SISTER

PRINCE

SISTER

Once upon a time, there was a girl named Cinderella, who lived with her stepmother and stepsisters.

Cinderella was a good girl and she worked hard all day to take care of her family, but they were mean and never thanked Cinderella for all she did.

Poor little Cinderella cooked and cleaned all day and made her bed on the dirty floor of the kitchen. Before going to sleep, she always prayed for a happy life in future.

One day, the Prince invited the whole town to a royal ball at his palace where he was supposed to choose his wife.

Both the sisters wanted to marry the Prince. They quarreled with each other about whom the Prince would choose. The mean sisters agreed on one thing, that the Prince would never invite Cinderella to the ball since she wore such dirty clothes.

On the day of the ball, Cinderella kept running around, trying to help the girls get ready.

"Bring my necklace,"
"Where are my shoes?,"
"Mend my dress,"
the sisters kept shouting.

At last, the sisters got ready and left for the ball.

Cinderella sat down alone and sad. She wished to go to the ball.

Suddenly, a fairy appeared and waved her wand.

Cinderella's old clothes turned into a beautiful ball gown.

She granted Cinderella's wish to go to the ball.

With her magic, the fairy turned six mice into beautiful white horses and transformed a pumpkin into a carriage.

Cinderella was all set to go to the ball. But, before she left, the fairy warned her to leave the ball before midnight.

At the ball, the Prince danced with Cinderella all night. He was madly in love with her. Then, the clock began to chime and Cinderella realized it was going to strike twelve and the magic spell would wear off. ⑦

She ran out of the ball and lost one of her sparkly glass shoes while running down the steps. The Prince ran behind her. He picked up the shoe and decided to find Cinderella and marry her.

The Prince searched every house in his kingdom to find the girl who owned the shoe.

The sisters were excited to try it on, but obviously, it did not fit.

Cinderella was shy in offering her foot,
but the shoe fit her perfectly.

"I have found you!,"
the Prince exclaimed in delight and asked Cinderella to marry him.
