

DOING AN EARTHWORK SESSION

1. Preparing and Focusing

- What is inspiring you to do an Earthwork Session?
- What do you want to shift on or in the land?
- What or who is calling you to the session?
- Set your intention before building your altering altar.
- Ask for guidance and state your dedication to the health, the fertility and well-being of the land and beings who inhabit the land. (animals, humans, trees, plants, insects, flowers etc.)
- Use: Listening for the Yes (class 1)

2. Building an Altering Altar for Transformational Earthwork:

1. Choose the location:
  - Let the Elemental energies direct you to a location on the property
  - Dowse and determine sensing a map- laying out a map on the ground or draw one in the dirt and site the altering altar in the center of the landscape or in a spot that feel right
  - Look at the landscape and read the powerful points in the property where you can work to anchor the entire piece from here- it's a pivotal location- a fulcrum spot where you can feel the imbalances and sense down into the Earth for a response
  - Use: Locating and Activating a Sacred Site )class 3)
2. Determine the Elemental energies to invite to your session- ( Pulling from our first class)
  - Bring them in----
  - They will hover, billow up, dig in, flow through and in all ways inhabit the space of the Altering Altar-
  - No need to direct them or tell them where to be.

3.Sensing the Earth: Connecting with the Elements

1. Each Element is powerful and useful.
  - Each should evoke an energy you need to create your altering altar.
  - Start by making an offering to an elemental being you feel attracted to. This invites a relationship to begin.
  - When you make an offering, think in terms of your long-term connection with the energy of the element and what it signifies to you.
    - a. For example- fire is most easily represented by a candle on your altar but can be experienced as the Sun or even as an electric heater.
    - b. Break it down to a simple and accessible part of nature.
    - c. This is easier if you think small and organic.
  - As you tune into the elemental energy ask yourself how an element feels to you, how it speaks to you.
    - a. When you touch it, smell it, listen to it, taste it, take it into your body, or just gaze at it.
    - b. Notice the signs of these elements as they speak to you- begin a conscious relationship with them.
2. Use the Elementals to establish the Sacred Space of your altar
  - Dowse and determine which elements are needed to create the altering altar:
    - Water
    - Earth
    - Fire
    - Air
    - Metal
    - Wood
    - Space

4.Establish Your Team - Anchor your Altar

- Any people you have brought with you will be there to make a contribution. If they are turned into planetary healing it is best to encourage them to say and do whatever they feel moved to during the session- But if they are new to all this or unaware of their own intuitive awareness or abilities you might want to encourage them to listen to their inner voice and act on it's instructions or suggestions.
- Call in unseen beings to support your work.
- Fairies, Elves, Leprechauns, Angelic Beings (AA Michael), Nature Spirits, Land Entities, Devas
