OVC rival. The Blue Raiders surrendered 460 total yards (355 passing), gave up an onside kick, allowed four sacks, missed two extra points, suffered six costly penalties and gave up 12 third-down conversions.

Despite the miscues, Middle Tennessee was able to grow as much as a 23-point lead midway through the third quarter thanks to its offense and hung on.

"When you win and don't play your best, that's always a positive," Coach Stockstill said.

The Blue Raiders took a 26-17 lead into halftime and expanded on it quickly after the break thanks to redshirt senior quarterback Brent Stockstill and a good special teams play.

After Stockstill marched the blue and white down the field for a touchdown, red-shirt freshman linebacker Wayne Parks recovered a poor punt attempt on the ensuing Skyhawk drive and returned it 35 yards for another score, giving MT a 40-17 lead that was its largest of the game to that point.

The Skyhawks tried a dramatic comeback after the punt return TD, cutting the lead all the way down to 47-37 with 9 ½ minutes left in the contest, but MT wouldn't be denied its first win of 2018.

Stockstill answered a 59-yard UTM scoring drive with an eight-play, 75-yard drive highlighted by a 39-yard reception by sophomore Brad Anderson. The drive ended with a 26-yard passing score to Patrick Smith, his third receiving TD of the night.

UT Martin attempted another answer, getting the ball down into the red zone, but freshman Gregory Grate Jr. iced the game with a 97-yard pick six to put Middle Tennessee up by the 61-37 final.

Stockstill finished 25 of 34 for 407 yards and five TDs through the air, his third career 400-yard passing game. Anderson was his favorite target, catching six balls for 141 yards, and Smith had five grabs for 87 yards and three TDs, tied for a school single-game record. CJ Windham added three catches for 86 yards and two TDs.

Alongside Stockstill in the backfield, redshirt freshman Chaton Mobley got the first start of his Blue Raider career and responded well. The Fulton, Tennessee native finished with 12 carries for 55 yards and the first two TDs of his college career.

Defensively, Middle Tennessee racked up five sacks as a team, led by two from Thomas, who also had six tackles and three tackles for loss.

Game Notes

- Senior wide receiver Patrick Smith, who is coming off an 87-yard, three touchdown game against UT-Martin, followed up strong at Georgia. Smith hauled in a career-best nine receptions for 77 yards and a touchdown. Smith's previous high was seven catches against Louisiana Tech in 2016.
- True freshman safety Gregory Grate earned his first collegiate start today against Georgia and did not disappoint. The Miami, FL, native registered a career-high nine tackles, including five solos. Grate was coming off a seven tackle game in the win over UT-Martin.
- Punter Matt Bonadies, a Ray Guy Award Watch List candidate, returned to his home state and enjoyed a solid outing. Bonadies, from Buford, Ga., had six punts for a 46-yard average. Bonadies had two punts of 50 yards or longer and four of his six efforts were inside the Georgia 15-yard-line.
- WR Casey Gatlin played in his first MT game today ... LB Avery Jones played in his first game as a Raider today as well ... Mecole Hardman's 70-yard punt return for a TD in the second quarter was the first allowed by MT since BYU in 2013 ... With under a minute to play in the first half, LB Khalil Brooks was ejected for targeting.

BLUE RAIDERS FALL AT #3 GEORGIA

ATHENS - Middle Tennessee was tasked with facing its toughest competition of the season and couldn't stand up against the No. 3 Georgia Bulldogs, falling 49-7.

Georgia (3-0) controlled the Blue Raiders (1-2) in almost every aspect of the game in front of a hostile crowd of over 92,000 at Sanford Stadium. However, MT head coach Rick Stockstill wanted his players to flush it after the contest.

"I'm proud of our team," he said. "Losing stinks, and we hurt, I hurt. But, I'm proud of that team in there, because it was tough sledding today ... [Georgia] showed why they're ranked where they are. They swallowed us up today."

It didn't take long to figure out which team was better on Saturday.

The defending national runners-up Bulldogs came out of the gates hot, scoring on their first drive of the game after running back Elijah Holyfield took a rush 66 yards to the MT 7-yard line.

As the first-quarter buzzer sounded, the Raiders found themselves in a 14-0 hole that would grow to 42-7 at the end of the first half.

"I thought we fought hard and competed ... but we kind of knew we were out-matched coming in and had to play a perfect game," redshirt senior quarterback Brent Stockstill said. "That's a really good team we just played."

The big plays MT allowed UGA was one of the storylines.

Georgia had seven offensive plays of 20 yards or more to go along with a 70-yard punt return for a touchdown.

On the flip side, Middle Tennessee had one play of more than 20 yards.

With just over seven minutes remaining in the second quarter, redshirt senior Brent Stockstill hit fellow senior Patrick Smith along the right side, and the Nashville native skirted down the sideline for a 41-yard TD.

It was just the second play Georgia has allowed this season of more than 25 yards, and it extended Stockstill's streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to 26, the second longest active streak in the country.

Stockstill finished 19 for 29 for 138 yards, one TD and an interception. Smith was his favorite receiver, catching nine balls for 77 yards and the score. On the ground, the Blue Raiders were led by redshirt junior Terelle West, who rushed for 74 yards on 17 carries.

Defensively, MT was led by freshman Gregory Grate Jr. In his first career start, the Miami, Florida native racked up a team-high nine tackles.

Redshirt senior Jahmal Jones added a solo sack, while senior Wesley Bush and sophomore Jordan Ferguson had a half sack apiece.

While the game didn't go as Middle Tennessee had hoped, afterwards its head coach stressed how it wasn't indicative of how the team will perform in Conference USA play. The Raiders will get a much-needed bye in Week 4 before opening C-USA play against defending champion FAU on Sept. 29.

"I've never doubted the toughness of this team," Rick Stockstill said. "I'm proud of the leadership of this team, and I still believe in this team. I told them that after the game."

Game Notes

- With 27 completions, QB Brent Stockstill has moved into 11th all-time in Conference USA history for career passes completed with 824, surpassing Tulane's Patrick Ramsey (798), FIU's Alex McGough (806) and Memphis' Danny Wimprine (808). His 259 passing yards on the night give him 9,933 career passing yards, enough to pass Rice's Chase Clement (9,785), WKU's Brandon Doughty (9,885) and UAB's Darrell Hackney (9,886) for 11th all-time in C-USA, while his second quarter touchdown pass gives him 85 in his career to tie Houston's Kevin Kolb for seventh in league history.

- WR Patrick Smith hauled in 89 receiving yards on five catches against the Owls, breaking his previous career high of 87 receiving yards from three weeks ago since UT Martin.

- Middle Tennessee's game-winning 2-point conversion was the Blue Raiders' first successful 2-point conversion since Nov. 5, 2016 against UTSA.

- After allowing FAU to top the 300-yard mark in the first half with 301 total yards, the Blue Raider defense held the Owls to just 125 total yards, only four first downs and one lone third down conversion in eight attempts after halftime.

BLUE RAIDERS UPSET C-USA FAVORITES

MURFREESBORO - Fresh off its bye week, Middle Tennessee started its Conference USA slate with a tough home matchup and came up with an unbelievable comeback win 25-24 over Florida Atlantic.

"This was a fantastic win," MT Head Coach Rick Stockstill said. "You beat a team like that, coming in the underdog ... and we played so hard and strained and competed and played our tails off and never gave up."

"This team showed a lot of mental and physical toughness tonight, and I'm really, really proud of them."

The defending C-USA champion Owls (2-3, 0-1) got up early but couldn't hold the Blue Raiders (2-2, 1-0) down in their annual Blackout Game and Hall of Fame Week-end.

FAU held a 21-3 lead in the first half and 24-10 third-quarter advantage, but the first career rushing score from sophomore Brad Anderson with a minute left in the third cut the deficit in half.

Then, after the 24-17 score lasted most of the fourth quarter, Middle Tennessee capped a nine-play, 43-yard drive with a Tavares Thomas 1-yard rushing touchdown on fourth down with 38 seconds remaining, bringing the blue and white to within 24-23.

Instead of going for the PAT and sending the game to overtime, Stockstill sent his offense back on the field for the two-point conversion and the win.

Redshirt senior quarterback Brent Stockstill took the snap and ran to his left, and after pumping a few times, he threw with a man in his face over the middle of the end zone. Graduate Gatlin Casey, who made his first start for the Raiders, was there, jumping and snagging the ball with his fingertips to give Middle Tennessee a 25-24 lead, its only lead of the game.

Senior safety Jovante Moffatt, who made his first start of the season after being out with an injury, intercepted an FAU pass on fourth down on the ensuing drive to ice it.

Moffatt led a defense that played like its hair was on fire in the second half.

After allowing 301 total yards (184 rushing) in the first half, the Blue Raiders gave up just 125 total in the second half and only three points.

The game plan going in was to contain defending C-USA Offensive MVP Devin "Motor" Singletary, who led the nation in rushing yards and touchdowns last season and has the most rushing TDs (12) in the country so far this year.

Singletary rushed for 79 yards and two touchdowns on 22 carries in the first half, but after halftime managed only 39 yards on 12 attempts.

"At halftime, we made the adjustments," MT defensive coordinator Scott Shafer said. "Hats off to the players, they did a nice job seeing where the voids were and how we could fix them with some checks and adjustments."

Moffatt finished with eight tackles and the interception, while his safety mate, sophomore Reed Blankenship, had a career-high 10 tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss after missing the Georgia game in Week 3 with an injury. Redshirt senior linebacker Darius Harris also had 10 tackles.

Offensively, Brent Stockstill finished 27 of 40 with 259 passing yards, a TD and an interception, and he led the team with 56 rushing yards. His favorite target through the air was Ty Lee with six catches for 62 yards, and senior Patrick Smith added a career-high 89 receiving yards on five catches. Thomas also had a rushing and receiving touchdown in his first game action since the season opener against Vanderbilt, and Anderson had 53 receiving and 51 rushing yards.

Game Notes

- With a 25-yard pass to Casey Gatlin, senior quarterback Brent Stockstill topped the 10,000-yard mark for his career which is a Blue Raider record. Stockstill is now one of just 11 quarterbacks in the history of Conference USA to pass for over 10,000 yards in a career. He is also just the 24th player in NCAA history to reach 10,000 yards
- Safety Jovante Moffatt turned in a career performance with his 17-tackle performance against The Herd. Moffatt's previous high was 15 against FAU (2017). Moffatt also forced a fumble that led to first-half points for the Blue Raiders. It was only Moffatt's second game of the season. His 17 stops were just three off Middle Tennessee's single-game Top 10 list
- One week after limiting Florida Atlantic to 125 yards and no touchdowns in the second half last week, the Blue Raider defense proved dominant in the second half once again at Marshall Friday night. The blue-clad stop squad held Marshall to 149 yards and seven points in the second half as Middle Tennessee erased a 17-10 halftime deficit. More importantly, the defense was huge in the decisive third quarter when it held Marshall to 59 yards

BLUE RAIDERS SECURE GUTSY ROAD WIN AT MARSHALL HUNTINGTON

- Middle Tennessee has liked coming out of the locker room after halftime during Conference USA play.

On Friday night for the second week in a row, the Blue Raiders (3-2, 2-0) dominated a C-USA title contender in the last two quarters, this time leading to a 34-24 win at Marshall (3-2, 1-1).

The win was the first ever for MT in Huntington, breaking an 0-4 mark all-time at Joan C. Edwards Stadium, and it also gave Middle Tennessee an early solo East Division lead.

Marshall controlled things in the first half with its big nasties up front on both sides of the ball. At the break, the Thundering Herd led 17-10, and they had gotten to Raider quarterback Brent Stockstill for five sacks while rushing on offense for 167 yards and a 5.2-yard average.

Just like in their C-USA opener the week prior when they outscored preseason C-USA favorite FAU 15-3 to take a 25-24 win, the Blue Raiders came out in the second half on a mission.

The Middle Tennessee defense held Marshall to just 149 total yards in the final two quarters, and the Raiders didn't give up a sack on offense, allowing Stockstill and his weapons to turn on the heat.

The southpaw signal caller led the Blue Raiders to 24 unanswered points in the second half, finishing 25 of 40 for 317 yards and two touchdowns through the air and running for another 31 yards and a TD. He also went over 10,000 yards passing for his career, the first MT player to accomplish that feat and just the 24th in NCAA history.

Stockstill wasn't stingy with who he threw the ball to, either. Eight players caught at least one pass, led by graduate senior Gatlin Casey's six receptions for 54 yards. Junior Ty Lee led the way in receiving yards with 67 on four grabs, and seniors Patrick Smith and Tavares Thomas had TD catches.

Thomas also came alive in the second half on the ground, rushing for 32 of his team-high 42 yards after halftime. He also had a rushing TD for his second of the night.

Leading the way defensively for the Blue Raiders was senior safety Jovante Moffatt. In his second game of the season after missing the first three recovering from offseason surgery, he racked up a career-high 17 tackles to go with a forced fumble.

His safety mate, sophomore Reed Blankenship, added 14 tackles, and linebackers Darius Harris and Khalil Brooks were also in double digits with 12 and 11, respectively. Harris, Brooks (two), Trae Philpots and DQ Thomas (two) also had sacks, and Harris forced a fumble. Wesley Bush intercepted a pass.

Game Notes

- Backup quarterback Asher O'Hara came in during the second quarter for an injured Brent Stockstill and did a solid job in his first extensive action as a Blue Raider. O'Hara, who did not arrive on campus until August from the College of DuPage, directed two straight touchdown drives. The sophomore finished with 114 yards passing on nine completions while also rushing for 85 yards.
- Middle Tennessee engineered its second 90 or more yard drive this season when they went 92 yards for its first touchdown against FIU. It went down as the 25th 90 or more yard drive under Rick Stockstill.
- Senior running back Tavares Thomas has enjoyed getting into conference play. In three games he has scored six touchdowns to lead the Blue Raiders. He had two against FAU, two against Marshall and two more tonight against FIU. He now has 15 touchdowns in his two seasons (basically 14 games).

BLUE RAIDERS SUFFER TOUGH LOSS LATE AT FIU

MIAMI - Plenty was stacked against Middle Tennessee on the road at FIU, and the Blue Raiders couldn't hold a late lead, falling 24-21.

The Blue Raiders (3-3, 2-1) lost quarterback Brent Stockstill, running back Brad Anderson, safety Jovante Moffatt and offensive lineman Chandler Brewer for parts of the game, and they couldn't overcome the losses against the Panthers (4-2, 2-0) on their homecoming.

Middle Tennessee led 14-13 at halftime and grew the advantage to 21-13 in the third quarter, and the lead lasted all the way until just under four minutes left in the ballgame.

After a Panther field goal with 10:43 remaining, FIU capped a 10-play, 84-yard drive with a 23-yard touchdown from quarterback James Morgan to wideout C.J. Worton. A successful two-point conversion brought the score to 24-21 in favor of the Panthers, their first lead since the game was 3-0 early in the second quarter.

With 3:55 left on the clock, backup quarterback Asher O'Hara orchestrated a good drive following the FIU touchdown, getting MT all the way to the Panthers' 15-yard line. He was intercepted in the back of the end zone, however, to end the comeback chance. It was the only turnover of the game for either side.

The sophomore quarterback was gutsy in relief of Stockstill. He completed nine-of-20 passes for 114 yards and the interception and ran 21 times for a team-high 85 yards and a touchdown.

Middle Tennessee's defense also did its best to step up with its offense limping, holding down a good FIU offense despite being on the field for over 34 minutes of game time.

The Blue Raiders held the Panthers, who went in as the second-highest scoring team in C-USA (38.2 per game), to just 70 yards rushing, 115 below their season rushing average that was ranked third in the league.

Sophomore safety Reed Blankenship led the way on defense with 11 tackles for Middle Tennessee, while DQ Thomas had a sack.

On the offensive side, junior Ty Lee finished with five catches for 74 yards, and senior Tavares Thomas rushed for 26 yards and two touchdowns. Thomas has scored six touchdowns in the last three games combined.

Game Notes

- Ray Guy Watch List member Matt Bonadies logged a 68-yard punt for the Blue Raiders in the first quarter, besting his previous career long punt of 64 yards which came at Minnesota in 2017.
- Junior WR Ty Lee's two first half touchdown catches makes him tied for seventh in the Blue Raider record book with 16 career touchdown receptions.
- With 2.5 tackles for loss against Charlotte LB Khalil Brooks now has 27 for his career, the 10th most in Blue Raider history.
- The Blue Raiders are now 18-4 at Floyd Stadium in C-USA games.

RAIDERS GET DEFENSIVE IN HOMECOMING WIN

MURFREESBORO - It wasn't pretty, but Middle Tennessee captured a homecoming victory over Charlotte 21-13.

The rebound for the Blue Raiders (4-3, 3-1) after their loss to FIU the week prior was much-needed to keep track in the Conference USA East Division standings. With the win, MT is now 4-0 all-time against Charlotte, including a 2-0 mark at home.

"Really, really happy and proud of our team," Raider Head Coach Rick Stockstill said. "It was a great win, and we knew it was going to be a four-quarter game coming in here. That's what we got.

"Let's dance ... we won, and there's nothing to be mad about. That was a great win, and it's hard to win football games, it doesn't matter who you play. I'm fired up."

Middle Tennessee's offense struggled for most of the game to find consistency against a Charlotte defense that went into the game ranked third in C-USA in total yards (329.8 allowed per game). The Blue Raiders managed just 144 total yards (33 rushing).

Luckily, the blue and white were gifted with a heck of a game from their defense. The 49ers scored on their first drive via a 57-yard rush by C-USA second-leading rusher Benny LeMay, but that's all MT would allow until a garbage-time touchdown with just over a minute left in the contest.

Charlotte was forced to punt six times, turned the ball over on downs three times, missed two field goals and gifted Middle Tennessee with two turnovers on 13 drives between the TDs. The Blue Raiders finished with four sacks and nine tackles for loss.

"No matter what, we just try to put the ball down and play defense," redshirt junior linebacker Khalil Brooks said. "We take pride in everything we do ... and believe in running to the ball to lead to gang tackles. We were pretty good at that today."

The 6-0 Charlotte lead after LeMay's rushing touchdown in the first quarter lasted all the way until the 6:23 mark of the second, when redshirt senior quarterback Brent Stockstill hit junior Ty Lee for a 29-yard score to give MT a 7-6 advantage.

Before the seven-play, 69-yard drive, Middle Tennessee had managed just 15 total yards in 16 plays with only one first down. The long drive seemed to jumpstart the whole team at the right time.

In the subsequent Charlotte possession, quarterback Evan Shirreffs was picked off by MT senior safety Wesley Bush, who was playing in place of fellow senior Jovante Moffatt.

Bush returned the interception to the 49er 15-yard line, and five plays later, Stockstill hit Lee for 5 yards for the duo's second TD of the game.

"There were some big plays that helped us out a lot and really changed the momentum of the game," Bush said. "I wish we could've capitalized as a defense by scoring on them, but we gave it to our offense and they did a good job with it."

The Blue Raiders would take advantage of another interception, this time by O.J. Johnson, in the fourth quarter, pushing the lead to 21-6 after a short, 22-yard drive.

Middle Tennessee's defense was led in the tackles department by Brooks, DQ Thomas, Bush and Darrius Harris with six apiece. Harris, Malik Manciel, Tyshun Render and Trae Philpots each had a sack, and Brooks had 2.5 tackles for loss to lead the team.

Offensively, Brent Stockstill finished 14-for-20 passing for 111 yards, three TDs and an interception, and he also lost a fumble. Lee had six catches for 60 yards and two scores, his first two TDs of the season, and graduate Gatlin Casey had two catches, 30 yards and a TD.

It wasn't the most impressive game for the MT offense, but its starting QB isn't worried moving forward.

"We'll be ok," said Brent Stockstill, who was hobbled all week with an ankle injury suffered against FIU. "We have a good offense, and we've proved that earlier this year. We'll just have to bounce back and have a good week, but all we care about is winning."
