• Old Dominion hosts Georgia State in the regular season finale on Saturday, Nov. 29 at 2 p.m. on ESPN+ and the ODU Sports Network.

• ODU won at Georgia Southern last week 45-10. It was the largest home loss in program history for the Eagles.

• Georgia State lost to Troy 31-19 last week. Quarterback Christian Veilleux threw for 307 yards and a touchdown while wide receiver Javon Robinson caught seven passes for 146 yards and a touchdown.

• ODU quarterback Colton Joseph completed 12-of-18 passes for 140 yards and carried 20 times for a career high 189 yards. He passed and ran for a touchdown.

• Running back KeTravion "Bull" Hargrove had 10 carries for 40 yards but three touchdowns in the win at Georgia Southern. He came into the game with one rushing TD on the year. Hargrove is the third player this year to have three rushing touchdowns in one game, joining Colton Joseph against ULM, and Trequan Jones against NC Central.

• ODU rushed for a season high 376 yards against the Eagles. It was the third time this season ODU rushed for more than 300 yards. ODU rushed for 302 yards against Coastal and 351 against Troy.

• Linebacker Jahleel Culbreath had four tackles and two tackles for loss.

• ODU just missed its sixth game of the year holding teams to seven points or less. ODU is tied for second in the country doing it five times.

• ODU Head Coach Ricky Rahne is in his sixth season overall and fifth on the field. He had to hire just one new full-time coach, cornerbacks coach Kresean Reed.

Ricky Rahne

Thurmond Family ODU Head Coach
Cornell, 2002
Fifth Season/Sixth Overall

Old Dominion Football Head Coach Ricky Rahne enters his sixth season in charge of the Monarchs.

In his fifth season in 2024, Rahne led the Monarchs to a 5-7 record, including four wins over teams that played in a bowl game.

The Monarchs led the Sun Belt Conference in rushing offense, field goal percentage and red zone offense in 2024, while leading the country in Red Zone offense. ODU was 38-for-40 in the Red Zone, scoring at a 95 percent clip. ODU also ranked in the top-15 nationally in rushing offense (14th), blocked kicks (11th) and punt return defense (14th).

Redshirt freshman quarterback Colton Joseph took over the starting quarterback role in the third quarter at Bowling Green, and led the Monarchs to a come-from-behind win. Joseph passed for 1,627 yards and 11 touchdowns and also rushed for 647 yards and 11 touchdowns, second most in the league. Running back Aaron Young, a transfer from Rutgers, led the team with 887 rushing yards, while Isiah Paige, a four-year member of the Monarchs, led ODU with 61 receptions for 819 yards.

Former walk-on Koa Naotala led ODU with 88 tackles, while Jahron Manning had 85 stops and three interceptions.

Naotala earned second-team All-Sun Belt honors while Zach Barlev, Pat Conroy, Isiah Paige, Manning and Kris Trinidad earned third-team honors. Joseph, Young, Mario Thompson and Denzel Lowry earned honorable mention.

ODU went 6-7 in 2023 and clinched a bowl berth by winning its final two games of the regular season on the last play of each game. The Monarchs played Western Kentucky in the Famous Toastery Bowl in Charlotte, North Carolina and fell 38-35 in overtime.

The Monarchs worked in 16 new starters, nearly 60 new players and returned the sixth fewest starts in the country heading into the season. A year after finishing last in the Sun Belt in most offensive categories, Rahne hired former Fordham offensive coordinator Kevin Decker to take over the offense, and it showed improvement as ODU finished eighth in the league in rushing and 11th in scoring offense.

To get to six wins, ODU exorcised a few demons, defeating App State and Georgia Southern for the first times in program history. ODU played in 11 one-score games and went 6-5 in those games. Six of those games were not decided until the final play of the game.

Old Dominion went 3-9 in Rahne's second season on the field but the wins were two of the biggest in program history and the accolades were aplenty throughout the season. ODU defeated Virginia Tech 20-17 in the season opener, marking the second win in program history over the Hokies. A few weeks later, the Monarchs defeated Arkansas State 29-26 in the first Sun Belt Conference game in program history. Two weeks later on national television, the Monarchs knocked off previously undefeated and eventual Sun Belt East Division Champion Coastal Carolina, 49-21 in Conway, South Carolina.

In his first season on the field in 2021, Rahne took a team that went 1-11 in 2019, and did not play in 2020, to a bowl game. ODU started the season 1-6 and won five-straight behind Rahne's 1-0 mentality, to earn a bid to the Myrtle Beach Bowl to play Tulsa. ODU became just the third team since 1936 (AP Poll era) to start the season 1-6 or worse and win six games.

Rahne helped lead Zack Kuntz to first-team All-Conference USA honors at tight end and 12 additional Monarchs to spots on the C-USA honorable mention team. Kuntz finished second in the country among tight ends with 73 receptions, while running back Blake Watson became the first ODU running back since 2016 to rush for over 1,000 yards and finished 22nd in the country with 101.1 yards per game.

ODU had its best scoring defense since 2016 and tied a school record by allowing 20 points or less five times. Linebacker Jordan Young broke the 100-tackle barrier for the first time in his career and set the ODU career record for tackles with 350. The Monarchs finished third in Conference USA and 35th in the country in rushing defense.

Rahne Record

2021: 6-7
2022: 3-9
2023: 6-7
2024: 5-7
2025: 8-3
Total: 28-33

Rahne has built the Monarchs on being aggressive on the field and that was epitomized by the special teams units. ODU tied for the national lead with four blocked punts and six total blocked kicks. LaMareon James finished the season ranked ninth in the country with a 29.4 yard average on kickoff returns, and was one of two players to have two, 100-yard kickoff return touchdowns.

During ODU's winning streak, the Monarchs outscored teams by a 36-22 margin, and became bowl eligible in the regular season finale, dispatching Charlotte 56-34.

Rahne was the offensive coordinator at Penn State for two seasons and on the Nittany Lions coaching staff for six years.

Rahne (pronounced ronnie) developed an increasing national profile as a key component of Coach James Franklin's staff at both Penn State and Vanderbilt. The coaching staff has guided those teams to bowl games in each of the nine years and have won nine or more games in six of the last eight seasons.

Rahne spent six seasons at Penn State, including the last two as offensive coordinator. Despite having a new starting quarterback, Rahne helped lead the Nittany Lion offense to 34 points per game during that season, while six offensive players earned all-Big10 honors this season.

Known as a terrific offensive mind that can adjust to his personnel, Rahne demonstrated that again in 2019. Despite the loss of the No. 2 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft (Saquon Barkley), Penn State rushed for the most yards per game in the last 10 years at 204.9. PSU had nine players earn all-conference accolades, and the Nittany Lions led the Big10 with 42 red zone touchdowns, good for 16th in FBS.

Rahne was the quarterbacks coach in four of his six seasons at Penn State, as both of the quarterbacks he worked with were drafted into the NFL. In 2015, Christian Hackenberg (Jets, 2016) became the all-time leader in career yards passing with 8,457 yards, three years later, Rahne guided Trace McSorely (Ravens, 2019) past that mark in 2018 with 9,899 yards. He also coached the tight ends in 2016 and 2017, guiding Mike Gesicki who was drafted by the Miami Dolphins.

Penn State played in a bowl game in every year Rahne was there, including a 2016 Big10 Championship and 2017 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl win over Washington. In that time, Penn State has had four-straight seasons of at least nine wins, and the Nittany Lions are one of five teams to rank in the Top-15 of the College Football Playoff final rankings in each of the last four years.

Prior to joining Penn State, Rahne was the quarterbacks coach at Vanderbilt for three years.

Prior to Rahne's time at Vanderbilt, the program had been to four bowl games in 121 years of football, none in consecutive seasons. The Commodores were ranked in the Top-25 in the final polls in 2012 and 2013 marking the first time they were ranked in back-to-back seasons in program history.

He spent five years at Kansas State, starting as an offensive graduate assistant before coaching the running backs and tight ends. He helped the Wildcats to two bowl appearances.

Rahne started his coaching career on the defensive side at Holy Cross coaching the defensive line. The following year he coached the running backs at his alma mater, Cornell.

He was a three-year starter at quarterback at Cornell (2002), and graduated as the Big Red's all-time leader in completions (678), passing yards (7,710), touchdown passes (54) and total offense (7,994). He was inducted into the Cornell Hall of Fame in 2014.

Rahne and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Ryder and Jake.

Game 12 · Old Dominion vs. Georgia State

The Outcome

- An ODU win would mean:
- Give ODU 9 wins for the first time since 2016
 - Give ODU its third straight win over Georgia State
 - Give ODU a win in the regular season finale for the third straight year
 - Give ODU a perfect 6-0 home record for the first time since 2016

The Meeting

This is the seventh all-time meeting between ODU and Georgia State. The two teams met as startup programs from 2010-12 as CAA mates and then joined conferences again in 2022 in the Sun Belt.

- 2010 - Old Dominion 34 Georgia State 20
2011 - Old Dominion 40 Georgia State 17
2012 - Old Dominion 53 Georgia State 27
2022 - Georgia State 31 Old Dominion 17
2023 - Old Dominion 25 Georgia State 24
2024 - Old Dominion 21 Georgia State 14

Captains

Head Coach Ricky Rahne named five captains for the 2025 season.

Colton Joseph: Joseph took over as starting quarterback last year at Bowling Green and is a first-time team captain as a redshirt sophomore.

Zach Barlev: A transfer from Illinois last season, Barlev started all 12 games last year. A third-team all-conference performer last season was preseason All-Sun Belt in 2025.

Jeremy Mack: A transfer from Colorado, Mack missed all of his first season at ODU in 2023 due to an injury. He missed time due to injury in 2024 but is a special teams standout.

Koa Naotala: Former walk-on earned a scholarship in 2023. Earned second-team All-Sun Belt honors last year after leading team in tackles. Second-straight season as a captain.

Kris Trinidad: A fifth-year senior from Richmond, Trinidad earned all-conference honors a season ago after leading ODU in sacks and tackles for loss.

Random Notes About Captains

Linebacker Koa Naotala is the only two-time captain of the group.

This is the first time in Ricky Rahne's head coaching tenure a specialist has not been named a captain. All of ODU's specialists, except holder Ian Brandt, are new.

Naotala is ODU's first former walk-on to be a captain since Brandon Addison in 2017.

Sixth Year Monarchs

Before the Covid-19 pandemic, college football players playing more than five seasons was rare. Since the 2020 season did not count towards eligibility that number has increased. This year ODU has two players in their sixth seasons of college football.

Safety Nickendre Stiger played two seasons at Snow College before playing three seasons at Kansas State.

Linebacker Seth Naotala, the older brother of Koa, transferred to ODU last season after playing four years at James Madison.

Seventh Year Wonder

Center Ryan Joyce is in his seventh season of college football. Joyce transfers to ODU from Fordham, where he played for ODU Offensive Coordinator Kevin Decker. Two of his first five seasons ended in injury and 2020 he played just three rams for the Rams. He leads the ODU offensive line with 46 career starts.

Streak Starts Again

Quarterback Grant Wilson became the first ODU quarterback to start consecutive season openers since Taylor Heinicke did it in three-straight years from 2012-14. Quarterback Colton Joseph was officially named the starter last week at ODU Media Day. Wilson is now at Indiana.

Gladding Breaks Out (Again)

Wide receiver Na'eem Abdul-Rahim Gladding registered his second 100-yard game of the season, surpassing his previous career high against Coastal with eight grabs for 105 yards and a TD against App.

The game against Coastal was the first career 100-yard receiving game for Gladding, who came into this season as ODU's leading returning wide receiver, with two catches for 18 yards. He had seven catches for 101 yards and three touchdowns against CCU.

Gladding leads the team with 45 catches and six touchdowns.

Three-Headed Monster

Na'eem Abdul Rahim-Gladding and Ja'Cory Thomas led ODU in receiving each of the first five games of the season, but Tre Brown led the team in receiving at JMU.

Gladding, the leading returning wide receiver and JUCO transfers Thomas and Brown had jolted the passing game.

The trio are 1-2-3 on the team in receptions, yards and touchdowns.

Roche Runs Wild

Devin Roche carried a career high 16 times for 145 yards in the win over Troy. He also delivered a career long 67-yard run and a 49-yard punt return.

In the win at Georgia Southern, Roche had seven carries for 51 yards and a touchdown.

Roche had a slow start to the season due to injury but has been ODU's leading rusher in two of the last four games.

The Bull Runs Again

Ke'Travion "Bull" Hargrove has two long touchdown receptions this year and before Saturday's win at Georgia Southern had just one rushing touchdown. He delivered three rushing scores in the win at Georgia Southern and had 40 yards on 10 carries.

His three touchdowns were a career high and is the third Monarch to rush for three touchdowns in a game this season, joining Colton Joseph and Trequan Jones.

Hargrove has had two receiving touchdowns on the year, with an 80 yarder in the win over Coastal and a 70-yarder in the win over App State.

Built on Big Plays

ODU has delivered big plays all season, but none longer than the 98-yard touchdown pass from Colton Joseph to Tre Brown in the first quarter against James Madison. It was the longest offensive play in school history and is tied for the longest play in FBS this season. Braylon Braxton and Micah Davis of Southern Miss also had a 98-yard touchdown on Saturday. There's came against Louisiana.

Along with Trequan Jones' 93-yard touchdown run against North Carolina Central, ODU is the only school in the country to have two 90+ yard offensive plays.

Two of Two

ODU is the only team in the country to have two players with two 70+yard receptions. Wide receiver Tre Brown has had touchdowns receptions of 71 and 98 yards, while running back Ke'Travion "Bull" Hargrove has had touchdown catches of 80 and 70 yards. Eleven players, including Brown and Hargrove, have had two 70+ yard catches this season.

Domination on Both Sides of the Ball

ODU outgained Georgia Southern 551-249, making the yardage margin total 302. ODU has outgained opponents by 300 or more yards four times this season, including three times against Sun Belt teams. They are one of four teams to do so four times this season. Of the four teams, ODU and Oregon have had the 300 yard margin in three conference games. Ohio State has done it twice in conference games and all four of Missouri's were non-conference games.

Game 12 · Old Dominion vs. Georgia State

More than One

Koa's older brother Seth, joined the team the Monday prior to last season's season-opener at South Carolina.

Seth had five tackles, one sack and a forced fumble in the win over Troy.

Prior to transferring to ODU, Seth played four seasons at James Madison for Indiana Head Coach, Curt Cignetti.

Seth had a career high 12 tackles at Marshall. He has a career high 52 tackles already this season, surpassing his total of 26 last season.

Opening Drive Struggles/Success

In 2024, ODU scored on just 3-of-12 opening game drives and gave up scores on 5-of-12 opening drives.

Turnover Troubles

ODU has one of the top offenses in the country but has struggled this season with turnovers. The Monarchs are tied for the nation's lead in fumbles lost with New Mexico with 12. ODU has 21 turnovers, the sixth most in the country. Nevada leads the nation with 25 turnovers.

ODU has turned the ball over three or more times in a game four times this season and are 1-3 in those games. ODU is 6-0 in games with just one turnover. ODU played its first turnover free game of the season in the 33-0 win over Troy.

Newcomers Making Impact

Old Dominion brought in 29 newcomers from the college rankings, including 15 junior college transfers and 14 from four-year schools.

Wide receivers Tre Brown and Ja'Cory Thomas, both from Hutchinson Community College, are two of the JUCO transfers, while center Ryan Joyce (Fordham) and defensive backs Botros Alisandro (Purdue) and Nickendre Stiger (Kansas State) came from four-year schools.

Walk-On Success

Old Dominion has had success recruiting walk-ons during head coach Ricky Rahne's tenure, including starters Elijah Hoskin and Koa Naotala. Hosking and Naotala, along with Seth Naotala, began their ODU careers as walk-ons and are all now on scholarship.

Sun Belt Elder

ODU Head Coach Ricky Rahne is the longest tenured head coach in the Sun Belt Conference. Rahne, in his sixth season, was hired in December of 2019.

Breaking the Blacksburg Blues

Before ODU's win over Virginia Tech, the Monarchs had never led a game in Lane Stadium. That was destroyed midway through the third quarter when Colton Joseph rushed for a six-yard touchdown. A few other notes of history went down.

The 31-point lead was the largest in program history over a Power-Four team, surpassing the 17-point lead ODU held against Wake Forest in 2023, an eventual 27-24 loss. It was also ODU's largest lead in any game in the Virginia Tech series.

The win was the first for a Sun Belt school this year over a Power Four opponent and 12th since ODU joined the Sun Belt in 2021.

Coordinator Continuity

ODU returns all three coordinators, offensive, defensive and special teams for the third consecutive season, and is one of just 13 programs in the country to do that. ODU and Arkansas State are the only Sun Belt programs to return all three coordinators for three-straight seasons. The Monarchs also return its athletic trainer (Justin Walker) and strength coach (Chad Snodgrass).

He's Still Here

The 2024 football season would have been the final collegiate season for defensive tackle Ricardo Williams Jr., however, the ruling that allowed Vanderbilt quarterback Diego Pavia an extra year also applied to Williams.

Williams played two seasons at Mississippi Gulf Coast before transferring to Georgia State in 2023. He played in 13 games for the Panthers and recorded three tackles. He joined the Monarchs in 2024 and again played in every game, and notching 20 tackles and a sack. Williams called the decision "life changing" and never thought about transferring from ODU. He did change his number from 91 to 94.

Quick Hits

- ODU Head Coach Ricky Rahne played quarterback at Cornell from 1998-2001 and is the Cornell Sports Hall of Fame. He completed 678-of-1226 passes for 7710 yards and 54 touchdown passes. All rank second in program history to Jeff Matthews, who briefly played in the NFL and CFL.
- ODU Defensive Coordinator Blake Seiler wrestled at Oklahoma State as a freshman on the Cowboys' National Championship team. He transferred to Kansas State the following year as a walk-on to the football team and was a starting defensive lineman and captain as a senior.
- ODU Wide Receivers coach Kody Cook also played at Kansas State, and also beginning his career with the Wildcats as a walk-on. He became an all-conference wide receiver and played one game at quarterback, helping the Wildcats become bowl eligible as all of their quarterbacks were injured.
- Defensive lineman Javen Gibson goes by the nickname Gus. When he was a kid he was playing a basketball video game and created a player that was given the name Gus Gibson. His mom walked by and saw it and asked who was Gus Gibson. He explained and his mom started calling him Gus and the nickname has stuck.
- Safety Mario Easterly went to Bishop McDevitt High School in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. It is the same high school that former NFL standouts LeSean McCoy and Ricky Watters attended. His younger sister, Marcyana, is on the cheer squad at Old Dominion. Marcyana is one of seven of Mario's sisters. He also has one brother.

- Defensive backs Brandon Crutchfield and Jerome Carter's fathers both played in the NFL. Buddy Crutchfield played in six games over two years in 1998-99 for the Washington Redskins and New York Jets. Jerome Carter Sr played in 33 games over three seasons for the St. Louis Rams.

- Known as the 757 due to the area code, ODU has 10 players that are from the 757. Of the 10, five have played for the Monarchs.

An Athletic Family

Tight end Dawson Johnson is the youngest son of Jeff and Sandi Johnson, and all four of their sons have played Division I athletics. Dylan played lacrosse at the University of Denver and also won a gold medal with Team USA. Another brother, Dakota, also played lacrosse at Denver while Dustin played football at Northern Colorado and Ohio. Last year with the Bobcats Dustin had 77 tackles. Johnson is a redshirt freshman transfer tight end from the University of Florida.

Game 12 · Old Dominion vs. Georgia State

Joseph Runs Big

Colton Joseph had two touchdown runs of 75+ yards at Indiana. It was the second-straight game an ODU quarterback ran for a 75+yard touchdown, as Quinn Henicle had a 92-yard touchdown run in last year's finale at Arkansas State.

Joseph's Rare Feat

Colton Joseph became the first quarterback since Central Michigan's Bert Emanuel Jr. in 2022 to rush for two 75+ yard runs in the same game.

Joseph had a 75 yard run on the first play of the game and a 78-yarder in the fourth quarter at Indiana

Emanuel Jr. had touchdown runs of 75 and 87 yards to lead CMU to a win over Buffalo. Emanuel Jr. is the son of former NFL wide receiver Bert Emanuel.

Quick Strike Times Two

ODU scored on its first offensive snap for the second straight game when Colton Joseph rushed for a 75-yard touchdown at Indiana. In the 2024 season finale at Arkansas State, QB Quinn Henicle rushed for a 92-yard score on the first play of the game. ODU was the first team since 2021 to accomplish the feat.

Running of the Bull

Ke'Travion Hargrove, who goes by the nickname Bull, caught an 80-yard touchdown pass from Colton Joseph to give ODU a 17-0 lead over Coastal.

It was the longest completion for Joseph and longest, and first career receiving touchdown, for Hargrove.

Balanced Attack

ODU rolled to a season high 619 yards in the win over Coastal Carolina last week. It was the second most yards of total offense last week, only second to the 631 produced by South Florida over Charlotte.

ODU had 302 yards rushing and 317 passing. The Monarchs are the fourth team this season to have 300+ yards rushing and passing against an FBS team.

About Old Dominion University

Old Dominion University was founded in 1930 by the College of William and Mary, the second oldest university in the United States. Established as an extension of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia, and Virginia Tech, Old Dominion began educating teachers and engineers. The two-year school rapidly evolved into a four-year institution, and was granted independence in 1962 as Old Dominion College.

Considerable growth in enrollment, the expansion of research facilities and preparation for the addition of graduate programs led the Board of Visitors to approve the name change to Old Dominion University. Now Old Dominion is a powerhouse for higher education with six colleges: Arts and Letters, Business and Public Administration, Education, Engineering and Technology, Health Sciences and Sciences. Old Dominion has offered master's degrees since 1964, became Old Dominion University in 1969 and Ph.D.s since 1971.

World's Largest Naval Base

Naval Station Norfolk is the largest Naval Base in the world and just minutes from Old Dominion University.

ODU Head Coach Ricky Rahne hosted his weekly coach's show from the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower (CVN 69) in 2024. The USS Eisenhower was deployed for nine months and returned to Naval Station Norfolk in July 2024 after a mission in the Middle East Region.

Big Blue

When ODU became independent from the College of William & Mary in 1962, while there was no official mascot, Old Dominion College took on a mace and crown as their symbols in publications and athletics.

Big Blue made his debut during a basketball game in December 1971.

Ironically, the first costume was more orange than blue, and when trying to dye the costume made it more grey-green than blue, the university had to hire a seamstress to sew on powder blue fake fur to approximate the school colors at the time. Through the 1970s and into the 1980s, Big Blue evolved from a fierce lion into a soft, friendly lion. By the 1990s and early 2000s, Big Blue has morphed into his current look with little changes over the years.

In 2011, Big Blue was voted as the Capital One National Mascot of the Year.

In October 2013, a seven-foot-tall bronze sculpture of Big Blue was unveiled in Webb University Center to start a new campus tradition. Students take their photograph with Big Blue at the start and end of their Monarch journey. The statue was conceived by the Student Government Association (SGA) and created by sculptor Richard Stravitz. Throughout their time at Old Dominion, students can rub Big Blue's belly for good luck and prosperity.

Why Monarchs

For many years, the athletic teams of the Norfolk Division of the College of William & Mary (as Old Dominion was formerly called) were known as the Braves. This was a derivation of the William & Mary nickname, the Indians. As Old Dominion achieved its own four-year status and saw its enrollment surpass that of its Williamsburg neighbor, it was no longer suitable or acceptable to have its teams called the Braves.

The name Monarchs evokes much of the history of the Commonwealth of Virginia and of Old Dominion's mother institution, the College of William & Mary. The nickname "Old Dominion" was first coined to the Virginia colony by King Charles II after Virginia's loyalty to the crown during the English Civil War. Furthermore, William III & Mary II, whose patronage helped found the College of William & Mary in Virginia in 1693, ruled England at the invitation of Parliament as "joint monarchs."

The Monarch used by Old Dominion has a royal crown on a lion's head, representing a rich history and a strong future.

Truly Making an Impact

Five true freshman have played so far this season for ODU, including three that have played in all nine games. Defensive tackle Hunter Malecki, linebacker Jackson Forrest and cornerback Justin Watts have played in all nine games this season. Forrest leads the group with 32 tackles, two sacks and 4.5 tackles for loss, while Malecki has seven tackles and a sack and Watts has four tackles and three pass breakups. All three have a big role on special teams

Overtime History

Old Dominion has played three overtime games in program history and ODU is 1-2 in those games. ODU won in overtime at home against LA Tech in 2014 and lost at Marshall in 2021.

ODU Overtime Games

Year	Opponent	Result
2014	Louisiana Tech	W, 30-27 OT
2021	at Marshall	L, 20-13 OT
2023	vs. WKU	L, 38-35 OT

Shut Down and Shut Out

ODU shutout Troy, 33-0. It was the second shutout in school history and the first since a 6-0 victory over Charlotte in 2017. The shutout was the first time that Troy had been shutout since 2014 (Georgia) and the first time it had ever been shutout in a Sun Belt Conference game since joining the league in 2004.

Total Yards

ODU held Troy to a school record low 138 yards and had a school record nine sacks. The Trojans had just two plays of more than 12 yards. The 138 yards gained by Troy are the fewest yards gained in a Sun Belt Conference game this season.

Sacks Record

Kris Trinidad had a career high two sacks and Jackson Forrest had 1.5 as ODU set a school record with nine sacks. Christopher Spencer registered his first career sack on the final play of the game to clinch the record.

ODU Drops Opener at Indiana, 27-14

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. -- On a day in which Old Dominion's football team could not afford to make mistakes, the Monarchs simply made too many and fell at No. 20 Indiana, 27-14, Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

For the second year in a row ODU opened with an inspired performance and gave a heavily-favored home team a scare. Last year, the Monarchs outgained and in many ways outplayed South Carolina, but had four turnovers in a 23-19 loss to the Gamecocks.

Saturday's game wasn't quite as close, but the script was in many ways the same. ODU rolled to an early, 7-0, lead, but then in essence handed the Hoosiers 17 points, 10 off two turnovers and seven on a long punt return.

Although it was the first game ever between ODU and Indiana, the teams were familiar with each other. Head Coach Curt Cignetti came to Indiana from James Madison and took 13 staff members and 14 players with him from JMU.

Quarterback Colton Joseph led ODU's quick-strike offense with two long touchdown runs, but otherwise, the Monarchs offense sputtered much of the game.

On the game's first play, Joseph faked a handoff, and sprinted up the middle for a 75-yard touchdown run. Joseph scored again midway through the fourth quarter on a nearly identical play.

On Indiana's first possession, ODU's defense kept the Hoosiers out of the end zone with a goal-line stand.

IU drove from its own 30 to the ODU 1, where the Hoosiers had a first and goal. Three players later, the ball was still at the at the 1. Then, on fourth down, safety Nickendre Stiger completed the goal-line stand by breaking up a pass.

Indiana again drove deep into ODU territory late in the first quarter, but Stiger forced a fumble that Zion Frink recovered to give ODU the ball back.

ODU still led, 7-0, when Ian Brandt booted a towering, 56-yard Monarch punt, which Jonathan Brady, a transfer from Cal, caught at the 9 on a bounce. He found a seam on the right side and raced 91 yards untouched for a touchdown that knotted the score at 7-7 with nine seconds left in the first quarter.

Joseph then had the first of two unforced errors, overthrowing an ODU receiver on a pass picked off by IU's Amare Ferrell, who returned to the Monarch 40.

Again, ODU's defense again stood tall, forcing the Hoosiers to settle for a Nicolas Radicic 22-yard field goal that gave Indiana its first lead, 10-7, with 10:03 left in the first half.

Then came another Joseph INT, this one picked off by Louis Moore at the ODU 27. He returned it to the ODU 10, and then a penalty for a block below the waist gave IU a first and goal at the 5.

On third and five, quarterback Francisco Mendoza, a highly-touted transfer from Cal, deftly faked a handoff and bowled into the end zone to give the Hoosiers a 17-7 lead and a little breathing room with 3:36 left.

ODU's defense again kept the Hoosiers out of the end zone late in the first half, as Radicic's 52-yard field goal attempt with two seconds left bounced off the crossbar, and sent the Monarchs into the half-time locker room trailing 17-7.

The Monarchs finally scored again, this time on a 78-yard yard run by Joseph with 6:53 left, that narrowed the lead to 27-14.

ODU was outgained, 502-314, in offensive yardage and Indiana dominated time of possession, holding onto the ball 41 minutes and 28 seconds of 60 minutes.

ODU Trounces NCCU, 54-6

NORFOLK, Va. – Running back Trequan Jones set a school record with a 93-yard touchdown run, quarterback Colton Joseph was in midseason form and the defense was outstanding as Old Dominion rolled past North Carolina Central, 54-6, Saturday night in its football home opener.

Coming off a 27-14 loss at No. 20 Indiana, in which the offense failed to sustain drives, and the defense surrendered more than 500 yards, the Monarchs appeared to confirm the adage that a football team makes its most improvement between the opener and the second game.

Joesph, the redshirt sophomore from Newport Beach, California, completed 19-of-24 passes for 257 yards and three touchdowns and added 52 yards on 11 rushes and a touchdown before heading for the bench late in the third quarter.

Jones finished with five carries for 163 yards and three touchdowns.

ODU (1-1) was dominant, however, amassing 545 yards to 238 for the Eagles. ODU outscored Central, 28-3, in the third quarter before the Monarchs cleared their bench.

It was the most lopsided victory ever as a head coach for ODU's Ricky Rahne, who in his fifth season with the Monarchs.

Leading, 16-3, the Monarchs took any doubt away on their first possession of the second half as Jones took a simple dive over the right side, broke two early tackles, then sprinted untouched the rest of the way for a 93-yard TD rush.

ODU is 9-0 against FCS teams since moving to FBS in 2014, but two of the last three games, against Texas A&M Commerce (now East Texas A&M) two years ago and Norfolk State in 2019, came down to the final minutes before being decided.

Jones said he had never rushed for 163 yards in a single game and he wasn't just being modest when he praised his offensive line.

The game began poorly for the Monarchs, as Joseph fumbled the ball away on their first drive and ODU went three and out on the second.

Central then drove deep into ODU territory but on fourth down at the two, safety Mario Easterly and linebacker Jahleel Culbreath tackled Chris Mosley short of the first down.

Later on, backed up deep in their territory, the Eagles were forced to attempt a punt and Central punter Brandon Bowman bobbled the snap and was tackled in the end zone for a safety with 5:21 left in the first quarter.

Jones then capped a seven-play, 62-yard drive with a 39 yard burst for a touchdown three minutes later to make it 9-0.

Central threatened to score on its next possession, driving to the ODU three, where the Eagles had a fourth and inches. Quarterback Walker Harris tried a QB sneak but he was stacked up by defensive lineman Chris Forbes and Christopher Spencer.

ODU's defense then set up the offense again nicely as safety Jerome Carter, a sophomore from Lake City, Florida, intercepted a Harris pass, setting up a seven play, 69-yard TD drive.

Joseph tossed a six-yard TD pass to sophomore wide receiver Na'eem Abdul-Rahim Gladding, and just like that, it was 16-0 with 2:30 left in the first half.

ODU next plays at Virginia Tech Saturday night before taking the following weekend off. The Monarchs then host Liberty on Sept. 27.

Monarchs Blitz Virginia Tech, 45-26

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Playing on a big stage, on a Saturday night on national television, Old Dominion shocked the college football world by thoroughly dominating Virginia Tech Saturday night at Lane Stadium.

Buoyed by yet another stellar performance from quarterback Colton Joseph, the Monarchs rolled to a 28-0 first-half lead and coasted past the Hokies, 45-26.

It was ODU's third victory against Virginia Tech in a seven-game series that dates back to 2018, but the first ever in Blacksburg. Prior to Saturday, the Monarchs had never led Tech in Blacksburg. ODU's 49-35 victory over then No. 13 Virginia Tech in 2018 at old Foreman Field almost surely remains the biggest win in school history. But this was ODU's first road victory against a Power 4 school and was seen by a nationwide audience on the ACC Network.

Joseph, he said, "was fantastic. He made some great decision tonight. He really ran out offense well. We had so many guys play well tonight. Everyone contributed to this win."

The victory came against a Tech football team that is reeling. The Hokies (0-3) have lost seven of their last eight games. Even so, Tech has vastly more resources than ODU (2-1), as it always the case when the Monarchs take on a power school.

Joseph was brilliant, completing 16-of-22 passes for 276 yards and two touchdowns and rushing for eight times for 63 yards and another TD.

Joseph said ever since ODU's 37-17 home loss to the Hokies a year ago, "I've had this penciled on my schedule."

The game was close – ODU led 7-0 – when it turned on, of all things, a timeout called by Rahne.

Tech appeared to be on the way to tying the score. On third down, Hokies' quarterback Kyrone Drones ran for an apparent first down, but as he was going down on the ODU 3, the ball popped loose.

It looked like a fumble, but officials ruled Drones was down before fumbling.

The Hokies then hurried to get a play off, and were seconds from snapping the ball, but Rahne, visibly agitated, burned a timeout and insisted refs review the play.

The refs finally did review the play and ruled Jeremy Mack Jr. forced a fumble and that Chris Forbes recovered at the ODU 3. It was the second consecutive game in which Forbes recovered a fumble.

The Monarchs then proceeded to blow the game open.

On third down and six, Joseph passed 44 yards to Na'eem Abdul-Rahim Gladding. Three plays later, redshirt freshman Maurki James rushed 10 yards for the TD and ODU led, 14-0, with 12:39 left in the first half.

Minutes later, Jerome Carter picked off a Drones pass at the 12, setting up another scoring drive, this one 88 yards on seven plays, capped by an 11-yard Trequan Jones TD run with 6:44 left.

The Monarch defense then held the Hokies on downs, and with 2:44 left, ODU mounted a 77-yard TD drive. On third down, Joseph was rushed from by pocket but lofted a 13-yard pass hauled in by Tre Brown in the corner of the end zone with 53 seconds left.

Things began well for the Monarchs. Backed up to its own seven, ODU drove 93 yards for a touchdown on its second possession. Joseph found wide receiver Ja'Cory Thomas in the middle of the field for a 38-yard gain and Jones added a 22-yard run two plays later.

Joseph finished off the seven-play drive with a six-yard touchdown run around the right end and ODU led, 7-0, with 6:30 left in the first quarter.

ODU expanded the lead to 31-0 on a 50-yard Riley Callaghan field goal with 9:54 left in the third quarter.

Tech finally got its offense going in the second half, scoring 26 points. But Gladding hauled in a 31-yard TD pass from Joseph and Devin Roche ran 15 yards for another as the Monarchs held off any Tech rally.

ODU Snaps Skid to Liberty with 21-7 Win

NORFOLK, Va. – Torrential rains did much to keep Old Dominion’s high-powered offense out of the end zone Saturday night, and the Monarchs did themselves no favors by committing four turnovers. But ODU scored just enough points, and rode the strength of a stellar defensive effort, to defeat Liberty, 21-7, Saturday night at S.B. Ballard Stadium.

It was an historic victory for ODU – it was the University’s 100th since the Monarchs began playing football in 2009. And this one came against an in-state opponent against whom the Monarchs have struggled.

Liberty had won four games in a row against ODU since 2018 by a combined score of 173-61. Of those games, only one was relatively close – Liberty’s 38-24 victory at ODU in 2022.

Neither team scored in a lackluster first quarter in which, while playing in a downpour, they combined for just 147 yards and nine first downs.

Liberty’s Jay Billingsley drilled a 46-yard field goal attempt long enough but just wide right. ODU, meanwhile, failed to score in the red zone for the first time this season when Trequan Jones fumbled at the Liberty six.

The rains intensified early in the second quarter, as did the turnovers. Seconds into the second quarter, Liberty running back Evan Dickens fumbled deep in Flames’ territory. Zion Frink forced the fumble, which was recovered by senior defensive lineman Ricardo Williams Jr. at the 3.

ODU returned the favor three plays later when Joseph passed to Maurki James, who fumbled as he hit the turf at the Liberty one and the Flames recovered.

ODU was at the Liberty 45 when Joseph ran around the right end for a 23-yard gain. On the next play, he tossed a 22-yard touchdown pass to TJ Johnson to give the Monarchs a 7-0 lead with 7:34 left. It was the first career TD reception for Johnson, a transfer from Southwest Mississippi Junior College.

After holding Liberty on downs, the Monarchs marched 89 yards on four plays, with Joseph connecting on three passes for 80 yards, including a 31-yard toss to Thomas, who hauled in the touchdown pass as he went down in the back of the end zone.

ODU led 14-0 and appeared headed for another TD after a Jeremy Mack interception gave the Monarchs good field position at the Liberty 43. On third and goal, Joseph kept the ball and as he was being tackled, reached the ball across the goal line for what appeared to be touchdown.

But as he reached, the ball fell from his hands and game officials ruled it a fumble, which Liberty recovered.

It was ODU’s third lost fumble in the red zone.

Another turnover, a rare poorly thrown pass from Joesph, led to Liberty’s first and only touchdown.

Liberty’s A’Khor Jones picked off an underthrown pass and returned it 28 yards to the Liberty 36. Liberty then quickly drove 64 yards for the TD, with Julian Gray scoring from four yards out with 9:11 left in the third quarter.

ODU’s offense continued to struggle to put points on the board, with the next two possessions ending with a punt and a missed 52-yard field goal attempt by Riley Callaghan.

But ODU’s defense continued to shut down the Flames, including a critical fourth down stop. Liberty Quarterback Ethan Houck carried up the middle and was stopped inches short of the first down.

The ball turned over to ODU, and two plays later, Joseph found Thomas at the 35. He outran two defensive backs for a 55-yard pass reception with 13:17 left.

ODU Trounces Coastal, 47-7

NORFOLK, Va. -- It is difficult to imagine an Old Dominion football team playing any better than the Monarchs did Saturday night in their Sun Belt Conference opener.

Led by quarterback Colton Joseph, and a swarming defense that nearly pitched a shutout, the Monarchs scored early and often and rolled past Coastal Carolina, 47-7, before an enthused S.B. Ballard Stadium crowd of 20,895.

ODU led, 34-0, at halftime en route to its most lopsided victory ever over an FBS opponent. It was the fourth win in a row for ODU (4-1 overall, 1-0 Sun Belt), which is off to its best start since 2012.

While Joseph and the offense played exceptionally well, this was the quintessential "team" victory in that ODU's defense and special teams also excelled.

ODU outgained Coastal, 619-189. The offensive yardage differential of 430 yards was the largest for ODU in a game in program history.

It was also the second week in a row that the Monarchs held an opponent to an FBS low in offensive yardage.

Before Rahne began to clear his bench midway through the third quarter, the Monarchs had outgained Coastal, 504-100, in offensive yards.

Coastal (2-3, 1-1) scored a late touchdown on a 3-yard Tad Hudson pass to Cameron Wright, which followed a missed ODU field goal. It was just Coastal Carolina's second drive into ODU territory.

Joseph completed 17 of 30 passes for 315 yards and four touchdowns before heading to the bench for good midway through the third quarter. He ran seven times for 66 yards and another TD.

Running back Trequan Jones rushed 14 times for 98 yards while wide receiver Na'eem Abdul-Rahim Gladding hauled in seven passes for 101 yards and three touchdowns -- all career highs for the sophomore from Brooklyn, New York.

Ke'Travion Hargrove, a running back who had 87 yards rushing in ODU's first four games, exploded for an 80-yard touchdown reception when he hauled in a Joseph pass at the 32, and outran two defenders the final 68 yards.

Defensive back Jerome Carter led ODU with a career-high 12 tackles, including seven solos. Safety Mario Easterly had an interception and Jackson Forrest, the true freshman linebacker from Concord, North Carolina, had five tackles and both forced and recovered a fumble.

The Monarchs next play at Marshall on Saturday in the first of two critical Sun Belt road contests. The Monarchs then travel to James Madison on Oct. 18 before returning home to host App State on Oct 25.

ODU is 1-9 against Marshall, hasn't beaten the Herd since 2016 and has never won in Huntington. And while ODU is 2-3 against JMU, the Monarchs are 0-3 against the Dukes since joining the Sun Belt.

Marshall Defeats ODU, 48-24

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. – Old Dominion made a ton of uncharacteristic mistakes and ran into an inspired Marshall team that drubbed the Monarchs with surprising ease, 48-24, Saturday afternoon at Joan C. Edwards Stadium.

But ODU set up three Marshall touchdowns and a field goal with an interception, fumble and two muffed punts. In all, ODU had five turnovers.

Marshall (3-3, 1-1) continues to be an albatross for ODU, which has not beaten the Herd since 2016. ODU is 1-10 all-time against the Herd and has never won in Huntington.

Marshall was led by quarterback Carlos Del Rio-Wilson, a transfer from Syracuse, who since he was named the Herd starter three games into the season has progressively improved. He completed 17 of 24 passes for 219 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 95 more yards and two more TDs.

Colton Joseph completed 15 of 28 passes for 266 yards and ran for 50 more yards and a TD but almost half of his passing yardage came in the fourth quarter long after the game was decided.

Joseph connected with Ja'Cory Thomas on a 47-yard pass reception on ODU's first offensive play, and four plays later, ODU had a fourth and 2 at the Marshall 4.

ODU elected to go for it on fourth down, and Joseph was stacked up inches short of the first down.

That was a sign of things to come. ODU later also failed to get the first down on fourth and short inside the 10.

On ODU's next possession, Joseph dropped back to pass and saw Gladding open in single coverage. He didn't see cornerback Boogie Trotter drifting backwards from the line of scrimmage. Trotter leaped and intercepted a pass intended for Gladding and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown with 4:57 left in the first quarter.

The Monarchs evened the score with 43 seconds left in the quarter when, on third and long, Joseph found Tre' Brown III open at midfield. The sophomore from Savannah, Georgia sprinted the final 40 yards of a 71-yard touchdown pass.

Marshall retook the lead, 14-7, on a 49-yard touchdown pass from Del Rio-Wilson to Michael Allen a minute into the second quarter.

ODU then again drove deeply into Marshall territory and stalled and again went for it on fourth down, this time fourth and 2 at the Marshall 5.

ODU running back Devin Roche was stacked up a yard short of a first down and Marshall then took control of the game, thanks to a series of Monarch mistakes.

Marshall drove 96 yards on a drive kept alive when a Monarch was hit by a punt that was then recovered by the Herd.

On fourth down at the ODU 2, the Herd settled for a 20-year Lorcan Quinn field goal that made it 17-7.

A minute later, ODU's Trequan Jones fumbled and Marshall recovered, setting up a three-play, 39-yard Herd TD drive capped by a six-yard run by Del-Rio Wilson.

ODU closed out the half with a 42-yard field goal by Riley Callaghan that trimmed the margin to 24-10.

Game Seven Recap: JMU 63 ODU 27

ODU Drops Royal Rivalry at JMU, 63-27

NORFOLK, Va. – HARRISONBURG, Va. – Old Dominion’s football team committed two second-half turnovers that led to James Madison touchdowns, and the Monarch offense virtually shut down in the second half, as JMU rolled to a 63-27 victory Saturday at Bridgeforth Stadium.

ODU trailed, 28-27, at halftime. But then, an interception and a muffed punt led to two JMU touchdowns and the Dukes won going away.

JMU outscored the Monarchs, 28-0, in the third quarter and ODU managed just one offensive yard.

ODU quarterback Colton Joseph was nearly perfect in the first half in which he completed 12 of 13 passes for 204 yards and three touchdowns against a defense ranked fourth nationally in FBS. He finished with 13 completions in 21 attempts with two second-half interceptions for 209 yards.

The Monarchs had 275 first-half yards against a team that had not surrendered more than 288 yards in its previous six games. The JMU defense limited ODU to just 10 yards in the second half.

Meanwhile, JMU rolled to 624 offensive yards, tied for the most ever given up by an ODU team.

JMU quarterback Alonza Barnett III completed 17 of 25 passes for 295 yards and two touchdowns and rushed 17 times for 153 yards and four more TDs

Things went awry for ODU on the first play of the second half when JMU defensive end Amar Thomas hammered Joseph as he was releasing the ball. The jarring hit affected his pass, which came up short and was intercepted by JMU’s Justin Eaglin.

The Dukes then drove 57 yards on a touchdown drive capped by Wayne Knight’s 13-yard run, and led the Monarchs, 35-27, less than four minutes into the third quarter.

Four minutes later, a punt was muffed by ODU’s Quinn Henicle and recovered by JMU’s Drew Spinagatti at the ODU 26.

The Dukes took five plays to score, with Barnett scoring in a six-yard run. The PAT gave JMU a 42-27 lead.

The Monarchs got off to their quickest lead ever when, six seconds into the game, they turned a fumbled kickoff into a touchdown.

The kickoff was dropped in the end zone by JMU’s Braden Wisloski, who picked it up and then returned it to the five, where he was pummeled by ODU’s Brandon Crutchfield, who forced a fumble. Lucas Struck calmly scooped up the ball at the two and carried it in for the TD.

JMU wasted little time in evening the score as the Dukes drove 78 yards in five plays, with Barnett carrying it 58 yards for a TD.

ODU retaliated 10 minutes later with its longest touchdown ever when, on first down at the Monarch 2, Joseph hit Tre’ Brown III at the 25 and he took it to the house. The 98-yard TD reception is the longest TD in the country so far this season.

JMU quickly scored again, with Barnett finding Nick DeGennaro on a 65-yard TD pass with 3:05 left.

The Monarchs then marched 75 yards with Joseph then connecting with Brown again on an 11-yard TD pass. The Monarchs missed the extra point but led 20-14.

The lead then see-sawed back and forth. DeGannaro put the Dukes up 21-20 with a 7-yard TD reception but then tight end Dawson Johnson, a transfer from Florida, hauled in a 16-yard pass and ODU led, 27-21.

JMU’s Jordan Fuller scored on a 2-yard run with 1:57 left and the Dukes carried a 28-27 lead into halftime, one they would not surrender.

Game Eight Recap: ODU 24 App State 21

ODU Holds on to Beat App State, 24-21

NORFOLK, Va. – It wasn’t a thing of beauty, and the final score was far closer than it should have been.

But the Old Dominion football team ended what had been an unsettling, two-game losing streak on Saturday, holding off App State, 24-21, before a festive homecoming crowd of 18,097 at S.B. Ballard Stadium.

ODU led, 10-7, at the half and scored two consecutive touchdowns to take what appeared to be a commanding, 24-7, lead into the fourth quarter.

Both came on passes from quarterback Colton Joseph, a 16-yard toss to Na’eem Abdul-Rahim Gladding and the other a 24-yard pass to Ja’Cory Thomas with just 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

Four minutes into the fourth quarter, ODU was inside the App State 10, headed for what would have been the game-clinching touchdown when the Monarchs committed their only turnover. On third and goal from the six, Joseph tried to squeeze a pass to Abdul-Rahim Gladding. The ball was tipped by App State’s Rondo Porter and fell into the hands of defensive back Zyeir Gamble.

App State coach Dowell Loggains then switched quarterbacks, inserting AJ Swann, a transfer from LSU, for JJ Kohl, and Swann led the Mountaineers to two quick touchdowns.

The first came on a 35-yard pass to tight end Kanen Hamlett with 9:26 left in the game.

ODU then milked six minutes off the clock and again appeared ready to clinch the game, but Riley Callaghan missed a 39-yard field goal attempt with 3:22 left.

Swann then completed 7-of-9 passes on the next drive, which he capped with a 34-yard TD pass to Davion Dozier with 1:47 left that cut the lead to 24-21.

App State then attempted an on-side kick, which was scooped up by Thomas. The Monarchs then ran out the clock.

ODU intercepted two Kohl passes, one each by Jerome Carter and Ryan Ramey, the sophomore from Missouri City, Texas who made his first start and had his first career interception.

The Monarchs took advantage three plays later as Joseph found Ke’Travion Hargrove over the middle and the senior transfer from Grambling ran the final 40 yards of a 70-yard reception untouched for the touchdown.

ODU led, 7-0, with 8:24 left in the first quarter.

App quickly scored, but once again, ODU was bailed out by a penalty flag. On third and goal at the five, Kohl threw an apparent TD pass to Dalton Strohman. However, App’s David Larkins was called for pass interference.

Carter then ended the scoring threat by intercepting Kohl in the end zone. It was the third INT of the season for the sophomore safety from Lake City, Florida.

Callaghan booted a 33-yard field goal with 2:10 left in the first half as ODU took a 10-0 lead the Monarchs would almost, but not quite, surrender.

ODU Becomes Bowl Eligible, Tops ULM 31-6

MONROE, La. – The Old Dominion football team played its most complete game in a month, and blew past ULM, 31-6, Saturday afternoon to become bowl eligible for the fourth time in school history.

ODU (6-3 overall, 3-2 Sun Belt) is bowl eligible the earliest in program history.

ODU next plays against Troy on Thursday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. at S.B. Ballard Stadium in a game to be televised by ESPN. Thursday night ESPN broadcasts often draw audiences of more than 500,000 TV households.

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Colton Joseph passed for 231 yards and rushed for 16 times for 72 yards three touchdowns as the Monarchs dominated from start to finish.

Joseph coughed the ball up early in the second half and the Warhawks had a first and goal. However, safety Mario Easterly forced a ULM fumble that was scooped up by cornerback Jorian Haynes five minutes into the second half.

ODU's defense was splendid. The Monarchs limited ULM (3-6, 1-4 Sun Belt) to 293 yards and lost the shutout largely because of a blocked punt that gave the Warhawks a first and goal at the 3.

The Monarchs sacked ULM quarterback Aidan Armenta five times -- the Warhawks had given up just 10 sacks in their previous eight games.

Although ULM, which is more widely known as Louisiana-Monroe, has lost five in a row, Malone Stadium is usually a difficult place to win.

ULM was 5-7 overall last season but 4-2 at home, including upsets of UAB and James Madison. The Warhawks upset Arkansas State at home earlier this season.

But in spite of a few early-game hiccups, the Monarchs rolled to a 24-0 lead early in the second quarter and were never headed.

Ke'Travion Hargrove, who grew up 30 minutes away from Monroe in Ruston, Louisiana, scored first for the Monarchs on a 12-yard yard and Joseph tallied a 7-yard TD rush minutes later to give ODU a 14-0 lead 11 minutes into the game.

After ODU missed an early field goal, Nathaniel Eichner, a 5-foot-9 walk-on from Trinity, Florida who transferred from Alabama State, drilled a 30-yard field goal and the Monarchs led, 17-0, less than 13 minutes into the game.

Pressed out of the pocket, Joseph scrambled for a 14-yard TD run with 9:09 left in the first half and the Monarchs led, 24-0.

Hargrove rushed nine times for 38 yards and a TD and caught a pass for 21 yards. Ja'Cory Thomas, a wide receiver from Denham Springs, Louisiana, had two catches for 65 yards.

Defensive tackle Javen Gibson, from Church Point, Louisiana, had two tackles, including a sack. Wide receiver TJ Johnson, from Alexandria, Louisiana, also played.

ODU has been to bowl games three times since becoming a full-fledged FBS school in 2015. The Monarchs defeated Eastern Michigan in the 2016 Bahamas Bowl, lost to Tulsa in the 2021 Myrtle Beach Bowl and fell to Western Kentucky in the 2023 Famous Toastery Bowl in Charlotte.

Game 10 Recap: ODU 33 Troy 0

ODU Shuts Out Troy, 33-0

NORFOLK, Va. – Under the bright lights of national television, the Old Dominion football team crushed Troy, 33-0, to clinch its first winning record in nine seasons and guarantee the Monarchs will play in a bowl game.

Playing on ESPN's prime time Thursday night slot, the Monarchs bolted to a 20-0 first-half lead and coasted to their third victory in a row.

Devin Roche, the sophomore running back from Baltimore, had his best collegiate game, carrying 16 times for 145 yards. He also returned a punt for 49 yards.

Quarterback Colton Joseph passed for 147 yards and a touchdown and ran for 90 more yards and two touchdowns. ODU rushed for 352 yards, third most ever for an ODU team and for the first time this season, had no turnovers.

But it was the ODU defense that most impressed. ODU pitched its first shutout since 2017 and only its second shutout in 16 seasons.

The Monarchs had a school-record nine sacks and the 138 yards allowed was the lowest in program history. It was the first time Troy has been shut out since 2014, and that shutout came at Georgia.

ODU outgained the Trojans, 503-138, in offensive yardage.

The Monarchs last had a winning record in 2016, when the Monarchs went 10-3 and defeated Eastern Michigan in the Bahamas Bowl. If this team wins its final two regular-season games and wins a bowl, it would match that record.

It was the final game of three for ODU in its annual USAA Military Appreciation week, and the Monarchs were 3-0, with the Monarch men's basketball team defeating Norfolk State, 60-57 and the women defeating Delaware, 73-66 in overtime.

Things started poorly for ODU when, on their opening drive, the Monarchs failed to convert a fourth down and three at the Troy 28. Fortunately for ODU, the Trojans returned the favor, as on Troy's first offensive play, Tae Meadows was stripped of the ball by defensive lineman Kris Trinidad. Safety Mario Easterly recovered the fumble.

The Monarchs quickly turned that turnover into a touchdown, as Ja'Cory Thomas hauled in a 19-yard TD pass from Joseph with 9:37 left in the first quarter.

ODU's next two drives bogged down, but still produced points, as placekicker Nathaniel Eichner kicked field goals of 32 and 28 yards to make it 13-0.

Joseph then topped off a 62-yard drive with an 11-yard touchdown run, in which he ran over a defender at the one, and Eichner's kicked made it 20-0 with 5:54 left in the first half.

Joseph added a 26-yard touchdown run midway through the third quarter to make it 26-0 (ODU's two point conversion failed).

Then, midway through the fourth quarter, Trequan Jones reeled off a 65-yard touchdown run to make it 33-0.

Jackson Forrest led ODU with 10 tackles while Trinidad added two sacks and two forced fumbles. Nickendre Stiger, the senior transfer from Kansas State, had his first career interception.

ODU Hammers Georgia Southern, 45-10

STATESBORO, Ga. – Old Dominion’s red hot football team played perhaps its most complete game of the season, as the Monarchs racked up 376 rushing yards, the second-most in school history, and rolled to a 45-10 victory over Georgia Southern Saturday afternoon at Allen E. Paulson Stadium.

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Colton Joseph had a dominant game as he rushed 20 times for a career-high 189 yards and a touchdown and completed 12 of 18 passes for 140 yards and a touchdown before heading to the bench for good late in the third quarter.

ODU’s defense stood tall for the fourth game in a row.

Georgia Southern’s offense has been potent and averaged 30 points and 403 yards per game in its first 10 games. But the Eagles did not cross the 50 yard line in the first half and tallied a field goal only after a 52-yard pass reception gave Georgia Southern a first and goal.

A late turnover set up Georgia Southern’s only touchdown. The Eagles were limited to 249 offensive yards, including 92 yards in the fourth quarter when substitutes were playing long after the outcome had been decided.

But things went awry from the first Georgia Southern possession. On the second play from scrimmage, ODU’s Jerome Carter picked off a J.C. French IV pass at the Georgia Southern 45 and returned it 28 yards. Two plays later, Devin Roche took an inside handoff and slashed 17 yards to the one.

Ke’Travion Hargrove then raced for a one-yard TD rush, the first of three touchdowns on the day for the senior, and ODU led, 7-0, less than two minutes into the game.

Roche then capped a 66-yard drive with a 21-yard TD run in which he broke several tackles, and ODU led, 14-0, midway through the first quarter.

With its offense generating little yardage, the Eagles gambled on their next possession, going for it on fourth and two at the Georgia Southern 46. But Weston Bryan was stacked up in the middle by Carter and Chris Forbes, turning the ball over the ODU.

Nathaniel Eichner then booted ODU to a 17-0 lead with a 28-yard field goal.

After holding the Eagles three and out, ODU then mounted a 70-yard TD drive.

Joseph was under some pressure, but saw Jailen Butler alone, 20 yards behind the safeties in the end zone, and lofted a high, soft pass which Butler tucked in from 16 yards. It was the first career touchdown for Butler, a junior tight end from Chicago.

Minutes later, Hargrove capped an 80-yard drive with another two-yard touchdown run and ODU led, 31-0.

Hargrove made it 38-0 with a 12-yard touchdown rush five minutes into the second half.

Georgia Southern placekicker Tripp Bryant finally got the Eagles on the scoreboard midway through the third quarter with a 26-yard field goal.

Joseph then capped a 75-yard drive with a 20-yard touchdown run, in which he bowled over a couple of defenders at the goal line, with two minutes left in the third quarter to make it 45-3.
